Dani Eblein(August 30th,1989)

I am just a young woman with a lot of ambitions involving writing poems, short stories, and music lyrics. I have one poem published. I work in the Navy so any time I have to myself is spent writing.

Clouds And Paths

My head is clouded
While a storm
Rages in my heart
When will I see you again?
A question along for the ride
A journey down a path
One less traveled
Will it lead me back to you?
A storm overhead
I may get soaked
The thoughts of you
They will be my umbrella.
My memories
All that I have of you
Will bring my sunshine
My glow of warmth.
My comfort resides in you
As does my happiness
New question
Is it the same for you?
I can no longer sustain
This question that burns
In my heart and mind
Why do I need you so?
You who are you
And no one else
Always and forever
To clear my clouds and paths.
