I was first interested in poem writing in the 6th grade. I enjoy writing poems about death and other stuff. I was born in Crown point, Indiana. I live in a classified area. I enjoy different things.

My Emo Poem

I'll paint you a picture
I'll paint it with a twist
I'll paint it with a razor
I'll paint it on my wrist

Now my arms are blooded
So blooded and torn
Those are broken feelings
Drippin on the floor

Then one day I'll have had enough
But then theres on more twist
On that day I'll love to say
The picture won't be on my wrist

But on my throat
Perhaps of a boat
So I can sail away
It'll be bright red and dripping wet
Oh that'll be the day

All these things I've told you
Are my lifes little fixtures
But here upon my blooded wrist
I've painted you a picture.
