Alas

You are a Hearth deceiver but not a receiver. You are promising but not believing,

You are a taker but not a giver. You are a hunter but not a releaser.

You took the lives but you never breathe into someone a life.

Your smile is a bewitcher and merciless.

Don't let me wait for it. Because I can't wait any longer than I did.

It's a magical for me first time I have met someone I really liked. I am just a man

If only I can find the words to say I would pledge to you I need you with every aspects

And in the end you are a seeker but not a finder. ALAS
