hypochondriac raveaholic atomic cluster of crazy(qbrx6zy)

I am a militant revolutionary an anarcist a poet who conformes to absolutly nothing i can caculate numbers faster than you can spell texas i have a photo graphic memory a telographic memory i see beyond infinity i think on a universal level and i caculate much like a computer without the artificial intelegence. back too poetry my poetry is again limitless in it i quetion and anylyze everything and anything politics faith science reality existence subcultures and beyond.

Breakdown

symbiotic relationships between logics and chaotic syncrosummond spellcasters enchant my mind with visions of light and non desolent carnival freekshows, the ghost of halloweens past and future present me with two options, vigilance or dispare as god speaks to me the serpent temps my faith with test of will, faced with corruption i breakdown.

Criminal Insanity

Living in a sadistic landscape a malevolent voice speaks to me it tells me to cause chaos, to become one with the murders i commit to leave carnage in my every wake, the psychotic voice is the madness and disillusion of a tormented soul of an adolescent abomination for whom dwells in the dead and is consumed by the void thus ushering in your demise.

Death Tune

the marching of a decadent order the light fades to black the tune of 1000 screams music to my ears sweet victory followed by chemical mutation caused by the harnessing of information in the form of countless souls the death of millions the birth of billions from ashes i rise your god i am life death and the words only salvation
