Bullying

Its a rude awakening because we are labeling the people around us making a bigger fuss but its when the real stuff goes down then all the good ppl hit the ground they are knocked to the floor nobody can endore the pain and suffering they go through but in the end its me and you we have to change and rearrange what the world has come too and make a better world for the new.
our kids and their kids can forbid bullying out of this world and let it hurl into space as then everyone will be safe and we would have outfaced our biggest challenger if our ancestors can fight for what's right we can fight straight into the light

Death

My eyes dark as night Never putting up a fight my soul as cold as ice light as small as mice My heart as small as my life id rather be stabbed with a knife my life isn't worth living no use in forgiving my life is over done just give me the gun i will do the deed on my own i am alone no matter what you say so just go away you can't help me this is my key to be happy once more but as i think there is more in store if i die today my soul will stay In the world i call hell then i this will be my cell i will see all tortured soul all destruction planes whole so i shall put my weapon down i put it on the ground and walk away at least i can die someday free from all this misery that come to me that 1 day i will be free

Getting Back

in the start i felt like a queen in the end i didnt think he would be so mean i loved him so much but he hurt me so bad i didnt think i could get this mad my friends told me to leave but i stayed in waited bc since the first time my mind debated

i couldnt jst leave wit out my revenge i wanted my round but i think i went to far because of what the cops found a broken window nd a body beneath my "man" landed on his feet luckily for me i wasnt the bag of meat

Happy Birthday Mommy

Queen Sheleen
a working machine you are the most important thing to me you set me free you always believed that i can achieve you never hit the ground cause you held your head up high higher than the sky so high that you were really the first woman one the moon but you wrapped me in your cocoon just to keep me safe without you i would be nothing with you i am everything i have your genes you know what that means i am you from the sky of blue you came down to earth to give birth

Him

My love
he came from above he is my everything he make my soul sing i am his as he is mine our love is so divine he is my prince and he rinse all the bad from my past i think he is goin to last longer than the others and he wants to meet my mother oh he loves me for who i am and i kno this is not a scam he gave me happiness now i wanna giv him a kiss jst to feel his lips and let them take me on trips only he can take me he makes me feel free he is mine as i am his there is no funny biz i love him to death and my last breath will be for him as i swim to tha gate and wait for the date for him to join me and we both can be free but like i said he's my everything he is my wings which keeps me high up in tha sky i AM his he IS mine

J.S

Your name burns my tongue It hurts so much I rather be hung we were once together we thought it would last forever but my heart failed me once more it hit me at the core that i don't love you anymore can't you see i cant express it anymore clearly i see yo still love me so just set me free cause you are not my key so leave me be cause we are done our bells have already rung our time is done we have had our fun so its time for you to move on i have i told you this once and i will tell you again i don't love you anymore so you can shut our love door

Jst Rayy

My sista my friend my family till the end i hated you at first so much that i could burst but in the end you became my friend because we made amend i love you as my sister may no otha mister get in our way because you are my Rayy i promise you u will stay by my side i will never run and hide cuz i love you my friend our love shall last till the end you have shown me the light and it so bright because of u i am happy once more so now i know that there is more in store for you and me
you are my key you showed me my place and now i can face the world on my own but i will never be alone cause i know you will be by myside i know you dont hide from a real fight you fight to the end an u always win you are my friend

Man Of My Dreams

The man of my dreams
lies no were near the man of my dreams is something i fear something i don't want to see the man thats mine will never be kind he never sees the light of day he never hears the music of the parades he is trapped in darkness not able to get 1 kiss
is dead to me because he isn't free he was meant to stay in my dreams i am not very keen to ever see him again because he is my dark side the side i have to hide from me myself and i

i looked into his eyes i couldn't see his cry i saw a blind boy in his place it was written all over his face his eyes as gray as a rainy day you know what i think it says that i lost his love i used to be above but now i am below he used to have a beautiful glow but now his light has gone ready to rise again at dawn i hope i love my boy i love you my sweet i would give up anything for you even my heart beat

My Sista's

My sista's we are one one that is never done we fight side by side we shall never hide but you act like fools one's that are ridiculed for talking out screaming about everyday i see you the one that was never new you say you dont care but it is not fair for the rest of us who try our best to stay different from the rest we try to stay smart and strong but you know whats wrong how you yell at our teachers this looks like a double feature of how the white man potrays us we should have left that in the past these bad relationships there is no satisfactions in the way you act all of this is a fact so let the truth be told let me unfold that you can have the best grades but all that fades when your attitude comes out and you boast about like your the best better than the rest well you are a fool it isn't cool we have to suffer for your mistakes then you start to hate us for hating you shoot you can hate us with all your might but no matter what we will fight for wats right

'Real Man' Pah Leaze

you think u a man with that gun in ur hand ur kiddin me right a real man gets up an fights not with a gun or a knife an he doesnt fight with his life he fights for respect and to protect a real man doesnt do a drive bye but bc of that another niggah died i cant deal with this no mo these violence gots to go my frinn died the otha day now i have to stop nd pray that nobody else dies that way he die ova stupid stuff and u think yo life is rough well think again they werent even men they tried to put there head above the water but in tha end they still drowned they wer almost ther breathing fresh air but u still think you a real man bc u had the gun in ur hand well u ccan burn in hell you might as well since u killled a boy well enjoy life while u hav it bc u goin to hell

Valentine Day

The day of love the day that above all the rest the day thats the best Valentine's Day
a day you want to get away with the one you love now you can let out the doves guys it time to give a gift and girls give your guys a lift with a nice kiss and make it bliss so you can remember it forever then you can never forget 7th grade and how it made the best Valentines Day ever and when you look back altogether your going to remember this Day and wish you can stay on valentines day the perfect holiday the day here you lay next to your partner where it is softer then your pillow at home you drown yourself with the rhythm of their heartbeat then you tap the rhythm with your feet then your under the Valentines day spell and you know how you can tell because you start to hear your wedding bells chiming in your head as you lay on the best bed

What Tv And Media Say About Me

so many lie that i cant see
or who you think i am suppose to be a young girl who acts older than her age well let me tell you thats just a stage in a young girls life when they change the the impact will be so hard like a knife They call us ignorant and afraid well i dont care bout the names you call me so if you have something to say say it to my face dont hide behind the camera without a trace because i am the beautiful young woman i am supposed to be i was born amazing and strong nothing went wrong i speak properly not from tv i am learning everything i need to in this life i might even be good enough to be a wife so i wont let wat the media says get me down because i already hit the ground and all i can do is go up till i fill my destiny's cup
