'In poetry, you must love the words, the ideas and the images and rhythms with all your capacity to love anything at all'

Wallace Stevens

I like to write using words that have various meanings...that way the reader is free to interpret as he or she chooses...to participate, to apply/discern the textures/images/ideas via personal involvement....
I also enjoy being somewhat of a neologist....fun for me, and, I hope, for you..... as to parts of speech, well, they seem to morph, to renegotiate delineations...to play, creating rhythms, sounds and colors as they go.....

Thank you, dear poets, for perusing my efforts....I've much to learn. There are those here that have generously made valuable information available....I am most appreciative...

pencil-packin' up the Jackass Trail.... intentions bein' to pick up the mail....
tripped and fell on a holy quail...
it was one of those days, like a windless sail, hat flew off.....end of tale.....

turkey In The Strawberries

living in reverence...with a degree of vigor...
a splish, if not a splash...
counting and recounting, predicated
though nonpredatarian...
tarry
a while
to leap
for the highest grown fruit, while the lower
glomes
are freed of the branch
at
the merest
touch
of a lip
or a whisker...
being braided, encroached
with falsified modesties...
.....breathing out...in...out...
...as yet, haven't forgotten to water the plimsolls...collect the roughage...pander to the compost... ambroseate and refill the grail....
snipperwhappers! !

.....Redeployed

enjoyed
the blatant subtlety....
the iron elephant's four-sizes-too-small predicates

the missing apprehensions the gaggle of goalies

predictables....

the drollery,
the cutlery

has no one thought to exchange tattoos....
to wear a different and unfamiliar mask.... something
more....or less....vestigial?

.....Those

tiny teeth keep clicking.....

down each alley, street and byway....

not that loud....no clanging clatter, so it shouldn't really matter that they stay with me, haunt my way...

still they're here...remaining, sticking....

I run, or skip and dash...hide, ignore the signal's flash...

...there's the path...I'm nearly home...

but...there's no outwitting; sitting on the piano, licking Chopin...fingers stalwart...never gropin'...

...I've not escaped....

there....in the gloam

....Oh, Now It Is Clear As Midnight

eye doll a tree up
with shy knee
good ease

...'Let

it go'....
.find it on a bathroom wall?
the rest..
all of it...is filed...
in scraps under the bed...in loose and looser leaves..
.in layers thin as crisped and honeyed baklava tissues or
as deep as the folds
of that loden manteau
in
the lavendared trunk....
it is grist...
and
when I am mill-less, it steeps/sleeps....fitful...snoring...
I touch it, rub the patina....the rust...the beard on the grain....I shake it.. what remains
is the treasure.....
as is the dust....
the fermented air,
and
its shadow.....
a sneeze
scatters some of these palps and didos.... the layers, rearranged, accustom themselves to their newer placements.... shift and wriggle, settle in....not so politely waiting their turns.... piggy-backing when they can.....

24 Carats.... And More

after years of squiggles, sprinks
and blinks
he's finally found a minx....who thinks
on her feet,
red toenails....
with aplomb,
she swings, sails....
and
has bailed him out
of
the finest of jails....

bishop, some rabbis,
in tubular silence....
under a family tree of compliance...
roots spreading far, continental in drift.... yet, I was born and it is such a gift....
when the dog howls
when the crowd growls
when I'm feeling flapped
I simply remember
my lineage, vast
and then I don't feel so schtupped....

A Bit Too

wild
a bit too frayed crushed
mint
in absinthed
green limeade
held forth in echoes
fifth
in flint locked
horns with aural liniment applied to propagate
the sun
and can't stop now
the wheel's done spun

A Blind Defense

fermented in heat
and
brewed of conscripted bits.... steeped in non-corollaries bridged
with straw
and spangled haze.....
a smudgepot's
tendrils
boast of crimping...
a limp panache loiters, intentless....
the roofbeam impales the carpenters.....

A Bushel

of carcanets
could not be more precious than one kiss from you....

A Certainty Of Violets

had left May questioning
the probability of June...
yet,
she swung in, unencumbered,
petticoats raised....
the fragrant juices of salutary euphemism wet on her lips...
the dogs find deeper pools,
cool their bellies....

A Circuitous Root

caws
from
the raw strum
can't tickle the rafterglow...
or
glaze the bower
with unmeasured metes...
in
a totter of teeters....
grace waives,
takes a powdered jellicle....
and
eschews the raspberry....

A Confederacy Of Loonicals

finds

comfort and sustenance....

on

the threadbarren boards of splintered nonchalance...

a chaliceful of sponderifungles, twice toasted.....gargled

spit

in the eyesore

calcifies..

misfortune is, it is not a comedy act.....

A Current Favorite,

that particular illusion.....

I inhabit it regularly....

often...if not daily...

have furnished it

with all necessary comforts....

.....in it.....

..well.....

....it has everything.....

....my version

everything..

.it is quite elaborate and detailed.....

and it can travel....as a sort of dancing, jiggly bubble.....with gently iridescent
'walls'.....

so much for solid construction.....it is only..... and fully..... what it is....

despite that sometimes irksome and nearly..

.I said nearly...

intractable

willfulness of mine....it refuses to be defined....

.makes me smile all the more.....

.....only.....and fully.....

A Decade Of Lace-Lapped

long-johns
and plaid condoms
circled....
singing of oranges and doves...

the younger informer
from Muncibeddu
restrung his bow....

'never write about me', he said....

..... the scent of crushed coriander.....

A Dove-Less Tale Of Some Bed Fellows.....I Will...I Promise...I Will...I Shall...I Dew

lap it up....

if you agree with me.....

please...(oh, don't have to ask, dew eye?)

we we we we all the way....shall strive to sustain our delusions-in-common....so farce so goooood...

dew ya ever...dew ya ever...wonder why we need the props....ever so?

.what props?

what, kick over.... OK, just nudge the foundation?would entail enfrightenment, ya think.? ..I don't..(think) .you don't (think)so.....since you agree with me...and I with you.....

A Dry-Spore Time

when it is nothing but sentiment and the trembled terrapin of other ideation only breaks the waves to lick its lips and breathe for a not measured instant of quills and bridles and ringing spurs of pentagonal proportion if there is a fair wind and drier salt to taste periwinkles squared and unctuous in their revelry....

A Fare Exchange.....?

a grainy perspective...

.sommelier's child wades...Bootes askew....

dirndled... digging for a placebo...or a reflection.....

A Few Too Many

cats leapt out of the bag...and they were the mewling, scratching ones... with shredded ears and abscess cicatrices....an extra kink or more in a tail of woe...and they hadn't learned...yet(?) ...to tell those tails in voices of fewer decibels

and

at least mellowed and/or seemingly balanced....

mellifluous, if minor... keys.....

resolute..if not resolved.....

oh, plucky and berserkly congruant....admirably so...

back in they've gone.....no blood-letting today..... ho harps/no lyres.....no

swarms/no towels.....oh, for the grace of beauteous spillage.....

A Flight Like Tangerines

my toes turned up in Barbados..... the craft we sailed was a worthy one....
the voyage full of jangles.... clankings up the mizzen heard by smuggled rooks whose caws aloosed the vulpine spirit in me...
I'd known, sly was I, what to claim and whose cross, adorned, I would bare.....
Caitlin knew to wait would be profane...
she no doubt nursed a babe each year...
and I,
my toes,
the rest of me...sleep here...

Summerset Fox

A Gentler Rain

it has not mercy....nor is it sieved....
it is a colloquy composed of silence...
it is the music of all notes....and of none....

A Glowing Criterion

for possible candidacy/appointment to office....

...I quote: 'Appears not to be insane'

A Glut

a surfeit
of revenances
romanced the perfidious warbling
of the dogooders
in the sorrel
sat
a spell
 wrung the chimes
loped away
to thrash
in
a sea of obliviates
sang of higher tides
while barques
gilt resplendent
trolled
for euphemisms
among various flotsams

A Groundswell

fated, albeit non-procrustean,
blear
the jollity of warmer hearths....
quickens....
....just as quickly
recedes...
relocates
to
a familiar wutherland....
a more frequently wandered corridor
of mirrors...
.framed in octagons and quintangles....
blessed by farcement....
readier
to render a masquers montage.....
.....navigate
mangroved backbays...
this .....treasure-hunting
in
brackish,
blinterred woozlemires.....socks on...or off....
quieter there....if a stifling hell...
is comforting
in its parables....stories of love gone right.....

A Haberdasher In Key West

did this necessary angel of opposing law
hear the bawdy squiggling, the tragic drone?

A Heart

as pure as my dog's.....

A Human Divorce As Improvisation

new life as a pomegranate
each seed falling
from the bitter and acrid sharpness free to grow and to thrive new soil to till
new songs to sing
he could have told of the pain and of the horror
that preceded the deadlock, the impasse he chose instead to focus on the now of it on the joy of being a parent in the most present of tenses to value every moment
to fill each of those moments with joy, with laughter with the clearest love possible to find all that is waiting to be born... to be nurtured to be treasured...
from the all-but-unheard melody
to one symphonic and essential composition...

A Journey

of ten thousand steps
is not the same
for a Chihuahua
as it is for
a Great Dane

A Late-Night Welcoming In Black And White

tufted ears caught sounds... as tail, erect, four small paws danced their way to me

A Little Bifidus

in that culture...
something to hide
from the cordoneers
read in the woods
without benefit of liturgy or somnambulists
shameless in a ring
of flameless fire
brown-paper-covered smaller print supply your own illustrations tableau wrapped vignette weather-proof
pilfered freedoms
laced with gin
from
under the back porch....

A Littlebit...More

saucier....and just a trifle bossier.... in tandem with escoffier..
there's not much more to pen or say...
except to keep the flannels clean
and
purchase the right headgear....
well-oiled must be this fine machine....
please,
more piquants in the bed, dear.....

A Little Purse Of Yammers And Yawps....

she was very fond of him
but would not consent to be his beard..... though, on alternate Wednesdays,
she did pose as half of his mustache..
....the left half, so the story goes.....

Marion et the frosting...
under dogged the cake...
she liked it sweet...from cane or beet....
her thirst.... it knew no slake.....

I must confess, my dear,
I've eaten all the spaetzle....
I've left you plums....and marshmallows.... see.....
there's fire on the grate, still....

A Long Time Loving Both Becket(T) S.....Is..... A....

thing not difficult to remember when attempting to settle into my bathtub of bubbles on the deck and finding it to be occupied by a Rhinoceros, who, having hung his many hats on the hooks I did or did not install near the door of effrontery on the walkway to the tower....(big breath here)

I will not give him the bum's Salmon.....he is getting much fatwa...it is unhealthy... and reminiscent of days when the smoke around Fairfax was watery blue and spoke of oblivion, in a hickory sort of way.....
..the sidewalks have not been muted.....no more than the clothes have been...
though there are more of them...
.the hensmen pluck them from the altar and wrap them around the third generation.....I make the sign of the crosswinds.....

A Mismatched Maiden

bosom heaving,
sat beside the rill, a-grieving.... had she but waited, with time's succor,
could there have been a courtly plucker... a knight, not errant...bold, instead...
to gratify this maiden's head....
hear well.....she's not forgot the toddy.....

A Monolith Of Reason

crumbled
... touched
by winds which sought
to change
the stone's contours
.....near imperceptibly....

a split-second radiance
of
geode dust appeared.....
.....vanished.....

A Mystery...One Of Many...

whether I shall be invited to the ascension.....

I have promised

to bring

as many helium balloons

as are requested of me

by the protagonists.....

in every color imaginable...and to paint the others in those colors which cannot be imagined.....only fair that I do so.....

we each have love to contribute.....and many sorts of joys.....some less misleading than others.....

.I have not been one to do my swallowing whole.....preferring to chew..... a bit, at least.

.....haven't been scraped off

by a tree or a low-cut barn door...yet.....

could happen...could carry spare wings in my rucksack..

that helium tank...no lightweight matter.....but I've a wheelbarrow and a more-than-trusty harleyquince.....

A Narwal's Question....

why would Ron Jeremy chelate himself?

A Paralysis Of Virtue

akin to a spate of prognostication
a company of flints, locked....
a barrel of staves, de-coopered....
the shed that keeps the varmints from the garbage cans...?
no...
that
was a construction based on a principle called de-kooning.....
though
something whimsically scarifying to them, say, calderish, would've been more fun.....
you wiggle your finger at me....
I collapse, rolling....
....breathless...

A Picnic..... The Beauty Of Betty

was her pure sweetness... her candor

we ate
her offering....
dry salami and butter on raisin bread
without a word

A Plea...

I'd have to stay up
all night
to sing
to you at dawn....
oh, bade me not
to do that, please...
whilst damp'ning dew bedecks your lawn....

A Priestly Harmonium

traveled to the place of mambas
and
euphorian chants....
there was wildwood
and
pudding,
made in a hasty pot with starch from the crops of darlings and effigies... each weir captured another myth...tales told, forbidding and beseeching in one breath....
....rapture was a rarity, hauled up with the last bucket of illuminated dust...feet were washed..prayers whispered....beds pummeled....eyes closed..... night song began,
carried on the back of a slow wind tethered to all that ever was....

A Protuberance Of Robins

what they need is here
their bellies are round and fat belie fragile bones

A Quilt

of maunderings...
fretful globulettes stitched
on a field of incantations.... some patches have weathered the journey...rubiose and madder-limned... others, faint, their feted grandeur spent,
do no more than suggest their erstwhile blood-fresh colors...
...have lain in the parlor...
sun-tread and burlesqued as langour-laden mementos....

A Riddle For All And None

from a foxy little fellow and some teachings sage and mellow this floral beauty takes its name (add moniker of wealth and fame)
a further clue completes this quip:
...the air resounds with crack of whip

A Rivulette...

a smaller

..perhaps deigtier piece...

shall be known, in my book...as a tributary....

....a bit of swash, explicably unbuckled.....

A Senryu-Ish Close-Up Of, In This Case, Some American Beauties wrapped in clear tissue.... selected words and musics warm both heart and mind

to see and to feel
these treasures with other eyes....
graced by pliant joy

A Sextant's Descendant

she was told....
and
was shown charts
of supposed authenticity...

' this tree...heraldic limbs akimbo, fashioned of labial earth and celestial crossings rooted in a reclaimed calvary of stones, bore fruit
to be suckled,
nurtured,
dressed in wreathes and wimples...
and it is yours '.....

dreamed of Winnie and Eeyore.....

of the blade
that had left far-distant cousins ungerminated...

when she awoke, there was Grandmere...claiming to be King Lear, again...
.....normalcy had been restored

A Solitary Song.....So

full of myself....I make me laugh... as do you, too...well.....about half as much as I do....yes, as me...and I can get myself...for free.....
I'm unprepared to pay a price... solipsistic me..make nice? ?

A Spring

born of that collision.....and now,
at this age....
to carry bolts....
a bucket of oats....for a gadfly's sting...

.whinny up a memory...
yes...a rider....
whose
now sightless eyes would welcome
a few drops of that same spring's healing waters..... would
he then emote...
cry, bleed a paean to the mountain...to the mount?

you, scaleless...albeit half-saline by birth....with a forkless tongue....have coursed the skies...and beyond....

you, having found favor
...and shelter....
cannot lead him to that place.....

and I...
questioning
that it had been wisdom, as some say..... believing
it to have been a simple sting.....

you.....no, no judge....winged, yes.....but..too free to willfully inhibit glory....in its greater, lesser and appropriated forms.....

.....now for those oats.....and is it going to rain this afternoon.....?

A Strangely Strangling Gift Of Love.....Infliction...

processed and reprocessed.....whinnying and winnowing.....
..what is
good to the tooth...
to the heart...
to parts which have 'ownership cleared' stamped on them...
.the ringing truth of differentiation....
.like spitting up a hairball.....to hear it land in the chafing dish.....
sophistry developed....in a dark room.....now it can be photo-shopped....
.end run....catch and re-re-re-re-re-lease.....peripatetic, eh?
and what if it spills.....that ladder folds, ya know....
.automatic alchemy, this way....no, that way...
.uh, uh, the chase is on....and everybody wins.....

A Tent Did Not Suffice

in winter
a cold wind
chased him and his dogs into the cenotaph
where pillars reached for sky ceilings told of glories the marble floor of this shelter was hard
as they lay on it
singing them
a shiver-inducing
welcome
welcome, warm about the edges

A Trinket

an onyx outlined carp spouts pave on a swollen disc....

the chain, finer than a hair, rests in your palm....

.....it is true....I could keep and treasure this...

I think you know why that is not possible....

A Twisted

h'mmm...if it'd replace silly games with an intellect...?

nah, that's way too much for us to expect....'>)

A View From The Greenhouse

having no wish to examine or to explore that particular subset of ironies today.....

bare the torch elsewhere, she says....and take the incense with you.....there is higher hilarity to be wrapped, boxed, casketed....

Aardwolf In The Void

blackberry trimmings and catkins shuffled to the roadside to join maple and alder branches snapped by a hard rain

it is hollow

full with many

yet hollow

it confuses time with calendars

it sings of green pines

it is hollow

and yet hollow

another year

and another

it is a writhing chrysalis

as the nautilus makes its spiraling rounds periwinkles sing the softer shades of blue dance with the glories of a hypnoplasmic morning greet the sun in a seriocomic western sky

another year

and another

howl under the tree of may be an ebon floe,

albeit considered a flight risk

turn a cartwheel, lather, rinse, repeat

Above Carnelians

just below peridots
some huddled, perambules,
in the inkier crevices, counting rhapsodesials....
the ball of wax descended.
a few onyxtensions held on, wavering, shall we?
shall we knot?
in front of the parsifallen...and the premonitiatory?
why is it so ruminacious a thing?
or not a thing....
itself a strawny grebe..an oriolet....or a marmot
in a mask, lulled and lambent for nearabouts a quarter of an hourhand.....give or take a hookapuff.....

Abysmally Normal...

trying so hard....to hide behind the right plants, clipped. groomed to perfection.....not one a whimsical topiary...
controlled...their health and conformation a must....they've been told....and must obey.....they cower, upright and dutiful....no leaf out of place...ever... the on site sibling quilts....perfectly.....would a pricked finger have bled.....?
the piano no one plays...it is grand, imposing....silent....
the children...the right schools.....perpetuating the myth in innocence.....
their cars....just as right...just as proper....another adherence to the norm.... the gnomish entity in the lower apartment rules completely.....benevolent, to the untrained eye, to the blind soul.....to the studiedly uninvolved..... the often-visiting other daughter laughs hysterically....nonstop....the resident one, large and fiercely meek, pays stifled tribute to the gnomess...'we are alike in so many ways'...she was told...and became so....subsumed early.... we of the neighborhood are not the sort of people who would judge or begrudge the gnomess' son-in-law his bisexuality, for his loving his fellow actors in heart and deed.....he is free, in his way....the gnomess and her daughter do not speak of it....they are normal, you see.....and an agreement has long since been reached.....I am not privy to the formula, nor need I be.....they are carefully, carefully normal.....and keep busy.....busy.....busier.....we all fashion our comforts of whole cloth and of remnants.....though I am uneasy with all the perfection.....
..fortunately, it isn't catching.....I do feel a certain empathy with those leaves that dare to fall in the driveway.....

Adjusting.....

that's it... 'at'.....

.'on'?

as real as anything else....?

I chew on this bite of air.....

Adversaries In Effigy

serve porpoises
though not for me....
to brew a cup of verbal tea....
same windmills, flailing variously.....
I may keep mine in some dark basement.....

I won't say so anywhere but here....

supposing it is good to have a place where I can be truthful....here in virtual company... no good could come of otherwise giving voice to it... it would, in fact, be an indulgence I will not provide...not for myself...nor for the one of whom I speak...

it saddens, but does not surprise me....as I am no nobler than, well...anyone else, and certainly less so than any beast....I will not give the eulogy...

.I shall sing an elegy in a quiet and sequestered place....when moved to do so... seems I am, in today's all-too-compromised language, 'in judgment'.... it'll pass...

Erasure And Reclamation

in whispers
and
in screeches,
to ready ears
and
to less-prepared
and
recklessly unmoored stations hand to hand
and
mouth to mouth....
to swallow cicadas whole
and
to brew an infusion of hen's teeth....

while the night wind

Exchange

those six delusions for a pound and a half of constrictions....

.....all right, then.. the ones from the back of the basket.....

you'll have to wait a bit....they tangle easily.....have to draw them out one by one.....

Exchanges, Perhaps...

if I were to designate a few of the tender blossoms as yours, furtive white-tailed dancers...
.....you, hoof-clicks with shadows,
... if there's a fine moon...
....here's what I propose:
that you pause after munching
to give in return
some of your warm spray to this patch,
as a lure for the small blue-violet flutterers,
that I may greet the day
them
as company....we all seek something, eh?

Excreted

from
the rafters...a display to be critiqued....
.... repeatedly, redundantly 'eviscerated'.....as if the eyes, barefoot, knowing where the tiniest escarpments are...and the rip-rap..

flesh blossom-washed,
dried,
anointed
.... carefully, though by now the scars have scars... appearing smooth, flawless..even to the practiced eye...

for every waterfall

that brainwashing is acceptable...to be practiced...until 'perfected'...

and that We Are Right.... to kill/to be killed..... is a 'solution'....? ?

For A Contrarian It Is Not An Easy Thing

to hear and see my thoughts and opinions echoed...

.it is an unusual and strangely intimate comfort....
but I rest easy
only with that momentary bursting of the softly
edgeless intense thickly infused and dazzlingly muted yellowing of the plain just after the firecat's leap.....exhaled and inhaled in one.....
.the appearance and disappearance of a richness emptier for its fullness.....fuller for its empty bowl inverted.... an instantaneous

many words...
some were charged with fire, with fear...
but
always with love....
.with encouragement,
..... at times difficult to see...to feel discarded, nearly transparent wrapper

.they sweep a starshower across the sky...was it there? ...did you blink?

did you hear

their feet, each toe of their incisively pattering prescapes distinct as a note being repitched for accuracy...a sweeter, purer sound...gracefully lurid, as it laughs

your

benighted comprehension...

spangled
swirling fragrances

shall be a parade
and a pageant I'll desire when at that edge or if I shall join
a miniature
though equally deliberate march with many other indras
scenting a picnic
the scout has signaled 'sugar cookies' tall blades shall be no more obstacular than were more often being stroked,

a shared pleasure becoming

we dance...

daubs
a color....

yours, orange.....
mine, chartreuse...

yours, azure
mine, rose madder....

they do not bleed...

dancing
a canvas
color
is an act
of playful, questioning speech...

silence....

again...
a burnished silence.....

flamenco
calls

Guilty..... As Highly Charged...And As Perfumed....

a fluttering and well-aimed panachelet.... quill-delivered
with
a truemed-song's bellewring declention.... there be
the nodeless trysting
of a scattershot bird and a wafted tremolo...
crenelated,
festooned
...buckled into stays of insidious profundity.....

Had It Been Cake-Like Or Chewy

The light crisp delicate and thin
Sugar cookie with three chocolate Chips embedded in it Broke into several pieces.
One of them fell into my boot.
It was a piece with no chips in it.
I turned the boot upside down
And shook the cookie from it.
I contemplated my place in the world
Before this act
And after it.
Would this have been so
If I were a Belgian Malinois?

mastered little subterfuge...
as glossing winkered on a luge is screeded... concuvert's refrain has rederailed travolent train... a moment, then, to abscond with the gaddish fly's purported myth... underlain with strommeled pomp,
as ever, tinged with wrangle-romp....
is cleft, off-center, stalk protrudin'....

Have Come To

round the robin all in expletives and down from the patched briar slinks
the vincular grayling, trailing
water shaken from his hide
in the shadow of the one left beside the moat tell of the banking fires and the twice-wished weltering that followed you to the diviner side long before the drawing was quartered into arable, friable coat-pullings that bored the cornflowers like some jangling emetic, blew in your ear 'til you squawked an acquiescent yawp
and
as quickly revoked it.

hear the street music....the rumbles and clangs.....

until next Tuesday....

he won't know what has happened....

as I'll have swallowed him and his turning light.....

I Would Prefer

to see St. Lawrence's fiery tears from the hills where the Escorial sits, a monumental and historic presence, somewhat frightening to a child, mysteriously looming, reaching for heaven...stones, alive, seeming to breathe, to sing....

...not this year, we will watch them instead from the old pony pasture, now a homemade motocross track.

The road through the mountains to Escorial is long. It winds, hairpins for many miles.

A favorite stuffed tiger was lost there.

We shape the earth as it shapes us.

Our tears, our blood feed it as it feeds us.

St. Lawrence was roasted over a fire. At one point he asked to be turned to his other side, saying he was surely well done on the one that had been exposed to the fire...

sainthood for having a sense of humor, my kinda guy...

I will think of him tonight as I watch the meteors, his tears....

it seemed we waited for it and he did not disappoint, he fed his girls until he no longer could/he was loved

he danced with joy

you...you ran to the woods to expire/I had no chance to hold you/you were loved/dear red bounding laughing one you were freedom itself

you waited for me/I was late and you were cold when I arrived/I had no chance to hold you/you were so loved so loved so loved/my wild and lovely guide you still have my heart and my soul if I ever had one of those you took off your tuxedo in silence/I had no chance to hold you/you were loved/you, so quiet and patient so strong...

so ever there

you I found face down in the creek...did you try to drink? /I had no chance to hold you...you were loved..also well loved by someone beautiful many-colored survivor of times and places

you slipped away when I was gone

I still don't know why/you were loved/you were loved by two young ones/well loved in your too short life/well loved /hambone seeker

so alert so noble.....so....gone.....I wanted more memories of you/with you.....

a question of comparison....no room for that....it'd be senseless.... it is simply that it is complete.....the inroads..byways...colors and sounds, textures and melodies have been exquisitely traveled....no, not to an end point in any way, barring structure....
...abstracted, concrete...resolved....compositions lacking nothing! !

impressed? well, reverent is more like it.....I won't presume other than exhilaration.....

there are other beauties, of course.... and I need them, too....I think I do...
still.....the completeness...the completeness....! !

that when the day came she'd be one of those unmentionables..
...I remember the glow of her when she'd been with him...
it lasted for days at a time....
she'd blush..she'd sing, music poured from her...
yes, she knew how it would be..and why.....and she loved him....
.....their duets...well, those duets....

some made fun of him, too....
.and he could be, yeah, 'a caution'.....
he knew they needed

he moved at quite a rate...fed himself

Somewhere

tween bauhaus
and rococo
flames are fanned
by a sirocco
while an agilistic gekko straddles lamps,
each glowing deco
oared and poled
by a lithe raftsman
me, I'm cosy with my craftsman walled about, graced.. far from rowdy with undulating forms, by gaudi, cat-folk lap milk from each saucer
in their treehouse, ala hundertwasser... please don't wake me from this dream... with words, 'so life is not a stream'?

an updraft
provides respite,
of sorts,
to the hungry bird....
the sky
is of a near-unbearable blue...

joker down

his Indian cross-hatched
a tiller

fenced it in tight
hopin' for foxfire
and tributes
from the other-than town's folks up the loggin' road and past the bridge it was a sing-song patter and a cruciferous hatter and a rageless platter caused
the deer to scatter
while the sheriff's boys sang with a dugong for a bride in the sidecar
on the side
as the mission bell rang there were allergies and lethargies and squeamish bets on bended knees from the pentecoastal honeybees in the aprons of the yawning trees she swore the thing was painted red and that's what got her into bed as for what has got her out in Lake Superior

described them to her... she woke on a mid-day morning,
years later,
spit out that mouthful of sand,
shook her head...
when her hand woke,
and
she raised it to rub her seaweed-creased cheek her fingers left, then returned to that ancient being...
still, perfect, armor-plated...

The Pins, The Threads

the knotted twine
that holds the steaming mass of is one knot loosened
a leak a flying free-falling finger plucking
at
a scab a badge a tying-off a blending
a window pain lit within a grace note
plummeting.....up.....
one feather falls from each wing.....
breathing.....breathing.....

The Price

of admission.....no thanks....that's indubitable ink....and my hand is just too too to tattoo.....but I like the parrot....
.and the ticket...same color as my bidet....

The Quite Bearable Lightening, Easing Into 'Grace' Born Of And By Humility

all said in title.....

....(.feels pretty damn good.....)

having ventured outside the comfortable boundaries...no longer contained in a country of less-than -exquisitely-formed sight....a place where one color reigned....and was thought to be owned.....polished daily.....

....(and rather safe it was....)

it stultified, dulled and dimmed the senses.....

had too long cradled,

(lulled to fitful sleep)

certain sorts of braveries.....

so many births....so many.....

where to pounce...

.or

to just to lie back and drink it in...a sip here...a gulp there.....

being master/mistress..... of nothing.....

and delighting in this foolishness.....well revealed.....

do the broken illusions need replacement....and with what?

and what forms it takes

are as irrelevant...

and relevant...

.as

brushing

flecks of loam from a mushroom's cap....

The Ravages, Rigors

of amoral decay

beset the populace of Pranque du Soleil...

they've clapped on their manacles, covered them well...

seems someone'd suggested they could avoid, quell,

at least some of the perils of being...do tell me, if I'm wrong, and this is but a rumor....

then....

why do the most of them,

slink, in ill-humor, on the beaches and strands, wary-eyed, with their hands

in their pockets of lint...and no longer sprint to the trumpets of joy and lyrical sounds...why they squat on their haunches, mumbling, 'out of bounds'

where are the liberal dosings of ruth...and why, tell me why, do so few speak of truth as a gamboling, ambling searching...

forsooth.....

...the waves no more lap and the fare's gone to pap.....

do look for the meaning of the word 'amoral'.....to me, in this case,

(we'll not have to quarrel) is that unstricted 'being'

to play, ideate, with a heart lacking hate.....

The Reigning Queen Of Ellipsisesese

s

yes...triotic, if de rigneur...

.but I'm despotic....fraught.... dialis, flamen..fleur...

and I've touched most ever' dog I've ever seen....

my mother's eyes, dill pickley...mine, a sea-er green.....

please...I'm not referring to the jealousies....

they'll be re-arranged....gently adjusted, by a company of kindly rangers....

before the property is due to be condemned....or redeemed...

.how 'bout some hush, puppies?

The Safety

of a four-wheeled tricycle...?

The Studiedly Unpretentious Teeter-Totter

has left a sliver or two.....in many an aspidistra.... injected the juices of several bivalves and numerous bipeds as well....
but didn't damage the peony, extensively.....
and the lilies still sway in the valley of omglapharians..... this experiment continues...
.we'll have as much fun as fruitbats....and more.....and reciprocally.....

The To The From The For The With And All The Rest..

that love in all its forms inspires....

someone I know of wrote a tune called 'I love you more when you're spiteful'

another was titled 'serving the porpoise'....different composer/lyricist this, if I could accomplish such a thing, would be 'written' with no words at all...

The Unmissing Of Wasn'T

... a palindrome..... a loop unraveled...

now

to

water the lilies...they bend, drowse...

the implosion was near silent...

only

the dogs

heard

it

a few birds

lifted away

in

slow motion...

a desultory compliance

momentary

whisper of change....

The Wild Broke-Down Song

of merciless blue
meets the unsanctuary of the bass-voiced rolling green, wets its lips...
and swaggering, laughs in its belly at their seamless junction...
...that laugh,
if
it was heard, by few...or by many,
could seem a shriek...
... be visible
as a piercing flash...
but would it?
.... all things have a belly....

There

is a raw-boned music
in those harsher sounds...
wind that exalts and chides,
tears at the flesh that clings to those bones,
red and bruised and unwilling to yield... a tangled mane momentarily blinds the horse
the rider sings a guttural vengeance, swears to....to...

There Are Exceptions

no worming, worrying clattering of the slats and boards, the box of enclosure.....

recognition as a birthright.....a celebratory refusal to do other than laugh at inanities.....but this, too, must be fed....and passed, where necessary, from hand to hand.....from heart to heart.....

There Are Questions

from
the old alder's trunk...
his root-feet
now shaping whorls
and
small eddies, momentarily
slowing
the downstream progress
these young waters.....

There Are, It Would Appear,

those...better prepared

roost

less in irony

....more

in those small pockets..

.fob-hung and alleviated...

do they know freedom

as a many-handed force and do not fear confinement... have they stretched....wrapped their legs around the body of earth..... in unbroken glory...just perhaps, (as if it existed) thorough sentience a tertiary factor.....

an annuity.....

.but I've not lived their secrets....nor they mine....corollaries multiply, dance a dust bolero....in the end game all is equally semiotic....

each cheek imprinted with a slap, dashing..... a rush to some sea....illuminated as the grunion run.....

There Exists A Fine Line Between Justice And Vengeance

requiring size AAAA shoes.....

will this bit of whatever it is to be called stay posted this time...we'll see...

There It Was

clanging to life....
not dystopic....merely aqueous....
as a stream.....plain as daylong
murmurs....cogent, barefaced....
with
a twinkle in its eyes and one of those smiles.....
.....the ones that play
about
the lips.....warble, sotto voce.....send
a warmer shiver to the vertebral roadways... find a miasmal port.....tiptoe, soft-shod.....
predating in gleesome comeaways.... soothing and sparking.....

There's A Margay In Your Kitchen

in a cage atop the fridge when the clock has ticked to ten he shall be free again
I'll carry that kitty to freedom let him roam, explore the ridge he'll run and hunt...you'll smoke your blunt an I'll have done my smidge... hooray for all folks feral...
...includes ol' groundhog, Geral'

There's A Sea Lion

in my mojito.

he's tiny and he's blue...

his eyes are sweetly sanguine

he reminds me much of you.

There's One....And Another....

....those....
under
milkless hooves.....staving off....
ruboscussed...and rubricated...staving off....
....no slack given
the greased paint and gussetts....gargle
a little dust
and sway...
toddle, then...meander...scramble..... a quick-step... a quadrille for six hands and ten gallants...
.strapped in close to hornswoggled... plainspoken....for..
.these seconds.....thirds.....grace noted....
.....guffaw....
..a bow.....parasol extended....

and for an encore?

There's Somewhere To Go

where you can be bored, disgusted and repulsed.....

.and learn absolutely nothing...

.with the exception of how to be mean, short-sighted and other than curious...

.....fully illustrated with pathetically inept attempts at manipulation/basic and obvious games....

and as quickly leave it..

.no fun to be had there....

just some aimless flailing, whining, wailing....

but it is free.....

These

years having
not

They Could Have Been

sister and brother....

that same pale skin...tight, dry...stretched across those high cheekbones
and

wide, lined foreheads.....those same black eyebrows, unruly, yet not as unruly as the blond hair that sprouted low on their foreheads.....wiry, coarse, thick....lumps of curls in places where the wire was tamer and controlled itself....each had a widow's peak, low, well-defined.....

their temples, cheeks and jaws were amply covered in blond down.....

their light blue eyes had the same upturn at the outer corners.....eyes framed by dark lashes.....

their noses, short, high-bridged, each with a small lump....a slight tilt upward at the tip, round nostrils, not small...not overly large.....

.their hands were alike... with good-sized-bones...strong and large-knuckled.... covered in that same dry, coarse, tight skin.....capable hands....

they lived over five hundred miles apart.....

don't know why I'm thinking about them now.....

the mind's a funny thing.....I'm sitting here, writing this whatever-it-is.....
and

crying because Nat King Cole's dog was poisoned years and years and years ago.....I always cry about dogs...yours, mine...ones I hear about, read about.....

.don't know if I'd have tears for Tom and for Helen.....

They'Re Laughing....

those beings, observing our greed-wrought plight.....they are not hungry enough to find us suitable fare...or even a pliant work force..... could they 'spit' and wipe what's left of the planet clean/utile?

Thick Tail Thump

beats a rhythm on the floorboards an old friend's greeting

last night I dreamed you were here, felt you jump onto the bed

this love is an always....and there are so few of those...

Things For Which We May Be Prepared Some Day.....

a wonderment of vivacity
a proliferation of sentience a cascade of empathy
a predisposition of kindness
an anarchy of decencies

Thirtynine

I sing the unsung number...for you... alongside your brothers...
we will disband when horrors cease...
we will know the headiness of running, leaping for the joy of it...
we shall retain a vigilance to the scents on the wind...
....and include those of peace...
other intriguing fragrances...
we'll hear all, sensing, knowing that love prevails...
we'll lap from a bowl of the water of forgiveness...
do I dream? ...did you? do you?

This

This Ascension

was it a gift...to be spared the replacement of illusions, gilt with service and argent with blind ideals.....

with horrors....

drudgery....confusion.... indescribable and dehumanizing visions...and acts.... to carry as festering wounds, to nurse, to seek to expunge...for a lifetime....however long...however short....

this ascension.....a smaller and yet more infinite glory....to.a beauty beyond the realm of strife.....one with all most sacred.....

This Is

not Greyfriar's...not here, but in these northern California woods guess you could say I'm his Bobby...
I could no more move from this place than move him from my heart to anywhere...anywhere...
It's been years, but I still hear his tags jingling, feel his head resting in my lap, see his dear true eyes seeing me
in time we'll meet in another anywhere a forever anywhere, that place where we've always been...
time? a concept made for other than me and other than him...
...his eyes told me about these things, without a word...about that anywhere...that everywhere

This Key

This Map

to lay
the thing on something like the floor
..though
some of it had caught in the trees.. in the loft-ladder...had been stretched..suspended....silvery-webbed and opaque in places.....
not cumbersome, though..
....light...bouyant
and threaded with something akin to songsparks..
....it became clearer, then...that each had left a piece, a portion of their myth....in my safekeeping....
..I threw away what I could of my guile....a disrobing in deference, perhaps..
it was time....

This Pared Acreage

is a scumbled range of tufts and bristles...torn....
twisted branches, washed downstream,
have raised their arms in acquiescent protest.... stumps stand as cenotaphs
to those of black, gold and gray... a mistakenly wintering migrant would have fallen there, dislocated....but was carried further...that stone a reminder....
I, in ludic tribute..begin a .whispering, at first...then singing aloud...
.I was spared....
and find myself grateful....
.this pulse contains me...
.this terrible glory
is my home....
.these spirits
my comfort, my companions....
.I raise my arms, my voice.....
...I rejoice...I simper...
.I am small....
water... wind..
.these wondrous curmudgeons.....
come...
more...and again....
I am yours.....
as is this halting paeon....

This Playground

a microcosmos of no hiding...
wielding a Qtip or two....
clearing the ears of the behearers...
a clean, well-lighted place where the myriad shades
of love
thrive...
vicarious and bold in one sweep...

Those

things....motorized....inert.....flailing...abject..... they'll lie in there until some oblique shaft of light, a color or scent or sound or space or lack of it invites them to dance, flare.. speak.... crumble from the outside in with explosive pops, unsettling groans and rasps...an occasional soothing but short-lived tune.....

.they don't bother with externals....

.you are their perambulating vehicle.....

.they own you...they are the ill or fine-fitting pieces that are you....

you wear them...

.they are your flesh, your eyes...

your skin.. your voice....

they will surface...if you are lucky you'll catch some of them could be they'll live on paper..

..if you find the words they love and you shape them just so.....

To Compartmentalize

and remain 'whole'....

the parts not only shake hands...they embrace...and share observations...compiling these into works, more tangible than abstruse...., ungloved and dirty-nailed...itches scratched by damien's damien....seduced, cajoled to a place of confluence.....

To Describe

the dream I had about you last night would be less difficult if I settled into a library...sequestered...
.... able to consult all manner of encyclopediana....

I could do it here...on the webbing, I suppose....the light is bright, ...the screen is a shade of pink...reflecting my blush? ...could be.....

and.... there is no way that anyone could convince me it was the sweet and sour pork...or the pecan pie...oh, no.....

To Drangle

To You Who Would Drown Us:

finding myself wishing the computer you are using to post these endless streams and reams would rebel, refusing to write another word....hoping something will staunch the flow...enough is enough, way more than enough! !why do you insist on clogging the pages...? no response is necessary. just stop! !can't you hear the groans and moans?

Today's Gift.....

Toe-Dipping

leap the gap.....

'Too

many blowfish give me a haddock...
the sea cows have swum their way outta the paddock...
whilst horses of another color, saddled in the greenery, sang the cucumber...and spurted away....

Took Up

crushed
the found things,
made a

infused...
a minimal effect, if any...

humans,
they are

you are...

back
to

where tears are only (saying

cried
for the

of dogs...

make no mistake,
there is no safety there...

make no mistake
it is not easier...

it is different,

only
different...

without the illusion
it is a fuller emptiness

and some fossicated blooms resurrected on occasions

bring their wares to busk as buy-offs
the road narrows, encroached upon by solemnities, lots more tartlettes....

I have my terraces and my wild harp.... there is harmony in all of this....

Wreath-Weavers....Of Earth, Salt.....And Potables called, inclement

and tournequed
from
root of grass....leaves of absentia... warlords...some had laid down their trojans....
rode the search lights
beamed to the multi-tasking... asking
for supplements, wind and waterfalls.... a chair..with arms...a gavel
a page.....
collected bebies and levies.....
plucking corsairs
and
building silos.....
rum
to be run...to be run...to be run..... foundations
must be built..... of something.....

Wresting

enlaubered,
astride
the gaping, whistling borealic expanse between allegory and allusion...
finding verisimilitude
in the scrutinizing of butterfly genitalia.....

Wrip-Wrap'N'Wriggle-Diggle

I now 'speak' with robo-calls....
I tell them to get stuffed....
thus releasing steam and blither-blab
if my ego's less-than-puffed.... they'll soon be deemed 'illegal'
and that source of 'joy' be-stilled....
I'll have to find another way to cuss and feel fulfilled....

Write Me

a poem

a disheveled longing of a poem

a corrupted

vivisected

scrap pile

scratching its nethers

tearless...

Write...Speak.....

and you
shall surely
be misinterpreted.....
things..
.or the lack...
or lieu....
of them ...
may become interesting.....
the froth tingles as it touches the toes....
if
my eye had a corner would the twinkle linger there and would it obscure or magnify the seldom scene....?

Yep, Rollicks.....

.....does....

.watch.....

.....listen.....

now that's subtlety that'll curl your lashes.....one at a time.....

Yep...Jerky And

choppy....

like

chicken livers on a boomerang.....

shuttled cockerels

and

brigand's bounty....no lace around the cuffs....

to

hammer the geode.... just so....is that a sight, hound...or what?

Yes, She Said...

we both breathe....

.....there's a start.....

Yes, There Is A Dog

there was a dog.....

there was me....

there is me.....

slip-up, Dog.....

You Are

almost as beautiful
as a German Shepherd...

that's how I know

and
you clip your own toenails

but
you don't eat the watermelon rind

You Came To

my door

selling St. Francis Animal Cookies.....

I bought 300 boxes.....

You Stayed

with me
'til help came....
that was a once only head-long-fall day...
fact
is
you stayed
with me for the whole of your always.....

You....Yes, You.....

are what....
and
maybe even some of who they would have wanted for me....
brilliance..
.in
at an accepted art....they would have given me gladly...with many sighs
of relief
and worry-lines
would have lessened....
each of them, separately,
may have acknowledged.... and loved,
though not nearly as much as I do...
your subtlety (it's  gorgeous! !) ...your curiosity...
.your gentle yet unwavering fire.....nuanced...and bold....
.your dance... with life.....
.your gracious giving
and sharing
of
the treasures you have found.....
.your other-than-imperious dignity.....
.I'd, well.....
thanks for being you.....
.....that's it.....

You've Long Since Thrown In

your lot with us...
an exchange...a balanced even,
feet-planted-firmly one...
you learn..
we learn...
we trade
secrets that cannot be spoken...as words.... you have learned...have adapted...have a meal and a bed...some of you have work....
we are afraid to take all of what you offer us.....
.we shudder, we cringe
and do not wish to know our common core..... we feed it, un-whole, to tyrants...that portion which allows us a meal...a bed..work...a place in annals.....
..those other portions, unused.
to feed those who circle and scavenge.....those parts that would have made us complete....
.as you were once complete....and are only a breath away from being...even
now....
.we have many more breaths to take..... we shall run together...part...run together.....

You've Shown

me
your axe....
I've
shown you mine....

from me
to call yours,
say, a hatchet....
and
I trust
you'll not refer to mine as,
perhaps, a chisel.....

we shall, then,
file away
this quite public cobbling.... pop it
in that well-aerated hamper.....
yes,
it has been
there.... to be availed....
.by
thems that's gleanin'...
whomsoever decides to pick up the dropped dainty.....the crumbles, the bent twigs....
.....and follow.....
..whomso...whomso....whoomso.....a ha'nting call.....

Zanzibar

archipelago

both fruminous and scathey

poesy from the shores of it could be plush-backed or lathey

Zoomfuroodliesque.....

to re-Joyce...

to re-Eliot....

to scale the heights...

the limnsequential climb...

for more....pro-feigned....enshrined....

Zoonotic

the panda holds forth, gracious....

the river horse swims underneath,
a grassly bouquet to bequeath...

the tern, who's waited long in line,
has brewed a breathy bog of brine...

the monkfish, who's forgot his hood, blesses all....and it is good.....

Zyzyva

I spray
now
they've gone away
