deja allen(10/1/94)

I started writing poems after my mom died in 2009. It killed me knowing that I wouldn't have anyone to talk to when I get off the bus. I thought she would be here to see me turn 13 but she wasn't. I knew something was gonna happen that day but I just didn't listen so I went to I got home my sister said mama gone. I dropped my school bag and ran in the house.

A Mother's Daughter

we stand together
As they come with lies
They look at us with hateful sighs
Somewhere down the road we trod
With a tricycle in the sod

They try to kill us with their eyes
Yet we come back with an alib
You say hello
Then i say your not that mellow

What better way can we go
Down the road
As we listen to bidders say sold
In my heart she is bold

Beatiful

You are beatiful
You have goals Places you want to be
You want to achieve

You want to be better
You don't want to be called dumb anymore
You say you are beatiful
That is what you are

Breaking Heart

As i look through my breaking heart
I see my life is tearing apart
By the pain I have gone through There's so many things i wish i could have said but wasn't there to say it

It breaks my heart knowing that she is gone
I have no comfort
No time to sit an talk
Why did she have to

Dark As Night

Light as the sun
Dark as the moon
Who is radiant
Are you out of sight

You wish you may
You wish might Give this day a great delight
Is it bright

Is it as dark as the sun
You say you are Then you are It's your time

deja allen

Dream

You sit here
I sit there
When you dream
I beam

You say kiss
I say tell
You say hug
I say bug

When you kiss
I say i don't tell
You walkthrough through this journey and i fly

I'M Gone

Why does the sun set on me instead of on the other side
I fear of the future and what tomorrow will bring
I am full of pain
None is from shame
I ask myself everyday
Why am i here
Why did you put me in this world
Why won't you kill me
How much longer do I have to stay here
Let me go now
Just kill me
She hates me
No one loves me
I am fighting a battle that can't be won
Don't talk about me
Talk to me
Do what you want
It won't make me
Or brake me

Loving

He looks at me with loving eyes
I know he will never tell me lies
He walks with me through sleet and snow
He will never say so

I know he will never leave
He say he won't grieve
We travel the road together
I know we will be together forever

Mom

Did you have to go
You could have just said no
You left me here alone
With a heartless soul
You see the way they treat me
I am nothing more but stone
Years have passed
Nights are gone
The distance between us is very long
You came to me once
Singing a song
That night I dreamed of you
You walked up to me
As we walked beyond the sea
As I sat in my room the next night i cried myself to sleep
I said I wish you would come for me
Come and take me away
As I wait for you to come
I will lay upon your grave
I whisper to you that I would do anything just to see your face
Mom I ask of you to come to me
So we can sing of the sea

My Heart

I'd be tender
I'd be gentle and sentimental
Regarding love and art
I'd be friends with the sparrows and the boy that shoots the arrows

If only people can see me for who I am
If you can feel my pain from the sensation love
How can you be the one if you can do so much
I cry and weep
I feel so steep
Can you imagine how i feel

deja allen

My Mother Is My Friend

You said you would never leave me
You said you would hold me tight
Wherever i looked for you it seems as though you brought great delight
As i sit in my room each night with you on my mind
When really i know you miss me too
I miss the times when you said i love you
That's when i start to cry
As i see you walk into the gates of heaven
I say to myself
I am loosing someone close to me again
Then i say until we meet again my dearest friend

deja allen

Pain

Can you feel my pain
Are you hurting
Are you blushing
Do you feel the wind smoothening your mind as you think

Is it blowing you away
You wish you can drift and fly
Just to soar across the sky
Look you just breathe
Then think
Its you and me

deja allen

Sensation

What is to you

What is to it

Do you feel your blood rushing in and out of your body

It feels so warm and bright

Its plain and out of sight

You feel your heart burning of love

Its flaming and burning

You want it to stop but you can't make it

Your heart is beeping in and out in and out until boom you have fallen apart

deja allen

Spell

Summer evil
Summer kind
But all must speak their mind
You whistle and blow

You quisle threw the snow
You bnlow so slow
You shout horaay lets go
That's the spell that quisle and glow

deja allen

Uncle Koota

You smiled so bright
You played so nice
You always sang to me
But where could you be

Where's uncle dance
Where's the hug you gave and said it would be alright
Where's the kiss you blew each day
Can you imagine how i missed your laugh today

I miss the way you gave eachday
I miss your cry and me saying it will be ok where's the step on your back i geave you
For the pain you went through

deja allen

Victory

Sometimes you have to speak victory during the past
And sometimes you have to encourage yourself during the task
Sometimes you have to speak willingly
You know if you achieve then you can succeed
It's your time
So get going and get started

deja allen

Walking Stick

If I walked like I am bold or even talk like it
If i say I am no better am I a walking stick
If i cry in the hour am I the girl who cried wolf
If I talk to someone am i as sweet as sugar
Noone will know
Unless i say so Who am I

deja allen

Wild And Daring

What is wild
What is daring
Will someone ever know
You act so wild

But you are just a child
Take one step forward
You look in the bayou
Tell me what you see
Oh thats right nothing but your reflection
