Always In The Dark

She always broke my loving heart she always kept me in the dark cheating lie's telling your friend's that she didn't love me anymore then she moved without a word burning my feeling's that i once i had for her she always kept me in the dark but i still had the most love for her even tho she broke my loving heart so many time's and kept me in the dark.

Emmtion's

Emmotion's run through me like the wild wind that blow's so hard it hurt's so much my emmotion's tear my eye's like river's devided as my emmotion's has no control or no limit no matter what no damn can ever block it nor stop it i guess i should be use too it by now but the suffer is just too much i guess suffer was met for someone like me not too live out my devoted dream's and i guess my emmtion's will alway's get the best of me it seem's.....

Forever Missed

Tears dropped down her face as the other side opened up for her it was a cloudy and rainy day that day and the sun still came through the window from where i was sitting at it shined a most wonderful beautiful light she lived a beautiful life now in peace and now at rest and now will be forever missed...

I Cry Within

i cry within i cry alone and cold as i fear my brokin heart near tear's dropp from what once was love now turn's too dust as i cry no one can hear my cry's within as i fear my deepest fear does anyone care too love a brokin heart that cry's in ache's and pain does anyone care too reach out for another in vain i cry for that day i wish when all become's the best of all my day's so intill then i will alway's cry within.

I Thought Of Her

I thought of her day and night I thought of her in my dream's as if they were real I thought of her all the time no matter where i went she was the one always on my mind she gave me the time of my life I thought of her laugh her smile that brought tears to my eyes her voice that lifted my heart ever so high I thought of her every night wishing she was in my arms day and night i thought of her indeed i thought of her...
