Darkness

The darkness around my life is caving in I call for help but all I here is my own voice bouncing off the walls of darkness will anyone ever here me I yell out again to see if anyone will hear my hurting voice but yet again no answer I cry so hard to the point where there are no tears left to shed I realize that I do have someone to help me so I began to pry I ask him please show me the light I've been trapped so long in this darkness and my life is caving in all I want is to be free but yet I feel that I Haven't proved anything to him or showed any love towards him I know that I have created this darkness upon myself and with faith I know I will see the light soon it will take time but I know God wont let me fall.

Pain

This pain wont let me live why does it follow me why cant it just leave me alone what have I done to cause it to destroy my inside I've tried so many time to run away from it but the farther I run the harder the pain hurts in my heart just let me live my life without pain I ll do whatever it take to destroy this pain that wont let me breath that wont let me live a normal life it why does pain hurt so much why does it make you feel like dying so many people kill them self over pain because they don't know how to express them self to other it's a sad thing that all it takes is pain to end it all.

What Are You Thinking

What are you thinking

I sit here and think while I am writing to u

If your thinking of me this second

If I am in your thought threw out the days

I think to myself if you dream of us if you pictures us together forever

I sit under the night sky and think if you looking at the same star I am looking at

What are you thinking

Because I know what I am thinking about

I am thinking of us

I think about how its going to be when we hold hand for the first time

I think how is it going to be when I hold you in my arm

Letting you know that know one will ever hurt you again

And when we have are first kiss

What Is It About Her

What is it about her

Is it her smile

Is it her laugh

Is it how she looks at me

Is it those big beautiful eyes

That remind of the twinkling falling stars

Is it her touch

What is it about her

I sit at my bed and think

And wonder what it will be like when we're together again

And when you're standing here in front of me

That's when I know God does exist

Because I know he will answer every prayer

That I pray for
