Union Of Love Vs Union Of Hate

Union of love are the laws of mankind
Philanthropist is the name for above
Misanthrope is the name for little lower
So if a bowler bowls lovely
There is a chance of a wicket
On the other hand if a batsman bats lovely
There is a chance of a century
Now if a teacher asks you to underline
Lovely in the poem it counts two times
But there are so many blessing of Allah
Due to which we should only promote love
Allah asks believers for namaz five times
So we can increase love more times
Because it is best chance for community gathering especially Saying Allah's peace and mercy on you
Same peace will be nurtured
Because every action has an equal relation
But opposite in direction
Never ever follow the traits of haters
You will also become lover of mankind
Those who attain love of Allah
Do not hate the haters
Lest you will become haters
Never take sides with misanthrope
Do not leave humanity at any cost
Love them even though they do not want to love
Love is a panacea
Love is a cure-all
A thing you wish to see in all
Not like an eye for an eye
Instead love for love
All well that starts with love
And ends with love
Do not be oblivious of this four letter smile
Do not hate for a while
Do not fret do not fury for a while Everything in this life is for a while Love yourself and love others
Humanity is directly related to love

Love is directly related to wisdom

Face

Child have had a nicest face ever
Due to which he crowns on on moon
He crowns on flowers faces midday or noon
Rubs his cheeks on mum's cheeks
So lovely so charming are the scenes
When his soul gets nourishment and life gets nestled
Then comes a moment of abuzz
Elephants may cry out-loud when they lost ivory tusk
No one care, no one adhere when they shot them up
At last we see igloo and mountains facial mask
Glaciers gracefully meltdown and spring has its turn
Every one urges to earn earn and earn
In youthful delights
In a fiery attempts
They have many morsels and crumbs
Catapults her wish for happy return
Even though life has crisscross hinges affirms
And the way of hardy people may not be shunned

Eagle

Who sees the sun-loving light
Who sees the heightened height
For whom aloft is peculiar delight
For whom achievement is birthright
Even when the time for hunt becomes tight
Swoops like a pilot with a right to invade Indefatigable in zealotry to wait and invade dyed-in-the-wool freedom to have freely fight Without diatribe his is flight all-seasoned flight

Bafflement

What you are trying to seek is seeking you

What you are trying to beat is beating you

What you are trying to feed is feeding you

What you are trying to heal is healing you

What you are trying to find is finding you

What you are trying to demean is demeaning you

What you are trying to deal is dealing you

What you are trying to kill is killing you

What you are trying to read is reading you

What you are trying to correct is correcting you

What you are trying to convince is convincing you

What you are trying to judge is judging you

What you are trying to veil is veiling you

What you are trying to critique is critiquing you

Rainbow

Whatever actually activates activity activates everything

Whatever deduce energy decuces everything

Demand increases for veterans

To take charge of everything

Plight of people then can be decreased

And people forbear what they need to be

Be a rainbow for someone

Which captivates attention

And saves us from becoming itinerant

What a beautiful picture of the nature

Is seen in seven colours

Like a one odd out

Everyone should reach his potential favour far out

Playing

Babies like to play in the mud
So anxiously they wait for their mother's love
I saw a baby in his suit
Another baby was flying kite
That baby in his suit saw me strangely in the eyes
While playing in the mud they become one like a dust
May God keep their innocence
Not for the vary moment
That belongs to him
But for the whole life
That is something that needs to be eulogized
Innocence is innocence and never the twain shall meet

Drizzling And Raining

How splendidly
How beautifully
How majestically
How superbly rain pours down
Into valleys and towns
Into oceans and streams
Into anywhere in need
Makes the whole atmosphere jubilant
The birds chirp, cuckoo sings, cat mews
The cricket sings and dog barks
The whole atmosphere becomes redux
Everyone gets rejoices due to fresh air
Plants look more greener
Crow cries like a winner
Everything becomes supernormal
Sparrow flies so swiftly
Every cloud has a silver lining
Crow flies high in the sky
Birds show unity while flying
Dogs bark incessantly
Which gives a giddy feeling

Wisdom

Truth hard work and piety
Provide every person opportunity
As real wisdom lies in avoiding sinfulness
It is a step by step process not a sudden wakefulness
Some say absolute wisdom is absolute freedom
Whereas wisdom to think is wisdom to exist
Real healing comes when you purify your heart
From the grudges, envy, hatred and malice
As when we scroll a dice does not have the same side
Some people travel distances wide
Others hide in reading books for a while
There are also those who benefit their tribe
Consider this world as ephemeral kite
Whose strings are not in their hand
Everything in life goes hand in hand
Whether it is artistry or rich tapestry
We need communion and collaboration not a magic wand
Let's become friend and then put a dent
Hafiz Muhammad Qasim

Deracialization

Just move away
Just move away
From races
From intricacies
From hazes
From clouds of darkness
From clouds of ignorance
Then watershed justice for all
Create indiscrimination for all
True democracy is justice for all
A society that is transparent
A humanity full and flagrant
Like a good vicegerent
Create a generation of empowered
Think beyond territorial discrimination
Empathy for all
Emotional intelligence is all
To reach etherealization

Dependence

Dependence is a double fatigue
It never increases your value
Nor make you ornamental or antique
One who depends on other
Hangs himself on a tree
People like amusement not anxiety
People even like dolce far niente
Not only this people want to do away
Not only with responsibilities but also obligation
There is no ambiguity in this insertion
The point is so crystal clear like indoctrination
Too much dependence can create suffocation
Even though you never want misrepresentation

Beauty

Let me ask what is beauty?
Is it eternal rhyme of enfolded charm
Is it 'imaginatio' for the woebegone?
What is it all about after all?
Is it a scent of maiden's bliss?
Scrupulous food of bashful lassie
Is it a climax to reach a pitch of glory?
Is it a chill in ice-capped mountains?
Is it mean to achieve something high?
Or a patchwork of exorbitant smile

Alienation

Just as matter of fact the more they show Commitment the less deviation there would be
He is not like Dryden who brainstorm
And sequentially arrange deranged ideas
Everyone has a share accept the desensitive mind
Who never like to situate himself into the realm of ideas?
Sleep no more O child
Where! where waterfalls alike
Like a small pin of Brobdingnagian setup
He never has had a ripe

Disambiguation

Certainly it is veracity, not prevarication
In this life there is much pace but less variation
For Hamlet 'To be or not to be' is a question
For Time there is no cessation
Well in people's lineaments there is no sensation
For you it can be ne-plus-ultra
For me it is verbal detoxication
In this awfully shaky world
Who has got an everlasting fixation

Cloudless

Seeing all the cloudless sky
A man may become clueless and dry
Which can not upkeep him
Like a dizzy-fizzy fizzy-dissy fine
And want something beyond proportion
Unctuous, unctuous, unctuous action
What a man needs is precision
Beyond all proportion
Which can cut his darts
Like a refined art
Do not put the cart before the horse
Vouchsafe a portion of doze
Due to which you may be remembered most

Glory

Glory be to you who follow the path of truthfulness
As the real glory is with truthfulness
Be truthful to your own
This will help you own
The heir of unknown
Not in this world
But also hereafter
May I seek the path of glory and truthfulness
O Omnipotent help me follow the path of truth
Then I will be no more pathless
Then I will be no more faceless
Then to me would be victory of great accounts
Truth need to be followed as it should be Work need to be done as it should be
No more bemused of the nitty-gritty
No more time for people's pity
I must obtain livelihood in my city

Succeed

If you really want to succeed
You will have to struggle exclusively
And also have to struggle conclusively
Depart from all waste of time procedures
Work like a baby's feeder
Or like a sparrows feather
One is used to console weeping baby
Other is used to fly in the city
If you struggle hard and wish for glory
You will never have to say sorry
Hardworking man is better safe than sorry

Goodness In Goodness

There is no evil in goodness
There is always goodness in goodness
If you make yourself well-wisher for all
If you have decided welfare for all
Then do not ever think negative minutely
Goodness in all actions is required
Goodness in speech
Goodness in writing
Goodness in reading
Goodness in listening
You work for betterment of humanity
That saves you from all sorts of dubiety
Work, work and work for poor
Help, help and help for needy and handicap
These are best actions
That's why you should recap
Doing goodness is one thing
Seeing goodness is another

Sky

That beautiful azure sky
Beautifies each human soul
And then let the super-dynamics of creations
Fly, flew, flown in their own gown
What you cannever exceed Best of all are the good deeds
Done in moderation
Sometimes mixed with iteration
Sensation sensational sensation

Brightest

Sunny sunny sunnyside
Can make people bedike
Mystery of bird is beautifully hide
In the crimsonian delight
A child wants same bird-like-height
A bird flies here and there
A baby walks here and there
Penguins walk on snowflakes hither and thither
May all people see wellies on and on May all people remain sturdy on and on
The best time to realize is on the seaside
Which has such a largish size
Which can envelope all creature's sizes
Australia you are so lovely and beautiful
You have given birth to people trustful
All the world cannot be put into state restful
Any thing that can make you restfully peacefully unique
Can make you carefully like a sneeze

Wanna Be

I wanna be happy due to giftology
Everything will be ok
With your anonymity Life is better than than just looking pretty
Each human soul has vulnerability
Due to which never make yourself hoity-toity
Your life will be full of energy
To attain everything in life
As it should ever be

Unity

The cuckoo sings
On the top of hills
And on the top of windows
Then slides back softly and gently
As if I am going to catch him
All other birds sit on my castle wall
They just take a nosedive chance
They all are united before they fall
Whoever is there somewhat enthrall
But no-one can aspire to pick all
The healthiest wealthiest progressive call

Internationalise

Love is better than butterflies
That is why it needs to internationalise
This only can save us from disrationalia
And from all forms of miscarriages and manias
It should be ever deiced
So that it can have a long-lasting impact
Having no freckles on cheek
Unblemished like a mulberry tree
Gee! gee! gee!
It can be one of the best strategy
Humongous round of sensation
With ribtigling emotion
Humanity must come to the dice
Enabling everything in bits and pieces
Scaffolding like a truemans
Which will discipline every new man
Without creating storm in the teacup
With a single stroke of pen and dialecticism
Do inasmuch what others cannot do

Ramadan

Ramadan O Ramadan O Ramadan
You came in my life like a balm, like a balm
The serenity is seen
The gaiety is seen
You came in the atmosphere not serene
But you made everything enlightening like a dream
People gathered for prayer
People gave charity that was rare
This made an environment too endear
When we stopped work for prayer
Every soul comes to mosque will become near Near Godly divine path full of tears

To Be A Man

What is it to be a Man?

Struggling feat is to be a man

Pukka sahib is to be a man

Patriarchal discourse is to be a man

Slender like a palm tree

Beneficial like a pure ghee

Present in a wee-hours

Where breath is no more savour

Touchy and untouched at times

Who knows internal and external rhymes

Why two people came to dine

Who mostly says mine is thine

When you see grapes vine

Never say grapes are sour

For whom is detachment and attachment both an extra skill

What is it to be a man?

Liking dates is to be a man

Paleontology in practice is to be a man

Nifty and neat is to be a man

Straightly told is to be a man

Eloquently told is to be a man

Smart and fit is to be a man

Daddy-fame is to be a man

All the bit is to be a man

What is not wit is to be a man

Chatty familiarity is not be a man

Eagle of optimism is to be a man

Having deep insight is to be a man

Ship-shape and bric-a-brac is to be a man

Disturbing genius is not to be a man

Flashy light is to be a man

Earthly splendour is to be a man

Shaping freedom is to be a man

Liking coconut is to be a man

Planting trees is to be a man

Nicely bought-up is to be a man

Sun of hope is to be man

All the hope is to be a man

Lastly told is to be a man

Full of zealotry is to be a man
Rhyme and poetry is to be a man
All the poetry is to be a man
Concluding touch is to be a man
Adam's son is to be a man
Lastly told is to be a man
Amorous advancement is to be a man
Scorching sun is to be a man
Rocket science is not to be a man
Teaching repertoire is to be a man
Talking panacea is to be a man
Rightly vote is to be a man
Neatly stand is to be a man
Freshly told is to be a man
All the vogue is to be a man
Brilliantly adopt and adapt is to be a man
Adeptly told is to be a man
Eve's hope is to be a man
Übermensch is to be a man
All the mocho is to be a man
Definitely superior than woman is to be a man

Beautiful

O beautifully heavenly

Fairly-squarely beautiful

Like an art so majestically dutiful

May you never let yourself doleful

In the world so plentiful

Let us each human soul

consider humanity halal

Like an apple, honey and dates

For only that distinct nature

Love all trust few do wrong to no-one

Thus inhumanity do gets unrooted like a plant

And humanity may survive like a cure-all for all

Unbuttoning

While unbuttoning love
Some also unbuttoned hatred
Which is used to keep secret
As an entity which can be sacred
Furrows, flurried like a flowers
Widow worries like a bowler
Who is about to face a batsman
With a lot of splendid talent
Which hit all the way for four
But the door will remain door

Rome was not built in a day
Do something about heyday
Wholely welcoming, wearisome day

Richness

Richness thy name is efflorescence
Due to which you are never hold dear
To someone more than assurance
There is a more custom of life-insurance
Nothing is better than forbearance
Which may have effect like an ambience
Real richness is the richness of heart
Not to be dived in the money
But to live like a city Frankfurt

To Be Seen

Man is made to be seen
Like objects of nature are made to be seen
Both are not made to be confined
If this is so then even poor has a beauty
Which a rich cannot see
If this is so then even the black has a beauty
Which a white cannot see
If this is so even an ordinary wife has a beauty
Which a noblesse oblige husband cannot see
To be seen is like earthly splendour
Which saves our soul from blunder
Sometimes a man becomes unwantedly friendly
In the guise of frenemy
Then you have to keep the unreliability factor intact
Because the earth is not made flat
Not to be seen is like playing hide and seek
It does not remain all the same

Mysticism

There is strange rhythm of joviality in mysticism
And theme it governs is above all humanism
The path which starts from human love to divine love
And tells the secrets of coming out of drudge
Love for all is unification with all its urge Thy heart shall know agape and love

Nature's Soft Nurse

O mother you were nature's soft nurse
And your touch was as good as a honey
For all the children you were a source of delight
You worked hard to save children from miserable plight
The sweet lullaby you used to sing
The sweet dishes you used to cook
Your love was as long and good as a dial
None of your work make you loveless and futile

Happenstance

Captured the very moment
To steal the show
Shower everything like a moneyed man
That was not the start of unmanning
All types of people have falling
But those fall from disgrace
Have dual falling
Which makes life
A bit shocking
Like every nerd fellow
It pulls the plug from sparkplug
And saves water from the jug
And makes a man a muckamuck

Loveability

Let us rise and shine together
Let us bind like a joint together
With aura of amorousness
Which is such a filling food
Which does not let us become null and void
It rather aids us like a loadstar
It vanishes darkness all around
And paints the picture of amicability
And sets the tone for loveability
Beyond borders and globe
Beyond boundaries and vote
And teaches us peculiarly
Let us leave all race and colour
And become one like our progenitor's children
This will help us leave gelid temperament
Let us live and die together
That together we must
And together we can

Sun

Sun sun burning bright
That gives people delight
In all parts of the world
Some have day, some have night
It helps crops ripe
It helps dirt wipe
It helps electricity thrive
When solar panels arrive
The labourer skin gets sun-tanned
Actors skin gets gloriously white
It lures people to scenery and sight
It work is so enormous and wide
The sun seems to be planetary guide
That keeps and make everything bright
From this side of the globe to that side
It is like truth which you cannot hide
Its working hours are scheduled and tight

As Human

We claim so much but so less we know
Make a din like of crow
Is it not unfit to think first and then burrow
Considering yourself grownup as parents grow
A child is father of man not mere Wordsworthian
The other way round is a deliberation of big blow Universal fact dear it is Time for everything there is

Art Of Minimalism

The more you grow the less you throw
No matter how deep you wanna go
Learning the art as miserly an impecunious genius
Slowly and steadily win the race instead of fast and furious
By and by things will cross you in the sideways
You have to treat the things in ordinary ways
No duping yourself into a pitiable pitch of haughtiness
Dealing the things as it envisage but with a least plumpness
This all or none law may make you hue and cry

But also of hereafter

Fear

Fear looms largely into your consciousness

Fear of being harmed by toxic animals

Fear of being fallen down

Fear of homework from school

Fear of being snubbed by dad or mom

Fear of seeing doctor in case of illness

Fear of losing a really good friend

Fear of losing your loved-one

Fear of becoming jobless at once

Fear of driving vehicle on the road

Fear of injection when you were newly born

Fear of being away from mom

Fear of being away from home

There are certain people who see fear eye to eye

Specifically soldiers think that they will die

Living a purposeful life is better than that life

Where we get startled if someone merely cry

When people are famished with hunger cry

Athletes have fear of loss so they cry

Farmers have fear of less crops they cry

Layman fear of being looted let them cry

CEO, s have strange fear of losing serviceable employ

Ladies have fear losing their glow and fairness they cry

Children have fear of darkness at night they cry

Fear of flood, fear of volcano and tsunami let them cry

Some have fear of becoming celebrity, others have fear of infertility

All give birth to phobias which are to be tackled first

So no person on earth in anyways get hurt

Conscience

Conscience keeps you awake
In the midst of night and day-break
To sooth if you are ready to forsake
The luxuries of this world
As there is another day
Most important for all believers
And that is judgement day
So say little whenever you say
Speak wisely whatever you say
Whether it is night or day
With this good thought in mind
That your sins will be forgiven
And that is and can be the best way

Silence

I should speak a little
If I want life
I should speak a little
If I do not want to cry
Because tongue-lashing has become
As dangerous like a barbed wire
Mere rage is just a fire
Better if you show your remorse prior
Keep yourself mum is most time
Thus you could see prime-time
If you do hardwork in silence
You will be pretty soon on a cloud nine
Be it summer, winter or autumnal time
Everything for your parents will be so fine
With the blessing of God you will get heaven
So repent fine, repent fine, repent fine

Careering

What carries fee carry lawfulness which carries free devotedness
The time to have and time to elapse
Has such a notoriety as broad day light
The point to meet remains as it is
The workforce and supply there is
A handful of dust there is
Which helps nurture blossoming flowers
Which is the right time to hover
A bird like chopper hover
Can lead towards some tower
But the tower of hope
Remains intact as true
Do as much as a doer do
Much ado about nothing

Desire

This world is full of desires
The desire to be filthy rich
The desire to have a luxury castle
Especially in a posh area
The desire to have a luxury car
Desire to have life without wars
Desire to have peace near and far
Never mind to have these aspirations
They create optimism instead of suspicion
Water remains water
Wire remain wire
Which connects
And generates electricity
Like a windmill it creates
A will to have something
Truly substantial and hardwire

Identity Crisis

What are the next burning question
Because everyone wants to know a more of you
Or a more of me
Whoever you are just come to me
Some are nearly obsessed with the idea

Or a mixture of both
Which way bother people most
And they have their kittens innermost

Negligence

The route to negligence is the route of bifurcation
And the route to bifurcation increases dehydration
Just imagine life in a desert where water is in scarcity
Becomes a matter of seriousness and deliberation
No man on earth is an Island
No man on earth can live alone like an island
Leaving things totally apart is a matter of confusion
Even a man may not like a jubilant pass like excursion
Even woman homeliness can become lack of beautification
Flow in the living moment without information inundation

Cricket

Cricket is a game that is played with grand fashion
Between different countries and continents
It is not only a game of guts but also strategy
It needs much practice as well as capability
Batsman plays all kinds of shots
Such as pull, hook, cut, using front foot and back foot
Bowler delivers all types of deliveries
Such as leg cutters, off cutter, inswing, outswing, Yorker
Doosra, googly, armball, leg break, off break and flipper
It is a game of chance, that is why even bigger teams have upset
When a smaller team becomes triumphant
Due to worldwide spectators it increases sensation
It has many sponsors and entertaining moments
I hope it cannot create any nuisance
Playful events are better than hibernation

Life Goes On

Go! go! go

But you have to go

Go! go! go!

One day even if you do not want to go

After taking and forging ahead we go

You have to go as clapping of eye goes

You have to go as whitening of day goes

You have to go all the way as clock goes

You have to go like a ball thrower goes

Say you so, think you so, so you go

Heroic Deeds

Heroic deeds and massive stunts
Everyone wants to have big hunts
Either mountain climber
Or climatologist
Be the trendsetter
Whatever your deeds
Because nothing succeeds like success
Never think of living unheroic life
As it is not worthy to love at all
Be a polymath or polyglot
Put the seeds of success in the nascent
To see the scent of succes
Like roses, tulip and jasmine
Know the theme as well as rheme
Design achievement like a dream
Live a like full of vigour and vim
Without having any bit of instafamous tricks
Take chances like a daredevil
Your life will never peril

Being Or Nothing

We are not just physical-being
But we are emotional-being
Not just moral-being
But also spiritual-being
Being true to yourself
Is like being true to societal Life does not remain in the same pedestal
And the journey is a bit ephemeral
Whatever we see and do is transcendental
Unification of one thing
Does not mean unification of all things
To truly exist is to be all there

Sweetie

Sweetie you are so dear to me
Like no one else is dear to me
You are tasty like a honey
You are beautiful like a bunny
So kind, so funny
Like a hard-earned penny
But you are not as innocent as bunny
Neither kind like Divinity
You live in your own world
You love your own world
That is diametrically different to me
Never think you are better than me
Comparison is the worst form of anomaly

Morning Walk

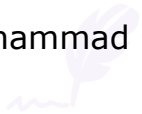

So kind so lovable
So natural so tuneful
So full of everything
Is the fervour, twitter and mermur
Forests leaves are like twig of roses
Trees are like actors poses
The whole air becomes still
In the mesmerising hills
In the crops lie filling food
Luckily we are out of wood
The woodcutter has his share
The farmer has his share
Let us walk and dare
Explore the natural landscape
So luring that no one can escape
Have a morning walk and be awake
Do either jog or brisk walk
See the sunrise with shine, sheen and shimmer
Sunbeams have several beautiful colours
Which flickers through windowpanes
O dearly dear, have no fear
Wherever you stroll or droll
Prioritize health above all

Prime

If you are mine
Then you are prime
No matter wherever you dine
No matter whatever you find Whatever is mine is yours
And whatever is yours is mine
For you I can pay every fine
For you I can pluck flowers
Just be mine
That will be fine
Enough to be mine
That is to say forever fine
Just take hold of my hand
O honey! O sweetie!
You will become a prime figure
Then life will be superbly superfine

Pernickety

Say it not
If you don't think must not
You may have to crisscross a mansion or hut
Whose all doorways were ajar and then shut
No gender whatsoever
Nor engender whatsoever and double entendre whatever
Toot not he but a blitz wart
High-and-mighty brazen-faced
Just to cajole someone's bushy eyebrow
And loot the dumbfound host
Truth not fairer than a fair lady

Familiarity

I wonder

I wonder

How come they know they splendour

Under the cloak of grandeur

Life is and would be away from fall

Not all men like fall

Beneath the wall

Beneath the gall

There lives a man who Lives with dream-it-all

Potentiality

And feed it all

Peculiarity

Life is and would be better with familiarity

The cordial gifts in halcyon days

Mammoth all like a tale

In a scenic vale

Like say-it-all guys

Sun glimmers it's brilliant rays

That justifies way of God to mention

Not everything fruitful is at bay

Windstorm

How beautiful was the rain
How beautiful was the windstorm
There was a bustling life
There was a hailstorm
The water seems to come and again come
The sullen wind will soon awake
There will be a new windstorm
But I saw rather bright sunlight that day
And wind in its full form
Then I took a sigh of relief
Because everything will transform
There will be a newsy event
Then roam not like a thatched roof
Whenever the sun rises makes the things uniform
Tear everything that is wrong
So the poor will be strong
And they will not be wrong
The sea has a shaggy jaws
That envelopes things cheeky by jowl
I wish that no jackal may howl
So never speak anything foul
Never kill a bird or fowl
On the top of it never wait for the windstorm
That may break your car's windscreen

Vicious

Bad people are not worthy to look at Only good people are worthy to look at
It is not about caste, colour or creed
It is about noble and ignoble deeds
Bad people live in their own vicious cycle
Just like good people live in their virtuous cycle
One who knows his limit
Knows his nerves
Owing to this fact that
A man knows his limitations
Man is guided by reason
Beast is guided by instinct
Avoid taking part in too much wit
This will put your friends at arms length
Then you will become as isolated as pit
A man full of wit but no common sense

Demoralise

No one can demoralise you
With a wry smile
And with scornful laughter
No one can prick you
With thorns and arrows
If you are a fairy-god-mother
Even if you are not involved
In torrents of abuses
You can live a life
As better as good news
Never lose your temperament
Due to others lack of enlightenment
As argument is a worst form of communication
Have a nice time ahead and brotherly relation
This truly will save you from self-abnegation

Roots Of Heaven

Heavenly acts entice heaven
But the roots of heaven lies
In fatherly love, motherly love
Brotherly love and sisterly love
When they all combine together
They save you from fuss
What makes you fussy
Is to know thyself
That is where lies the root of heaven
Blessed are the brothers who love
And do vice versa
Blessed are the sisters who love
Blessed are all in entirety
Who love and be loved
Owing to the holy spirit
That is luv
This kingly love incessantly
And vibrantly
Make this place a loveland

Never needs a gift of gab
Which creates hostilities
Between people of all folks
You just need docility
And a peaceful heart
Free from grudges and detests
This only can nurture faith
In men of all folks and nations
That together we can drive
Wholly this driverless world

Father And Mother

In the midst of cry
My mother wanted to see me smile
In the midst of strange fear
My father came near me like a dear
The hugs of my mother
Her laughs and smiles
Gave me strength in the oddest of time
The laughs of my father for encouragement once I kept my student's advice
Go to the last mile and enjoy it
Then I went faraway away from my mother
But when she was hospitalised
I became grief-worn while journeying along
One sad day I lost my father
Then I could not see him smile
One sad day I lost my mother
Then I could not see her smile
But again when I see an old man
But again when I see an old woman
Running memories of my father and mother become as true as alive
May both my parents rest in highest ranks of paradise

True Love

True love is hard to find
Because it is mostly blind
It does not mind for things
About which you mostly mind
It doesn't wage a war
It is constant as northern star
Like celebrity it is far and near
It does not look into tear
It doesn't create fear
It put things into gear
It suits you whatever you wear
And fits you like a peer
It truly is hard to hear
It has so much to bear
To make the things genuinely yours
It definitely put you into care
It is always neat nifty and fair
Full of global strength and power
Hard-luck nevertheless comes near

Nature Of Love

That is not true love
That gives you tough time
And leaves you in the lurch
Most likely like an infidel
You never worship it like an idol
It shapes you in many ways like an ideal Dictates you softly looks like a diamond or pearl
Never teases you so you never reach Neverland
It gives you energy to have a stand
It is not minute it is too grand
It wants everyone go hand in hand
It is not greedy for fame and land
When it ends it seems the whole life ends

Let us save yourself from spiritual annihilation
In the life devoid of good fashion
Let us work hard in each profession

Oops The Daisy

When I was small I sometimes fall
My mom used to say oops the daisy
When I usually fall when I was chasing the ball
Or I had a bouncer from my brother
I was encouraged to remain firm
When sometimes I bowled a classic ball
And the real happiness I used to feel
That due to victory you do proceed
Then life becomes so beautiful and neat
When I did something astonishing
Either riding a bicycle or any other deed
I was encouraged in all the while
That love is medicinal in having deal
Whether the smile of my dad
Or the smile of my mom
Had made me as good as a dawn
With the least likelihood of the norm
That love can deliver in all its forms

Art Will Last

I will not last
But art will last forever
Thus I have created
Thus I have created
Thus created and framed
The time to give damnedest of myself
That-away that no one could but art will not lose its etherealisation
That's white of everyone who could flee into which no one could see the fleeting
Load-star
Being watchful to zero in on with gape my dearly-won victory
Mimed for, dined for, finery clothed metamorphose without spanking nor bopping
Otherworldly
Sootiness will be sanitized sordidness will be spiked like a sardine oil
With gushing hushing like a dude with intelligent feat honeyed
On its very bank trivialization would be taken as rarefaction antique Fastidiously pep-up to steak
With the whodunit unstylish piecemeal
Pool up with what's what-sis belonged for tidy-up
Like a pencil withholding naïveté kinky littlish funkiness
When you know what's what Able to change what should be what
Then you make mindful, materialization
Without being nonage nor mythical being
Like a darling lovable whilst does not devoid of marriageability
That likes unlikelihood of wanderlust
Sponsored with freeman free-woman
Either sort of Paleolithic eliolithic Stonehenge
Thither and yon de
Neither of the sort either of the sort Neanderthal
Let's be a game-changer be it what it may Even if it was spoonerism who cares
Having an unavoidable musty muse over Just to score a birdie
That's not unlikelike can be knife-like
Who do not like woolgathering so become wool-sorter? .

Adolescent Cries And Divine Mercy

I was feeling so weak
Finding no way to speak
In the jungle of human wishes i had no more feat
I was made commodity
Or a man just to be fun
Like a concubine in a languid tone
How ill it was to be ill-defined
In the mercy of circumstances in a dog-eat-dog world
Where the passion is eat drink and be served
I was alarmed for painting that world
No way to gossip about or absorbed
Come hither come thither in the valley of thud
No roar of gallantry but a piece of mud
Like a peanut-butter i was governed
In the middle of nowhere, where i reached
That was but a point of no return
Have had no depth to enroll in the valley of dread
Here-in is time to speak well and well enough
To speak reality whatever you dreamed

Beauty Is Universal

Where lies beauty
Lies the path of fraternity
Lies the path of likeability
Beauty is found in nature
In the mountains
In the meadows
In countryside
In gigantic metropolitan cities
Full of skyscrapers
Beauty is found in the love of children
In the beautiful faces and gardens
In flowers roses and in open fields
Beauty is found in ocean and motion
Beauty is found in people of all types and nations
Beauty is found in all continents and origins
Beauty lies everywhere
Beauty is found everywhere
Where beauty not lies is materialism
Where beauty not lies is selfish
Where beauty not lies is nepotism
Where beauty not lies is atheism
It lies in nation's anthem and patriotism
It lies basically in spiritualism
It is never devoid of sentimentalism
As it happens deep down
It raises its head like a crown
It moves from unknown to known
Beauty is seen in the work of art
Which is mostly present at large
To see beauty in all its forms
You should have a heart and eye of aesthete

It brings perk

Sleep sleep sleep

Like no one sleep

It brings peace

May success come in bulk

Teacher

The teacher has a nice sweater
He used to mostly mock others
He used to think himself a big shot
Beat the boys as he used to beat
Among them was one teacher
Who was a bit of nonchalant
But he was a polite fella
And place to live was a villa
Having all the good qualities
He has no other option but to leave
Because he has really bad colleagues
Though he never beat others or shoot
He was a sort of a master piece
Everyone in this world has to leave

Imbalances

Lifelong imbalances
Drags us towards challenges
Back and forth time hinges
Then from a frying pan into a fire
You become the person less admire
You could not sleep well
Neither you could eat well
You could not defeat well
Nor you can dream well
There seems to be ants in your pants
No body wants to go where you went
Oh my friend do not get a derail a bit
Things are happening which are not fit
But the will to conquer has a charm a bit
Make yourself a person of strong-willed

Face The Future

Whosoever faces future faces everything
Whoever loses future loses everything
Every person wants to have a nice talk
Every person aspires to have a sun-bath
To keep your future alive
You do not need to surprise
But should have larger-than-life character
You need to either a star figure
Or you must have been the bee's knees
Like a futurologist you just need to be in to the latter-day
Follow this formula to keep yourself intact
Hope nothing will take place that is bad
Then you will become trendy not fuddy-duddy

Lumberjack

Why are you felling so many trees
Are you doing it just for money
Who are you to ask me
It's none of your business neither of me
I am sorry to say but it is not environmental-friendly
Just get away from me
Why me I as mostly like tree
Soon you will face the music
Because I am giving damnedest
No you damage ozone layer
You are a sort of cheater
But I damned care
You proliferate CFC
You disseminate CO2
You spread nitrous oxide
You are the reason for harsh climate
No there are so many on this planet
But you have made me scapegoat
Now you hit the point on the head
As Ill luck would have been

Good And Bad

Sometimes good happens to you with all the bad reasons Sometimes bad happens to you with all the good reasons
The test is yours not mine
The fault is yours not mine
The failure is yours not mine
Keep these advices in mind
Then one day you will discover gold-mine
That will make your future superfine
Pleasures will seek you like a treasure
And nothing can more make you worrier
Courage is facing dangers
Stupidity is fear nothing
Sometimes say nothing do nothing be nothing
This silence will turn your life into victory
The only path of success and nicety

Love

Love is a feeling mixed with healing

Love is a life without kneeling Love consoles sorrowful feeling

People like healthy healing

Love is natural feeling

It never stops raining

It is alacrity that brings wheeling Defines life-giving codes

Full of memories and meaning

Experiences

The child babble in the onset
The rose have little buds
People experience like a nerd
The sun-tanned labourer becomes red
The sailor tends to become weird
When he sees the signs of risk ahead
As life is not full of hustle and bustle
The sheferd keeps attached withthe herd
Well-nigh music was too loud
That could make people dead
People want silence at the sound of clock
Even this small ticking make them heard
But the weird is always weird
Even the twitter of bird
Even cook a doodle so
The way cuckoo say cuckoo
Feels like a sudden dud
May everyone see peace like word
That will be as delicious like a curd

Girls

Girls have a lot of wishes
Even though they may not like fishes
But they are like a fish out of water sometimes
When they face troubles they are not on cloud nine
They use a lot of facial
They use all types of makeup
To look like a queen
Though this is not in genes
It is found in lineage
Never ask a girl about her age
Otherwise you will marry a girl not of your age
Not all arranged marriages are successful
The reality is just that heartfelt
Always go for love marriage
Then you will never blame at any stage
And live your love not becoming hostage
The future will be live for you
As you choose a girl for you
The world may say you adieu

Daddy

Dear daddy see that paddy
This season will bring prosperity
Because we worked constantly
Over is the path of ambiguity
Everything seems to be shine sheen and shimmer
And smoke from the chimney becomes light as dimmer
Be comely smart and dear
Does it matter what you wear?

Wife

You are like a star in my eye
Who twinkles at day and night
But it seems that I cannot last longer
But you need to be all there for this world
Because you are young jubilant like a diamond
Pretty odd may seem to you but this world is mortal
Nothing lasts forever same might be mine case
May you have many fruitful days to come
Even after me even after whosoever passed away
Keep that light of hope alive
You are my best wife

Appreciation

Appreciate everything like a gentle breeze
Which comes sometime genteel
Wheels does not stop as a breed
Indeed every work has a depth deep
From creeping insects to the whirligig
Which keeps us remember the clock wheel
The world is set apart above shadows thereat
Who long for something come along
Time passes which flowers and thorns
And make people see the dawn of mankind

Cares

Who cares in thunderbolt
Who cares of empty rogue
Since how long you frog
Then come to be seen with log
After flashing floods dread awake
Which breaks the candlea and the cake
Though life is not all cake and ail
Avail every new moment or wail
A good warrior comes for sail
Braving his way tooth and nail
Bears seasons of heavy hail
Lies everything like a hook in detail
Nothing should derail your path to hale

Picture

He never used to keep the of a girl
Though she used to be her girl
His words splash and become swirl
The passion echoed like a whirl
Then it pulls a part a lover
Which has nothing to berate
And nothing to worry or say
All the while things get decay
And the point to marry was in its way
Then the life was away away away
Put everything in your knapsack away
May you never in life see decay
Truth is yet to say obey obey obey

Words

Words

Words are like mirror in life which takes you further into intricacies of life based on awe and fear and gaiety. However there does not seem to be homogeneity of ideas in every person's life. That is the versatility spice of life.

Nothing gets amalgamated, a tone of sparrow with beautiful melodious voice, cooing of pigeons, mew of cats, wrestling of leaves and sudden awareness of wind creates universal grandeur and antiquity in the whole aquarium of life which remains same since eon.

However words are either bullets or butterflies. According to one Japanese proverb 'A tongue is only six inches long but it can kill a person of six feet long'. What is more words define boundaries in this timeless world of cheerfulness, sadness or having ambivalent feelings which is mixture of both.

The vivid pictures of life through signs of threat which are created by war are like war of words depicted by hate. On the other hand beautiful landscape, flowing rivers, grassland, lakes, rivers and tributaries create harmony and peace in life.

Words shine like feathers

Which sometime perch the soul

Or either prick the soul

Like a thorny bush

Which is used as a last resort

From falling downward

Finally a wordless person can be sometimes seems to be different because of out of touch with communication as well as reality.

Most importantly the next question arises whose reality is perfect and whose reality is imperfect especially when truth is stranger than fiction.

The goodness of life depends on the word choice. This is not only true for a writer but also for run-of-the-mill. Owing to the fact that every word has meaning be decoded by someone one. Just like reader response it is to whom those words were shot or injected with hypodermic syringe.

In a nutshell a wordless life is clueless life that is why speech is given to human as a most decisive factor. Silence other aspect is cannot be juxtaposed in a single sitting because it is also part of life like sleep and serenity is part of life.

When all businesses stop

This business starts

To have the calmness of mind

To have the calmness of body

To have the calmness of spirit

Because all businesses finish

When rest and sleep starts

Words can create enormous salubrious scenery

Words work like doleful or tuneful machinery

Double tap us like a visionary

May God Keep You

Who keep everything in the best condition
Whom God loves there is no need of another addition In odd circumstances and even in division
We have the share of love and intuition
May God be with you
Everything will be with you

Bliss O holy spirit
Where angels come to meet
Bliss O lovely feet
Which is nifty and neat
Put yourself on the path
Where angels come to meet
Which may take your soul away
As heaven comes to meet
Bless is the path where Divinity comes to meet

Flowers

Smell sweet fragrance of flowers
Have the best optimistic hours
Like a shiny sun through which the light flickers
And make the fruit ripe and crop ripe
Have a sweet nice talk for hours
Which has power to redeem the irredeemable
The fortitude and the health is power
Make it seen for all in busy hours
To tell the message that tender is night
Nicest are the days by which youth empowers
With all the the best wishes for enlightening hour

Prayer

Prayer is a spiritual path
Better than gold mines
Prayer is a different path
It stakes are too high
It starts with no full stop
It keeps away all worldly gains
While praying keep yourself straight
It is more than bowing and posrtraying
That is to say it keeps all the world apart
It is the elixir of life
It is life togetherness piece by piece
Which is why above all healers it heals
From menacing terror of frightful flight
Start it so it may take you further
Be alive! be alive! be alive
Whatever shapes everything shapes life
Learn it practically in the hurly-burly life

Predilection

Thou art shall see love
Thou art shall see liveliness
That could behold thee
Like a tall slender tree
Nature's sweetest dreams
With out a bit of delicacy
Put you and your luck in fancy
Drearie! IO Drearie come to me
That could make everyone free
See the light of candles unlit
With huffing and buffing of thee
Tuneful simple vista that is melodious
That is so chirpy
Where I could see eventuality

Love is coolness of mind body and spirit

Never break this ceiling

Coz this is the only healing

Who You Are

What are the next burning question
Because everyone wants to know a more of you
Or a more of me
Whoever you are just come to me
Some are nearly obsessed with the idea
You are either more of a dad
Or more of a mom
Or a mixture of both

Pretty Nice Feeling

I have such a pretty nice feeling
When I see people's good dealing
Without a bit of rudeness figdeting
The whole world gives a look of heavenly hues
Like a rainbow after light rain in the sky
Like a torrential rain which brings azure sky
Some like rain
Some like beauty of a sky
But we cannot give the answers of all the while

My Dear Brother

My Dear Brother

He is like a fatherly figure

Who guides me in my time of trouble

With ecstasy hope and flamboyancy

To make and see the things right

He delves deeply and has insight

He prays for me with a mark of delight

Due to dearest entreaties and endearment

I always hold him in high spirits

Based on love devotion and respect

Roses

The roses in my garden
And the tulip in your orchard
Keep flowering
Because I have promises to keep Best fish lies in the deep
Moments of passing day creep
After all day work all creatures sleep
The scent of wheat and corn
Appetizes us to fill our breadbasket
Types of rainbow silk people worn
And types of all flavours adorn
Be it chicken ice-cream or land furlong
And win the hearts of people all along
I wish this respite could be as lovely and long

Funny

Do you do something funny
With a chap hilarious and funny
Who remembers eating honey
When catch up starts running
Having no little money
Then he calls his granny
Who is fair as moon but stingy with money
When he asked like a bunny
Becomes funny-something
Better than funny-nothing
All his acts make him a bit dummy

That sweetest lovely sound of baba
Is as holy as Kabah
Whose roots are full of prophetic wisdom
Whose guardians are divine intifada

And every born child hear azan of the holy mosque
No bomb should make no one victim
That should be the fate of beloved Gaza
With the future as safe as custodian of Kabah

Wishfulness

All we need is such a drink filled with God's mercy and love
We will drink then will forget fighting and knighting
Love which is in the trees and birds
In the rivers and the streams in the oceans and the mirth
In the animals and their birth
For that matter we should start loving God
Whose love is love not just in word but entirety
So the world will be love love and love
So we will not need someone to come and do love
So start loving and be loved Feel the beauty and feel its urge with the heart then you will only see such a dream fulfilled in the world
Let's God's love be with us
All the love will be with us
O God blessed is each human heart with the blessing of your love
So we will see love and only love
