Gates Of Hell

My body's getting weak the time for to go is going near how this can be possibly happen oh, god if you are there please response to my call my body get numb
blood scatters anywhere i see the gate to hell but i refuse to go because i have a mission to complete i have friends to protect and i have my family to love more oh god why? ? ? ?

Grudge

this urge to do what is wrong, but i am strong enough to hold my grudge i will resist this, until this feelings fades i am so curious who trigger this feeling inside of me? i am so curios what is the reason inside of this grudge? but myself let me ask one thing, what is your true self? who are you in this world?
why you are holding that ring of grudge?
why you don't let that ring dissolve by it's power? you must take your step forward so you can see what is the reason beyond that grudge.

Lust Engraves Me

i struggle all the way down, why do i need to feel this?
why do i need to suffer like this?
i feel strong desire, very strong desire i don't want to know who or what is this.
this feels horrible, like the hell that burns me a lot i hate this feeling
please someone help me help to escape from this lust.
