Daron Stephens(02-23-91)

I am about 5'9' and i am african american. i have one of thos e back in the day hair stlyes. i really love to watch poetry slams. i love poetry with all my heart and soul. There could be no other substitute for it in my life. I plan to write at least 10 books before i'm 28 and have at least 1 award for one. I would love to have met Langston Hughes. As well as Countee Cullen, and Claude McKay. One of each of their poems have touched my life. Langston's poem was The Weary Blues, Countee's poem was From The Dark Tower, and Claude Mckay's poem was If We Must Die. These have changed my life and live by the ways of the lord as well now.

Tell It Like It Is

I'm a person who tells it like it is
I'm tired of holding back,
I'm going to tell you everything now
Believe me that's a fact.

See ever since I saw your face
I knew it was meant to be,
You filled my heart with grace
Now I know i have to plead my case.

Each moment that I awake
There in my thoughts you are,
My heart you make
Because you are my light, and Shining star.

Seeing your smile each day
Talking, laughing, and playing too,
You touching me in more,
Loving u more in just a physical way.

Loving each day knowing that it's with you.
You help me up, when I'm down You've changed my perspective of life,
My thoughts are filled with you and when your not around
For me I need no more strife.

Tell It Like It Iz(Song Version)

Ima tell it like it is,
Im tired of holding back
Everything i have to tell u is your biz.
And thats a fact.

Chorus: Ima tell it like it is
And i dont know how,
But ima tell it like it is
And ima tell it now.
But i do know this:
I love you
I love you
I love you gurl

See ever since i saw your face,
I knew it was meant to be,
You filled my heart with grace.
With you being with me.

Each morning that I awake,
There in my thoughts u are,
My heart you make.
Because your my light, my shining star.

Loving each day knowing its with you,
Seeing your smile fills me with love,
Tell me baby what I'm to do.
Tell me are you an angel from above.

I am gonna tell it like it is for now on,
No more holding back from anyone,
Unless in the end I'm gone...
But thats only if your heart has had enough love and my job is done.

What Could Have Been

“What Could Have Been”

I am happy when I think about what could have been
Between you and me
But we'll meet again and until then
This is how it's going to be

It's a shame because I really like you
I don't know how to show how I feel
That's why I ask God what am I to do
I guess your feelings for me weren't so real

It's just that I wanted you to well you know
I wanted you to be my girl
But that's not the way its got to go
I can't have it my way cause this ain't my world

Can't you hear what I'm trying to say
I don't really want to break away from you
But if that's what you want, than have it your way
I can't stop you from doing what you want to do

We've had our fun
Played with you and joked around
Until it was all done
And I was left all lost and down

I guess I'm a keep trying to get through
The best way I can
I will be your friend for now
But I rather be your man

I am happy when you tell me how you feel
But is it fake
Or is it real
But of this I don't know what to make

All I know indeed
Is that I want you

This is not a feeling of thoughtless greed
It's just what I do

This is... This is...

What Could Have Been!
