Corrine Andros(June 20)

An Angel Took My Heart Away

An angel took my heart away,
And became the devil as he flew away,
He never came back,
Never even took the time to pack.

So in my prayers I ask God to say hello,
Because I know,
He'll come back if he needs me,
And I'll tell him exactly why he should let me be.
Because that angel stole my heart away,
And became the devil as he flew away.

Can You Not See

why can you not see the way he is, he cares so much,
and nothing is his,
he'd give his life for you, and you want to walk away, how could you do this to him, why won't you stay.

Docs High Noon Angelle

Tears role down my face
As I wonder of your grace And the beauty that you are Beneath our Northern Stars

Without you
I don't know what to do I'm lost in city lights Blinded by all the sights

I didn't realize what I had And to know it now will drive me mad Because I love you, My dear And I wish every second that you were near

Your heart is tied to mine Because of that I will be fine

Even now
You make my fight worth while My love, it's all that makes me smile

I'll never stop seeing you in my dreams You're all I have Or so it seems

As my best friend
I'll love you far beyond our Earthly end

So under neath our Northern sky
He we stand until we die Together, always, in my heart
My love
We will never truly be apart.

This poem was actually driven from the passion I have for my horse. Growing up together, has made my friendship with her much stronger than any human friendship I could ever possibly have.

Fall

As the season begins to roll in,
And the leaves fall like sin,
My mind begins to struggle to focus,
And most of my thoughts seem to be bogus,
I hate the winter, this, everyone knows,
When my scattered mind can't grow, Writer's block comes upon me like the falling leaves, Oh, but my friendly smile does deceive,
Those who know me can not tell,
That the change to winter puts me through hell,
As I'm forced to shed my summer clothes,
And put away the sprinkler hose.

Far Away

There's nothing in this world that can make me feel alright, that can make me feel o'k, when you are so very far away.

Flawless Anger

he knows shes angry with him, but he can not be angry with her, she is beautiful,
and even when in anger, she still remains flawless, a beauty no less,
and no more than an angel, so perfect,
and passionate,
he can not be angry with her, even if her anger rises with no reason, because he loves her,
and he knows she loves him anyways, he promised to love her forever, he had no reason for that,
and yet he had every reason, she is his reason,
for love,
and he knows with him, she will make it last,
for even when in anger, her beauty is flawless, on the inside and out.

Forgiven

Her hooves sound
Upon the ground
Her trot even and right Her saddle tight

And the girl upon her back will never own her For the girl upon her back, is her best friend, her partener
She will never be owned or held unless she chooses
And if she decides not, the girl will be the one who loses

She will always be free
And there will never be a thing about her that isn't pretty Even when she's old and gray
The fire with in her will never go away
She will never fight
She will always flight
For respect and fear lay inside her
Forever

Man has so much power
He can take anything from her
But when he takes everything
He is the only one to lose anything

For when man loses horse
He loses friendship with force Even then, if he tried, she would forgive him Can man truly be so very dim?

He Said

he said he loves me, i said i love you, but he said we could never be,
i said what shall i do, he said to move on,
i said i don't want to, he said to let all my love be gone, i said i want to be with you,
he said he'll miss me, i said don't leave,
he said let it be,
i said i will grieve,
he said goodbye,
i said do not lie,
he said i'm not,
i said it is not a good bye, he said what a thought, i said it was a lie,
he said nothing,
i said bye,
and he walked away,
that was all i had to say.

Here I Am

These tears fall because of you,
And all of the wretched things you tend to do, Everything you do you keep on smiling like an angel,
But I'm scared for your life,
Because you are creating a terrible strife.

Here I am mom,
And there you go,
Leaving me again,
So cold and lost in a deep snow,
But you'll come back for me won't you mom, Because you're too scared you'll get your toy put in a new home,
But I know you hate me,
This is true,
But things won't change,
So I've got to push and fight through.

I still love you mom,
Please come get me,
Bring me home.

Moments Like This

have you ever had a moment, when it feels like nothing else exists, when it feels as if the world could crash, but you are lifted up with one single kiss, when all you can feel is his heartbeat, and all you can see are his eyes, he makes you believe you are worth while, he makes your temperature rise, when you know that you are loved, and nothing matters more than to feel his kiss,
have you ever had a moment, when it was a moment just like this.

Nothing

When I see him standing there,
My heart is overwhelmed with delight,
To see his shining face once more,
Brings my thoughts to a new height.

I missed you while you were gone,
And you have come back broken,
But I'll heal the pain,
If it drives me insane,
Because your love is an irreplaceable token.

When you left I thought you'd never come back, Gone overseas to fight some war in Iraq,
And I miss you more than anything while you were gone,
But I held my spirit,
And I held my hope,
It wasn't for me to sit and mope,
Because I knew you'd need me when you came back,
Here I am,
Loving you more than ever,
And beginning to help you unpack,
Forever.

State Of Depression

And suddenly a depression, of which I thought was long gone, Seems to come down on me again, and it weighs a ton,
Life has become something unimaginable,
And forever a thing untallable, Loss is something like an everyday meal,
Just taking it in a trying to figure out if it's real,
Saying goodbye has become like sleeping, Endless, and deepening.

The Disease

I can feel myself becomming weak,
As my heart fails,
My voice is not loud, but finally meek,
As my train of thought unrails.
My family crys beside my bed,
But my father just stairs,
The ache I now feel in my head,
Is made worse when I think about losing all my hairs,
The pain inside is really swelling,
As I watch myself die,
And the doctor says there's no way of telling,
When I will see heaven's sky.
While I lay here unmoving,
I see my mother's eyes, They're so hurt, but so loving,
Clouded by the white lies.
They try to tell me that I'll live,
My brother's life,
He said he'd give,
But this I know is the end of my strife,
No matter what they say,
'Cause as I lay here dying,
I think of everyday,
And I just keep on smiling,
When the pain lets me,
I know where I'm going,
Please, let me be.

When You Smile

When you smile,
You ease my pain,
When you hold me,
There's a true burning flame between us.

In our hearts,
There is everything,
And when I look into your eyes,
There's something else,
So beautiful,
So luxurious,
And I am submitted to a cash box for unmistakable treasures,
It is all because of you,
All because you loved me.

I don't need money,
I don't need anything,
But time,
Time enough to tell you how much I love you,
And this time extends into forever,
To a new dawn,
Time to grow together,
To laugh and cherish each other,
Contemplate everything,
And love all,
Because you are my all,
And you are my everything.

With You

You walked to me from accross the room, and as you did,
all I could think is...
'he's perfect, for me.'

I smile at the thought of you.
Theres nothing better, nothing so amazing, It's so true.
I love you nearly more than it seems the world can allow.
But I can't stop.
I won't stop, this, to you, I vow.
Forever is a word I seldom use,
But when it comes to you, Theres no way my feelings could be submitted to abuse.
Amazing can not describe,
The way you make me feel,
I just get this vibe...
There is no way I will ever be alone again,
And with you, or without you, so long as I'm yours,
I could never think of any other men.

They say true love can't be described...
I say, heart tearing, gut wrenching, imperfect, perfection, calming, straining, giving, painful, hateful, loving, confusing, once in a life time, love. And I love it.
