Anything At All On Earth Like Love

Your Highness, may this sonnet's throbbing pulse of beauty be a token of
-Oh stop this phonetics  boredom empyreal pathetic lesson of your love to me-Rise, rise your eyes, stop morbid moping, ride a carousel,  get frolics with the ladies not so troubled with so somber deep,
They will simply make it sex of you -a whole lot of  exclamation stanza,
Get drunk you raven rave, don't pour your tears, belch innards -verses, virtues, spleen , are the same at night  as cats are grey Your Highness, I can not stand the...Stand my admonition or precluded is your to me admission, part time page audition,
Quote unquote Poet-hardly you! Don't look a way,
Look simply here- here is for your expenses, get you gone- don't question mark the ladies,
Even of the night, escalade them forte, impregnate  them with  your carnal heat till
They fire back in kisses and caresses, broken is your poor squalid self...well my page, What do I say?
Your Highness, this sonnet is so somber  query and question
Is there anything at all on earth  like love?

Aren't You Up For This My Saint

Sweep you clean your pass intentional for gain the poet over- the hunt goes on:
The baits carnal international - gal, sum, bank leading in UK -data perused-
Traits facial of grief, cosmetics, sorrow special - shock, sympathy seduced,
The ruse sensational -fox mimics fiscal freedom body capabilities reduced,
An account of salvation army is tipped,
Fees, expenses to modesty are clipped,
Bitter salty tears poured and sipped-
In company of some holy father and advocate of banknotes I transfer
To prove the probity of suffocating sobs here I refer
To make me subject of your credit mercy I incur
But darling the transfer of real money -be it my way-
The painted clipper on the painted ocean -so poetic let me say
We should be prosaic, security titanic, put sentiments aside ok?
Nota bene darling -keep your appetite for me keen and foremost-
Near the painted island of bliss the clipper is cruising off coast
Where my stuck naked tenderness remains faithfully foreclosed
But the brush of all the sweep of treasure island
Is in your hands and God's intention for my gain
Aren't you up for this my saint?

Envy worm -hardly an anima at all!

Buoyancy Of Light And Sound

Euterpe - the Muse, my Queen
The keen Ear seize your crystal echo ting
Ensemble diamond filigree will sing-
The Verity my heart intone-
Each beat a verse - I'm not alone
Harmony celestial mundane and eternal
Conquer my inner times and space,
In intricate and florid solar sound of lace-
Cleft, note, line, spaces, Eutepe's footfalls,
The Weaver sonant in patterns shiny intricate and tender
Evolve the tiptoe golden ray of wisdom love and art-
The whirlwind sheen - hands of Muse's love embrace and kiss
The poet in distress in lands of vulgarity bread crumbs lender
Its hiss and constant clamor cease...
Ark of heaven in me that is-
Dreaming of buoyancy of Light and Sound to sail the Sea of complete solitude.

Circle To My Soul

One day GURU drew a circle and said -‘Divide the Circle,
Each disciple came up and divided the CIRCLE
Till there was only nothing to divide-
‘You always follow bad advice? ‘ said Guru and drew a CIRCLE...

In scruffy dreads and turpitude so hard to fixate oneself on a dream,
To fashion a faceted fireball motive - a breath intake-out fanciful spin-
Top spinning magenta ultramarine;
Away from the muzzle, sight shooter pin pointed scream,
Square deal nuzzle, Magna Carta, Scripture digest

Disciple-Lover

The crimson flame is visible - quintessence its me Thee fascinate
Euterpe's magic realm Thee contemplate,
I trust my heart to your crucible
Melt the moody coils melancholia, whirlwind my soul, my poem Fantasia
-Your lips are tangible
In stanza time, your divine space-
Triple chords in rhymes and leap
Intrigue- tease, I find the poetic
To ambiguity of meaning
And ubiquity of presence-
The tongue of lambent wit
Touch, trip on light and kiss
I'm your disciple- lover
Euterpe bless!
With sonnet's wreath,
New Eros Oracle,
Poetic golden ring
Encircle You my finger to sing the new dawn Aphrodite's golden sheen-
The sun-inundated love shore wonder
In whispering incessant lapping sea-
Spells roundabout and oblique, the brilliant ting-tone-cluster-twang
The Muse, Euterpe sang
To spheres of eternity -come, come
Sit there on the shore, take the gold of the Sun
And listen, listen...
- The Poem Sea - the Crimson Sail- Flame-
The gentle breeze embrace the meaning
But only yearning for something
More is echoed, echoed
In that faraway...

By simpler shorter word today -comes and goes
With each and every passing moment -beeps and flows
You feel it passed to something seen before clicks and clones

Before and after the wind all comes to particles in physics and dirt and dust
Stone bronze iron age club strike runaway and leg in mortar fire cast
Or suddenly fantastically all slipped by, oh well, and me unnoticed
You seem have been precisely slighted without 'give me extra time', 'all yours '

To the trapeze, circus carpet clowns, jugglers, all them public well exploited
All that returns again for further thorough, welcome your ovation and inspection
Forever how long it last? -its only your credo and perception
How totally and virginally new? -its only your purity and contraception

Signed sighed and sealed by creator of this universe
Forever is sincerely all yours.

Meticulous seduction of the facts comes to the following conclusion—
These who are ruled by those who want power most punctilious
Are mostly abused by the following hereafter;
Indifference and hate play cards—
Amid peaceful snoring squabbles domestic and farts,
Trumps always on the side of hate—
The quickest, surest way to the alien declared lawful assets
Their women and no-one's wives of late
And chattels various (by the way and worldwide custom)—
Jews at crystal night are not mentioned-detention on suspicion,
Political correctness—It needs a new web publicized TV sensation
And excitement of broad smile, clean science noose extension
Willful public suicide on the march to deportation
(Germans after Hitler won their hearts and lost the war)
But Ukrainians had they, before reinstated Nazi uniform
And all other particulars on scale and constant growth
(somewhere Auschwitz future Reich dot com)
If failed—brief repentance deal and full employment
Of human torturing machine renewed, upgraded, lubricated on the alienated
But not exclusively on this the only chosen nation
Or animals in caves and jungle cities—not at all!
Let someone else reap retributions
And feel how it is a war defend stuck naked relish, love to kill
So long at school of gun control, computer shooter game
Worldwide 3-D and reticence political in madness,
Prosthetic limbs in store for every friendly fire—

Soothsayer- what rush placebo Russian humble prince as ENO can do for a general
Army-ready for engagement ring? With cuts on throttle fuel, artificial limb, tin,
Gas mask on politician wired explosive gimmick, fishy sympathy with dough Johns devil Helter-skelter, insanity machine - slot, slaughter, capacity immensity for horror
Have been approached by desert ghost voice and hear?
One more espresso, drug game monopoly of heaven,
Round table panel directors conference in cage,
Hug, smile, pray, eat bread unleavened
The cock and clock both crow eleven-
One hour per capita, market, general
Quote, Unquote.

The Gemini Light

Gemini the light, my Father found me,
Immersed me in the spheres of his love
Once more, now, again!
To fight for peace against the Nazi,
Find my soul twin - sister, brother
Under so many broad daylight,
Nightmare distorted mask
Look like human or alien husk;
The twin light Gemini in us perished long ago;
Done, dissected we were with my brother, sister
Mutilated, utilization tagged, subhuman rated -
Slaves forever more of master nation Nazi
Performing animal rituals and dances
In circus of their skull cross bones name,
The curse, the beast number was branded of shame
But dawn of human dignity is born
Joy spread your wings I win my Twin for You!
My Father of Brotherhood Equality and Love-
Macabre dragon will be vanquished-
Still born hearts of science of no moral scruples
Their Sabre blade of subjugation
Scythe of death is broken, tarnished
Shine on my Gemini light!

ENO SUTRAMAN
The I Could Be

I took THEE from the astrum light into these...
The times eclipsed what could be me,
The circle vermilion unique expertise -
Chromatic gamut esthetic persuasion
Aphrodite, Erato, the Muses invasion,
The measure of uses -god-love man-
MY HARP -the ASTRUM, the I in the eyes I should be,
ECLIPSE THE TIMES-
IS there any wonder? In that past, return unread, could be?

note: astrum Latin star,
Erato -Class. Myth. the muse of love poetry

ENO SUTRAMAN
The Letter Eye

I is not the letter first but where do I start but from within?
Jay bird blue fan with wings my brow -cool down, watch the scene,
Katydid hoopla hoop on and off ten, must see, somersaults,
(List complete of the hoopla is down here and not over yet)
L.-Capital the Lion recited poems, tail beating rhythm and accord
(the Beetles tried to interfere but ROAR top-20 petrified them
At Love Me DO to learn and know their superiors in ABC and coda)
Monkeys screeched the very likelihood of jungle POP and jamboree and lyrics
Nightingale (deeply offhanded) presented so heartfelt serenading
(epecially to the Lion Capital and me)
That all the Urban Animal and Jungle fled in flood to heavy screech and metal the extras of Sodom, Ocelot could not stand it like a pillar of salt - the Sodom's jam with somewhat roll and mimics
Parakeets' ‘hip hip Oh happy monkey human Olalla and Gong'
(to quiet them took quite some time and sedition times of boogie -bong)
Quetzal of golden-green and scarlet plumage colors more a poem - song to teach
R-words which are in Top Gear from Stage Display and Screen
Drive the Ivan the Terrible to piano recitals and a lachrymal ode-song,
Siberian Russian Bear from hibernation to reinforce (per force) lyrics, serenade, poems
And gong (boogie-bong) to teach us the lachrymal ode-song of the tyrant reformed
And ABC PLENTY of Poetic Word and Form
(is it god 's own word in jungle urban boogie bong?)
Jay Bird from within me-spread your wings over me,
I tried reformation somersault,
Flip-flop - deformed three times,
Reformed am I?
First only to A, Second only to B,
But Third to C what's all within and out
And beyond besides their tongues and masks
Waving incantations boogie-bong
And Bless You Sneeze You Salt and Pepper Pigs and Stars
My hip, hip hooray the letter EYE-
All their reverencing is posted Post Morten overdue to My Jay Bird part time white and part time Blue!

The Psalms Of Edgar Alan Poe

The finale bell and shroud never sleep
Like in bottle the manuscript is sealed
The ocean's raving terror is readily revealed
The parable of life and death is cast ashore
   The Raven's hoarse -Never Nevermore
The Sleeper pass indifference in silence grains of sand,
Chronos of Forever ever more and more
Into the folds of pastime sage- the omen reader
Needs the finale climax of never end the evermore
Phlegm backstage wry faces gesticulate and mimic
The ecstasy and gimmicks of the front end great-
The public squint from every possible viewpoint and income
The psalms of Edgar Alan Poe

The Wizard Hazardous

Wizard hazard to instigate a parallel existing universe
To swab and squeeze the poor of their Adam's curse;
No alms for firearms and give me vote smile ignition,
With born insider's grip velvet steel handshake and intuition,
No full employment only pre- and in time of war,
No tools of torture for exports and domestic in store,
No alms in palms for zigzag swastika dot com to the tag on his multimillionaire's neck -
To shuffle the gold cutting edge one percent the richest, born innocent and equal, deck,
Owl predicts an exponential death for Wall Street dove and oil,
Occasional pickups and sprinkle rain,
All profits sound in body and sane
Plots family and cross alignment - the nuisance in soil...
The wizard hazardous is meditating, evolving are the coils -
Existing are the two but the real one is here on the tag on you -
     One per cent is equal to nighty nine of poverty, not you?

To Alone The End

Day time, arches of twilight
   Alone
lights and darkness
Greet me, pass me -alone
   My ship meets another ship on this ocean of life
-Only a look, a pass away sound then silence again and Near sighted plenty of utterance mute,
Night time -entry alone
The fellow sheep -counting, nodding and sleep-
Only a female sheep in passing -a wink
To my esthetic amazement keen
And my phlegmatic Slippers' esteem
Of the insole paired, pristine.
Amore mio dolce, piccolo, piccolo -
   Means her wink meets my smile
And she stops for this while
To greet her SUN, the Dawn...
   TO ALONE
     THE END

To Understand

To see what is meant - Add adder of silence in the coils of lies,
The sting and hissing of times, Be deeply bemused,
See Beyond and behind interchangeable masks,
See meticulous facts contradiction intricate design,
See what is what, what dies first - your notion, the truth or adder of lies,
Or simply you circle trite cliché - slightly amused,
What and who the bull’s eye hit square on target,
What and who cater next victim with plenty of sighs,
What and who fatal blows are nimble, primary tasks,
What and who are transfers to any desirable pitch and on scale,
If you can not do all this and much more is not to forget
To understand - You simply fail.

Triangle In Circle And Friend

A capriccio erratum humanum -I fancy Erato to my Eros and Her -triangle and friend, Fatuitas of such an idea -we are not quite a few,
Though Apollo stand harmony gracefully nude
Lewd, the approach, is not his, mine is sweet
Erato kiss my lips and next to me You stand!
To crown, the Harp, her Excellence of Pulse and Shimmer in rimes of Pulchritude;
The Triangle in Circle of Sonnets and Stanzas - Innermost Love Attitude-Aphrodite's daughter she is,
Oppose, Euterpe, the Sirens -in want deadly they are to square and frame
The Triangle-Poetry, Music and Flame,
Instilling snail pace perdition, hardly audible condition-
Euterpe, Calliope, Erato -we love in love with you,
Follow, follow, on see and land but only us
So soft and gentle is the oblivion Erebus pass but mute, away the sound dance and Terpsichore audible is Warning-
King you born and Slave you come to the Island Death king Hypnos moon and sun
Where lips in delirium insatiable Yearning,
Beg and cringe for the distilled sweetest poison aroma of the Siren's Song:
Innuendo comes in crescendo of Doom and lull -
Ears and Lips are kissed and caressed -A capriccio poem no end
And I fancy Erato to my Eros and Her- triangle in circle and friend

Uphill Or Downhill  Easier?

One misty morning on a narrow, winding mountain path, two wanderers met each other both of them felt presence of one traveling upwards heavily placed his luggage on the ground, sat down on a stone, the other with satchel on his shoulder was going downwards, kept observed the man then asked: 'Hey, look here, how should a drop of water fall and not disturb the surface of water? How should I lift up my bundle and not feel the weight? On that they one on his way down thought' make your luggage take you up'. The other on the stone bemused with the question of the stranger easily picked up his luggage started briskly walking up the mountain and as if talking with him answered' can fire be a friend to water?

Wait For All Eternity And See

Take time to appreciate direction, to become the arrowhead of my intention,
Slow down your pace, breath deep the undulating music-scape, metronome of vistas:
Are mountains nodding invitation to gavotte them with magic flute of your invention,
To tickle echoes, chase mischievous pixies, ripples of children's laughter, the stars?
Your orison inspire errant elf enchanted to take you to silver dew meadow inspiration,
To forest, dales, fairytale birds, forget-me-not solfeggio in trills of revelation-
Can never stop your loving fantasy recital lilies of the valley-they bow in reverence,
Gardens midair fragrance ablaze, whiffs waltzing, miracle vision suspense
Defenseless beauty plea for sanctity, momentous poise
Take and keep shape in your chords and sequences of poetic noise
Take in and keep on deep inside the spread aquamarine of my blue sky,
Will chant for fair weather when doom and gloom hang over - storms away they fly
Take in and keep on lit the light in chasms Cimmerian abysmal mine they long
To be invited to merry masquerade in gentle town near smiley sea-
Parade of cacophonous jamboree, stilted clown majestic, wily key
Fandango dancing, tango and stately minuet with port girls hot in their hand
Competing teams of harlequins, confetti ballerina, jay bird rustic band,
Sing all flame loud jolly free from human bondage hymn and song
Forging in music circus masquerading smithy love universal bond Take time, and weight this moment with a pause...
Your insulated routine independence at a loss?
Is it only a mirage in desert boredom summer dusty city drudge?
To become aquamarine arrowhead, someone else -metronome and nudge-

Waiting For Manna?

GURU fell because of hunger, prostrate on an empty street for a long time,
A hungry mendicant passed by daydreaming-
-The sooner I'm dead the better 'n sooner I'm decayed, the sooner
I'm decayed the better 'n sooner I'm grass,
The sooner I'm grass the better 'n sooner grazed by cow,
The sooner grazed by cow the better 'n sooner that cow is killed by man-
-That's then I'm gonna eat like a man- the sooner.
Nearer to night- time devil came up to him, examined Guru and asked: ' waiting for Manna?
No, a good companion, answered GURU, devil disappeared... A boy ran up to him, brought along with him
His grandfather- together they took GURU to their home.

We Do Annex Our Peace

In shrapnel and blood per square inch of mortal flesh of our soil
We do exceed you more than a human can tolerate the times
Of petty puppetry of war, onslaught against our dignity and rights
Of peaceful side by side existence with sunny skies, sea, our blissful land
Of Paradise and mountains - not comparable in beauty, nowhere on this earth!
We live and always break our bread amidst the multitude of friendly people-
Who heartily embrace with hospitality you all-
Come see us for yourselves, taste our vintage magic wine,
Our nature everywhere embrace you with her smile
Crimea, Russia, Referendum says we do not need no war -
We do annex our Peace against whatever war!

You

A Poem meaning is to be Times Perusal, you be taken,
Times are branded within to see,
Times are not to be decorated-
If you are alive to be:

As the Times and forever be...
A Poem meaning is forever You.
