Celebrate Yourself

Every one mustn't like you or be your fan.

The truth is, some people despise you for no reason.

Sometimes they don't know why they don't like you.

Often they don't like you because another person doesn't.

The weird world, right?

Anyway, when you come across this breed of humans, act like a Grey rock and ghost them out of your life.

Life is all about vision, mission, goals, hope, wish and achievements.

That's why, in any circumstance, we ought to celebrate those who have had a positive impact on our lives.

And above all celebrate ourselves.

Closer Than A Brother

My best friend closer than a brother.
Encourages me when I'm down.
Never gossip about me.
Stands up for me in every situation
Yes! You are the best friend closer than a brother.
When everyone abandons me, you stand by me.
You count, collect and wipe my tears when I'm in so much pain.
Always willing to help when I can't do it all by myself.
Yes! You are my best friend closer than a brother.
You challenge and caution me positively.
I see and be the best of me because of your guidance.
Oh! My best friend who celebrates my joy with me.
I thank God for having such a wonderful friend.
I am indebted to God, and I promise to be the best friend who is closer to you than a brother.

Come Closer To Me

"I heard that" she did that horrible thing.
Oh no! Not again lies about me,
Stop lying about me.
Why not come closer to know more about me?
"I heard that" she is dangerous.
Oh no! Not again messing with my name,
Why not verify the information before spreading rumours about me?
Please come closer to know more about me.
I'm not the person they portray me to be.
"I heard that" she is evil.
Oh no! not again such a big fat lie about me.
What do you gain for saying trash about me?
Are you trying to make yourself better?
I'm a little girl trying to be me.
Why waste so much time trying to destroy my reputation?
Please come closer and know the real me then you'll realize that I am the opposite of what you thought I was.
Oh no! Not again.
Come closer to me to know who I really am.

God Our Creator

When the challenges of life break you down, where do you go to for repair?

When life around you is crumbling,
who do you rush to for help?

When the pain is unbearable and, you can't take it one more time, who do you go to for comfort?

When carrying this heavy load of anger, frustration and disappointment daily, who do you go to for advice?

Have you ever thought about the only person who won't laugh and mock at you when everyone does?

Have you ever thought about the only person who won't abandon you when everyone runaway?

God is the only one who will never leave you.

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

You can't fix a bicycle properly in a car garage.

The mechanic won't have all the spare parts.

Sometimes he doesn't have the experience.

Consider where you go to for help when your life is hopeless.

Stop going to the wrong people for help.

Most people are as broken as you are.

Stop rushing to the wrong places to seek comfort.

Why not turn to God who created you in His image.

He knows you even before you were born.

God has all the spare parts and knows how to fit them together to make you whole again.

Only God can repair us when all hope is gone and, the road to God's garage is through His word.

Rush now and don't look back.

God is waiting to make you whole again.

Grey Rock

I'm a Grey rock.

Hard to crack.

The bricklayer knocked me off several times, but I didn't shatter because I'm the Grey rock difficult to crack.

They sent a flood of water to wash me away, but I stayed uneroded because I'm the Grey rock.

The earthquake occurred with so much disaster around me, but they saw not even a pebble out of me.

Oh yeah, I'm the Grey rock difficult to crack.

The weight I had was frightening, so they threw me in an ocean to drown.

But God is my saviour who wouldn't let me die.

He is my creator who made me a Grey rock difficult to crack.

Just Me

Get behind me jealousy,
I wanna be me.
I don't wanna be like everyone.
Stop feeding my mind with competitive thoughts.
I refuse to copy the ways of everyone.
I wanna be me.
The one and only me made in the image of God.
God created me uniquely.
That is who I wanna be.
Get behind me envy.
I refuse to feel unhappy for someone's success.
I will celebrate with my friends because rejoicing with them will pave the way for greater success in my life.
I've got what it takes to be me inside of me.
I'm gonna be me.
Yes! I can.

Life Struggles

We have seen it all.

There comes a time in our life when nothing can bring us down.

When we become bulletproof and won't have to prove our worth to anyone.

when the strongest wind can't blow us down.

Even the pebbles the wind carries can't hurt us because we have seen it all.

We don't fall in untied shoelaces.

We don't crash when running at top speed.

We pass a test without studying.

People understand us without us speaking.

Our light shines in the darkest room.

When we've struggled a lot in life, we reach a peak moment when nothing can bring us down. People might wonder why you couldn't crash or fall despite the obstacles in your life. The simple answer is that you have seen it all so nothing can bring you down.

Value Of Time

Time doesn't wait for anyone
It goes and never comes back
Don't waste it and get frustrated later on Why complain about not getting a job when?
Clicking and liking a Facebook post won't get you a job
Liking and sharing an unnecessary post won't get you a job
Getting excited over likes and comments won't get you a job
Commenting and sharing an irrelevant post won't get you a job
Belonging to social groups that have a zero impact in your growth mindset won't get you a job either.
If only you could learn one additional thing for a day,
Or develop and increase your knowledge in a month,
Then you would realize that you have the potential to change your life, and the world around you.
Get excited over likes and comments about something great you've done and achieved.
Comment and share a post that will create an impact on someone's life
Belong to a group where you will learn new things that will develop your growth mindset
Time is precious, so don't waste it.

Who Made You The Judge?

Who made you the judge?

For criticising and blaming people for their errors.

Who made you the judge?

To tell people how to live their lives.

Judging how good or bad a woman takes care of her husband.

Judging how kind or abusive a man treats his wife.

Who made you the judge?

For trying to fix people's problems when you are in a worse situation than them.

For trying to mend broken marriages when you are not married.

Who made you the judge?

Poking your nose into people's business.

Intruding in other people's privacy.

Creating enmity among people.

Showing off to be a better human.

Why are you so judgemental?

Cast the first stone if you are without mistakes.

Look yourself in the mirror.

Can you count the hair on your head?

I guess not!

So stop judging people because the one who created us is the only judge.

God didn't make you a judge.
