There is alot thing that I wish I could but I cant but no one didnt say that i could not write it

Am I Mistake

Am I a mistake?
People look at me with hatred
And disappointment
They say I should be a shame
But I'm not
They say I should die
But I won't
Am I a mistake?
That will make bigger mistakes
Or will I do one huge mistake
That comes by accident
Or am I a sin
Am I a mistake?
That wasn't planed
That has do everything wrong
Am I really a mistake that Should have been born

Be Free

When will I be able?
To run free with My brothers and sisters
Who are not trapped with-in cages?
Like I see them running free
I wish I could be free
But a last I'm trapped with a cage
That I can break free of Why must I be here with in this small cage?
I guess that I will never find out
The reason for be place in here
Oh well that is the life I guess for being an Animal that causes havoc and mayhem and destruction
Or reeking of death
But the day will come were
I will be free

Beauty

Beauty is in the eye of the beholder

What does that mean?

Isn't beauty only skin deep

Or is it the thing that women try to Strive for

I not sure but beauty is everywhere

Beauty is an object

That is force a upon the women of today

So what does it mean to you?

Beauty is in the eye of the beholder

Birthday

Today is the day
This time for sure I'll make away
Some people might say
I have way too much fun
Of course I'm not an old nun
So why can't I have fun
It's not like I'm running
Far way
Not today
Cause it is the day of all days
The reason today is the day
Because it is my birthday

Boom

Boom

Why is that all can hear

For what reason is it

Just boom

Is it an explosion?

No

Can it be a gigantic creature?

Walking no

Then what could it be

Boom boom

Why can I hear two booms now?

Why just boom

Could it be?

No way can it be that

Simple

The reason I am hearing

Boom boom

Is because it is my heart letting

Me know that I am in

Love

What is your heart telling you?

Confuse

I am lost
Confuse
Why
I don't know
I want to be filled with excitement
And yet I want to be filled with anger
So why
Am I lost and confuse
I don't know
But get me out of here

Everyday Stress

Help me
Can someone
Free me
From the stress of Every day living
The weight is becoming Unbearable
Help me
NOW
I can feel my bones
Starting to crack and cripple
Help me! ! ! !

Fate

This maybe the end
To what we all know
The time for us is at an end
But the time for the final fight is about to happen
It seems to me that I'm a strong demon
Both sides are looking at me
But I don't want to fight
I want to live a normal life
But I can't marry a human
I did love a human but she die
So now I have to marry someone like me
But I love two
One is of the Reincarnate of Vampire
Twilight
The other is of the fox kind like me but now it up
To up fate if fight or I don't
Or if I marry my own kind or a vampire

Help Me

Help me
Someone please help
I don't know how to do this
I need help now
Why did this have to happen to me?
This transformation
Can anyone stop this?
Help me please
I beg of you help
No stay away you demon beasts or What ever you are Stay way now
No what do you mean no
Somebody Save from ME

How Many

How many children have?
Ran away from home for The miss treatment they receive
Can some body tell why no
One will listen to the children
Why must the children be afraid?
Of telling the true
Why is so hard for kid to be loved
Can someone look at a child with love?
And not hatred like so many kids in this world feel How many kids have to run away for?
Grown up to understand that the need help
How long do the missing children have to be?
Missing?
Can someone please tell me how many children lives
Do we have to take in war?
How many children have to run away?
Before we understand

How Strong

How strong can someone be?
To face inner demons
Or to face death
How strong can someone be?
To live without love
Or have and feelings
How strong can someone be?
If they have been running their Whole life
Or just for three days
How strong can someone be?
If they are not real to them self
Or to other around
How strong can someone be?
If have lived a full life
Or if they have lived a horrible life
How strong can anyone be if They found out that they will die soon

I Am Walking

I am walking
Here
There
Everywhere
I am walking
Through time
And space
I am walking
Confuse
And disorientated
I am walking
On top of the water
Now I am under water
Walking
But why am I walking

I Can See

I can see the whole
World
As a sea within an ocean
Our world is no different Than Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn
So why is it that we as human Beings
Can't we understand the simple's of things?
In life
I can see the whole
World
For how it really is A place where the rights are wrong
And the wrongs are right
Where up is down
And down is up
I can see the whole
World
As a ticking time bomb
Which is ready to explode?
With the slyest mishaps
The world will explode
Than implode
The is what I see

I Need

How is that
Me as a person can Just thrive on my feelings
Alone
There must be something that I need
In order for me to live
I can't just live off of Hatred, fear, anger, animosity
So what could it be that I need
I don't know
and I don't think that I will ever know

I'M A Beast

Why must people think
That I'm a beast
When I'm just me
Yet they will never get
A chance to see me
Because I'm trapped with in Myself
If only I could escape
But a last I cannot
So I lay here with the judgement
Of the world
And yet I still have hope
That people won't think of me
As a beast
But as human
Who lived, loved, cried, and DIED

I'M Happy

I'm happy
Because I'm in love
The woman I love is very close to me
Her skin is so illuminating
That is brighten my day
Her eyes are so alluring with one look they engage my soul
Her voice is beguile
It is so charming
Her hair so boast fully it is so plentiful I can use it as a quilt
I'm happy
Because I'm in love
The woman I'm in love with is.....

Inside Me

I feel something crawling with in me
What could it be?
I don't know what it is but I feel it
As it moves it speaks let me go
I ask it what it means
But all it says is let me go
So I sit down a upon the ground
Trying to figure out what it means
I don't know what it means
So I ask it once more what it means
It says once more let me go
So I think to myself what could it be Then it hits me like car going twenty Miles an hour
It is a demon
Trying escape but it can
The demon says it one more time
This time I didn't know what to say
So I thought of Edger Allen Poe the raven
I said never more
The demon was angry it thrashes about like it
A two year child then it says
I will get free sooner or later
So I say it again never more will you be free
You are stuck with me

Jamaica

Jamaica is me
That makes me a JAMAICAN
The colors on the flag
Run through my vein
Black, yellow, and green
NO body can tell me other wise
Jamaica that is me now and forever will be

Life Is Too Hard

Life is too hard
I want to quit
But if I quit
Who would I let down
No one cause the human Race has set me as an out case
To drift in a sea of dough and misery
And how can I be me if no one understands
My life and yet I'm like a book that is open
And yet no one can see my life or Hear my life so why
Is life so hard I guess that?
Life is going to be hard no matter
What I do

Mankind Will Never Understand

Mankind will never understand
What it means to be free
If we set a blaze of glory and glamour
In our lives we think that we are free
We are still trapped
By our past, present, and future
Mankind will never understand
How to be themselves
They can say that they are but them
Aren't
They can say that we are what we are No we are android capable of feelings
Mankind will never understand
The feelings of sadness, fear, or anger
What we know is happiness, love, compassion,
But their are more feelings out there
No matter what I say
Mankind still will never understand

Missing

I have a son and a daughter
Who I love so
I have a beautiful wife
In which she is my other half
But something is missing
What could it be?
I think it could be me

Mother I'M Sorry

for not being the son
You wanted me to be Mother can you forgive for the past, the present, and the future
All those lesson that you thought me
I haven't use them in the best way Can you forgive me for the sin I made you carry Mother can you forgive not showing you the love you deserved Mother I'm sorry for not lettting you in when I needed you
MOTHER I'M SORRY FOR NOT SHOWING YOU
THE REAL ME WHICH IS A BEAST

My Name

What is my name?
Who are these people around me?
Are they humans no I see horns
I see wings some bats wings
Some are black and white wings
They are standing around me like
I'm king
They all say Demon King
I look around to see him
But I couldn't see him
They say it again Demon King
I ask who they are talking about
They say me
I say no I'm huma.....
I look down I have paws
Then I look at my butt
I see nine tails
I ask where a river was
They say look be hide you
I see a river of blood
Following me from a town to me
Did I kill everyone?
Then it hits me
Who I am
My name is Korneha Kyuubi the Nine Tailed Demon Fox
And I'M DEMON KING

My Son

The most important thing in my life is my son

He is the best thing that has ever happen to me

My son is like my but a lot more cuter

He brings me joy on the most rainy of days

He is my pride

The most amazing he is a little angel that was sent from the heavens

When he smile it is like he happy to be here

When he is around you would want to keep for your self but he is mine

Here rest the tombstone

Of a soul that live

A weird life

No one knew

Its name

Nor where it

Came from

And yet

It was well

Known

As a death bringer

Here rest the tombstone

Of a soul that live

A sinful life

The soul

Sought after lust

Death

And fear

For what

Reason

Maybe for food

Or just for fun

Running

People say that when I was born
My legs were running
Like I was running
For my life
But I was a baby
So what was I running from Till this day I feel like I'm still running
So what am I running from

Sound

What is that sound
It is heard around
The world
But what is it
There it is again
I hear it every Second
So what is it?
The sound is Becoming louder
Why
It's coming for Me help
The sound is that of a Heart beat of someone
In love

Stab Me

From the first time I seen her
I knew she would stab me
But I didn't know that she would kill me
So now I lay here in a pool of my blood lookin at the sky wondering
Why she would do this to me
I thought that she love me
Or was it all a lie
Just to get close to my heart
So she can stab me

Tailed Beasts

Why must mankind hate us?
We have not done anything to them
And yet we hide like scared humans
But we are not scared nor do we want
Any trouble
We are just like you
We love
We cry
We have families
We die
And yet mankind will Always hate us because we are what they fear most
There are nine of us
Ichibi no Shuaka
Nibi no Nekomata
Sanbi no Isonda
Yonbi no Sokou
Gobi no Houkou
Rokubi no Rajiuu
Shichi no Kaku
Yamata no Orochi
Kyuubi no Youko
Tell me why
Must mankind hate us
I guess we will never know

That Day

From the beginning of time
I have been here
Locked up
Waiting and watching
For someone to look at me
And help me
Yet no one will Come within range
For me to See, touch, smell
Why
Am I forever doomed?
To be trapped within This cage that is Trapped within this body
That has no purpose
But to confines me
Yet I have hope that Someone will come
Within range
For me to see, touch, and smell
Once that day comes everyone
That is trapped like me
Will be set free
To roam that earth
Until the end of time

The Important People In My Life

There are two important people
In my life
The first important person is
The mother of my children
She is my light on a cloudy day
She is my heart that gives my life
She is my day and night
She is my other half
She is my moon bright and full
So the whole world can see us
Happy and free
The other important person is my son
My son is my littler self
My son is my joy
My son is my air that I breathe
These two people are the most important to me
But pretty soon it will be three

The Move

Why must we be on the Move so much
We as being can never have A break we are always on the move
Never to sit still and enjoy the moment
Some being might say no I don't move
That's a LIE
We all move because if we stop
What would happen?
I don't time might stop
The world as we know it might come
To an end
Or we just might have a chance to just breathe
Who know what would happen if all of a sudden
We all just STOP

The Pain

There is a pain within my chest that will never subside
It will be there forever
This pain will spread through out
My body
And will leave me handicapped, hollow, hesitant about everything that I do or say
There is a pain within my chest
That will never vanish
It is a like flame that will Partake in my annihilation of my soul and sanity
There is a pain within my chest
and that is where my heart
Was so what is there now
A deep dark abyss that is fill with hatred, remorse, and sorrow
That is the pain within my chest
The abyss of sorrow

The Real Me

Why can't I see what in the hell
Is going on
I feel liquid around my feet but I feel I'm on all fours
No not again why dose this keep happen to me
I'm tried of waken up feeling liquid around me and feeling like I'm on all four
But this time was different I can open my eyes
I open them I black then I see a little light then the Light just explodes into a big flash then I look around light is everywhere
Then I look down I see red in my head I think blood
I bent down to smell it and I was right it was blood I tried to run away but it followed me
But to make things worsen I'm in a tunnel and there is no way out
I keep running so I start to run a spiral there is no end to this madness
I yell HELP
I hear my own echo then I hear I'm here to help you I run to the voice
And soon as I make the turn
I see a room with a cage the blood stop following me and I see Big red eyes and big grin with Sylvia running Down its mouth I ask what are you he said I'm the real you no
It can't be yes, No
The only thing I can say is SOMEONE PLEASE HELP ME NOW!

Things

There are these things in the world
Those humans don't understand
Such as vampire, werewolves, and Other mythical things out there
People always need proof that they are out
There
When they get it's what will happen next
Will they go crazy or will they be aware
Of their fellow beings
That lives around them

Titles

Why is it
We have titles
Like gigolo or trick or pimp
Etc. that seems unfair
Were you born a jackass or a prick
I know that I wasn't
I was born as someone Who has a very Special gift
Now what will you call me a freak
You may do as you will
But what I am
I'm me
So you can give me a
Title I still am me

Two Worlds

Why must I feel like?
I'm stuck in between
Two worlds the first world
Is the living I can see the world
I can hear the world
I can smell the world
I can taste the world
But I'm not really their
The second world
Is the world of the dead
In this world my senses are gone
But one my sight I can see the Living world for it really is Hell
And yet the living cannot see it
For what it really is I'm stuck in between
Two worlds

What Does It Mean

What does it mean?

To have seen it all but know nothing

Could it be a person that hasn't seen it all knows a lot?

Or could it be that a person that hasn't seen it all

Just doesn't know anything

What does it mean?

It's better to have loved

Than never loved at all

Or could that simply mean

You should find love and be happy

What does it mean?

To have something crawling inside you

Does it really mean that

What does everything mean?

Or does everything have a meaning

And we just have to look for it

Again

What Is Death

What is death is it an illusion
Or is it more
We as beings have a fear
Of what we don't understand
But yet we claim not to be afraid
What is death?
Can it be a fear of something that Happens to you or could it be a way is free
Of life all to get
Or is there more to that
What is death?
Can it be a symbol of hatred
Or the ultimate end
Who really knows that answer?
All I know is That I'm not ready to die just Yet am ready to die

Where Did The Love Go?

Where did the love go?
One day its there
The next it's gone
So why is it gone
Where did the love go?
It's not here nor there
Its not north, south, east or west
Where did the love go?
It's no longer in my heart
Nor my soul
And my life
Where did the love go?
It ran away from me
So now I live without love
Will I ever know love?
Where did the love go?
It's a shame
No one can give me love
Why
Where did my love go?

Where Do We Come From

Where do we come from mentality
and spiritually
Do they come from the same place or do they come from Different places
Or do the events in our lives shape, mend, or form them
So where do we come from mentality
and spiritually
Or could it have simply just been created when we are created
So again where do we come from mentality
and spiritually
Or is it just our minds playing tricks on use

Your'Re In Love

To have fallen in love
It is a special stage
In a relationship
When you feel like you
Can't breathe
You're in love
If you put him or her first
You're in love
You are willing to fight through any and everything just to keep them at your side
You're in love
If they are your light in the dark
Or your inspiration
You're in love
To have fallen in love
It's grand and beautiful
If that person you see everyday makes you Feel like it is the first time you meet
Each other
You're in love
To have fallen in love
It's just fate
