When I'm so lonely
I start to think about you.
when I think about you, I start to wonder If there was a time where we had met before I would ask you out.
But it didn't happen, instead i threw you away from my life.
without noticing, what was going on.
'I miss you, my love'
'I miss you, my love'

When I'm sad...
I start to cry.
When I cry, it is because I miss you, my love.
I can't let you go.
Because without you is hard to survive.
I need you by my side.
'I miss you, my love'.
Please, forgive me, my love and come back to me.

'Please My Love, Forgive Me'

Some times when i feel lonely
I start to think about you.
When I feel lonely
I feel depressed
When I feel depressed
I feel pain
When I feel pain
I feel guilty
Because all of the problems that I caused you.
I have made you different.
I am very sorry my love.
for all the pain that I caused you.
'Please forgive me my love'.

When I see you sad it makes me cry When I look at you, you wish that you never met me before.
I think of a lot because I feel love for you.
Even though I broke up with you, I still love you.
'Please, my love, forgive me'.
Because with out you I can't live.
'Please, my love, forgive me'.

Alone In Pain

you can't take control in your own trap into darkness alone.
No one can hear you, but yourself on your most fears you containe yourself.
trapping your own feelings into your body.
bliding your own eyes for never sight trying to find your path through darkness, until you find that light that leads your soul
and returne home

Beauty

So joyful and so happy you are an ever lasting person whose meaning are to kind you are a special person.
Like a blooming flower out from its cover petal
   of sleeping beauty.
   Showing your awesome shape that makes you attractive as a magnetic force.
   Show your beauty
   upon us and make yourself a newer and greater beauty.
You are so fragile that we can't let you go out of our site. We care about you, our small little
   'blooming flower'

Behind My Mask

My smile outside Don't even begin to hide
The real me...
the confusion and tears I've cried
The way I feel inside lost.
cold.
hurt and confused
there's no other words to explain my growing pains I hate this place
I'm done and ready to break time to give up.
someone come and just take me away But that kid gotta stay strong needs to prove them wrong I just can't stand being this way look, all I ask for is someone to relate.

Broken Heart

The broken heart
that was rip
into pieces
The one you left alone. My love for you was cut in million pieces.
I took care of you,
I have watched you grow, But in the end you trash me away.
Like if i was a mobody to you This feeling came from my heart.
Underneat my soul
was all my love
which was given to you. This pain you left.....will never be..replace,
! 'For the feelings
I felt for you'!

Darkness In Life

darkness is always around us, and in between us in our despertliy life.
life is not always in light.
dark memories awaits us within power of our own.
shadow can have its mystiries and secrects.
darkness in life

Andres Gonzalez
Death

Death?
Death is a cycle of life were the living meets the dead a gate towards reincarnation, an after-life like a tree we wither away and grow back up its a world were we see total darkness as if we were in deep sleep.
their is nothing nor end to stop this cycle everyone must die
to go live a newer life.
to fix their mistakes and regrets in another life death is the greatest fear for the living life.

Andres Gonzalez
Guardian

the light, those whose wings are kind the purpose i was sent to live my heart pounding so hard as the sound of a hot river stream flowing through my body, the weird expression the sight of being blind, the stress that once made mistake regain its consiousness for who i give my crying tears for who i thank so much that life itself repaired. i only wished that i net you before, wishing to feel you hug you and being on your side. love its self never is the same with out you, my pure angel stay with me till my end

Hidden Feelings

There are hidden feelings everywhere, and every day.
In the street...
In the world...
In the mind of a person where secrets lies there, waiting for someone to reveal it.

There are some secret feelings hidden in places, where people want to have their own privacy.
Hidden feelings are very secretful and emotional that only comes beneath your heart.
secrets and emotion are two different words, But they both share something in common These two words share the meaning 'feelings'
That it is why they called it hidden feelings Because they are so secretful and emotional.

Hurt

When I got hurt by you I felt pain
when I felt pain
my life was completely different I turned into something bad.
I try not to cry about it but it was too late. Because you have hurt me so bad, and because of you I am unhappy.
I hope one day you tell me sorry.
I will keep this pain. because of you i hurtted myself and my heart.

Andres Gonzalez
Influence

Influence makes people change over time.
Influence is the problems for those who are innocent.
The influence is all to blame for those young souls who went through rough times.
Influence makes your life so sad and bad. Which takes your feelings and emotion away from your life.
Don't let those influences take you away.
Never give up succeeding your dreams.
Don't let the influences take you away and change you for eternal life.

Andres Gonzalez
Leaders

leaders are heroes
leaders are the ones who help the ones in the news
the ones on the stage
the one with a flag holding in their hand the one who says that will protect the one who says freedom is yours.
protector of our life protector of our future.

Andres Gonzalez
Letting Go

This was so hard to do It was something I had to do I know we will always be friends,
But my heart will be still with you.
I miss you.
I love you.
I had to let go of the burning desire to be held in your arms still, I don't want to let you go...
But I know that I'm too late... you're already moving on...
I'm happy that you're happy, but Reminiscing on the old days makes me grieve, makes me suffer I get sharp pains in my heart.
   Knowing I'm not your man and you're not my girl Finally, I let go yet you still have my heart.

Life Is In Our World

life is in our world.
were we are, we have feelings life is part of living.
we live in harmony, but our population grows Because we have destiny to choose from.
destiny of life, destiny of living. That our way.
life is in our world
for eternal life.

Andres Gonzalez
Light

sweet and pretty you are my only hope.
which you make me happy.
..sweet as a fruit..
pretty and shining as the autum moon shine your beautiful body. Illuminate your awsome shape.
Bring the light upon the darkness...

Andres Gonzalez
Lonely

I'm lonely within the dark, that falls between two different parts.
lonely and lost with no hope but only cries and pain

Andres Gonzalez
Loneliness Is Never Always Alone.

Sometimes when i feel lonly i talk to the sun.
When you talk to the sun,
The wind blows through you softly and gental.
When you feel the wind, you feel nature.
When you feel nature, you feel you could talk to it.
And when you talk to it you feel your heart beep fast and hard.
Because you belive in nature's source.
I makes your heart belive.
and when you belive you are creating your self
'one with nature'

Andres Gonzalez
Love

love can be painful, but makes other to understand what they want. love is not always beautiful love can be a symbol as a balance.
love is what you feel for others love is a shield to protect you.
Love is our source of life in the way we live. To be or to know why are we here for.

Andres Gonzalez

My House Is Not A Home

During the night when I feel so cold
I get this empty sensation when I’m alone
Because without you here beside me
My house is not a home.

Sometimes I can’t help but I think of you Because you are always on my mind
Then memories come and fade away
And I get this regretful feeling inside.

Sometimes I can’t help it but cry for you Whispering your name throughout the night Missing your sweet tender kisses upon my lips Wanting you here to hold me tight.

Sometimes I can’t help it but think of memories Tearing up as I see the past Thinking everything we had was forever

Remembering the fight we used to have And the days when were apart we were so much in love I thought But then you ended up breaking my heart.

I tried so hard to move along without regrets and with no more tears.
But you being so far way now your love still lingers here.

During the nights when I feel so cold
I cry in the dark when I’m alone
Because without you here beside me
My house is not a home.

My Lion

My lazy lion
He's full of strength, speed, and sensitivity and Independent in his lifestyle.
My lion has a mane
A marvelous mane of golden brown He might flee from rain, but almost always catches his prey
My lion is brave of heart
And he's my lion
so that means he's also well behaved.

Andres Gonzalez
My Mom

There's a feeling I get when I look in her eyes and she doesn't know it. There's a lot I can tell you about her. Her eyes are moonlight ponds her hair is dark brown tree that grows strong and beautiful. She is sweet and smart and fun to be around. I love her much, but to say the least she is my mom.

Native Indians

when thy sun rises peaceful minds they are.
they ride their horses enjoying life through season. When they enjoy, The wind blows soft through their bodies.
Feeling freedom,
In their world.
Cherishing what they most seek. when the night lights are upon the sky,
Its beauty shin into dawn

Andres Gonzalez
Nature Is Around Us

Nature is around us
nature is our feelings and it is also our spirit.
Nature is the habitat we live in.
our home, our future.
with out nature we mighted no longer live.
that's why nature is around us.

Ones Who Change

Things we do things that change
can't really be the same.
those who change
forget their friends,
those who do
are the same
who change.
Feelings for those may not be the same.

Andres Gonzalez
Pains In The Heart

hurtful feelings beneath our fragile hearts, pains that occur during sadness emotion in our thoughts feeling the pains in sadness in our heart hurtful pain that can't stop tears coming out our eyes but never stop to flood away tears running out your eyes like endless waterfall.
pain hurting and hurting my heart both body and mind illusion of unhappy moments anger of those that we hate but the more we think the more pain we suffer.
wonder when pain will stop.

Andres Gonzalez
Reason

give me a reason why should i stay with you haven't i done enough for you. have you ever thank me before or even kept a promise... no...have you forgotten
our memories, the ones we once shared until the time of dispare
at least tell me have you thought about it, before you left me if there was something else you needed.
Any reason that came to your mind or you just did it for
fun. how foolish of me being with you was just a waste.... but even so, if it was a just a waste at least i enjoy my time, because i felt in love with a beautiful lady who loved to hear my stories....
know that i look at you you aren't that person are you? ...

Andres Gonzalez
Silent is peaceful Silent is undefined
Silent can be problems
Because it hides secrets
It is an emotion that has no description.
Silent is nothing and doing nothing is doing something.

Something To Love

Is there something to hold, care, cherish or even love something or someone? Is it really that important to love? Can it be something that can be kept forever in your heart, or could it be just a burden to your life? .....maybe I’m the one mistaken. Maybe I’m the one who feels this “love” stuff. Maybe when I think about you, I feel peaceful. When ever I see you smile or even look at you it makes me happy that you are happy and my heart pounds like drums in a parade. When I’m near you or very close to each other my heart raises and won’t stop beating fast...cause is because I like you or even love you. When I started to like you, I didn’t know if as a friend or something else. Love is something I can’t really understand very well but if there’s a day or year I would know I would stay the way I’m. if I told you I love you I would die in peace. But if there was a day were we could meet and love each other my heart would be happy and calm. It would be calm because knowing it is you my love....we would be tied lie an undone bond. My love and heart will always be for you and only you....thank you for being with me thank you. T_T

Stuck In This World

I'm living in a world with guns and violence
drugs and poverty
High school drops outs
Young girls with their stomachs popped out I 've seen it all people with lives no more this isn't something s-mall so I need to get focused get my head in the game Don't fall in the cracks cause so far I'm the only person who has my back.

Sun

sun rises from below our site shiny and beautiful like the stars leaving people into blindness,
warm in our bodys but leaving hotness in our skin, hard to look at but beautiful to see in peaceful way when the sun passes throght its grave.
sun set fall for us to see the wonderful colors of its raise

Andres Gonzalez
Sunste My Love

The sun breezy warm, sun so hot you are, I would just hug you and watch you till night, The warmthness I can't even look at you Because you're so striking your brightness makes me smile, my eyes shining.
I could lie and watch you till dawn comes back My eyes will see you everyday in the morning.

The Streets Hurts

look at all the pains and cries look at all the people shot and dead No child can walk through the streets
As you walk your heart misses a beat,
All these gangs Let it go, Where you'll end up you'll never know.
If you have trust you'll make it through only if you learn to believe in you you can't be blind to see It's best if you let it be.

that wasn't able to express making a future and memory as an opportunity for a momentu

Waterfall

My tears are like a waterfall once I start I can't stop.
If only you knew,
    What tis kind of sadness does to you.
A friendship lost,
    or a tear in the heart.
when I cry,
    It won't stop...just like a...
