A Love Affair

Finding you was the happiest time of my life,
I fell so deep in love and thought that i would someday be your wife.
I lived for all your kisses and every touch,
Thinking about all we have and all we could do just a little too much.
I became wrapped up in all we had,
Until I found out something that really made me mad.
Nothing could prepare me for what I found,
You already have a wife and been sneaking around.
I went home heartbroken and started to cry,
Iv'e been so good to you and wonder why you felt you had to lie.
I tried to stay away but I started missing you,
I know this situation is wrong so what am I to do?
I went to him and asked him why,
He said he was getting ready to tell his wife goodbye.
Said things hadn't been working for awhile now,
Loving and being true to only me was his vow.
Having a wife got me questioning how that could be,
You said the truth i would soon come to see.
I hope so cause at some point I fell so deep,
But no matter what happens all of our memories I'll forever keep.
Awhile later him and his wife had split apart,
Now him and I can have a brand new start.
After awhile the truth and all the love he has I did see,
He looked deep in my eyes and asked 'will you marry me? '
I told him yes with all the love in my heart,
Because I know that our love is stong so we'll never part.
To you I forever dedicate my whole life,
And forever more I'll be your perfect wife.

A Virgins First Time

Standing in front of you as nervous and can be,
Not knowing what to expect really frightens me.
Calming my nerves with just one touch,
Loving your hands on me just a little too much.
Feeling electric shocks when you put your lips on mine,
Tasting sweeter than strawberries and wine.
Then I find myself out of my clothes,
Feeling every natural high possible and none of the lows.
Kissing and touching all over my body like its the most precious thing,
Feeling the most unbelievable pleasure until my body wanted to sing.
Being inside my body I felt this pain,
It hurt so bad I thought I would go insane.
When he broke through that barrier everything felt right,
He loved just how my body was so tight.
After the pain subsided I couldn't believe how intense the pleasure became,
I knew then that nothing would ever be the same.
That night I gave him my body and so much more,
I offered him my heart and soul not knowing what I was bargaining for.

Control

I hate how you put me through your selfish games,
But maybe in the end I'm to blame.
You took advantage of all I had to give,
Even if you let me go I wouldn't know how to live.
We only hung out when it was convenient for you,
You would never let me choose what we would do.
Everything had to be your way,
Got me questioning if I should leave or stay.
When I'm ready to leave you tell me how much you love and need me,
I get weak and don't know where I'm meant to be.
You get me where you want me, then push me away,
Thinking all is right and okay.
All you did was play with my mind,
Now it's what I need, that I must find.
You had control for way too long,
Now it's time to right this wrong.
Things are going to change,
I know that me telling you this is strange.
If things don't change then I'm out,
Cause equal partnership is what a relationship should be about.

Crush

Hoping you'll fall in love with me I wish upon a shooting star,
Too shy to approach so I admire you from afar.
I wish I could walk right up to you,
And tell you all the things I've been dying to.
Fantasizing about our first kiss,
Wondering in reality what I could possibly miss.
Trying to get the nerve to talk to you,
To put an end to this torturous hell I'm going through.
Wanting to give you everything I got,
Thinking about what we could have... a lot.
Every night when I go to sleep all I think about is you,
Wondering what I could do to give you a clue.
Everyday I wonder if you even notice me,
If you just look into my eyes, all my feelings you can see.
Thinking how strong my feelings are often bring tears,
When I get the chance to tell you how I feel I run in fear.
Then you came up to me and asked if we could talk,
Whispering the reflections of how I felt as we went for a walk.
You asked me if I thought we could be together,
I said "are you kidding it feels like I've been waiting forever".

Falling In Love

Whenever I see you, I love to see your smile,
Thinking how badly I want you all the while.
I get this weird feeling in my stomach when I see your face,
Standing close to you my heartbeat starts to race.
When you look at me I feel like I might melt,
From the time of our first date you knew how I felt.
When you first touched me I got chills,
It surprised me at first so I stood still.
How you make me feel gives me a fright,
I wanna be with you so badly, even if it's just for 1 night.
You make me feel comfortable and safe when I'm with you,
I don't ever want you to say we're through.
I feel like I could give you all of me,
I never knew how exciting this feeling could be.
You mean more to me than you can ever know,
I try unsuccessfully not to let it show.
I want to give you everything I got,
If you want to be with me you get only 1 shot.
I've been hurt badly too many times before,
Starting something new brings back old sores.
Take the time to get to know me,
To have your love and respect is my only plea.
All the pain I had endured has begun to heal,
Because of how good you make me feel.
Now I feel a lot more carefree,
Realizing now that we were always meant to be.

First Hookup

Going through what I went through I use to think about how my life sucks,
Wondering if in relationships I'll ever have luck.
Then I started talking to this guy I was introduced to by a friend,
Hoping my broken heart would mend.
We started out talking through e-mail,
Thinking if we started to get close to soon it would fail.
Then one day he gave me his number and told me to call,
When I got the nerve to dial my throat felt raw.
Then we started talking every day,
I felt so comfortable talking to him that I never ran out of things to say.
Then one day he said he wanted to meet,
I got really nervous and scared again but didn't miss a beat.
He picked me up and took me to his place,
The whole way there my heart was in a race.
Sitting and waiting anxiously in the car's seat,
Afraid to look anywhere but down at my feet.
When we were at his place together and I still wouldn't look at him, he grabbed my face and started kissing me,
With that first kiss I realized I was holding back all the things I've been needing to see.
Right then I knew that I needed and wanted so much more,
I started to realize what it was that I was waiting for.
For someone who made me feel safe, sexy, and beautiful, like a woman should,
Making me feel everything that nobody else could.
That night I gave him my virginity, a special gift I can never take back,
Even if I could I wouldn't take away anything that night that happened in the sack.
Feelin the heat from all the touching and kissing,
Realizing for the first time the fulfillment in my life was missing.
Every passionate moment being skin to skin,
Wondering how something so special could be a sin.
Wondering how something that felt so right could wrong,
No matter what my memories and feelings of that night will stay strong.

Foolish

Every now and then I think about how you treat me,
I slowly came to see that this isn't how things should be.
I gave you all my love and was always there for you,
Not caring about how I felt, you did whatever you wanted to.
Knowing that you've been cheating on me I was still there,
Eventhough you make me feel like you don't care.
You took all my emotions leaving me bereft,
So I packed my stuff and left.
Then I started missing and needing you,
Coming back was what I needed to do.
I thought that for me you would change your ways,
Still you continue what you do but still I stay.
Because I love you so much,
I would do anything just to feel your touch.
For however long it takes I will take what you put me through,
How long I will have to deal I have no clue.
Maybe I'm a fool for putting up with evrything,
But not havine you is worse then a sting.
So I'm going to stick with what I know,
For the people wondering how I'm doing i put on a show.
Making them believe that everything is okay,
Never letting them know that it kills me by the end of the day.
No matter what happens I will keep me head held high,
Because deep in my heart I know there is no goodbye.

Found Love

When I went out I saw this really hot guy,
Wanting to walk up to him but way to shy.
Right then and there he caught my eye,
This feeling got me on a strange new high.
Everyone telling me to stay away,
Saying we're different as night and day.
I tell them to leave us alone,
There are just some decisions I need to make on my own.
So I'm gonna do just what I want to do,
If you don't like my choice and can't be happy for me than screw you.
This is whom I want to be with,
I won't apologize and plead the fifth.
He is someone I really need,
It's like being locked up for a long time and finally freed.
He has control of every part of me,
Just how lucky I am for finding him you'll one day see.
I am so blissfully happy,
Don't be worried about me, I feel very lucky.
You should see just how wonderfully he treats me,
So open your eyes and look at us before giving me the third degree.
He's more than just someone I love; he's my best friend,
I just know that what we have will never end.
Sure we have our ups and downs,
But no matter what I'm going through he's always around.
Since this is the first time I fell in love, everyone's trying to give me advice,
But don't worry to me he's been nothing but nice.
I know he respects me when it comes to my virtues,
Anything I offer him he doesn't abuse.
I know I am deeply appreciated,
He is like no one I ever dated.
Many women think he's so fine,
Which makes me proud to say he's all mine.

Heartbreak

I can't believe what you did to me,
You said I was the only one you would see.
I gave you all my trust,
Which turned out to be a complete bust.
I still can't believe I caught you with another girl,
The sight of you and her makes me want to hurl.
I wish you didn't cheat on me,
But now I must break free.
You left me heartbroken and in tears,
You not caring about my feelings is clear.
Do you even know how I feel,
It is going to take an eternity to fully heal.
I use to think that what we had was great,
I was proven wrong just a little too late.
I've had everything I can take,
I guess that's why they call it heartbreak.

How I Feel

Being with you there are some things I need to know,
Instead of rushing into things I think we should take it slow.
When it comes to you I know how I feel,
But I have to know if your feelings are real.
Sometimes I feel like I can be with you forever,
Other times I don't know if we're even together.
I get mixed signals from you and I don't know what to believe,
Do you want stay with me, or do you want to leave?
If you love me I need to know,
If you don't then you have to let me go.
I'm not going to stay in something that is only one way,
When I told you how I felt, it was like you had nothing to say.
What is it that that you are so afraid of,
Are you scared that what we have could turn into love?
If that's the case then the truth is that I'm scared to,
I'm scared that it will ruin everything I have with you.
If we talk about how we feel maybe we can work this out,
Wanting to be only with you I have no doubts.
Whether or not you want to be with me, the choice belongs to you,
With whatever choice you make I'll make do.
Don't worry about my feelings because I am strong,
I just don't want to be in something, if it feels wrong.
Tell me whether or not you want to be with me,
If what we have is based on a lie, then we'll both be unhappy.
There is only one person in the world that my heart belongs to,
Just look in my eyes and you'll know that the person I'm talking about is you.
If I have to I would let you go,
Trying not to let you see how you had hurt me so.
When you came back I knew it was meant to be,
You can't understand how happy this makes me.
To be with you there were so many rules I've been bending,
But it was worth it just to get my happy ending.

Leaving

I use to think that what we have is great,
At one time believing we were soul-mates.
Now it feels like everything is falling apart,
I'm starting to think that our relationship was doomed from the start.
I use to be so in love with you,
Now everything is so confusing and I don't know what to do.
You tell me you love me,
But nothing feels like it should be.
It feels like I'm suffocating to death,
Struggling for every breath.
I tried to be everything you wanted me to be,
When inside it was slowly killing me.
Nothing I did was ever good enough,
Now it's time for you to pack your stuff.
It's time for you to go,
Don't ask if you can stay, my answer is no.
I don't want to be with you anymore,
I'm counting the time till you walk out the door.
I need to do what's best for me,
Now I finally feel free.
I have only one thing to say,
Just please stay away.
Understand that we could never be,
Now I can take time to concentrate on me.
Because of you I have no idea of who I am,
It feels like our relationship was a scam.
Now I'm on a path of self discovery,
Trying to find out what makes me happy.
Realizing it's me I need and not you,
It's clear to me now what I must do.
I should have known that it wouldn't last,
Now it's time for me to move on and put everything in the past.

Matt

Have you ever felt really betrayed,
Thinking that in the beginning you had it made?
I started talking to this guy,
Not knowing that the whole thing was a lie.
At first I thought everything was great,
Thinking I had finally figured out my fate.
So deep in love I fell,
Not knowing it was going to go to hell.
So willing was I to give my heart,
Only for it to get torn apart.
I found out I was being put through a test,
Since then I haven't one descents night's rest.
I cry almost every night, asking myself why,
This pain so great I feel like I'm about to die.
What I did to deserve this, I need to know,
Because it feels like I'm playing some part in a show.
My life has been taken away from me,
I am no longer the person I use to be.
I walk around in a daze,
I hope how I feel is just a phase.
He consumed my every thought,
Forgetting every lesson I was taught.
I should have known not to fall so fast,
A part of me knew it would never last.
He always treated me so bad,
Constantly finding ways to make me mad.
All he ever did was lie,
That's when I knew it was time to say goodbye.

Reminiscing About Our Relationship

Now and again you ask me how I feel about us,
Every time I ask myself if it's just lust.
I know how I feel when I'm with you,
It scares me so much and I don't know what to do.
You see how confused I am through my eyes,
You try to reassure me but all I hear are lies.
I searched through the deepest part of my heart,
Realizing that if I lose you my world would be torn apart.
Before I answer you there are things that I need to know about you,
If you're honest with me then my answer will be true.
Will you always be by my side,
Or when I need you most will you run and hide?
If I start to cry will you be there to hold me and tell me that everything will be okay,
Or if I try to get close to you, will you turn away?
If you say that you'll stay with me,
My answer you'll be able to see.
Ask me again how I feel about you,
I'll say that the love I feel for you is very true.

The Story Of Love

They say love is supposed to be kind,
Are these people really that blind?
Here's how the story goes,
I guess all women who been in love knows.
You meet a man and fall in love,
You think he's the greatest from the world above.
They come around adoring you with gifts,
Thinking their game is swift.
They start going out a lot,
Thinking you don't know their plot.
It causes so much pain,
Waiting for him you go insane.
You ask him where he's been all night,
All it does is lead into a big fight.
You start to breakdown and cry,
Because in his story there's a lie.
It hurts knowing he cheats,
You tend to ignore it because he starts acting really sweet.
Showering you with sweet hugs and kisses,
Knowing inside that something's missing.
In your heart you wish you could say goodbye,
But when you can't you wonder why.
You realize no matter how hard you try you can't let him go,
You get frustrated and ask to take things slow.
He knows that he's been caught,
He knows there's going to be a lesson taught.
Then you get the strength to leave him on your own,
Then he calls you on you cell phone.
He tells you he loves you and wants you to stay,
You start to feel like a lost stray.
Without him in your life you think your doing fine,
But no matter what you do there's always some kind of sign.
In your mind you try to make up lies,
Though your love for him you can't deny.
He calls and says come back, what's the harm,
You try not to but you go back to him with open arms.
You feel hesitant when he whispers your name,
You just know that nothing will be the same.
He proves over and over he won't hurt you anymore,

He knows that if he ever does it again his butt will be out the door.
I guess in the beginning love is pain,
But in the end love is the greatest thing you can have and you have nothing to lose but everything to gain.

True Love

When we first met you told me that we could only be friends,
When you told me, it took awhile for me to comprehend.
I found out that your ex had badly hurt you,
I realize you are scared to try something new.
From the rest of the world you wanted to hide,
Like a good friend, through your toughest time, I stuck by your side.
Sometime during our friendship I started to fall,
To win your love I would break just about any law.
For a long time I kept my emotions bottled up inside me,
Wondering how long it will be until I can set them free.
I want you to know that what she did to you, I would never do,
So tell me how I can prove that my love for you is true.
Give me a chance to show you that my love is real,
For all the feelings I have for you, I know that is how you feel.
No matter how hard you try to hide them, I can see all your fears,
I promise that I will never do anything to bring you tears.
I will be the one who will always treat you right,
Making sure there is no one else you will go to at night.
I'll give you every part of me,
I know deep down that we are meant to be.
No one can love you the way I do,
Even though we know each other so well, everything feels so new.
You can look all you want but you'll never find anyone like me,
And that's how strong our love should be.
Here we are our love so strong,
We've been waiting for this happiness for way to long.
To have what we have I would never claim defeat,
Because together I know we are perfectly complete.

Wedding Poem

You are the most important thing in my life,
My vow to you is to be a faithful, loyal, and loving wife.
From the moment we started talking I knew I was in love,
I realized you are greater than anything that could be sent from the world above.
I remember the first time I kissed your lips,
My stomach started doing flips.
Every time you smile my heart starts to melt,
You always seem to know how I felt.
I'm happy to spend a sweet eternity in your arms,
You keep me away from any kind of harm.
I know I am confused about a lot of things,
But I know this is true love because it goes deeper than any fling.
I promise I will never leave you,
For I swear with my whole heart and soul my love is true.
You have given me so much, and in return I have no clue what I can give you,
I guess my love will have to do,
Which I hope is enough because there is nothing greater that I can give you.

Wounded Heart

In the beginning our relationship was great,
We use to have so much fun whenever we went on a date.
You always use to give me your love and affection,
Now when I'm with you all I feel is rejection.
What happened to all the love we use to share,
You always use to tell me how much you care.
Now all you do is put me down,
Telling me that since I won't sleep with you, you're fooling around.
You say you want to work things out and be with me,
But if you're sleeping around how can that be?
You make me so upset and confused to where I don't know what to do,
Should I pack my bags say we're through?
I think about how you've been treating me,
Everything you're putting me through is tearing me apart, can't you see?
I feel like I'm about ready to breakdown and cry,
Now I'm doing the hardest thing I have to do, which is saying goodbye.
