Evans Onyango(09-06-1989)

My passion for poems started when I read Poems from Africa, among the poets in the book are my favourite poets, such include Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Chinua Achebe and Okot B'tek. The marvellous pieces of work in these book are delicately intertwined with abundant words of encourage within complex content, and as such, I took up the role of giving poems life that they deserve.

I Know.

I know that when you are in love your heart skips a bit, your mouth dries and you become lost for words. I know that when you are in love she becomes everything you need and you feel fulfilled in your heart and in your soul. I know that when you are in love you feel breathless in her absence and that is why you always miss her even after just seeing her. I know that when you are in love you care about her and that is why she will always come first. Yes I know because that is what makes my love for you real, the love of my life.

Our Romance And Warmth.

I wanted to write you a letter my love together in our secrets, Romance and warmth lost in the long grass. To bring back the shadow of your legs
And the happiness filtering through the endless pains To bring back the madness of our passion,
And the joy of our reunion.
