Heaven N Hell

I can see all the beauty and glory of heaven
I can see all the happiness in those who believe in Christ
I can see all the prosperity and blessings from heaven
I can see all those who need Christ

I can see all the pain and torment in hell
I can see all those who cry out for god to forgive them
I can see the devil laughing at those he torments
I can see all those who want family members to accept Christ and not have them go through what is happening to them

I can see people longing to fill that void in their life
I can see people trying drugs, alcohol, and many other things
I can see pain and agony in people's eyes when they try to stop an addiction
I can see the happiness in those who finally find the one and only person to fill their void
That person is JESUS CHRIST

Savior

My savior came down from heaven and gave the one thing he couldn't live without, HIS LIFE. Three days later he rose and proved his critics wrong from the very beginning. He proved time and ime again that he is my savior! Oh, how i wish you could meet him, don't be too late. Because my Savior is commimng again to get all his followers and bring them home to were they belong, HEAVEN! That is who my savior is and his name is JESUS CHRIST!
