What Is War?

What is War?

A conflict between two nations

A fight that never seems to end

A combat full of hatred and no consideration towards the innocent

Chain broken families left in distress

Action that turns places hostile, placing innocent hearts in different corners

Soldiers ready to face the dangers that awaits

A bloodshed of brave souls who stood and fought for their nation

A time of sorrow for the lost

A time of joy for the found

If war is all of these things,

Is it then the right solution?
