Diamond Williams(9/13/1992)

I believe poetry is my middle name, although it's not on my birth certificate. Writing is my passion! It motivates me and helps me release all of my feelings. I currently have no kids and I'm attending college. Besides my talent of writing, I can act, sing, and do hair. As of right now education is what I value most in life! That and my boyfriend! I list him as my top priority because I am is not a soul on this earth that makes me feel as happy as he does.

A Person Like Me

I will rise above whoever
No boundary can stop me
I will accomplish whatever Theres no stopping for you or me
I can be like no other
Theres no limit for a person like me
My desires are clever
They forsake not just me
I can do the unthinkable
I can risk the unimagineable
I'll beat the impossible
Theres no limit for a person like me
Because I'm unstoppable

A Place Where You Belong

I remember that last kiss as you left once again
Had to return and fight for our country
A battle you claim will never end It's sad to see you go Because I don't know if you will return
Would be a shame to loose you Battling for this Earth
Your eyes are like Mars
You are determined to burn Flames on anyone against our country you claim soon they'll learn I don't care if they do
I just want you to come home
A place where it's safe
A place where you belong

A Stroll Down Memory Lane

I was at home
When I saw an old shirt Thought I got rid of all of you Now your presense rebirths
I smell your aftershave
I smell your cologne Your'e still lingering
Though this is not your home
Just that flashback
Makes me want you back
Makes me want a future
Makes me hate the past
Then I look around
And remind myself that I'm married Since we broke up
My life has still carried
I see new shirts
new fragrance of colognes My Husband walks in Reminds me It's OUR home...
That's right a husband Something you couldn't commit to be That's right a good man one who loves me for me Thats right someone who lives with me
Not those occasional night stayings
A stroll down memory lane
Now I'm done dwelling...

Diamond Williams

Am I

Am I crazy for thinking you'd be here for me Am I stupid
for wanting you to marry me Am I jealous
because i want it to be you an me Am I brave
because I'm standing up for what I believe If so let it be known our relationship has grown our destiny is here my dream is near Am I fantisizing or is this love realy sincere cause I have to be sleep please pinch me into reality your love is undeniable the truth is unreliable either way i'm living its our future I'm fufilling Am I unrealistic
Or is our love just killing anybody who ever had something bad to say where there's a will there's a way So am I... trippin, slippin, and dipping for you I guess I am cause your love I can't loose

Angel Beside Me

I look over to my right
And see this angel beside me
A gift from heaven
Laying down next to me
I ask what did I do
To deserve this man
What can I say
To have him as long as I can
I look over to my right
And see this angel beside me
My better half
Laying down next to me
I ask what would I do
If he walked out of my life
Left me with this feeling Of misery and strife But we've come this far our spirits still whole only hoping and wishing that together we will grow old But yet society will still test you an me
To see in the long run
If I'll still have an Angel beside me...

Each Time The Wind Blows

Each time the wind blows
Her name is being whispered Someone is mumbling bout the past So open your eyes an listen
Each time the wind blows
You'll see the angry stares Someone won't forgive her
Their nostrils still flare
Each time the wind blows
You'll see the smiles of friends
They are all sad she's gone but happy she's heaven sent So when i die
I wonder what they'll say bout me
I wonder if my few friends
Will become my enemies
I wondered if my name will be repeated for good or bad I wonder if the people I'm leaving Will be happy or sad
Each time the wind blows...

Hate It Or Love It

Hate it or love it.
I aint going no where.
So when you wake up.
Im going to be right there.
An if im not there.
Im somewhere thinking of you.
About how im so lucky.
To be with you.
Hate it or love it.
My eyes never stray.
I know where my man is.
And cant no other man.
Make me think differently.
I hate you dont trust me.
But I brought that on myself.
But ima show you Im here for you an no one else.
So please dont doubt me.
Hate it or love it.
You're the reason I breathe.
You make life worth living.
So I will never leave.

I'D Rather Be Alone

I got so much heartache and so much pain
so why should my man be the blame
I'd rather be alone
I got so much agony and everything gets to me I got so many tears and so many fears
I'd rather be alone
Sometimes I'm depressed
Sometimes I stay stressed
I got so much anger my relationships spell danger
I'd rather be alone

I'M Missing You

Its three o clock in the morning and I still can't sleep I just keep daydreaming about you and me
The stars are out
The moonlight is hitting my face everyone's fast asleep but your'e still on my brain
I'm missing you....
It's cold in my room
I wish I could feel your body over mines
So we could cuddle and whisper to eachother
All through the night
I hear your voice in my ear
I hear you tell me you love me And as late as it is I know your'e still thinking of me
I'm missing you....

I'M Waiting For You To Break Down

I'm waiting for you to break down,
And tell me how much you need me,
I'm waiting for you to look me in the eyes,
And tell me how much you love me,
I'm waiting for you to break down,
And tell me I'm not anything like your past, Look me in my face and tell me, this relationship will last, I'm waiting for you to stop holding it in,
and release all of your emotions, its ok baby im here for you, lets set this thing in motion,
If you have no fears then lets go, if you ready for the ride I'm down for sho' just relax and put your trust in me, I promise i got you from here on out baby,
I'm just waiting for you to breakdown Dedicated to: kyundre

It's Over

My eyes were burning with fire
My mind was full of rage
My face read hatred
Everytime I heard your name
My heart was broken
My body damaged beyond repair
But somehow I forgave you
With one blank stare
You were suppose to love me
After all I am your niece
I guess that was music to your ears
To take advantage of me
My ears heard the whispers
My body felt a change
My brain couldn't function
And I was starting to act deranged
But It's over now
No one can hurt me
It's over now
God won't let you touch me
It's over now
Cuz I let it be It's over....

Diamond Williams

Like You

somebody please tell me, I have to know,
what woman in her right mind,
would let you go,
I'd say she had to be sick, or maybe even mentally ill,
for a man like you,
I would be ready to kill,
There's not a cell in my brain, that doesn't respond to you, your mind, body, and soul is beautiful, That's why I love you,
There's not that many like you,
your kind is deceased,
so I'm boarding the first train,
to love and peace,
And of course you're that stop, so there's no room for no one else, just continue to make me happy, because I can do bad all by myself.

Little Johnny

Little johnny paced the home of a house that wasn't his He couldn't believe his wife
He couldn't believe the mother of his kids
His hands were freshly cut From the backdoor's glass Little Johnny was actualy here About to go through with this task
His mind was interrupted As bright lights approached Laughter occured soon after Too many words unspoke
The lover came in first And didn't even see Little Johnny Then my wife walked in Her eyes confusion and envy
I was done playing games
It was time for a new ending I killed her first My message clearly sending Then I looked at my equipment
And I had one more shot
The Lover could never understand what I was feeling Weather I liked it or not My anger was to great
And the damage was done
I put the barrel to my head
And emptied my gun.....

Love

My heart was once missing
What you couldn't fulfill but now you're showing me that This love is real
I use to cry at night cuz i feel i give you everything
So when you say 'I love you'
I swear you losing me Cuz love don't do the things we do Love seems to separate me and you
The same thing that breaks us up Is putting us back together as two Now our love is strong as ever Because we were friends first Love has brought us through the best Lets see if it can get us through the worst

Diamond Williams

Love...Who?

what is this strange thing everyone welcomes with open arms I've heard of this name but it just hasn't walked thru my doors I have to see it been dying to meet it people who talk of it say its surely pleasing but i say...Love who?
What is this feeling that keeps you soaring high people claim it's neverending and is always on time
I gotta feel it
I gotta be near it
I'd travel a hundred miles just to come see it
So I say...Love who?

Man Down

Man down....
Somebody get him some help
He did her wrong
And she shot him to death
Man down....
Did somebody call the police
Help this man
He's bleeding please
Man down.....
I didn't mean to do it Fear floods my mind
So shocked my body is not moving Things happened to fast
My mind was living in the past Secrets overflowing like a bath
There was so much I didn't know
So many things I couldn't believe What about the marriage and the kids
So many things we will never achieve
Man down
All the neighbors heard it
The loud banging shots
The police are in the front yard guns cocked
They are waiting for me
To come out the house
Hands up
And as quiet as a mouse
If only I could go back
I would let him go to his car
I would let him cool off
But I was a woman scorned
So when he walked away
I emptied my clip
His back was turned
He never saw it coming
Man down....
Come out hands in the air
The police yelled at me

I looked down at my boyfriend and I couldn't breathe
I dropped to the floor
I just wanted to hold him Before I could touch his face the police unloaded them straight shots to the head and chest that's a fact right next to the man I love
I died on impact
Like Romeo and Juliet
He was someone I'll never forget please forgive me for my sins
I loved him when it first began
Man down.....

Me And You

Im lonley but not alone.
Im in a house dats not my home.
Im sufferin pain dats not my own.
Im searchin for a place.
Where i belong.
The tears im crying.
My boyfriends not buyin.
He doesnt understand.
Im emotionaly dying.
My heart cant beat.
If i dont have love.
My voice wont speak.
If i dont feel above.
Some say im sprung.
Others say im crazy.
People dont realize.
why i call you my baby.
But dats fine.
I dont need them to.
All i need.
Is a me an u.

Never Knew

I never knew how much I called you Never knew how much you texted Never knew how much I missed you until you got taken away
I never knew how much I needed you Never knew how much I depended on you Never knew how much I wanted you
until you got taken away
I never knew how lonely I would be Never knew how much your face I couldn't see Never knew how much time couldn't be
until you got taken away
Now I loved to hear you say my name Would kill so you could feel my pain Would die so I could always see your face but you got taken away

Now That I'M Ready

Now that I'm ready to give my heart to you you don't care....
Now that I'm ready to give you my everything you don't want to share....
Now that I'm ready to be with you forever you don't want me there....
It's like I'm in a world of shattered dreams and broken hearts
I'd swear before God
This world is trying to tear us apart
I refuse to let you go
I refuse to feel wronged
I refuse to pour out my soul
I refuse to be left alone
Now that I'm ready...
It seems I'm left out in the cold

Paradise

The birds are chirping loudly
The palm trees swaying
The sun is up high
All the kids are playing moving to the african beat every rhyme a familiar tempo everyone seems happy happier than ever before Paradise....

Tropical coconuts, beautiful pears
The wonderful aroma in the air women in grass skirts men with no shirts animals running wild bright colors back in style
Paradise.....

And this is living
The world is spinning on a great atmosphere people hold no fear amongst the chatter amongst the conversation you find that people feel free with no obligations
Paradise.....

Tears Fall Slowly

Tears fall slowly
from her angry face
As once again
Her mind tries to erase
Her mind plays tricks
Her mind accepts lies Her mind believes him while starring in his dark eyes
Tears fall slowly
as once again she stays as once again she deals with Heartache as once again she deals with pain but this time she feels stronger this time the relationship will be longer She knows she can't find better
So she will put up with whatever
Tears fall slowly
as she degrades herself but a piece of man is better than no man Thats what she tells herself
All her friends don't agree
All her family refuses to speak
No one stands up for her not even you or me
Tears fall slowly

Unconditional Love

If I was to ever call Without a doubt
He'd be there
Even if it was his last He'd give it all to me
And not even care
I like the feeling
Of knowing someone loves me back
Unconditional love
Is what I'll have to call that I'm proud to say
I haven't met another Who needs me so much
That I never have to suffer
I like the feeling
Of knowing I complete him
Unconditional Love
Is what I'll have to name him
I know he's the reason
My heart beats
The only man who Truly knocked me from my feet
Surely he'll be my husband
And the father of my kids Unconditional love between us Truly exist

What A Beautiful Liar

Everything he told me
I would believe
Something about his presence
Swiftly next to me
Everything he did I made excuses for Something about the way he loves me
I truly adore
What a beautiful liar
Everything he gives me I fantasize for Something about his gifts Keeps me loving him more and more Every lie he told I would feed into Wouldn't question my doubts
Cuz he made me believe they were true
What a beautiful liar

What Kind Of Mother?

What kind of mother wants her child to fail so badly? What kind of mother would do more than an enemy to hurt me? Don't you know that I am your own flesh and blood? Do you even care or are you keeping your secrets under a rug? Why are you so evil and have so much resentment in your heart? Its not my fault that your life has fallen apart? What kind of mother spits horrible words upon her child? And at the same time wants recognition for that same child. Well guess what? ... I made it without you! And guess what else? ... I have no sympathy for you! And at my graduation my heart was empty because of you. And my first child won't have a real grandmother because of you! And at the start of my college life I fail off because of you. And now when people give me hugs I look at them now when people show me love I dont know how to maintain. Thanks mom, for giving me the worst up bringing ill ever see. Thanks mom, for showing me you never cared about me. Guess now you can kick your feet up and laugh at me. While I continue to be a motherless child struggling to be. What kind of mother? ..
