My Man

i try to remember when we loved the most in the car that night i wonder if it could of been my imaganation. But when we sit next to eachother it made me as happy as can be. Is my man in love or is it just me.

i try to love him but he never lets me oh dear i just dont feel as happy as i seem.

I never want that same love again i look around and i found my new true man.

The Sea

my sea is where i can be to be alone at last.
when my man was made.
i wanted to tell him one thing.
that he is my man.
and if he understands what he can be.
then he can succeed in loving me till the end.
my babeyy is the man.
who puts food on my pan i am poor i hope you can see.
well im poor in love.
if you are a woman and you love your man than you see what im saying that i really
love my man!
and i love him know until the final END!
