i have a son named christopher.m. mcdonald he is now 14 years is the most important thing to me in this world 1/14/06

A Shadow In The Dark

As I sit alone in the dark I see a shadow appear in the darkness as I pray for a glimmer of light as she stands before me I can hardly breath is this a dream if so I don't want to ever wake up I yearn for her soft gentle touch is this asking too much as I reach for the light she touches my hand to slide it away as she speaks to ask me if she could stay she doesn't like to sleep alone as we hold each other ever so close I think she is the most from a shadow in the dark I am alive again to feel this love again

A Cold Night

As I walk into the cold night air I will walk on forever never shedding a tear I feel the cold mountain air I shall show no fear While my end grows near Walking toward the light I see A vision, a sight,
The most beautiful angel taking flight
Or is she a ghost?
I wish I knew this host that shares the night Something feels right as she kisses me goodnight She and I will take flight Holding her ever so tight we dream of better days She will be my love always
As I walk into this cold night I will hold her tight
My love
My guiding light

An Autumn Day

As I search the autumn sky I watch the birds learning to fly When out of the distance something catches my eye When to my eyes I catch a surprise When I know it's not the fourth of July Two planes come out of the sky
When I see them crash in to the world trade center Is this the end of the world?
No I see the world trade centers with with gas and smoke
So I need not choke no I will survive to tell the tale For the people shall wale scream for justice Have they forgotten about us as the trade centers turn to dust?
We shall turn to our president Bush will cushion our fall America stands for freedom Freedom for us all
Our backs are not against the wall We shall answer the call We shall defend the red white and blue Watch out for the person
We will be coming for you

Could You Tell Me

the flowers are in bloom, i know she will be there soon.
tears come down as i hear, the cry of the loon.
i will send my love with in the wind, waiting for you to show me where to begin.
your sweet saddle scent came on the wind, i know i must begin to sing.
when she shows me the love she brings, threw out the spring time.
with in your heart there will be a glow, our love is strong but true.
when i know i will be waiting for you, whith every thing i have to share with you.
i just want you to know how much i love you, we must have been blind not seeing, what was before us all this time.
could you answer me this,
what could we do for all theses years we have mist? wishing i could have told you how i felt back then' could you tell me when will i see happy ness agin?

Fredrick McDonald

Desteny

When i am with you i set my self in destenys hands threw the years i have survived it all for a time or to i was alone when there was no place to call my home in to these streets i am alone to wonder or dismay i made it threw another day threw out it all i have stood tall wishing it wasn't to late telling my tears to wait another day heart break to happyness oh what a day when i know your there must i ask do you care as i shed that final tear

Destinys Trail

we have walked our path now we lead the way from heart ake to shame we all feel the pain as i take you by the hand guide you deep with in the land my heart follows the stars and moon just waiting for your first bloom through it all we have stood firm now we face the worms now our children guide there way through hert ake and loss to many words left un said why do you speak of me now that we are dead we send comfirt and joy deep from with in all you must do is listen to the wind our crys are left un answered amongst the preayors now all you do is shed them tears no more as we walk our destiny trail

Fredrick McDonald

Forever Free

to wonder where i had lost you my heart cant carry on with out you for every beat of my heart it thinks of you my pain is so real you know the deal and how i feel kiss me forever and always our love is so true just remember it might stop if the end comes near but for now come deep with in my arms so ill never let you go just let our love flow free you know we are ment to be untill our lovers return to the sea ill be standing there as if they wait for me to return for more passion to burn as my whole world starts to turn turning against the sun as our hearts where on the run against the sun but they know what waits for me our love is forever free

Fredrick McDonald

Friendship

to where the sunlight chooses to bare my heart is always dship runs so deep ravens caw and creap my heart knows no bound where true friend ship is found. though leaps and bounds heaven knows no bound when come to friends standing around. as we are family love knows no not to part as it runs so deep with in our hearts we miss you to forget as time goes by just wanted to say hi keep our friend ship alive dont let it ever die.

Fredrick McDonald

Heart Ake

holding back my tears when i know i must go i search for the answers from near and far when will i know for how long i must stay away until the day we reunite with out any heart ake telling you i am here but i wish and wonder if you care you say you love me but words are bold but easy to say why do i have to stay away till the day from choices we make are hard to take but i have to ask my self is this a mistake there is so much pain to take from mouths that medle into things where they dont belong i wish to god its not to long i wish you was here to help me hide the tears that come with in when i notice tears running down my chin as i promised id be there for you but as we know i couldnt do when we dont keep out people that pull us a part i guess our love is doomed from the start i love you with all my heart trying to talk to you just tell me what to do are you still in love with me i must know if your the same i guess ill set in the pouring rain to hide my tears where do i hide the heart ake

Fredrick McDonald

Hell

for when you touched my heart you put me through hell but people say o' well just dont care as you weep thought's and feeling run so deep.
your heart feels broken and ever so cheap waiting for you to say the right words some are less said or seldum herd with in this vers it is now feeling worse from the vers my heart can no longer take a beating man he wasnt kidding until that time you take the blame until you you feel all the pain you caused my heart will take a pause never to beat until you say you was long how could i have made this song from tenderness and tears you will know i care untill we unite and you make it all right from when you touch my heart it wasnt very smart birth of a child it felt so wild to touch your hand made me feel like a man until the day you come around i guess i will never settle down with in this vers it is now feeling worse my heart is about to burst the joy and the pain now that you have gone i can move on now that you have moved on and run away i guess my heart will stay until the day you explain why you hurt me so bad and left me feeling so sad i guess thats why i am your dad people will come and go but i am here to stay until that day we will part from this earthy plain i hope god can stop all this pain when you look back and see what you have done it will be to late for the days has gone by ever so slow i will know when you see your wrong i will release it with in my song heaven has enough tears that where shed but i guess thats why im feeling so dead for when you touch my heart you put me though hell but all the people say o well untill they feel this hell then they will know how it feels your heart feels broken and ever so cheap waiting for you to say the right words

man he wasnt kidding until that time you take the blame until you

you feel all the pain you caused my heart will take a pause
from tenderness and tears you will know i care
untill we unite and you make it all right

Here's To You P.J. O'Hare

a man of honor who helped us when we were in need a true friend indeed a man who honored our mother when she had passed, toasted her to say good bye as he told us our mother wouldn't want us to cry to a place we all go to our favorite watering hole to drink our troubles and cares away bearing our souls he listens to it all and says nothing at all with out any thought of his own to P.J. O'Hare we shall drink your irish drink of love you must have been sent from up above hey P.J. pass me a bottle of bud just slamming them down we might get hammered its possible we may fall down we will all have fun at P.J. O'Hares' employees and patrons alike we will stand by you to fight a good fight before we pass out we will say our good night as P.J. says goodnight wonderful to see you and for us to come again darned in green his pub is so clean like the four horsemen to the fighting irish you shall stand tall and conquer them all you will show them who is boss as you give them a toss if their not your friend it will be their loss this poem is for you Mr. P.J. O'HARE

Fredrick McDonald

I Know

when i pull you close i feel your loveing heart when we know what we have from the start to touch your lips to mine is like a dream come true just let me know what to do how much heart ake you must have endered why am i feeling your tears from all the fear when can i pull you close to let me in where or how to begain just let me know where tword the night i feel your presance come near when can i come near with out any fear or regection to see or hear objection of fear why must i sence you tears when you weep as you come near to touch your skin to mine just wanted to know if everything is fine i shall not stray but i must stay away as i feel them silent tears come from whith in your soul i will know how much i love you so

Fredrick McDonald

I Walk Alone

In to this world I walk alone when I know my heart shall guide me to set me free I am wishing to know who could she be the one in search of me when do I let down my guard I wish this game of love wasn't so hard for I wish some times I was blind so I couldn't see your sadness or your tears for when we embrace I shall feel your heart for it will not lie as I hold you ever so close I feel your heart moving so slow when you kiss me I will taste the ocean from your lips which you could set my heart in motion when I wipe away the tears from your eyes before I go into this world alone which I have no home of my own I am searching for you knowing this is ever so true wishing you would love me too but for now I walk alone

Fredrick McDonald

In To Dawns Early Night

as i wait for you
you seem to good to be true as i serch for her in the early mornning light for when i sence there isnt somthing quiet rite passion filled heart will never grow apart as i wait for you waitingg for that small some what of a spark for when they egnite our souls will take flight when you know she is ms. rite in the mornning light as she passes the test i tell her she is the best wich i shall try my best ill try not to make a mess of our hearts as they take flight in the early dawn of night

Fredrick McDonald

Let Me Know

When i saw you i thought you were to good to be true.
Aangel apears when i think of you, just let me know how i can get to you.
my heart is ment for you, just let me knowwhat to do.

Should i tell you we are ment to be, when our hearts are so free can you tell me how this could be.

as i rise in the morning sun.
should i tell you you are the one we are ment to be.
for when i saw you our hearts grow so close.
from the words never said should i go away. instead while i hang my head just disapear instead.

when i should have told you how i feel.
when my love for you is so real.
when i know how i feel.
when i thought you was to good to be true.

when i know i was ment for you.
let me know how i found you.
my heart is ment for you.
let me know if this is you.

Fredrick McDonald

Let Me Know What To Do

Wake me to the song bird of love, Just wantin to share their love.
Pulling tword the morning light, as we know this is so rite.
When you hold me ever so close, wisperin I love you.

with a look of love so true, wishing I could tell you what to do.
When I am not with you, Threw your sadness and tears.
when i am with you,
I wish i knew what to do.
Should i carry your burdon for you?

Just let me know what to do, i will hold that cross for you.
Anything you desire,
I'm on fire with you.
Flames run so deep,
can you tell me why you weep?
You know you can share what is wrong,
In my arms is where you belong.
'i love you'

Fredrick McDonald

Lookin

as I search I feel her love burning bright within my heart i'm lost in the state of mind of compassion I feel I am looking for the love the light in my heart that makes me whole will I find her looking for my destiny my one true love

as I search for my goddess of loveliness she looks from afar i'm at the other end of the room I walk toward her she says hello my love when our eyes meet or future is mapped out in the sands of time there for all eternity..

No More Tear's

when i look at a tear dropp what everyone has gotten before once in a while you see them hit the floor when i look at you i ask you to shed them no more as i watch another hit the floor wishing to turn or hold the hands of time trying to make you mine when the butterflys flew to my belly as i ask you to walk with me hand in hand make me feel like i have crossed over in to the promise land as soul mates we are united as one dry those tears and cry no more to hold you is like a sweet embrace from them battered hands you will see no more tears eighteen years of sadness there will be no more there will never be tears no more

Our Flag Is At Half Mass

this one is for my step father Robert Albro born 5 Jan 1933 past away 18 Jun 1995 age of 62 He fought for this country in korea.1949 -1954

raise our flag to half mass to let our solders know one of them has past as we look toward the grey sky of smoke our lungs are filled with the smoke damp dark air is what we breath. to march recon our ground to make sure snipers or bombs are not found with in the cold ground. our men are scared to loose there live's. we are never suprized of death never the less we must fight to protect our owen. so we can leave for home. after our tour of dutie is done i've seen our country turn there backs on the less we have defended our country and gave it all. as we watch another solder fall. that is why we stand brave and true we have been trained what to do. to miss libterty i sulute you as you stand for freedom and our red white and blue. as our flag stands at half mass then draped over our brothers in draped over there caskets in the sun, sleet snow and the rain never the less it is all the same for us to say good bye as we give him the twenty gun salute to give that final the sloder's finishes that final fold the bugle sounds out to say good bye as we watch anther solder pass to know we have gave our will promise to never let our flag fall.In god we trust as we breath in this smoke and dust our flag will stay at half mass until our last solder comes home to let them know he is not alone.

Our Hearts Will Never Say Good Bye to where and when the last bell toll our souls will wander the the night sky need not know the answer why do not shed a tear or cry when my hear us says good bye from the last sun set i will be called home as you would think im all alonefrom our family in the past show our souls the way home but some of us choose to stay to make sure our job is done for our loved ones we have left be hind i thank god you are mine to gether we shall drink the holy wine to say im here you my nights of visions have come true deep as red of blood shows the wine i shall be with you for all times deep with in your heart a shimmer of warmth is from me when our souls are set free just waiting for my one true love to show me the path and light i will not leave you with in the night i will never leave you in death or life my soul belongs to you you know our hearts is like a knight in shinning armor standing guard to protect you from the evils with in my mind is at value we shall win as one our hearts will never say good bye so don't you think or say good bye because my soul will never die

Fredrick McDonald

Sands Of Time to where the heart ake is bound true love will always be found as we gaze upon each other time will tell where true love is found for we are a grain of sand with in this hour glass of time if it is true love our love will grow spred with in each grain of sand lasting for all time if it is just lust it will just be that speck of dust unwilling to trust could you tell me are we the hour glass or just a piece of dust with no trust heaven will let us know wich way our love will go

Fredrick McDonald

Seekers

for the seekers serching for the reson why some will laugh some will cry tears will be shed we know not the reson why heart ake and love will always be posed as one but my friends i hold dear are number one from brief encounter to long life friends we will all know when the time is rite for when we kiss our love ones a kiss good night we will always look back and remember when the trust and honesty will follow us forever for the seekers serching for why

Fredrick McDonald

Shed A Tear

as I shed a tear for you I think of the pain and happiness you're the one that make our love pure knowing the ways to love me
as I shed a tear for you as I shed a tear for you tears are for our love the bonds of love are so strong no one shall break our bond of love
our love is strong but true guess what I love you as our doves fly they will hold our bands of gold shed no tears we are in love

as I shed a tear for you

Fredrick McDonald

Silent Tears

as I lay here awake thinking what a mess i'm in tried to be happy but you have to put on a smile where a frown is but it will go right back to your face.. it's a hard place to face the facts just packing up your things never looking back go to where your heart will allow.. dang look at my life now wow it's been fifteen years some good some bad you keep telling yourself it's not that bad so now you look ahead to your future you start to have a gray head your tell you dad your not through the wisdom you seek is within just tap me on my chin and let me start over again we shall be happy again just wipe away those silent tears

Fredrick McDonald

Soul Searching

through the mist my lover steals a soft gentle kiss need not ask why our feelings are the same in this thing they call love looking toward the stars above I wish I could find the one true love stole my heart she need not know shall I stay or shall I go looking toward the stars for answers watching the stars looking like tiny dancers threw out the land pushing into the night wishing I could hold you but the gods must be cruel not knowing who you are but not yet revealed I guess the gods lips are sealed the feeling is real but I need her for real your lucky you're in love but you have to ask yourself are you happy with the strings of the heart playing your song then you will know that you belong before it is written in a song wish I could move on knowing where I belong i'll strike up the band as I take her hand as we walk into the promised land holding her ever so tight knowing this is so right

Fredrick McDonald

The Test

As I look in your light blue eyes I see the future through them A man and a woman happy and content With one and other
Never looking back and never to stray Pure love forever and eternity

I see the man touching your hair With stardust
Making you feel all the love
Like a downpour from the heavens

He tells God to stand back this time
This is my one true love Open your heart and feel all the love and joy From our souls

Send us to earth to test our love You on one side of the world Me at the other
We shall walk endlessly till we feel our souls reunite

God will marry us in his own words He will ask you for your vow of love She will say
To my soulmate
My one true love
I give to thee my mind body and spirit

He will then look at her and tell her With this ring I thee wed
I give you my soul, my mind, my body, and my spirit Then with His grace we shall live as Adam and Eve We shall live forever as one

As they grow old Never fearing death
After living a life time of happiness Their souls will fly to heaven

Hand in hand
Never letting go as they see the last sunrise

The Vow

for when we ride the last sun set our souls will always be joined as one never knowing where we are our heart will bare that scar dream of me unto this night our souls shall unite deep with our dreams unknowing where sun light beam shines through we will know with in a dream how true love truly shines through my heart shall always belong to you until our vows are forever inter twined you will never be mine for when i say i do my soul my heart belongs to you now and forever i do

The White Rose

the rose is a thing of beauty never changes with time only fades by the sun i search for my love with every dying breath

I stand high on the mountain looking in to a big vast meadow searching for my one true love to find rose is a great victory the rose is unbreaking to the wind bends from every breath of air

she stands tall through it all she stands in waiting waiting for my voice in the wind to call she is truly alone one of a kind a pure white rose

my true love my soulmate sitting on the bluff a true red rose we shall marry soon I 'll ask the bees and the birds to carry my pollen we can make our children from our love

red and the white shall unite as one just for the night or love will soar through the wind of love she will whisper I love you forever and always I will say always and forever i'll love you my single white rose

The Wings Of Love

Hidden in heart ake and shame I know of a tale even my heart starts to wale two lovers meant to be.
But the world could never see.
How much love came her and I.
Every waken song the skylark has come and gone.
It flew away upon its wings of gold.
Not knowing where it might go.
For when it returns these two lovers yearn for each others embrace.
I see the flicker of love start to dim and start to die.
She speaks to the moon and the star's above as does he.
He catches her loving face upon the moon.
He whispers to her ill be waiting for you.
As she whispers back ill be there soon.
As if to send her love upon the wings of the loon.
As I start to cry she whispers I will love you till I die.
As the loon starts to cry long into the night.
My heart starts to shake and shimmer as it shows a little glimmer

Fredrick McDonald

To My Sweet Valentine

As I look to the future what could be one you one me as you know cupid started this with a bow by now you must know how much I love you so with us it started in letters very special and dear two simple kids growing up without any fear knowing their love was the same we started playing this love game my heart was yours without any cares I promised my love to you as for God knows it's true as the arrow you send with your cupid bow soon I will let you know how much I love you so as I ask you will you be my sweet valentine? ? ?

To The Maiden Of The Mist threw the early morning mist i gently blow my maiden a kiss we share threw the morning light we share that gentle breeze from her falls with every gentle touch of her mist before the day light dawns she steals a kiss but for now the day light dawns she wispers to the wind ill be back to hold your handsoon enough ill take your wedding band try to walk threw this day with love and dismay i will return before this night ends where we will begin agin

Fredrick McDonald

To The One

When you are near we will never know any fear as i hold you close to my side i am thankful im alive pushing threw your walls you have put up wishing to answer your call telling you i would take all that you give or offer threw shakels and chains that tie you down from the weakest link i feel i could break them all threw the black and blues you felt the pain you must have chosen to stay for now when you are afraid let me know when to hold you defend you to let you know i care just take my hand when i am there emotions run so deep but i will love you in one solid sweep to the one this is to this must be written for you

Fredrick McDonald

To The One When I Said Good Bye

As i hang my head to say good bye As i tell you not to cry When there is nothing left for me here Trying to tell you this with out shedding a tear When it was in your fear i told you there was nothing here for me I tried to make it work but there was so many jerks A few friends far and in between and you know what i mean Tears of saddness rolls down my face when i will know how hard it is for me to walk away But you know i can not stay for saddness comes today For when we know there is nothing left to be said As we both go to our seprate beds No more words being said As our tears lay with in our pillows Heart ache will follow us
As i turn and walk away on this final day When we are full of hurt and dismay I dont have many words to say As i pull you close tell you i am here Deep with in your deepest cornor of your heart I will be there so dont shed a tear
When i said goodbye i knew it was hard not to cry When i say to the one when i said goodbye

Fredrick McDonald

To The One I Wish For

wishing to tell you how I feel knowing how this is so real letting you know I wish you cared as the loon cries for its mate I know that we are destined for this fate as she answers his call when somethings are never said nestled so tight I will always love you through the night as I tell her dawn will break through soon I guess thats why I wish I was your loon as they mate for life I wish I had that life for a bird of a feather flock together

Fredrick McDonald

To The Teachers

your wisdom is wise you inspire our minds some children move to the head of the class you show us the world is vast you show us of the future and the past but some of us kids hate math but we must pass for some day we shall be the teacher at the head of the class our futures are marked in stone we will have to go in to this world on our own we set our foundations on our own some go to college some stay home to the halls the students and teachers must roam soon it will become time to go home we must know what we will become for the teachers know that we are not dumb for our futures have just begun to the teachers we just wanted to let you know you are number one

To Where The Heart Lie's

To where the heart lie's to many days has gone by. When you sat down to cry for when the next man come to call. You will see the last tear dropp fall. As you heart fill's with joy as you say no more boys as you love your man. Hold on as long as you can you have to ask where is this you search until dawn your heart will beat and go on .Until you know where the heart lies. Will love fall or will it die as it grow's you must go on to know. To where this eternal river flow's with love that is sent from above. Only then you will find true love to where the hear lie's

Fredrick McDonald

To Where The River Flows to where the river flows love knows to where it might go for when it kisses the evening snow heart's are filled with silver and gold not to see the shimmer of light until you hold some one tight when will she know she is miss right until she sees that mystic night when the love starts to flow like the river of gold until they unite they will never grow old until this north wind starts to blow down the river it will go waiting for that evening snow

Fredrick McDonald

To Wish Upon A Star

for when the wind blows he will know how much you love him so turning the tide will only delays your fate tell him you love him before its to late heaven sent a special gift to guide you a sweet valentine that said you where his to bare now turn to him and show him you care wish upon a star because he knows who you are

Fredrick McDonald

Waiting For You

as i wait for you
when every thing i say or do reminds me of you waiting for you to say the rite words very seldom herd

with out muttering a word as the dawn ends wondering if we will still be friends will we be lovers agin

i will be waiting for you to say i love you wishing to hold you ever so tight as we slip off in to the night

first i must rehearse this special verse ment for you when you ask me do you love me to

Fredrick McDonald

What Do I Do

The dawn has come once agin, When I rise to meet the sky.
I did not know what to say,
My mind does not see what I mist.
As i lean over to give my lover a kiss,
When she meets me half way.
Why was i shocked in a startel with dismay,
As we make love once again.
We just dont wont this day to begain,
We could turn back the hands again.
Or slow the sands of time,
When i know you are mine.
Easter come and went,
When i got your call.
I do wish you was here to hide my tears, Just wanted to let you know you are missed.
When i am so blue from missing you,
I hurt a little each day.
Never to turn to walk away, Because as you know my heart will stay.
For when i look in to your eyes,
I am always hipnotized for a time or two.
I can only think of nothing but you,
So I guess my love is ever so true.
When i am with you.

What Ever Will Be

where do i go from here like a shadow in the mist i will try to share my life with you when we stand threw it all we had a ball now you show me nothing at all can i turn the hands of time waiting to share everything that is mine i wish i could say the words to unlock your heart saying the words that needed to be said kissing you with gentle lips your soft gentle touch all i wish the feelings i have to share is like the river never ending even in snow or drought the river will still flow as for our love it will soon grow growing like a rose full of beauty wich might stick you in the end will our love ever end or should i dream on what could have been or what would be then ask my self are you the one for me where do we go from here

When I Saw You

When i saw you my heart was calling out to you I thought my dream's of you where only in my imagination.
That is why i had so much hesitation
A girl like you would never dropp me a clue.
Darling darling i just wanted to say i love you

But my heart dont have no clue about you.
So why dont you tell me you love me too.
Baby you will always be in my heart.
We new it from the start how to follow my heart.
For when my heart thinks of you why cant you tell it what to do.

When i saw you my heart was calling to you I thought my dreams where only in my imagenation.
Thought it was the only way my heart would call to you.
Until my heart told me it was you.
But for now this is all brand new.

Darling darling i love you.
Until my thought are of nothing eles but you.
Baby i still havent a clue because this is all brand new.
Until that day you say you love me too.
When i saw you my heart was calling out to you.

I still havent a clue.
A girl like you would never dropp me a clue.
that is why i love you.
for when i finaly get that hint from you.
my heart was calling out to you was it my imagenation.
for all this hesitation this is so brand new.

When I Think About You

when i think of you,

My heart will stay with you.
As a painter touches his brush to a canvas, Never in a hurry not so fast to rush.

As we know as we know our love will never be rushed, Never asking our selves is this wrong?
Dieing to tell you how i feel,

With every touch or movement you show.
In every word you speak is like a song, Forever in your arms.
Eternity of happy ness and love,

For our love is like an eternal flame.
Our life will begin the heavens will open our hearts, Real emotion is what we feel.
Extending my arms to let you in,
Vibrant touch of your lips is like a wild fire burnning out of control.
Exept or passion never letting it drift upon the wind, Relax with this fate of ours as it is written with in the stars

When Will I

when will i hear the silence no more when will life hurt no more the time will come when the doves spread their wings in to the sky they shall fly high wrapped with in each others arms forever to be joined with in this heavens embrace as we gaze up on one another when will i hear silence no more as we watch the final rose petal fall to the ground there will be no sound with no one around our spirits will soar in to the sky we almost felt that we have died when we know we have tried our love will glide upon the wings of our dove when we share our true love
when will i

Wishing

throughout the years I have witnessed your tears sadness came and ran so deep when you were lost in the dark I tried to show you love when you were down I know you were not the same as I asked for your hand my heart filled with joy when I helped you with your little boy as you were filled with desperation waiting for your man to be there which I guess he didn't care but as you know I was there yearning for your sweet embrace as you had it in your head he was the man you couldn't replace you set off to walk this road of life alone of raising your child on your own as I still loved you from a far which you know who you are as you pushed me away my heart wanted to stay as you moved on my heart was still there hoping for you to ask me to stay some day you would be mine just given the chance or the time I love you wishing you were mine wishing for the day I could stand tall just tell this world I have it all

Wonder

sadness is always followed by tears heartbreak to romance has always been followed by wondering who what where and why wonder why we must say goodbye as your graduation comes near but to see another grow near as he takes my place as the ring to promise thee to be wed soon was is it we are doomed my hand trembles like a lead wait dont fret or cry no reasons come to mind the dreams are harnessed in a thought are mine I wish I could say my feelings like a grape from a vine gets better age with in time I wish these thoughts were not from the heart I loved you in the past I love you in the future our dreams are made like a grain of sand slowly runs out if given time as I wish you where mine but heaven says its never too late guess i'll put our love to the test but the reason why we had to say goodbye for now or love must wait could it ever be to late I wonder? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
