1 2 3 4

One two three four
i hit the floor
my tears shed
my heart fled
this is the cause of you

im out the door
but not without your pain and it was all in vain emptiness is what i gained

what is inside my core sadness, redness, and fear this is all i bare

I carry heartache, emptiness, hazy thoughts and many fights within

breathe...my heart is racing, my tears shedding I cant win the this chatter its killing me within

Another Tomorrow

Theres always to many when and whys
when i sleep and when i awake this dream appears

Dreams of rape, drugs, abuse fantasy and hopes
its like i live in CSI tv

I sleep awake and choke on the dreams Listen closely and hear me scream Calm my mind
cause its in a bind

Im on my knees alive but dead look at all my blood shed Today is here and tomorrow is gone Is there hope or is it all gone

Burnt out, wasted, empty and hollow Will there be another tomorrow

Want To Be Free

Promise to hold me tight during this old fight Hold my hand and carry me along this battle for i feel like im abanoed Listen to my sroties
but dont judge me
for all i want is to be free Help me for I struggle with chatter in my head Please share my fears for they are hard to bear Promise to relieve me
of this burden
for i feel i must leave now
I bow before you humbled and scared.
I just want to be free

Why Me?

Why?

thats what i ask

why did you hurt me

why did i have to hurt

for the rest of my life

Im shattered inside and out all i want to is shout

Why did this all come about

Why?

This is my constant question

I feel inferior to all men

I pray that you may suffer

AMEN

I thought you loved her but now i see i was the poison, victim you seeked

Why?

Now i have constant doubt and my hatred friend that i call chatter

why? why me

When im social
they are weiry
when i try to help
no thanks the say

When i smile
they frown
When i giggle
they question my intent Whats Wrong With me

When im unsocial
they call me names
when im upset
they say im to blame
What Wrong With me

Whats wrong. I say
Whats wrong. Why
cant i be like them
normal
