Nothing Is Always Something

Nothing is always something because something is always something or nothing

thats because when you sa nothing is wrong
something is always wrong althrough you wont say so but sometimes when you are mad about something
it really means nothing when you think about it

Trying

Trying does not always mean succeeding although success does come to some in sweet rewards

Who Am I?

Am I smart or am I dumb?
Am I pretty or am I ugly?
Do I like coke? Pepsi?
Am I a tomboy? Am I girly?
Do I like this or that?
Do I like here or there?
Do I like up or down?
Do I like left or right?

Who am I?
what a strange fight!
a fight between the wits
I wonder who will win
this one or that?
that one or this one?
it doesn't matter which one as long as it's a good one I really wish this fight were done soon enough I'll see who's won
