Have You Ever?

Have you ever liked someone
But they don't seem to notice you Have you ever felt like screaming
But you know nobody would hear you

Have you ever looked into their smile
And said a prayer
Have you ever looked in to their mind
And wondered if their thinking about you

Have you ever felt their warm hug
And in that moment felt like the most special girl
Have ever saw them look at someone else
And the jealousy feeling smacks you in the face

Have you ever felt like you are not good enough
But you push yourself not to give up Have you ever had a close guy friend That never seem understand your feelings

Love is a prize it makes you feel wanted It comes and goes yet its a memory in your heart You have to pay the price cause it huts so much so If you choose to fall in love be ready for the best memories you will never forget and the tears that will fall from your face

Her Smile

My life would not be complete without my best friend like you

There's comfort in your silent embrace,
And I listen carefully to what it offers.
I feel the joy in your laughter and trusting eyes

When sadness fills my heart with disappointment of having to move farther away
I know no matter what we will always be the best of friends

I Still Love You

sittin here

thinkin of you a tear falls down my cheek i still remember the look on you face when we first met we talked for the longest soon after you said you loved me with all your heart so why did you go always wishing you were here just to see you handsome smile its easy to see all the blame is on me all i ever wanted was to have a special person to hold me in there arms i was stupid to think it would last so its easy to see all the blame is on me being so far away

I Want A Man Who

I want a man will be exciting to be around. I want man who will make me jump for joy everytime I see him. I want a man who will make me smile everyday.

I want a man who will always make you laugh on my bad days. I want a man who will make time for me when I need a friend.

I want a man who sit and listen to my words when I'm hurt. I want a man who will not play games with my heart. I want a man who will always be true to me even in the hard times.

I want a man who will talk to me all night just to make me smile. I want a man who will be the one i can count on to be there for me no matter what.

I want a man who will be the one i can put my trust in. I want a man who will love me as one but also be a best friend who will never let me go.

I want a man who has fun and loving personality. I want a man who will lay with me with a smile and embracing me with hugs. I want a man who will be the one i can just hang out with. I want man who has a great since of humor. I want a man who says I'm his princess forever and always.

If I Were A Dog

if i were a do what would i do?
i would chase after cats and howl at the moon then watch the stars at night go play with my friends save people who are hurt so i can try to change the world it would not be easy but i would do my best i want to make people happy by being a hero to our nation!

Never Forgotten

In silence we cry
There is not one person that wasn't upset
There were two towers
That crashed within hours
This was a tragedy
The sky turned from blue by to black
This day will never fade away
For those who mourn Over loved ones who died that day
Because it will always be in the minds of all
On September 11,2001
America changed as we know it

Running To You

Running to you once again
With big tears in my eyes
You pull me close in a brotherly hug
And just let me cry

Offering me a helping hand
In my time of need Means so very much more Then you could ever see

Your friendship is the greatest gift It dwells with me always Just knowing that you are around Gives me the courage to stay

The smiles that you send my way
The looks that say you care Help me through the hardest days
In a world that's so unfair

You must think I'm crazy Every time that I complain That someone is being critical Or causing me more pain

But you have stayed right with me
I know you've always tried To help me face the honest truth
When I just wanted to hide

So love and hugs I send to you Across the many miles And hope that I, in turn, can be A friend that brings you smiles

Smile On Your Face

Smile on your face
Feelings hidden in my heart Happiness fills the air Heartbeat won't stop slowdown

Smile looks at me
I speak in silence Feelings remain
Unspoken words once again

Dreams is a wish Smile still there always Forever it will stay.

Smile on your face
Only my heart knows
What I want to say

That Boy

There is a boy that's so handsome
When i look into his eyes i feel joy
Our love so strong it can defeat anything Even tho sometime we are arguing Every time she says i love you, i can feel that it might be true i love him so much and i know one day I hope i will be there for him always marco is so awesome
When he is not around my heart is empty I see his face at school everyday and i know he knows that i will take care of him Our love is strong our love is wise No other girl is taking her away marco is the only one for me and he is the one that i call my best friend
