Poetry is language of the soul. It communicates your deepest and innermost emotions and feelings. Things that you want to say that cannot be expressed thru the spoken words comes out when you sit with a pen in the hands. The truth that you want to let out comes out. Love is the strongest of all emotions and sometimes feelings of love cannot be expressed openly either because you don't know how to say it or because the things you want to say never reaches the ears of your loved one. Again instead of holding all those emotions inside; we have to let it out and release it - thru poetry.

My poetry dedicated to A.S.K

An Angel In Disguise

In a crowded room I first felt that touch.
The power in that touch was way too much
That I thought the world stood still for a moment.
As I felt you close to me for the first time.
I couldn't see all the people around me.
As my eyes saw only you and you alone.
I couldn't hear all the screaming around me.
My ears heard only your rhythmic breathing;
For I was holding an angel in my arms.
When you touched me all so gently;
I could feel peace and calmness engulf me.
When you kissed me all so tenderly;
I saw beyond the moon and the stars.
Did you know you glowed when you smiled?
You chased away all the sadness with that radiance.
Why didn't you tell me you were an angel in disguise?
Who had come to show me just how strong love could be.
You wake up the sleeping emotions in me.
You gave me hope to believe that love does exist,
When I had given up hope of ever finding it
You taught me to dream and dream without any limits.
You made me feel I could be myself without any fear.
You made me believe I could fly for you gave me wings.
Why didn't I realise this was a dream too good to be true.
And that you were an angel with invisible wings.
And I was trying to keep you here all to myself.
I thought you will be there beside forever.
I didn't realise you couldn't stay and that you had to leave.
If I knew, I wouldn't have given you my heart.
You taught me to love, but now you have taken it away.
Because as you leave, you take my heart with you.
Will you ever pass my way again, sweet angel?
Will you ever come back to give my heart back?
Will you come back to stay forever and never leave?
As I look at the sky and watch the radiant moon this night.
A tear dropp trickles down my forlorn face.
As I realise life will never be the same again.
For I have been touched by an angel.
And that angel is you.

Close My Eyes And You Are Near

Never felt this way about anyone before.
Never knew I had so much love to give.
Can't imagine how much you, I love and adore.
All my life with you I wanted to live.

Now that you have slipped out of my hand.
I realise how much you had meant to me.
You were much more than my soul mate and best friend.
You were the blood in my veins and the air I breathe.

Even though you far are from my reach.
And you may have been ripped out of my life.
Even though there are lessons life's trying to teach.
And each moment feels like a thousand stabbing knife.

Even though I can no longer see you again.
And not hear your voice as often as I did.
Even though I may not hold you in my arms again.
And kiss you and hug you as i did.

I know every moment I had with you is fresh in my mind.
Close my eyes and there you are near, so near.
I don't have to go far and nothing hard to find.
Close my eyes and listen, your voice i can readily hear.

When I am feeling low and sad.
I take a moment to read all what to me you wrote.
And it gives my heart a reason to be glad.
Thinking of the time we to each other did devote.

I close my eyes when you I terribly miss.
And there you are, looking at me with a smile.
And I just felt on my face, you giving a kiss.
Oh, for the real one I would come running a thousand mile.

You have given me so much to remember.
You live so freely in my soul and heart.
With you in love I will be forever.
Will always cherish the life with you I hoped to start.

Easy To Pretend

After all what we said to each other
After all what we did together.
We pretend nothing happened between us.
It's easy to pretend everything is alright.
Easy to pretend love never existed.
If you had to betray me
You, I will never blame
If you had to deny your love
You, I will never question.
Because I know why you had to say so
And my love for you will never change.

It's easy to pretend that it doesn't hurt.
It's easy to put my best smile forward.
And show I have no pain.
Only I know how much it takes to hide;
The moments my eye sheds rain.
Dreams of having you by my side;
I know have been in vain.
Everyday I die a little more inside.
Knowing I may never hold you again.

It's easy to pretend and act like strangers.
And not say a single word or talk.
It's easy to pretend I don't want to know
What you doing right now.
Trying to pretend I don't care.
When all I can think of is the hours
And hours I spend talking to you.
Listening to every single word you said.
Hoping your voice will ring in my ears forever.

It's easy for you to ask me not to love you.
It's easy for you to ask me to sacrifice my feelings.
It's easy to pretend you have fallen out of love.
Though it's easy to pretend
Deep down you will always be the one I want.
Given you all the love I had
I can never fall in love again.

But with you I can fall in love a million times.
You will be the one I want to love.

It's easy to pretend, how long can I fool myself? ? ?

Every Time You Feeling Low

Every time you feeling low
Think of all the times you made me smile
By just walking past me.
I hope that brings a smile to your face.

Every time you cry.
Remember how you wiped my tears
And kissed them away.
I hope you know I will do the same for you.

Every time you feel alone.
Remember all the times you promised
You will there beside me thick or thin.
I hope you know I want to be with you forever.

Every time you feeling lost
Remember all the times how you lifted me up
And gave me the courage to face another day.
I hope you know I want to do the same for you.

Every time you feel the future is uncertain.
Remember all the dreams we built together.
Dreams of us together, strong as one.
I hope you know we can make that come true.

Every time you feel lost for love
Remember there is someone who will die for your love
I love you more each passing moment.
I hope you know I love you more than what words can say.

How Do I Move On? How Can I Forget?

Am sitting here pondering on what you asked me.
You hope that I can move on, how possible can that be?
I am not sure if that ever registered in my mind.
Maybe it is because to me love is one of kind.
I gave up everything that I held dear in life.
To be with you and make you a part of my life.
How do I say there is nothing to move on to?
There is no other place my heart will ever go.
I wonder how we can take things so lightly.
How can we forget everything so quickly?
I admit what we did was totally wrong.
But we shared a bond that is very strong.
Mind, soul and body we had become one.
Now to me that was not a matter of fun.
It was bond I shared out of pure love.
For in your eyes I saw my truelove.
It's something I see as sacred above all.
A matter in my eyes which is never too small.
I can never share this with another woman again.
For to you faithful I will always remain.
That was a promise I made to you and myself.
For what I shared with you was special in itself.
Now forever; of my soul you will be a part.
I can swear that with hands on my heart.

I wonder sometimes how you can ever ask me
To move on and just forget you.
Leads me to believe how little you think of yourselves
And how little you think others can think of you.
If I can forget and throw you away like a leaf.
How insignificant you should have been to me.
Is that what you think you meant to me?
And this is something you may never understand about me.
You never understand when I say you mean the world to me.
You don't realise I can love you like that.
Its shame you always thought like that.
How can I forget when it's with you I felt true love?
You taught me what love is and what it could be
It's in your embraces I felt the true meaning of being one.

Didn't you ever wish you could have someone's undivided love?
Didn't you ever wish someone love you more than his own soul?
Didn't you ever wish someone will fight to win you till he dies?
Didn't you ever wish you could experience true love for once?
I stand here loving you totally and honestly just like that.
Yet being blind to love, you are hoping that I move on.
How can you ask me to move on?
When you know how much you mean to me.
How can you leave me behind on my on?
When you know I will always be true to you.

How Much More Should I Love You?

How much more should I love you?
To prove to you what my love means
How much more can I love you?
Before you believe what to me you mean

Close to my heart is where I always held you.
Deep in my soul is where I kept you safe.
In the palm of my hands is how I carried you.
As the apple of my eye is how cared for you.

Like my queen is how I treated you.
Like an angel from up above is how behold you.
Like a precious gem is how I treasured you.
Like dear life itself is how I hang on to you

My love for you is deeper than all the oceans put together
My love for you is higher than the entire mountains put together.
My love for you is wider than all the skies held together.
My love for you is stronger than all the iron rods joined together

I need you like the trees need the sun
I miss you like the deserts miss the rain.
I thirst for you like the dry tongue thirsts for water
I love you like Romeo loved Juliet.

How much more should I love you?
Before you fall in love with me again.

Danny D

I Don'T Still Love You. Do I?

I am trying to believe that love does not exist.
Hence for your love I wouldn't persist.
And at the thought of you my heart won't melt.
And believe it was a lie, the love for you that I felt.

How do I turn my love for you into hate?
And blame everything on my ill fate.
How do I ignore and shut out all that I feel
And shy away from the truth that I got to deal.

Everything you felt about me you say was a lie.
And I for each of those moments was ready to die.
Why did I give you the love that you didn't deserve?
The love that I kept safe and for so long did preserve.

If love is not real then what is this that I feel.
A feeling so strong, stronger than steel.
I am trying to bind and hide this feeling inside.
For it's something I can no longer show it outside.

If love is nothing but a silly ugly mind game
Then why does my heart leap at the sound of your name?
Why at the sight of your picture do my eyes still glitter?
When to me you have been nothing but so bitter.

Every moment we shared; my heart with gladness you did fill.
Now the very thought of me, me you want to kill.
Words of hatred and spite you uttered had cut me so deep
Yet I am thinking of you when I close my eyes and go to sleep.

If love is just a phase why do I keep mumbling your name?
I can feel the passion inside like a never ending flame.
You are the soul and essence of every song that I write.
Every love song I hear to you I wish I could recite.

I hope this song that I write you will never read
Don't want you to know that you I still so dearly need.
Don't want you to know I carry you in my heart like a secret treasure.
My love for you was never a phase, never a lie, it was pure, I am sure.

I Found Myself Thru You

All these years it felt like I was crawled up in my shell.
Seemed like I was hiding in the corner of a dark room;
It felt like I was missing something in myself.
But then you came along and stretched your hands;
You pulled me up from the pit I thought I had fallen.
You made me feel I was worth something more.
You made me believe I was capable of a lot more.
You broke the chains that bound me all this time.
You unleashed the romance that was hidden in me.
You helped me find myself, thru you I found myself.
I realized that it's you who complete me.
Every time I lose you, I realize I lose myself.
And every time I find you, I find myself again.
How can I not love you like my soul when you are my soul?
How can I not love you forever when you are my life?
With you love had a new meaning, the true meaning.
I think I have made you feel the same way too.
I think with me you realized you are worth something more.
I think you now realize you do mean the world to someone.
I think you know I love you beyond measure.
But I also realize you are scared to let yourself go.
It's feels like you don't want to see the truth
I wish you listen to your heart and not fear.
I realize you don't want to give me hope
I wish I could give you strength like you have given me
I wish you gave love a chance and not shy away.
I wish I could say something which made you trust me
I wish I won't lose you forever babe
Losing you is like losing myself, for you are a part of me.

I Promise I'll Only Give And Never Take

Sometimes I am scared to talk or ask.
For you might take away what I already have.
And never speak to me again.
Sometimes there are things I want to say.
But you may take it the wrong way.
And never let me see you again.
But I find courage thru this song
To tell you what I have been feeling strong.
From the moment I first held you in my arms.
I loved you with all my heart.
From the moment I first said I loved you.
I meant it with all my heart.
I wish you knew what being in love meant;
The way I meant it to be.
I wish you knew what true love feels like.
The way I felt it about you.
I wish you knew this before you said you loved me.
If you didn't, you I don't blame.
If you did and if you trying to bury it;
I don't blame you for that either.
But I want you to see it thru my eyes.
And understand why it's so very hard.
You were my first love and my true love.
I promised you my unconditional love.
I promised with you I will never fall out of love.
I promised I will love you till I die.
I promised I will never give up on you
This I had promised to my true love – you
I promised this to my soul – you
And now I hope you know why I can never go back.
Didn't you ever believe in everlasting love.
Didn't you think someone could love you like that.
Didn't you think you were worth to be loved like that.
Didn't you ever realise I was loving you like that.
But today as you try to break free and fly free.
I promise you I won't try to hold you back.
With tears in my eyes I am letting you go.
It's symbol of sacrifice and faith in my love.
When you have done what you have to do

When you have gone where you have to go.
I will be waiting right here just for you.
Even when you are grey and old
And when you can't walk or talk
If you call for me I will be there by your side.
That's what true love is for me.
But today I ask you please don't go away.
Please don't push me away.
Please don't run away.
This is the only thing to you that I pray.
Be a part of my life as I want to be part of yours
I promise you I won't misbehave.
I promise my love for you will remain concealed.
Safe and hidden in my heart.
Be in my sight, be my best friend.
I promise I won't ask for more.
My love for you is pure.
Of that I am very sure.
I promise you I will give you all my love.
It will be like a never ending well
From where you can draw and draw.
I am sorry that I love you.
I promise you it will stop when I am dead and gone.
Until then let me do what I do best.
That's giving you all my love.
And I promise I will only give and give.
Never try to take or ask for yours.
Until you find it in your heart to love me again

I Want To Tell You That I Miss You

I am so scared to close my eyes.
For all I see is your eyes
Staring intently back at me.
Your face is all what I want to see.
I wish I could let you know
That I miss you so much right now.
To my pain you will never heed.
This song that I write you will never read.
I yearn all day to hear your voice.
Just want to hear you say hello once or twice.
To call you many a times I have picked the phone.
But remembered you asking me to leave you alone.
To just feel your touch does my soul long.
The power of your touch on my face was so strong.
That I felt you could heal my pain and sorrow,
For you touch my heart will forever follow.
To see you my heart is restless.
Everywhere I go for you my eyes search tireless.
Hope to see a glimpse or even a shadow.
If not today I keep the hope of seeing you tomorrow.
Every chance I get I drive past your home at night.
Sometimes all I see is the dim bedroom light.
I drive away knowing you were somewhere there so close.
I wish I hadn't taken my eyes off you when I had you close.
I long to be with you so much my dear
I love you is what I want to whisper into your ear.
I love you more than my soul and that I want you to know.
Please tell me this you know and my love away you will not throw.

I Would (If You Were Mine)

If you would be mine.
I wouldn't have enough words to say
All the things I want to say
If I could have you by my side.
I wouldn't have enough time
To do all the things I want to do
If you would be mine.

If you would be mine
I would love you dearly more than you can imagine.
And let you know that I won't
Share my love with anyone but you.

If you would be mine
I would hold you in my arms
Close to my heart as if you are my soul
And let you know that my every heart beat is meant for you.

If you would be mine.
I would take you to a moonlit beach.
Show you all the stars in the sky above.
And say how I wished on every one of them that you would be mine.

If you would be mine.
I would do anything for you
From climbing the highest mountain
To swimming the deepest sea, at least I will try (You know I can't swim)

If you would be mine
I would sit by your side at your feet
And listen to every word you will ever say.
Till your words and voice be printed on the walls of my heart.

If you would be mine
I will always try
To see that you never cry.
All you pain and fear I will carry.

If you would be mine

I will be your truest friend
Share all your ups and downs
Cry and laugh with you whenever you do.

If you would be mine.
I promise I will be there by your side.
Forever, every single day the rest of our lives
With all my love just for you.

In My Eyes You Always Perfect

The first time I saw you
I thought you were perfect.
You were like the forbidden treasure,
So precious and perfect.
That I buried my feeling deep in my heart.
In my heart you remained perfect
Everyone said you were a man hunter
But I thought you were perfect.
They said you were a heart breaker.
In my eye you were perfect.
You said with me you were in love.
It just felt perfect.
You were like the angel from up above.
You were just perfect.
They said you just lie and have no emotions.
To me you were perfect.
Your love for me might have been just mere words.
But the words were just perfect.
Yours kisses may have been the kisses of death.
But it was just perfect.
Your smiles were so deceptive.
But they were just perfect.
You looked into my eyes with innocence too good to be true.
But it felt just perfect.
Yours embraces stole my heart forever.
And they were perfect.
You took my heart to crush and torture.
But pain felt was just perfect.
You led me like a lamb to the slaughter house.
My trust in you was perfect.
For your love I may have sold my soul.
But it felt perfect.
In my eyes you will always be perfect.
Because my love for you is perfect.

Letting Go Is Hard

I know I said I don't care anymore
And don't love you like I did before.
My heart was filled with hurt and pain
Didn't want you to put me thru it again.

I wanted to get you out of my mind.
To start hating you; reasons I had to find
Reasons which I forced myself to believe;
And with which my heart I could deceive.

I sat down and wrote the things I must say.
Not what my heart felt but I said it anyway
I said things I should never have said.
Very high is the price for that I paid.

I am sorry is what to you I want to say
It still won't change what you think anyway
Why is it so hard for me to let go
Why wouldn't my heart just say no

Will it matter if I said you I so sorely miss?
And will do anything for one more little kiss.
I wish I knew how you changed so fast.
And why I still can't let go of our past.

How is that your love has changed to hatred
The love that we swore was true and sacred
I am hoping time will dry away my tears.
But what if I still love you for a thousand years.

I wish I knew what do and where to start
So that you are no longer a part of my heart.
Giving up on you is what you want me to do.
That will mean my faith in love will be through.

Wish I could somehow win you back.
For your love is what my soul still lack.
Even though I said I don't want you anyway near
I am still in love with you so deeply my dear

Something in your eyes captured my heart
And now forever of my soul you will be a part.
Love you more than you probably ever know
And I will never know why you hate me so,

Baby, what you looking for I hope you do find
What I looked for all these years I finally did find
But now I have to stand back and watch you leave.
And forever of this loss my heart will grieve.

I wish with you I could have one last dance
And I could fall into a never awakening trance.
I wish you took a small tiny chance on me
And see how life could turn out to be

But then I might be asking too much
For you don't believe in love as such.
My heart can never let go of you.
Becos my love for you has always been true.

Keeping the sweet memories of you inside.
My love for you will be never be spoken outside.
You will always have my love baby.
Becos my heart won't give up loving you.

Love Notes Sealed With Your Kiss

Sitting in the silence I am thinking of you.
Going thru the things you left behind and gave me.
I come across the love notes you wrote to me.
They were sealed with your kisses.
The red lip marks still so clear on all of them.
Looking closer I can see the wrinkles
And lines of you lip as if you are at the other end.
You wrote those notes for my birthday.
It was my first birthday together with you.
But you were not near.
When I read those notes then; I didn't miss you.
For you had made sure I don't
Because you left those love notes for me.
With a message true from your heart.
You had written that even if you are not near
I was there in your heart as you were in mine
And that you were thinking of me
The very moment I was reading that note.
And I knew you were thinking of me.
I didn't miss you because I could feel you with me.
But today as I read those notes again.
I miss you and I terribly do.
Your note says you are thinking of me
But I don't think that's true
And that's why I am missing you.
Staring at those lip marks I start to see your face.
I wish I could just look into your eyes.
And tell you how much I miss you.
But your love notes is all I have.

Loving You From The Sidelines

For so long I have loved you secretly,
Been in love with you all these years so madly.
And you never even realised how about you I felt.
My love for you was so strong and heartfelt.
But all I could do was watch you from a distance
Standing in the sidelines I admired your elegance
Without your knowledge you I always adored.
Hiding everything inside is how you I deeply loved.
But now you know how about you I feel
Every part of me wants to scream of this love that I feel.
Every part of me wants to tell you how much you I love.
Every inch of me wants to hold you tight for you the gift from up above.

My eyes long to see you every minute of the day.
Everything else around me just fades away
When you are in the picture and my sight.
I could sit and watch you all day for you are such a delight.
My ears long to hear your voice everyday
Every other sound just seems to drown away;
When I hear your voice and every word you say.
I want to memorise so they ring in my ears everyday.
Every part of my body longs to just feel your touch
All of my senses stand still and focus on that one spot
When your hands touch me by chance.
And I wish your fingerprint never leave my skin.

My heart trembles and writhes in pain
Knowing that you don't care or love me at all.
Every part of me shudders and breaks down.
Every time I watch you walk away from my presence.
My eyes hold back every dropp of tears.
Every time I look into your eyes and realise;
That I don't mean anything to you anymore.
I can feel my strength fade away like a candle.
As you push me further and further away from you.
My heart has been ripped apart so many times
Knowing that you have pushed me to the sidelines
And others take up all your time and thought.

Loving you from the sidelines is painful, my baby.
But you will never see the pain on my face
You will never see the tears in my eyes.
I promise you will only see the brave smile.
As I try to push through each day loving you secretly.
Every moment you speak to me I see it as a privilege.
Every moment I get to see your face I see it as a gift
For I don't know what tomorrow holds.
For you may never speak to me ever again.
A day is never complete without hearing your voice.
A silent prayer of thanks is what I say to the God above
After every precious moment I get with you.

Loving you from the sidelines is not what I want to do.
But then if that's all what you will give me.
Then that's what I will take.
Isn't that what I signed up for;
When I promised to love you unconditionally?
Didn't realise the pain would be so unbearable.
But I would gladly go thru any pain for you.
I wish you wouldn't be so cruel and keep me in the sideline forever.
I am no casanova or a superstar.
I am no hero or a macho man.
But you know I love you more than anyone ever.
I hope in the power and miracle of love to bring you back to me.

My Hands Reached For You Unknowingly

When I walked into the building;
I didn't think I will get to see you
While I was driving up there;
I didn't think I will get a chance to see you.
But in the morning when I dressed up;
I unknowingly put on the shirt you liked most.
Unknowingly I hoped and prayed I see you.
And then when I reached there.
My eyes kept searching for you;
Even though I didn't think I will see you.
But like someone read my heart deepest desires
As if a higher force was pulling the strings.
You walked in late and walked into me.
I didn't think you will look at me
I thought you will walk past me
And pretend you don't even know me.
But you spotted me straightaway.
Even while talking to somebody else
Your eyes searched for mine and you smiled.
You came close, stood near and at me you looked.
You did much more than just look.
You gazed; gazed deep into my eyes.
I felt you could see the pain living in my eyes.
You looked again into my eyes deeper.
I knew that you knew the hurt and pain;
Of us being ripped apart so brutally.
My hands reached for you unknowingly.
My heart must have longed to touch you so badly.
I don't know why and I will never ask why
For you didn't hold your hands back
Instead you slowly stretched it to me.
Maybe you knew how much I wanted it.
Maybe a part of you still belonged to me.
Maybe your soul heard the silent cries of my soul.
And couldn't bear to hold back.
Maybe a part of us unknowingly remembered
The love we had for each other.
Whatever it might be;
Into my hands you laid yours.

And it felt like heaven once again.
I wished I held it tight and never let go.
I wished you stayed and never leave.
But then you drew your hands and walked away.
I watched while every part of me was breaking down.
But to you I wanted to say thanks;
For showing me compassion and not spite.
For not turning your face away.
And I wanted to say, I love you and always will.

Reflection In The Rearview Mirror

Ten seconds in rear-view mirror is all I get.
To see your lovely face so that I don't forget
How graceful you always looked and once again.
But your reflection was the best I could bargain.

A part of me wanted to just drive away.
So that I don't get in your way.
A part of me wanted to stay.
And "look my way" is what I did pray.

But your eyes strayed and didn't look straight.
As I tried to look into you eyes under the clear daylight.
I always wish that you somehow pass my way.
I guess today was my lucky day.

The First Time We Touched

Can you remember the first time we touched?
Can you remember my heart pounding on your chest?
As we danced through that night.
Can you remember how we wished that night would never end?

Can you remember how we wanted each other to make that first move?
We sat at that table for so long pretending to be just friends.
Do you remember how you tried to look at me and talk to me that night?
And I was not sure what to say because I didn't know where to begin.

Can you remember how much courage it took that day?
To look into each other's eyes in a whole new way.
Do you remember how much we struggled inside?
To say out all those feelings we had for each other.

Do you remember the first trip to our park?
You held on to me as we walked up that hill.
Can you remember the first time I said I get a tingle in my heart every time I see you?
You had your arms around me so tight all that night.

Do you remember how sick you were that night?
Yet we shared our first kiss under that moonlight.
Do you remember how we leaned against my car looking into each other's eye?
I had my hands on your waist and your head on my chest.

Do you remember the joy and pain we felt that night as I dropped you home.
Joy because we finally had each other and pain as we said our first goodbye.
Do you remember how I didn't want to let go of your hands.
I had my arms outstretched holding your fingers till the last one left my touch.

Do you remember how our love grew bit by bit?
All we wanted then was just one message saying we loved each other.
Can you remember how much we wanted more?
I couldn't go to bed without hearing your voice.

Can you remember how we fought about whose love was bigger?
You loved me with all your heart and I knew you loved me more.
Do you remember how afraid I was to let myself go because I feared I will lose you?

But then you promised me I will never lose you and my whole heart I gave to you.

Do you remember all the promises we made to each other.

There were one too many, yet all came from our heart because our love was strong.

Can you remember asking me to never give you up or stop loving you?

You asked with love in your eyes and I gave you my word.

Do you remember asking me to hold you tight and never let go?

I hugged you with all my strength and wished I could be one with you.

Do you remember how I kissed your tears away as you cried?

And I promised I will never make you cry when we get together.

Do you remember how we gave each other names?

I wake up in the middle of the night hearing you call my name.

Do you remember how you called out my name during your sleep?

That meant the world to me and I knew you said it from your heart.

Do you remember how much we longed to see each other?

You waited eagerly for me to return from meetings to see me.

Do you remember our cute and secret looks and moments at work?

A quick look into each others eyes without anyone seeing was all we wanted.

Do you remember how we sneaked to the top floor for a quick hug?

I was ready to risk everything to just hold you in my arms.

Do you remember how I held you from behind and caressed you?

And you said that was the best feeling ever.

Do you remember the last moments we spend with each other?

I had my head on your shoulders and fear in my eyes.

Do you remember how you said; you will always be there be my side.

And your love will never fade and we will get thru this.

Can you for a minute remember the moment when you felt I loved you the most?

Today my love for you has grown a hundred times more.

Whenever you have a fleeting thought of me; I want you to remember.

I am waiting to hear your voice; for my heart and love will always belong to you.

This Broken Heart Of Mine

This poor broken heart of mine;
Goes thru pain beyond what words can define.
Time after time you have ripped it apart
That I can't recognise if it's still my heart.
Nothings left of it to tear anymore.
The pieces so shattered that it I cannot restore.
You have torn it apart beyond belief
From this pain and torture there is no relief
So jagged are the wounds that it's beyond repair
There is none to hear its cries of despair.
Though it struggles thru every heartbeat
It still doesn't want to accept defeat.
For it still loves you with every dying beat left.
Trying hard to show the love for you it felt.
The wounds are too deep to mend
And only you and you alone can make the amend.
Every time you touch me I can feel the healing.
And I feel the pain leaving and fading
But you never stay enough to touch me longer
Instead you leave making the wounds only deeper.
You have stolen its faith in love
You have crushed its spirit and desire to live.
You considered its adoration as nothing but garbage
Yet it sees you like an angel in spite of all the damage.
Sometime I wonder if you worth all this pain.
In the end what is that I am going to gain.
Baby, I want to let you know that you are worth it all.
I wouldn't go thru this pain if you were not the one.
I wish you were an ordinary girl who believed in fairytale love.
My love would have then swept you off your feet.
I hope when you get tired of searching what you looking for; .
You will finally find that true love has always been there waiting;
In this broken heart of mine.

True Love Is One Of A Kind

True love is one of a kind.
Something you struggle within to find.
You search for it deep in your heart.
To share with the one you never want to be apart.
Like the flower that blooms only once and never again.
Its beauty and fragrance is too hard to explain;
You feel it only once and you will know it at once.
All you get might be just one chance.
And you just want to grab it and run.
Run to a land not seen by man or sun.
For its far too precious for you to lose.
To your heart you want to hold it close.
To keep it with your heart and soul you will fight.
You'll give up everything till then you had held tight.
To the whole world this love you would declare
With no other this love you will share.

That's how I felt when I loved you.

You knew me like no other woman ever has.
You saw a side of me no other woman ever will.
Vulnerable and weak is what I became.
For by your love I was captivated and bound.
The way you touched me,
Made me feel you knew what my soul wanted.
The way into my eye you used to look.
It felt you could read my heart like an open book.
When you hugged and held me.
I felt you taking away all my sadness and pain.
From you I couldn't keep any secrets.
For I loved you without any regrets
The words you whispered into my ears
Has become a song I hear my lonely heart silently sing.
What I saw in your eyes was my true love.
My first love, my first love is what I finally had.
No other women with you can I compare.
To me you are a gem so rare.
With you true love I did attain.
And my true love you will always remain.

Unconditional Love

From the beginning there was one thing you always asked.
That was to give you my unconditional love.
I never fully understood then what it meant.
Because I took for granted you will always be there.
But today as you walk away leaving me behind.
Having torn my heart beyond repair
And as you ask me to sacrifice my precious love for you;
I now realise I have loved you unconditionally all along.
I love you in spite of whether I see you or not.
I love you regardless you beside me or not
Just because you are not here doesn't mean you are not near.
You know that in my heart we are never apart.
You are in my air as the silence of my breathe.
My love for you is unconditional
As you are always on my mind, but will never ask you to think of me.
I think of you from night to day and day to night.
You will never know I am thinking of you every moment even right now.
My love for you is unconditional
Because you know I can love only you, whether you return my love or not.
My love for you is unconditional,
Because I will always hold on to all your promises and words;
Will remember and cherish them over and over again everyday
Even though I know they are all just broken promises.
My love for you is unconditional,
Because I will love you till the end of time.
It will withstand any test, even the test of time.
I will still be in love with you even when I am no longer a memory to you.
I will see you in all your beauty and majesty everyday
Even when I don't cross your mind for days or months.
My love for you is unconditional.
Because I will hold on to the dreams we built together even if there is no hope.
The house we hoped to buy, the place we hoped to live,
The baby girl we hoped to have, the wife I hoped you to be,
Will always be the life I hope to have, even if you have gone far away.
I don't think you will ever fully understand;
How you've touched my life and made me who I am.
I don't think you could ever know just how truly special you are;
That even on the darkest nights you are my brightest star.
I don't think you will ever fully comprehend;

How you almost made my dreams come true;
And how you've opened my heart to love and the wonders it can do.
I don't think you could ever feel all the love I have to give;
And I'm sure you'll never realize you are my will to live.
I wish you had loved me unconditionally in the same way you asked me.

When I Fell In Love With You

When I fell in love with you.
Believed those feelings were so overdue.
Everything seemed to feel just right.
Felt like everything is going to be alright.
You are no longer just a dream.
Our love was real and that out loud I can scream.
Baby, you came into my life like a ray of hope.
When I thought I was drowning, you threw me a rope.
Can't hold my feelings inside anymore
With you I feel love like I have never felt before.
You make me long to see another day.
In the hope that you will be mine one day.
With you I could fall in love over and over again.
To you faithful till the end I will remain.
Your presence brings me untold joy.
Every moment with you I totally enjoy.
A look into your eyes make me powerless and weak
And am lost for words when I speak.
A life with you is now within an arms reach.
And we will always have each other.

Wish I Knew The Right Things To Say

I wish I knew what is going through you mind
I wish there was a way that I could somehow find.
But I am not a mind reader
I wish I knew the right things to say
And I wish I could say it the right way
But I am not a good charmer.
I know you are very upset
I know how much angry you can get.
And I try not to say another word
I wish I could say to you not to worry.
I wish I could say I am really sorry.
But you wouldn't listen.
Whatever I say now seems so wrong.
Nothing I do is even worth a pity song.
But I still stand by you side.
I wish I could be there when you are low
I wish I could bring to you face a glow
But you have pushed me far away.
I want to say your burdens I will forever carry
And that tears will never again make your eyes blurry.
But I don't know how to make a way
I wish you knew that when I am low and sad
It's just the thought of you that makes me glad
It's the reason to see another day.
I wish you knew I go thru the same thing all alone.
But not once did you I blame or at you I throw a stone
For I love you more than my own soul.
I am sorry if in your eye I am a man so worse.
I wish with my heart that me you won't curse.
But it's alright if you do.
But I want to say you are my sunshine and you are moonlight.
That's the first song I sang looking into your eyes that eventful night.
You will always be so.
I wish you knew you mean the world to me
And I am searching for the right words for that to say
The right words that will touch your heart and turn it my way.

You Are My Will To Live

Sitting alone, staring at the emptiness around.
I sometime lose my will to live.
I built my life around you.
You were the focus point of my vision.
My future was founded on dreams of you.
You were the compass for my journey ahead.
You were the fuel which kept my heart burning.
You were the love of my life.
You were the essence on which my life thrived.
Now you are not there to lead me on.
What is my will to live? ?
You are my will to live.
You are alive out there, somewhere.
We breathe the same air
The air I breathe could have brushed your face
As wind before it came to me, who knows?
You are out there breathing the same air
That's my will to live.
You drive to work and come home.
We use the same roads.
As I drive through I feel your presence.
I feel as if I am following you unconsciously.
I see you to going before me.
I feel you around me.
You are my will to live.
As I go shopping for a moment I stand still.
And I realise you could have walked
Through the exact same aisles
I close my eyes and try to picture.
You could have touched and picked
That little item and left it back on the shelf.
I could have touched your fingerprints
Picking that same item; who knows?
If I did, I feel an inch closer to you.
And that's my will to live.
Every where I go, everything I see
For some strange reason
Everything reminds me of you.
The places we went together

The places we sat together.
Place we held each others
Every place where your fingertips
Rested before my eyes.
I can see it now.
Every place you walked on
That I know of
I can sense you there.
Memories of you are my will to live.
My love for you is my will to live.
You are my will to live.

You Are Safe In My Heart

Few week ago, I had it all figured out.
Had the love of my life by my side.
Our love was strong, I had no doubt
Believed you will always be beside.

Today I sit alone, staring at the blank wall.
There is emptiness all around me.
No matter how hard I cry out and call.
You are gone and loneliness is all what I can see.

You were the rhythm to the beating my lonely heart
You were the one I called my only true soul mate.
You were the one from who I never wanted to be apart.
My love and heart to you did I dedicate.

But now I look at a future without you anywhere near.
My love is lost and my soul mate gone.
Your heart is gone cold and my cries you will never hear.
In spite of all your promises, you have left me alone.

Everyday I come to work and stand before your seat.
I recollect how you turned back and at me you looked.
Every time our eyes met, I missed a heartbeat.
You knew I missed that beat and so back you smiled.

Will I ever hold you in my arms again?
Will I be able to look into your eyes and say I love you?
Will I ever be able brush the hair out your face again?
All the moments we shared, will we ever relive it again?

You know my love for you will never die.
Even though I know, you I have lost and there is no hope.
I hold on to every little single thing you have left behind.
Memories of you are carved on to the walls of my heart.

I gave you my heart for safekeeping.
You promised you locked it in your heart and threw the keys away.
But today I realise you find my love despising
And my heart you have shredded into so many pieces and thrown away.

Your love for me may have been just meaningless words.
You may have fallen out of love all so fast.
But every word I said, I meant and came from the depth of heart.
And you always be safe deep down in my heart.
You are safe in my heart, Dear

You Are The Sweetest Thing

Oh, you the sweetest thing,
I think
This big world could ever bring
For my soul.
Having seen all joy you could bring
I know
Forever to you I want to cling.

Oh, looking at the way you smile
I feel
Tremors and am left wondering all the while,
Won't I
Come running every mile
So I
Can be with you at least for a while.

Want to feel the way you touch,
So much
I believe its got the power to heal
And fetch
All the passion, happiness and such Closeness
I long to have in your touch.

The way at me you look
It seems
To read my secret feelings and took
All the loneliness
All this time I felt that shook
My life
Now that place next to you, can I book?

Someone better than you, I'll never find
Because to me
You are the best of womankind.
Right now,
Can't get you out of my mind
It feels
To you, my soul wants to bind.

To you all my love I give.
With you
All my life I want to live
Please
Don't ever say "no" and leave
Because
All my hope in you I keep alive.

Everything about you is so fine.
I just
Want to make you mine.
In my
Lonely life won't you shine
Now I just
Ask you, will you be mine?

Your Picture By My Bedside

I never thought there will come a day.
Where I have to go to sleep
Without hearing your lovely voice.
That was a promise you made to me.
I never thought there will come a day
Where I have to go to sleep
Without me telling you "I love you"
That was a promise I made to you.
But yester night I went sleep
With neither of those promises fulfilled.
But from today I want to keep my promise to you.
That's why I have a picture of you by my bedside.
You are the last thing I think before I sleep.
And I want to tell you that.
Though you are not near; for that to hear
I made sure I looked into your eyes;
Before I closed my eyes to sleep.
Your beautiful face is what I wanted to see
First thing I wake up in the morning.
Now I do with you always smiling from the bedside.
There are things that I want to say to you.
Your picture is all I have to say that to.
And it listens without getting mad at me.
I want to tell you that you mean the world to me.
And that I miss talking to you
I miss your touch and everything about you.
Why do you have to far from me?
Why do you turn blind to my love for you?
Why do you push me away and away?
Why wouldn't you give me a chance?
There are no replies as your picture doesn't talk
Yet it looks at me ever so lovingly.
Sometimes when I am feeling awfully low;
And I wish I was in a never ending sleep.
Because it's another day without you.
Another day without your touch
I wish you were near for you were my strength
But you are not here to lift me up.
Yet your picture looks at me encouragingly.

How long will your picture carry me thru?
I wish you were near and I wish you were mine.
But your picture is all I have.
