Listen

listen behind closed doors my heart is crying out to the world are they listening?

two steps back
how it was
how it has been interpreted could you listen to my heart?

really could you?
it written all over my face
body language tells

i am a walking dead
peace behind close doors

there is humiliation outside
i am innocent
can you believe it?

no you can't because you don't believe it?

lord please judge me today so i can walk in peace tomorrow
