Just The Same

I am so disappointed on you.
You hurt me.
You'll never find happiness till the end of your life.
You're just the same.
Same like the other.
Try to play me.
You'll regret, for sure it will be forever.
I'll never pray for your happiness.
Cause, my pain will never end.
You can see I am smiling,
but inside of me still feel the pain from my past.
Why can't you see? Why can't you feel? I hate you.

She

She is just a seventeen years old girl. That dont know everything.
Everyone said shes childish. Need someone to take care of her.
She tried to be a mature. But she can't. She giving up. She just want to be herself.

She want to leave alone. All alone. She dont need anyone. She just need her family always beside her.

She always feel the pain. She tried to be happy so no one can see her sadness. She knew sadness will never end. She will face it by herself.

She can't runaway from any mistake. She only know how to cry, cry whenever she feel down.

No one and No body knows what she feel, what she want, what she need. What she do is just move on.

Move on with a new life. Still the same. She amit she cant face this anymore, cant stand it. She just want to leave this world and say goodbye.
