harley kellis(6-24-93)

My name is Harley Kellis. i come from a broken home. my father is in prison and my mom is going to be remarried very soon. i mess up alot in my life like any typical teenager. i have a little brother and sister. my brother is my life. i write poems when i have something every strongly on my mind at the time. some of my poems will be about the same thing and might sound the same but that depends on how you want to read them

Addiction

My addiction hurts one to many people
i want it gone
outta my life its so hard to forget about it though it makes me feels so good like when you hear the waterfall at night and your relaxed! ! ! my addiction is my waterfall i dont want it to die off from me i want it here with me forever always at my side for when i need it the most my addiction hurts one to many people
i want it gone

As Time Passes By!

As time passes by the cuts get deeper As time passes by my heart gets weaker As time passes by I start to cry
As time passes by my soul starts to die
As time passes by my life does too
As time passes by I miss you

Baby Girl

I look at that beautiful baby girl and see nothing but stars.
The goo's and gaa's are the sweetest sounds.
The patter of little hands going across the floor.
The excited screams.
The staying up late just to fall asleep watching her.
Who knew a baby can change your whole way of thinking!

Cannot

Words cannot speak
The words i wish
To say to you
Dreams cannot show
You what i wish would Happen between you and i
This poem cannot express What i feel inside my Heart towards you

Cant Stop

i cant stop thinking that one day will be our day that i will be happy with who i am that i wont hurt anymore that i will be over my addictions that someone might actually love me that im not alone in this world that i can be whoever i want to be no matter what anyone tells me that i can stop the world if i wanted to that there is a prince on a white horse waiting on me to realize that he is there that i am who i am and no one can change that that i am Harley La'Shay Kellis

Goodbye

I thought you were my family
And i thought you were my friend
I thought we would always be together till the very end You said that you loved me
But that must be a lie
Because how can you say you love me then say goodbye

Here At This Place

here at this place to you
i am invisible
you walk by with just a glance but your not looking at me but....

here at this other place i am all you can see your always looking at me but again...

here at this place to you
i am invisible

I Dont Know....

I dont know what is wrong with me anymore,
Im sorry i keep hurting you that isnt my intentions,
I dont want you to leave me but i dont want you to stay,
I want you beside me forever but i cant stand the sight of you I love when you hold me but your touch makes my skin crawl,
I dont know what is wrong with me anymore.

I Love You

I cant stop thinking about you Every time i lay my head down Your the very first thing i think about Laying right beside you Your arms around me holding me tight
The soft kisses on my forehead
I lay my head down
I smile from ear to ear
As a picture of you pops into my head
You softly whisper
I love you baby girl
And just so you know
Before i close my eyes
I softly whisper
I love you to baby Forever and always

My Friends

My friends can be friends
When they want to Enemys when they dont
But there is always one who will Stand beside you through whatever.

Never Let Me Go

Hold me tight
Never let me go
Never leave me be I just want to be
In your arms forever
I just want you
And only you
Your my world
My whole life
Never let me go
If you ever let me go
I would be lost
Going crazy
Non-stop thinking of you My life would have no further point pPease baby
Never let me go

Playground

Kids screaming,
Teachers yelling,
You swing high,
You slide low,
Whistle blowing,
Time to go.

Round And Round

Round and round in my mind you go Laughing and smiling
Your smile brightens my day
Your laugh soothes me
Your embrace melts my heart
Your touch warms my skin
The tone of your voice is music
To my ears
And when i don't see you or hear you My day gets darker
I get tense
My heart turns to stone
My skin goes cold
I hear ringing
I need you with me to make my life complete

harley kellis

Seeing You

The wounds get deeper
The cuts get wider
My heart stops
I cant breathe
I stand still
I don't move
I fall slowly
I see you
My wounds heal
The cuts disappear
I feel a heart beat
I start to breathe
I slowly get up
Just to be in your arms

That One Night

I lay dreaming at night about the way you held me that one night That one night i felt like i meant something to someone
The night i thought you loved me
If only for a few hours Laying thinking and smiling
Thanking myself for risking freedom just to see you Its another day and my mind is still at that one night
We never wanted that night to end I never wanted you to let go of me I never wanted you to let me leave I wanted to be in your arms forever
I stayed calm and wanted
I leave thinking about when that one night will come my way again
I would kill for that one night
Just one more night of your love towards me
I know you dont love me
But it seemed like you did at the moment
I shut my eyes and dream of that one night

This World

This world is complicated, confusing,
frustrating,
i dont want to be on it its like a threat to mankind there's murders in Houston everyday a robbery in New York all the time then there is war on the otherside of the world

We Dance

He laughs.

I smile.

We dance.

harley kellis

Why

Why do I cry at night
Why are you leaving me
Why do you constantly do this to me over and over again
Why is it always the same stuff with you I dont want to ask why anymore
I want you to ask me
Why?

harley kellis

You

YOU hold me just when i need it,
YOU have me like no one else,
YOU make my life have reason!
YOU look at me like someone important,
YOU treat me like a princess even though i'm not the greatest
YOU are the reason for this poem!
I love YOU!
YOU know YOU mean so much to me!
I will do ANYTHING for YOU!
I never want to lose YOU!
