Falana Idowu Zion
- poems -

Publication Date:
2019

Publisher:
Poemhunter.com - The World's Poetry Archive
Falana Idowu Zion()

Born on Dec 01 to the family of Ch. E.B Falana. He learnt the great lesson of life, that life is not a problem to solve, but a reality to experience...
He published his first work in the year 2017, the work titled The World. He has written for different magazines, anthologies, competitions etc.

His aim is to make the world a better place.
He loves creativity and Impact......
A Damsel In Distress

Alas! ! !
Like a bird without a nest,
She walks with her brain on her hind-head
Within her dwells pain, hunger and distress
Pain pierce her soul within her heart
Let's call for her freedom, for her to sing the victory song.
We'll cry for you through our pen
With the hope that our call will be heard

O land,
Will you fold your arms around your chest
And watch her wander around like a cow that's lost
Will you rest your eyes on your heart
And catalyze her pain and lack

With sweat on her head, she works day and night without rest
Yet, she complains of poverty and lack Please, fold not your arms
Have pity on her, and let her basket spill out

O cloud,
Heed our call and bail us out
She's thirsty and about to die
Will you too hide your rain from her sight
Her heart is shrinking like a flesh drown in alcohol
She suffers horror like a hopeless warrior
Hear our call and send your water from above
Refresh her heart, and let her flourish and sing the victory song

O plant
Are you barren or it is your plan
To hide your life-saving fruit from her sight
And sit tight to watch her die
Please, she's a stick of broom
Feed her and let her bloom
Don't watch her die in her hood
She's lonely, wandering and glum

O air,
Listen to our call with your inner ear
In you our last hope dwell
Wrap our message around your neck
Deliver it to her mom with your last breath
Pierce her heart with the ardent pen
That her daughter is a slave in her land

Carry our message to the moon
Deliver it to that home above the sky
For them to work hand in hand
And deliver her, before she give up to life....

Falana Idowu Zion
A Home Above The Sky

The home is bright and far
The brightness as the morning star
The home is so far
Beyond the shining sky

A home good and cool
Peaceful like the unperturbed stream
Everything there are good
A home for all, Able or disabled

The home on high
Twinkling like the little star
Far above the sky
Glittering like the moonlight

A home filled with holiness
The qualities are crystal clear
People are rejoicing there
People wearing white garments

I'm a stranger far from home
A stranger in a foreign home
My home is far away
More than my mouth can say

I will weave my future from the past
Erase my tangled past
Set my pace on the way of life
So as to inherit the home above the sky

Falana Idowu Zion
A Victim Of The Charming Night

At the sight of his shinning greasy hair
She fell faster than ice in hell
She lost herself to the air
Running the hands through her hair
She became soft like a day bread

Gripping on to her sleeves
That alone sent her running
She fell and lingers for flesh like a lion on the street
Her brain tintinabulates like the star dancing to the moon's beat

He made the first move
And all the colors she had ever seen lit her Ardent view
Fire lit in the curvy parts as a cue
Flames moved up her eyes and her lonely moon
Swimming in the river of flair
His lips extinguished her fire and left her bones bared

Clumsy fingertips piercing the curvy parts
Quivering tongue and thirsty lips,
Wallows and sparks in the dark
Pleasure sang its lovely track
As the memories deep dark and benight
Up all round in the pleasurable night
The heart and flesh dripped in and out like a jack

The darkness gave up to light
And her memory gained back its sight
Oh my virginity, she cried
Tears rolled down her tiny sparkling eyes
But it is late and out of time
Oh my virginity, my pride! ! !
I lost you for a lifetime in a night under a round
For the night can't be reversed
And the virginity can't be refreshed

Turn not yourself into a mother,
When love hasn't made you a wife
Keep your heart and your innocent laps
Don't be overwhelmed by a love-like lust
When the pride leave, it can't be returned
Be drenched by love not by lust and virility
For you not to be A Victim Of The Charming Night

Falana Idowu Zion
Africa My Land, My Pride

O Africa
The home of love and art
Your beauty aglow on a fertile land
Beautiful as the purple flush of dawn
Your eyes like two twin stars shining in the sky

The birthplace of humanity
The cradle of life and art
You live a life enchanted with diversity
Your color, customs, songs and tribes
You wear them like peacock for everyone to behold and smile

Your sculptures, culture and metal works
Travel and catapults lives from afar
They stand tall, strong and bizarre
Captivating the eyes and heart of man
You are the stardom and beauty of life

Africa my land, my pride
I love thy tingatinga painting style
And your wonderful eye-popping attires
Your Agbada, Djellaba, Dashiki and kaftans
They are all memorable and nice

Your food and the dancing styles
Throw a man into the poetic earth
But river of tears is rolling down my eyes
As your culture is becoming a stardom of the past
Are they no more a paved road to pass?

O Mama Africa, will you let your eyes rest on your heart
As civilization draws your pride into a forgotten land
How I wish you dig and live up your golden inheritance
I pledge allegiance to you my land
I love you with my heart

Falana Idowu Zion
Anger My Enemy, My Friend

Anger in its time and place
May assume naturally a kind of grace
With reasons it swallows the heart
But last not beyond a minute

Anger in its time and place
Truly with reasons it penetrates
But have no further lengths to go
For after a minute, it does into malice grow

Anger,
My worst enemy and friend
It brings about fears and tears
And stands beside and never depart

Anger my enemy
It nourishes its cherished wrath
With Purlieus on its path
With its acts it breaks me apart

Anger,
Naturally you're my friend
I know you'll never leave till the end
Nevertheless, till you say goodbye, be silent like the air.

Falana Idowu Zion
Animism

The round ball in the sky
The trudging ghost of time
You blazed across the space and time
You hearken the earth's timeless rhyme
The breath of the breathless plant
The soul above the earth
The light and warmth of the day shift-earth

The light of the shining night
The glimpse of the indefinite eyes
The diamond in the sky
You ignite the cripple kite
The milky way candle light
The spirit of the moonless night
The heart a milky quartz

The giant canopy plant
You bring my past back alive
The storm of memory strike my mind
The spirit of the nostalgic smile
You wave to my soulless smile
You speak to the lonely heart
Giving me a wonderful past

The cloud of fear has cleared
The rivers of thought has drowned
The hopeless night has fade out
The elusive voice sound beneath my toe
Whispering to the ear within my soul
Carpingly ringing beneath my sole
Take off the pace off my soul

At the darkening fall afternoon
Imagination stroll down the memory lane
Twinkly wink in time and space
The toppling of old assumptions of atavism
Reincarnate the dynamistic animism
The age melts away like a snowflakes
New discovery awaits
The inanimate possess a soulful heart

Falana Idowu Zion
Attitude

Attitude is a manner of thinking,
That reflects someone's state of mind
Either good or bad

I've got an attitude, but don't know why
Showing love to people when they're sad
Making them happy,
Assuring them, they can fly

I'm not like others,
That criticize and lie
But I'm a creature that aspires
For what I desire

I realized
The impact of attitude in life
Attitude reflects the way we act
Determines our reputation on earth
And make us who we are

Falana Idowu Zion
Beautiful In And Out

River of thoughts swallowed my heart
My ardent pen couldn't hold its ink to write
My wonderful book said here I am
For I found someone, whose beauty unmatched
At the sight of her beautiful face
I recalled my mother's beautiful age
My emotions swallowed my gaze
I leaked my lips like a paste

My heart fell faster for her than ice in hell
I fell for her beautiful head gear
She was like a cluster of stars hung on a fruit tree of red
Her pink lips pierced my heart like spell
The elegance like a spear
Piercing my heart through my hair
Like a voice from a forgotten land
The beauty rang in my heart

My soul was lamp-less without her sight
Like a diamond in the sky,
Her white teeth shone between her parted lips
The lips speak seduction on its own
The lips parted like a crimson rose
Her love maddened my soul like wine
Storm of thoughts struck my heart
And lingered like an unloved guest

Her beauty was hard to bear
But I was swallowed up by fear
I didn't know the next step
As tears glistened the corner of my eyes
I confronted her with my feelings held high
Though love is a kiss under water
But I put my fear on the other side
Because she is beautiful in and out.

Falana Idowu Zion
Beauty

What an appearance
Attracting a million hearts
It glows like a shining light
Awesomely shines like the colorful flower
Glitters like the moonlight
Shining like the sunrise
It shines with time
It fades like a barren flower

My personality may make you smile
Filling your night with a shining light
Making you fly all round
Whirling like the blowing kite
But my beauty appears Beauty truly attracts
But can't really make a great impact
Love my personality, love me as I am

If people looks at beauty,
Without considering love and personality
Then love is nothing but a blowing kite
Everyone may not be beautiful
Yet two hearts can still meet
Through the sheer strength of the heart
Heart searching for love like the flying kite
Becoming the lovebirds, flying through the beautiful earth

If you only see me
Judge me not with my beauty
Judge me not, let me be me
My beauty is nowhere to be found
My beauty count but not really me
My personality is truly me
Beauty and personality are one
And made up the feeling call Love

Falana Idowu Zion
Begone Lust

What's the gain
To lust on woman without the thought of bane
To be carried away to the plot of flame
Where feeling is hard to tame

The feeling triggers the heart through the flesh
Baptizing love with the pool of flesh
Thirsty for the flesh to tear
Drawing the heart to field of tears

The blood flows through the vein to the head
The flesh transpires in distress
Love becomes a thing of flair
As the body lingers for flesh

Beholding her pink lips
The radiant face beneath her oily hair
The curvy flesh below the neck
The flesh lost itself to the air

Begone, O ye the spirit of lust
You destroy lives with your applauding clock
A bright soul becomes a trampled stool
Oh begone, lust the life ending drool

Love,
Refresh the heart with your glorious smile
Overshadow lives with your radiant sight
Saving all from the land where ecstasy overwhelms the heart

Begone lust,
Let all enjoy the lifesaving love
Let your power flee to hell
Before the world becomes an isle of hell

Oh man,
Be drenched by the oil of love
Let love swallow your mind
To say, begone the spirit of lust
Falana Idowu Zion
Behold The Freedom Light

Rescue those being led to death
Callback those staggering toward defeat
Waking them from their slumbering bed
Lead them away from the bridge of past
Weaving their future from the tangled past

Raise your indefatigable aim
Raise the indomitable flag
Against the countless problems of our time
Satisfy the insatiable heart
Ebullient like the incorrigible kite
Like the mule bringing ice to the sky.

Our cloud of fears have cleared
The rivers of thoughts have gone
The Curtain of last farewell have been drawn
The glaring glory have shone
Like the crystal-cleared water glistening the sun

Behold the freedom Light
Shining on the beautiful sky
Reflecting our Zealous might Dancing to the tree's blissful clap
Weaving our future from our past........

Falana Idowu Zion
Beloved

Beloved
Our hearts are like the silent sea
They won't be drowned by the wind
Or be consumed by the sun

Falana Idowu Zion
Cheer Up

The storm of words will never cease
Black in white will never flee
Death's melancholic bell will never sleep
But like a diamond in the sky,
Cheer up

The wound of expectation will never shrink
The Life's turbulent wind may never cease
The hurt of love may never freeze
But like the flowers and the breeze,
Cheer Up

Life's struggle may never die
Sadness and failure may not smile
The moon and the sun may never unify
Amid all, be beautiful as the dawn,
Dominant as the sun

Humans may never stop,
Filling life up like a cup with bubbling and sparkling liquor
Bombarding the heart with sword-like words
But, Like the purple flush of dawn,
Rise and never fall

Never be depressed or sad
For Life's threats mixed with lessons will always show its side
Don't be swallowed by fear
Cheer up, flourish, Rise and Shine

Falana Idowu Zion
Cross Not To The Other Side

The birds in the sky
Swift, dance and sing in power
Their greatness, hardship and cower
Are hidden within their hearts

The whole existence of mankind
Sleep, wake, work all time
And in the twinkling of an eye
Everything you've ever known is closed behind the dead eyes

Show me not your smiling side
When you're crying with the other eye
Share with me your minds and never hide
For us to dine and wine

Sit not on the fence
With the thought of that's the end
Behold the melodious flowers and the dancing sky
And cross not to the other side

Life itself isn't a fear fight
While some work hard
Some work light, and get enough to feed them the whole night

Life may vent and rent in power
Showing you the path that leads to the other side
Think not on the weakness but the sky
That changes to black to be white

Such fear that is stamped within all hearts
No one daring to walk without looking back
Knowing that one moment of peace
Is followed by countless moments of fight

This is our world
Within it lie goodness, sadness and joy
It may be blur, dark or white
But all for a while
Your thought may weigh you down
People may despise and trample on you like the ground
But is there nothing more than these in life?
You're the change in someone's life, do well not to cross to the other side

Cross not to the other side
Instead grab a mate
Talk about love, .
Study and lose yourself from everything that ties you to worry

Keep smiling as we all remember our past
When we would sleep and close our eyes tight
Let's keep on living in peace with one another
Let's keep the flag flying with peace and unity

Grab my heart and let's be one
Tell me your weakness, mine I would not hide
Let us be happy even in our saddening hour
To keep up the flag, saying no to suicide, fighting the good fight

Adelynn Olakunle
Falana Idowu Zion

Falana Idowu Zion
Emmanuel

In God, whose word we praise
In God who we trust
We're not afraid
What can mortals do to us
God is with us
He is there for us
He's our strength when we're weak
He is our God, our King
Let's always long to do His Will

When we're down to nothing,
He is up to something.
When our Physical strength weak,
His word is a strength for us.
When the world offers us nothing,
He is always ready to meet our needs
Yes the Lord is with us,
He will help us
And we'll look triumph at those who hate us

Anytime we look dismayed
We feel like we can't stand upright
When we lose our faith
We feel pain in our heart
But His grace will call us back
Calling us to His side.
Hmm Indeed, God is on our side
He is our Father and our stand
On You, the solid rock we stand

We need to find God
He cannot be found in a restless World
God is a friend of silence: A Glorious God
See how Nature: trees, flowers, grows in silence,
The moon, the sun, the stars move in awesomeness.
We need to see God in silence and Calmness
With God's word and faithfulness
He's a faithful God.... His name is Emmanuel
Falana Idowu Zion
Force

Force is a pull or push,
That we apply, that makes things move
Or that tends to make an object move
That changes the state of rest of an object
That is, a motion is produced.

A man described how an object behaves
When there is no force acting on them
An object continues in its state of rest
Unless a resultant force acts on it
That's what Isaac Newton's 1st law explains

When a resultant force acts on an object of constant mass,
Which leads to the change of state of rest
The object accelerate in the direction of force the applied
Then the product of the mass and the \( a \) is = resultant force i.e \( F=ma \)
That's what Newton's 2nd law explains.

Let's see what Newton's 3rd law says
The third law explains:
If a body \( J \) exerts a force on body \( K \),
Then body \( K \) exerts an opposite force(-F) on body \( J \)
Hmm, what a great impact Sir Newton made.

We still make references to Newton today
The S.I unit of force is Newton (N) , the name still remain
Scientists fail but never quit, that's why their names remain
Believe in yourself then you make a change
Promise yourself you'll not quit, then you have a GAIN

Falana Idowu Zion
Friendship

The feeling of friendship from the start
Is the special feeling in your heart
A feeling deep down the heart
A feeling no one should hide

When I wonder about life's true meaning
And whether it all make sense to me
With a word and smile from you, friends
I forget my silly laments

We lives like brothers and sisters
We came together like polymers
Aiming at one goal and objectives
We came together to become standards

Friends are flowers in the life's garden
They help in time of strive
True friends are the ones you see in time of trial
True friends will live in happiness forever

When you were born,
You cried and the world rejoiced
Live your life so when you die
The world cries and you rejoice

Every future ends in eternity
We should always strive as mortals
Who are capable of attaining immortality
To use our present to shape our future eternity

Falana Idowu Zion
Glory On High, Peace On Earth

At the taciturn night
All was light and bright
The stars beheld the angels' sight
The moon brought forth its light

At the flesh shrinking night,
Darkness flew and all became light
The shepherds beheld the angels' sight
With flashes of hope in their minds
They leaped back and forth with their joyful hearts
Singing glory on high, peace on earth

The shepherds couldn't stand a mile
To go forth to behold the mild spirit-filled child
When the angels delivered their colourful heart

The shepherds took their eyes on their hearts
As their foots fought with the ground
The journey of earth to the sky
Became the sky to the stars
They whirled like the kite
Flying reaching the sky
With their mouthful FM broadcasting His birth to the earth

River of joy swallowed the earth
A melancholic breath of death fled to hell
Leaping in a peaceful air
As the earthly king became a toothless hungry tiger that lost its breath

Glory be to the glorious child who brought a peaceful breath
We present to you our praises in place of the Gold, Myrrh and frankincense Presenting our all to you, as the seal of your birth...
As we sing glory on high, peace on earth.

Merry Christmas! ! !

Falana Idowu Zion
God In Man

Indeed!

They paint their faces with tears
They drench their coats with sweat
Their tears and sweats are inutile
For they are sitting on the fence

They trade their joy with tears
They sell their triumphant joy to sadness
Their salvation they trample on like the dust
Nevertheless, Glory to God

God in man died for man
Rose again as a man
So, from the depths of my heart
I sing the praise of the man who died for man

Break thy bread for me to eat
Pour the blood for me to drink
Your blood the spirit within Thy bread the life to live

Jesus, you started and the baton thou passed,
To the disciples behind
They ran and never thirst
Oh, thy baton I shall hold with my life

Falana Idowu Zion
Hallelujah

Hallelujah
The song in that field of stars
The song that fills my mouth
To join the ones in the home above the sky

The song that fills the field of stars
Is the song that reigns in that home above the sky
Hallelujah, the song of victory, love and Deliverance

The songs that fills my mouth
The song of praise and might
The song that fills the field of stars

To join the ones in the home above the sky
I will run with peace the race and my ride
And contend to behold the freedom light

Falana Idowu Zion
Happiness

Happiness lies in good health
Not in accumulation of honors and wealth
Happiness dwells in a man full of kindness
And out of fear

Happiness lies in sharing
Not in selfish desires
But in Caring for others
Giving what you have to others

Happiness is doing what you like
Doing what you desired and your favorites
Reading, dancing, singing, going on a ride
Above all, loving yourself and your desires

Happiness will come near
When you listen to hear and learn
When you venture to things love
Having a heart that cares

Loving someone else is a powerful happiness
Love is the opposite of hatred and fear
Happy people always love themselves
Happy people tends to live a healthier life

Happiness is a state of mind
When your life fulfill your needs
A feeling of contentment
That life is just as it should be

Falana Idowu Zion
He Calls

Jesus is calling us day and night
Amid this worldly universe
He calls everyday
Saying, follow me

The ancient apostles
Beyond the river of Galilee
They left all behind
They followed Him, even to the end

Jesus calls us amidst tribulations
In our evil world
Amidst the worldly pleasure
Saying, oh son of man, follow me

Amidst enjoyments and cry
Amidst pains and lack Amidst all, He shouts
Oh Christians, love me

Lord, in your infinite mercy
Let us hear your voice
Give us a willing heart
So as to love you more than this sinful earth

Falana Idowu Zion
He Saves

?He wants the sinner's heart
Proclaim it to all universe
Those leaving the heaven's path
And to those unyielding
Saying they won't come back.

He will give you rest
Believe Him, He's your friend
He'll take away your greatest fear
Flush away the tangled past
Giving you a glorious end

He saves sinners
He saves those whose sins are much
He satisfies their insatiable hearts
He paid all our sins and debts for us to reign with Him in the Heavenly realm.

Take my yoke upon you
I have no reproach
Learn from me for I'm gentle
Find me,I'll give you rest,
For my yoke is easy and my burdens is light..

Falana Idowu Zion
If Death Is Dead

If death is dead
There will be no more pain, disease and threats
We'll be free like the wind that caress
With the reflection of snow in our hair
We'll be like the angels

If death is dead
Earth will be an isle of paradise
It will glitter and fair like agem
No more pain and cry will be heard
We'll worship our forefathers on their beds
The land will be free from hole occupied by stinking flesh

If death is dead
There will be no end
Heaven and hell will be competing here
We will subdue with half care
Then, this our garden earth will be full of walking dead

If death is dead
We'll labor and leaked our golden sweat
The hope of rest will kick its last farewell
We'll be as old as the earth itself
There will be no enough space for us to dwell
Slavery and competition will be walking on the street with their bells, calling all to themselves

Death is not dead
Its melancholic drum will still be heard
It will fill our eyes with river of tears
Striking the son, leaving his mother naked
Giving us the pain of wishing our friends farewell
Then, we'll pray and wish death for death
But death won't kill itself but spare us the hope of the new earth

O' death
I know I'm your food on earth
But I have my hope in my heart
The hope of leaving slavery and corrupted earth here
For when I die
You'll no more thrive
But patiently wait for your death in the afterlife

Falana Idowu Zion
If I Were President

If I were president,
I would lay the denizens' wishes on my neck
I would create a world where justice will speak with its lips touching its chest
For the world to be heaven on earth

I would lay the denizens' wishes on my neck
Let their voices be heard
Remove obscurity and create accountability

I would create a world where justice will speak with its lips touching its chest
A world of peace, where slavery will be buried with the past
Where shackles will be loosed and open wide

For the world to be heaven on earth
I would breed transparency, and change an hopeless fate to a shining light
Making all know, the world was created to be an isle of paradise

© Adekunle Kate

Edited by Idowuzion

Falana Idowu Zion
In This Circle

On the old rugged roof
Sat the hungry dove
Beholding the stars above

I saw the grass dancing
With its tentacles pointing to the sky
Saying goodbye to the earth

On this silent sea
Lies our gentle hearts
Forming an iceberg

Surely on this silent sea
Our thoughts won't be drowned by the wind
Or our hearts be consumed by the sun

Misty grasses
Sleeping waters
Rise, for the dark sky is giving up to light

In this circle, the hurdles may double
The gods may sleep
But, the sky and the moon,
Will always be the light and the roof

Falana Idowu Zion
In This Circle II

Pierce my heart like a spear
Paint my face with tears
Trample on me like the ground
I'll not give up on life, but grab my heart to learn

Have I not prepared for life?
I've prepared to be a man
I've prepared to be oppressed
I've also prepared not to be depressed

Speak ill of me
Drench my coat like wine
I'll not give up on life
But be determined in hundred folds to rise

In this circle called Life
I'll play my string so loud
Though, my black sky may not always be white
But the black won't supercede the white

My life is a life within a life
Without the other life my real life won't shine
My weakness in this my other life
Gives a million chance for me to rise

In this circle
I'll run the race with ease
Face every challenges life may bring
And never forget to rise

Falana Idowu Zion
Letter To A Friend

The time melts away like snowflake
Life is slaying the time and the day
But I will bring the past back alive
Reminiscing the old memorable time
Remembering the colorful past

I will bring the past back alive
Remembering our nostalgic smile
Bringing you back to the old rugged time
How we used to fly around like a kite
Playing hide and seek all around

I wish you remember
The day we fought as if we were crossing our friendship lane
We wept as we could not behold each others' gaze
But the night came we slept like sand
Letting our legs entwine

We wished the time could wait
Sparing us the time to run the friendship race
But the time picked its race
Telling us we would never behold each other's gaze

Nevertheless,
This is my letter to you my old friend
The time is as old as the earth itself
I hope the time would strike its last farewell
Giving us the time to go back to the nostalgic planet
Till then, brace yourself
I wish you nothing but the best.

Falana Idowu Zion
Life

Alone like a storm-tossed wreck
Silent as the sheeted dead
I lost my gaze to view the air
My glance flitted like the bird
Icily cold and clammy as death
Evaluating the questions in my heart

What is life
Today you're Happy
Tomorrow you're sad
Life is full of ups and downs
People change with time
And the time flies away like kite

Don't feel worthless
Don't be disappointed or depressed
When people ignore you
When they disvalue you
But give yourself the strength to rise
By telling yourself It is Life

Life is inherently risky
But try to avoid a risk
Which is the risk of risking nothing
Be happy with the side life show
Accept all the moments life bring Love people with how they feel

Don't live to die
But die to live
Live for a purpose
Life is our existence on earth
Give the inner man the chance
To achieve his purpose on earth

Above all
Life is not a problem to be solved
It is just a reality to experience
Don't be subjected to fear
Don't be discouraged with what life give Instead, be courageous and shine like the stars

Falana Idowu Zion
Life Within A Life

The shining diamond in the sky
The mighty clock of life
The dazzling gold in the sky
Bright your light shine

People dreaming
The birds flying and leaping
The fishes in the silent sea
Sleep not with all their eyes

In this cage called life
I'm lost to my heart
I hope I won't be trapped
For there is more beyond the life

High is the sight of man
With the aim of reaching the sky
Wide are the dreams of his heart
For time neither sleep nor dance

Knowledge may never die
Dreams may never sleep
Insights may never run of time
But life itself won't last a night

At the end, I discovered
Life arbours dreams within a dream
Success, knowledge and aim
But all are life within a life

Falana Idowu Zion
Life, Why

Life, why
Why do we live to die
Why do you call death alongside
When we always ask for life

Life, why
I grab my pen to write
Millions of words trigger my mind
Why don't you give me the words that'll fulfill my heart

Life, why
Are you cruel or it is your plan
To always swallow our hearts with thoughts
Please, listen to our pleas
And give us our desires

We sought for a peaceful world
You gave a mixed one
Don't you have a peaceful one in your court?
But you left us and our world with thoughts

We wished to tread only the narrow path
That leads to that home above the sky
The road to the field of stars
But you gave us the broad road to destruction alongside Don't we sought only after life?

Above all, Life
I know you have a million balls in your court
You're not a problem to be solved
But a reality to experience
We'll live you well
To enjoy our ride to that home above the sky

Falana Idowu Zion
Love

Love is a question mark, without the second part
That makes it a heart..

Falana Idowu Zion
Love; A Diaphanous Wine

The day don't care if you're asleep
The night cares not if you oversleep
The sun cares not if you're scorched
But regardless of all the nature's threats
Your love ignite my heart to smile
Singing to the flowers beat

I sit, I stand, I smile
I care, I fear of hurt
The feelings of hurt always divert
The feeling not overt
It's crystal clear that's how you feel in your heart
In our hearts, the love can't depart

Love a raging sea
Clapping like a dancing tree
Powerfully joining the king and the queen
Causing the flower to dance
Making the saddest heart smile...

The voice a diaphanous wine
My body thrive
It brings heart back alive
The love cannot be deprive
It causes heart to smile
Oh my love: A glory divine

Falana Idowu Zion
Lovely Fight

The colorful fly
The gentle rose of life
Your beauty madden my soul like wine
I love your fragile heart

The gentle rose of life
My heart kowtowed your lovely sight
You shine like the joyful star and the starlight

Your beauty madden the soul like wine
The beauty cracks the sadden heart apart
You are the diamond in the sky

I love your fragile heart
I've made up my mind to shift the heart from left to right Put on a brave face of might and contend for the lovely fight

Falana Idowu Zion
Mercy Said No

The earth a roaring tiger
The people an absorber
Sin a life destroyer
The world a destiny changer
Amidst all the trials
Mercy always say no.

Many destructive thoughts
Many threats to be lost
Darkness wish my heart is tossed
Sin the greatest threat of all
Devil wish I'm lost in the world
But mercy said no amidst all.

Oh world
You will never take control
Your fame and joy aglow
They are nothing but an innuendo flow
Like a river flowing as the wind blows

Sin the stumbling block
You and your fading joy
You and your tricks are obvious
You manifest in a mysterious manner
Luring all into ruinous act
Pushing all with the pernicious hand
But you and your trick are nothing but a destructive sound.

The world and its malodorous fame
Their thoughts they wish I acclaim
Enjoyments and its wish aflame
Thinking of my heart to claim
But with His grace, mercy will always say no
Calling my heart back home.

Falana Idowu Zion
My Ardent Pen

Sitting on my indefatigable chair
With my ardent pen in my hand
Waiting for the ballistic ink to bleed
Looking to the sky
Viewing beyond the blue and the white

Rolling my Ardent pen
On my wonderful book of life
Cloud of words dancing deep down my heart
Expressing people's he(arts)

Deep down their hearts
Hatred and love reside
Your reactions determine the feelings that appear
React with care
You'll see their loving side

People and their fragile beautiful heart
The shining awesome smile
Their care make them phenomenal
I love them with their fragile hearts that cares

Falana Idowu Zion
My Desire

I desire to live in God
The Lord of lords
To call on Him when I'm down
And He answers the prayers when I call.

Lord grant me a heart that long for you
I will not go astray
Whatever I may face in life
Grant me this all I pray

I desire to grow higher
Creating a great impacts
Never let my head hang down
And never give up on becoming a great person in life

I desire to go a long way
Filled with success all the way
Growing in knowledge and grace
And be prosperous in all my ways

My heart desire is to meet someone Who'll understand me when I'm down
Understand when I'm sad
And love me as I am

I desire to meet someone,
With great determination and focus
That will rejoice with me when I'm glad Understand me like no other
And know I'm fragile as a feather

I desire to sit at God's side
Live my eternity with Jesus Christ
That's all my heart desires
Lord grant me all these my heart desires

The voice of our original self is often muffled overwhelmed, even strangled by the voices of other people's expectations
The tongue of the original self is the language of the heart

Falana Idowu Zion
My Homeland

A rocky solid mouthed town
Your broad natural look, look so nice
Filled with people of one mind
People who knows their right

The city at night
The roads are bright
The ardent view and the grassy land
Shines beneath the beautiful sky

My city and my land
My fatherland, my pride
On you I learnt the philosophy of Life
The law of peace, oneness and time

IK London,
As people do call you
God's imagination are flowing like oceans
I hope you become a big Nation

Falana Idowu Zion
My Life Is In Your Hands

The Lord of heaven
The maker of the sun and the moon
In your power everything subdue
Without you I'll be ineptitude
With you I'll always accrue
My success is verisimilitude
But with you it will be genuinely true.

Season come, season go
Sky move, wind blow
Wind blow, river flow
The night comes, the day goes
The happenings nobody knows
But through it all, my life is in your hands
Do with me as you wish.

My life is not my own
The breath of life is from you
I don't even know how I grow
You know the time and the day
You know the beginning and the end
You know my future, you know my age
Guide and be my lamp till the end of the age.

Falana Idowu Zion
My Motherland

My motherland
I love your golden past
How you fought for the freedom flag
But when will slavery and killing be a stardom of the past
When will your moon bring forth its light
Silver-like tears is glistening the corner of my eye
Traumatizingly longing to behold the beautiful sky
I know you will fly reaching the sky
I keep my faith in you
I pledge allegiance
I love you with my heart.

Falana Idowu Zion
My Shadow

I see you behind
Like an elite with his Entourage
I watch you strike like an arc
As I struggle to view you with my lamp

You have your mighty power
To become tiny or increase in size
To disappear with the ray of light
To paint me out as I am

I sit, you sit
You always act like my twin
But you flee at the sight of my light
Each time I decide to paint you with my lovely smile

You flee at the sight of my lamp
To appear on the other side
And during the day shift Earth
You wave at me to say Goodbye

What type of friend are thou?
You appear only in the dark
You wait not to behold the shining sky
In the dark, you make not yourself benight, but appears like a monster hiding from the ray of light

Oh my shadow!
Why do you only show your side
Each time I sit or stand
But remain silent when I cry
Remain silent when I'm sad
Remain silent when I lost myself in the dark
And always gaze, each time I lost my sight

My shadow, my soul
Sing for me your lovely track I know
Let me be swallowed with your hopeful brow
For you're the only one that follows me blindly
Even when I'm Lost in the world unknown
Clean my tears before they stick to my ugly face
Shave my beards before they become a forest
That harbours pain, lack and distress
My shadow, give me hope on this hopeless terrestrial planet
For I know you're the only one that cares about my fate

Falana Idowu Zion
Nigeria, My Motherland

Nigeria, my motherland
I love your golden past
How you fought for the freedom flag
But when will slavery and killing become a thing of the past
When will your moon bring forth its light
Silver-like tears is glistening the corner of my eye
Longing to behold the beautiful sky
Nonetheless, I know one day you will fly reaching the sky
I keep my faith in you my land
I love you with my heart

Falana Idowu Zion
Our Hearts Won't Depart

My heart would form a question mark
If you're not on this planet earth
Standing like a colorful fly
To make the question mark a heart

Heavens will bear witness to our hearts
The moon will play its string so loud
The flowers will tear in fragrance
As the love covers our hearts

Distance may rant in power, with the aim of tearing us apart
Time may play us with its ride
But with the wind, our love will grow wild

This wind won't sink us down
The sea won't drown our dreams
The sun won't consumed our moon, but prehend its string and croon

Knit my heart to your heart
Let's fly through this colorful land
So that life would rant and vent in power
But our hearts still won't depart

Falana Idowu Zion
Phenomenal Woman

A phenomenal woman
A Wonderful woman
Who sacrifices everything for others
Everything she wish is success
A woman living in Christ
A woman who creates happiness
Even in her darkest time

A phenomenal woman
A woman who cares
Who believes in who She is
Her Beauty is not in cloths she wears
Her braided hair
Or her physical flesh
Her beauty is in her eyes
The beauty reside in her heart
The beautiful heart,shows her love
The beauty in her words changes the world
The beauty makes her the ruler of her world
With these,she's phenomenal to the world

A phenomenal woman
She's contented with what she has
She knows her worth
Depends not on fancy hairdos
Gold jewelry or expensive clothes
But her beauty in her heart
Being gentle and kind
This beauty will last
God consider it so special.

Falana Idowu Zion
Play Your String And Let It Sound

Play your string and let it sound
Shout and let your voice be heard
Rant and rave,
Shine with the stars

Play your string and let it sound
Beat your chest and look to the stars
Act your scene, tint and dance,
Before you say goodbye

Let the world trample you like the ground
Let them sweep you away with their minds
Forget not to drop a reply,
That like the dust I'll rise

Play your string and let it sound
Even if you can't achieve the paradise
For life flips its wings like a bat
Kicking all away with time

Play your string, and let it sound
Let the world know your He(arts)
Whisper your plans to the stars
With your Ardent pen, paint it Black

Though, all is uncounuous like a barren flower
Paint your inner man with a hopeful smile
Let your reputation smile afterlife
By playing your string now while you can

Play your string and let it sound
Lest they stand at your grave to cry
Make your reputation a piece of rag
That cleans their tears, after saying Goodbye, to the temporary life

Falana Idowu Zion
Poverty And A Man

With hungry heart and dreadful face
He walks on the street looking for a gaze
He staggers like a drunken man with a pitiful smile
For he's hungry like the dead and thirsty like hell

Wishes and plans dries like the summer's flower
Hopeful fate become a thirty land
Draining the river of tears and mighty lack
For poverty never laugh, but hope never die

O poverty, How long will you slam people's lives
Beating their souls out of their hearts
Draining their great and frabjous plans
Neglecting it on the dream land

O poverty
Free the man with his great mind
Waving your hands to his mighty lack
As he walks to the field of stars

Life struggles and suffering may never cease
But I know we'll rest in the home of stars
Where poverty never smile, laugh or dance
But silent like a sheeted dead

Falana Idowu Zion
Purpose

Discovery of purpose
The prerequisite to great achievement in life
The achievement to fulfillment of destiny
And the destiny:
The overall circumstance in life........
Purpose is the reason something is done
The reality of any being
The reason something exists

Sitting down on earth
Walking up and down
Take a second to ask
Ask yourself Who Am I
And what's my purpose on earth

Show your passion and your heart
Show how hard you'll try
With determination and strength braced in your heart
Discover your purpose in life
Reflect your dreams
Dream of helping others
Dream of growing higher and reaching out your hands
Discover yourself, the world will be a better land

A shiny talent, like dancing and acting is Hard to hide,
But a true purpose is hard to identify
..........Be determined....
Your purpose is not far from your sight
Discover yourself and set your goal..
Then you'll achieve the goal, if you never relent

As 2019 is flying with time
Kicking the present to the past
Discover yourself and set the goal
And never give up

Falana Idowu Zion
Root

Alone like a flying kite
Looking up and down
Beholding the sky
Whirling like a kite
Listening to my heart
Alone with my thoughts
Something on my mind

My root, My path
I wish I know where you lie
Life is slaying the time
Flying like a kite
Now, My heart is as calm as the night
My face as clammy as death
Tell me my purpose, tell me the impacts

My mouth is a desert
I'm swallowed by my thoughts
I know My root is in heaven,
What people touch I may not touch
What people see I may not see
My insights from another source
The source, the heavenly King

My root
I know where you are
Though, things may seems cloudy
Impatient and turbulent as the wind
But through it all
Happiness fills my world
My root is in heaven, deep in God

Falana Idowu Zion
Send The Light

The heart thirty for your light to shine
Bombarding our heart with light
The hearts widely open apart
To receive your light that shine
Send the light, let it shine.

A call ringing over the restless wave
Sounding in the darkest cave
Roaring: there are souls to save
Christian soldiers here we go
Send the light, send the light! We crave

The glory that is outbound
Let the grace be abound
All heart everywhere on earth be found
All head be crowned
Send the light! Let it astound.

To the darkest place on earth
To the hearts yet to found
Shine the light for them to rejoice
In the presence of your light everything becomes divine
Send the light, Lord we ask...

Falana Idowu Zion
Still I'll Rise

You may trample on me like the ground
Sweep me away with your hopeless mind
But like the dust,
I'll rise

Paint me with your tongue
That speaks faintly of all
Throw me into a stinking pit
Still, my soul will not quit

Cut me down like a tree
Surely my arms will fall
But my root will stand
And flourishly rise

Does my life pierce your heart?
Because I act like I've gotten the earth
Does my sight upset you?
Cause I shine like the stars

Life may seize his breathe
Showing me the road to the other side
But, my impacts would never rest
From telling all I was here

Like the moon and the stars
That shine in the dark
Like the dust of the ground
I'll rise

Time may write me off its memory
Telling me the life's mysteries
But my wonderful book and ink
Will live on, telling the world I was here

Falana Idowu Zion
Struggling To Success

The road to success is not straight
There is always a curve on the way
A loop of confusion
With bumps of distraction
People’s perturbation
With the red light called enemies
And that caution light called the family

In this life, some are stagnant
You act they become Spartan
But in all, act like a combatant
Having a key of determination
The engine called determination
Insurance of faith and that driver called Jesus

I'm struggling
Waking up each day
For that day like game
So worried not to lose my grip
Because I have a goal
Determined not to miss the goal
Aiming to get the goal
A goal I will never let go

People may fail many times
But they become failures
Only when they begin to blame someone else
The Quantity of our Success
Is determined by the quantity of our Determination

Falana Idowu Zion
Take Me As I Am

I lay my heart like an unbidden guest
I place my emotions on repeat
I lay myself like the birds
They flit not without the air

I lay my world before your heart
Fill it and let it smile
I bare my soul like a sheeted dead
Waiting to feel the warmth of your hands

I may not give you the stars
But I promise to be the sky
I may not give you a lamp
But I'll stay beside you and be a light

Let me be drenched by the oil of your hair
Paint me with your pink lips that cares
Wrap my heart around your chest
Let me soar with the wing of your love

I may not love you the way you want
But I'll love you the best way I know
I may not promise a love devoid of flaws
But I promise a love that overlooks weakness and move on

Take me as I am, I am not perfect
Even the white sky changes to black
And if I have to change to suit you
You will end up with a counterfeited me

Falana Idowu Zion
The Call

Can we call this a fate
And watch the innocents die
I will call and let my voice be heard
With a little faith and hope in my heart
To change the so called fate to a shining light

Have we bargained to live in here
Where killing and pain is abound
Where lives is being forced to prostitution and labor
Where stars is being exchanged with papers
Where justice sleeps like a dog that lost its sight

How difficult it is
To live where there is no peace
Live where thieves and bandits rules
Where fools kills the dogmatic youths
Where lives blows away like cloud

For how long will our lives be forced?
To speak with our mouths shut
To work with whips and shackles on our necks
To work with a paddled mouth like a life in hell
Is this the life to call a fate and rest?

We say no to modern-slavery rule! ! !
Where denizens' voices could not be heard
Where lives are shot to death
Where humans are just a cloud
That blows away like flame and sand

O leaders listen to our call, we want a world
Where slavery will be buried with the past
Where shackles will be loosed
Where paddled mouth will be freed
Where justice will speak with its tongue touching its lips

#No_To_Modern_Slavery_Rule
Falana Idowu Zion
The Changing World

A question deep as the mystery of life......
The world flies like a kite
Dark and deep like the night
Christianity became a thing of the past
The bible became an ironical term
People read but don't understand
They know but hard to practice
Are we leaving like this?
No, we aren't, change your thoughts
Brace yourself and reflects the word
This is the end of the world.

Falana Idowu Zion
The City I Wish To Be

I wish to be, in that city
Where the walls are made of Gold
Glittering and sparkling like a precious stone
Built on twelve foundation stones
Built with jasper, sapphire and agate
Onyx, carnelian and Chrysolite
Beryl, Emerald and Topaz
Chrysoprase, Jacinth, and Amethyst

I wish to be, in the city
Where night never comes
Where nations walk with the light of the king
A city where light never fails
Where lies and sins never crave
Where flowers sing with their lovely scent and melodious tape

I wish to see
How glorious the tree will be
The tree that bears the fruit of life
Its fruit I long to eat and never die

God help me to be
In that home above the sky
Where night will never appear
Where lamps will be useless
For His glory: the night will never cease
Be my guide and the light
As I tread the path to the field of stars
Where river of life flows for all to drink
For death will be silent and never stings

Falana Idowu Zion
The End

A question deep as the mystery of life
Curiously waiting for an answer
Alone like a storm-tossed kite
What's really the end of life

Kill a grain of wheat
Bury it in the ground
Wait as time goes by
It sprouts into a living plant

Snithe out a cassava plant
Bury the wonderful part
Wait for the time to fly
Behold, it becomes a lively plant

Kill a yam tuber
Bury the glorious part
Wait as the time flies
It turns into a lively plant

Oh man, your grim face like a caved mask
You always contend in life
But after striking the leather
What's the wonderful end

Your body become a grain of sand
The coffin become your bed, the grave your house,
Then what's the essence of living a Godless life
Consider your soul, consider the afterlife

Falana Idowu Zion
The Giants Beneath The Sky

Amidst the stars
The dancing ball in the sky
The playful flies and the grassy land
Dwells the Giants beneath the sky

They think not twice before they stand
They trample on all without a second mind
They are the kings;
The Giants beneath the sky

The land laylow in obeisance
The Lions and the flowers bow to their affluence
The sun pledges its allegiance
To the gods beneath the sky

They are the kings on earth
Lost to the power of wealth Captivated with pride and might
But, injustice and pain their hearts reside

They are all Giants by birth
But, some are breed to be midgets
The Giants flex; the midgets are oppressed and sweat
For power breed partition, among the homo sapiens

Oh ye sapiens,
When will partition meet its death?
Why are some oppressed while some flex
You're all giants, let their be equality
For the Earth to be an isle of paradise

I would never let my pen rest a night
Or my wonderful book remain white
Till justice speaks with its lips open wide
For we are all born giants beneath the sky

Falana Idowu Zion
The Golden Empress

Her love shines like the sun
Her smile as bright as the star
Her face is filled with ardent smile
Within her dwells a beautiful heart
Her love blooms and never die
Like the tree planted by the river side
She flourishes with her lovely heart

Within her dwells the river of tears
In her dwells the den of happiness
In her heart resides true love, smile and sadness
In her arms lives the fragrance of lovely scent
She hearkens to the earth's timeless rhymes
She cuddles even in time of fear
The fears she places on her neck to bear
At her sight, her children lingers like the flowers

I looked to the world to see her love
I discovered her love is unseen but in her words
Her love makes her the ruler of the world
Her love wakens the lone and the poor
Her love is specially braced and wrapped in heart
Her love has no rival
Her sine qua non love pervaded with God's fear
With her love, her children has nothing to fear

I love her, just as beautiful as she is
If I laugh she cries, I cry she cries
No full-time joy on her face
She reflects her love despite her countless flaws
She's the guide and teacher in the garden earth
The hope and cradle of life
I hope to make her proud
I will grow higher to repay her

Her children arise and call her blessed
Her husband praises her
Nature kowtows her lovely heart
Her bring forth the fruit of life
She's a mother, a phenomenal woman

Falana Idowu Zion
The Groaning Man

Sin wraps itself around my chest
I wallow in riches like the flowers
I sing like the elders before the throne
I glitter like the coal mixed with gold

My tie dances on my bouncing pot belly
My soul crawls in agony
People claps their hands in glory
Am I a person who deserves glory like hoary?

My suit sings on my snowy shirt
My heart is painted by the air
At its sight they compare me with the saints, dwelling in that home above the sky
But please, despise me, I'm dry and thirsty like the desert

My socks glitter in my shining shoe
It says peace with its pink lips
People tints in joy, wishing they were me
Overlooking the raging sea clapping within my heart

I suffer in pain nobody knows
They worship me like the stars
Thick haze covers their faces
And they know not, that thousands suffer in me in pain

I'm the church
Harboring a river of thorns
Souls suffer in tears, for the spirit is gone
Please call Him back, for heaven to leap in joy

The church suffers in pain
People dresses in suit like a saint
Color lights up the wall like paradise
But the spirit is waving His hands, saying goodbye the Groaning man

Falana Idowu Zion
The Immortal Gate

The hair as white as snow
The feet like a burnt brass
Glaring like the moonlight
Shining like the noon time sky
The love an endless night
The peace the silent sky
The shadow implores a glorious breeze
His heart is divine

The mighty prince
Your stripe brought peace
Your robe a golden sash
The eyes the blazing light
Nation’s spear pierced His heart
His blood a sacrifice
His pain a new dawn
The heart a glorious light

Dust blown through the ages past
The prophesies of old time came to pass
The time of the great gray mist
His suffering the pace of change
Behold Him in the sky
Behold the moonless night
Recapturing the deadly past
Piercing through the cloudy past
The time is Now
Behold The Immortal Gate of Life

Falana Idowu Zion
The Lovely Fight

The colorful fly
The gentle rose of life
Your beauty maddens my soul like wine
I love your fragile heart

The gentle rose of life
Sitting at the river bank
My heart kowtowed your lovely sight
You shines like the joyful star
Your love as clean as the starlight

Your beauty maddens the soul like wine
The beauty cracks the sadden heart apart
My eyes couldn't leave your golden sight
River of thought swallow me not
You are the diamond in the sky

I love your fragile heart
I have made up my mind
To shift the heart from left to right Put on a brave face of might Contend for the lovely fight
And disclose all my heartbeats to thy heart

Falana Idowu Zion
The Other Side

This side I am
Is where Lack and sadness reside
Filled with tears and darkness
But the other side, joy and love reside

This side
Harbors failure and lack
Out of light and full of dry land
But the other side is full of light

This side we are Lacks the river of life
Thirsty for a beautiful sky
But there is sea of life,
On the other side

The other side
Is where I long to be
A land full of love and smile
The world of beautiful sky

Falana Idowu Zion
The Painted Night (Our Message To The Sky)

This is our message to the sky
Written with the hope that heaven is not far from our sight
Watch our stars in the sky
For we are the ones painted with the night
........................................................................

Sadness is our tone in the day
Loneliness our song in the night
Hunger is our voice with time
The heaven is always our gaze and sight

Tears stick to our eyes
Making our balls to be glass
Our soul is giving up on our hearts
For our flesh is working against our heart

We are lonely like the night
Our greatness is hidden with time
Our lives seem to reach the bank
Our might is no where to be found

But surely, we believe, our home maybe black
Our scars mayhaps wide
Our night maybe out of stars
But our day will surely be white

Our lives may resemble a rag
Life may kowtow our lack
The world may despise our might
But, we won't give up on life

Our Chronicles may be hard to read
Our pasts may paint us black
Our shackles may rackle
But, our future will make us smile

We may resemble a snag
But, our hope is a star in the sky
Our hearts are painted with the night
For our souls to rise with the stars

Falana Idowu Zion
The Phenomenal World

At the sight of the shining sun
The awesomeness of the trees
I whispered to my soul within
What a wonderful world

That beautiful night
I saw river of men marching like a tide
River of thoughts swallowed my heart
Coz I saw the stars for the first time

The fragrance of the flowers
Reminds me of my mother's arms
Remembering my nostalgic smile
Telling me the wonderful past

Every night under the stars
I see myself as the rising stars
Telling all my wishes to sky
Believing heaven is not far from my sight

Trees dancing to the tune of wind
Birds singing to the nature's beat
Storm of thoughts strike not my heart
This is just heaven on earth

Coming out every morning
The rays of the sun kisses us
The garden of flowers greets us
This is the real phenomenal world

Falana Idowu Zion
The Plead

I lay my soul like the breeze
Within me flow the river of peace
My heart a den of harmony
Like the exasperated god sitting in the tree

I'm a life, present like the air
Humility lies around my chest
I'm a fountain of holiness
Called for justice, love and happiness

For peace I stand
A warrior in the garden earth
I've sworn with my life
To protect you with my last breath

Listen to my word and pleas
My heart is beating in distress
Like a furious tiger, I lost my rest
I'm drenched by a river of tears

I plead with the last breath in my soul
Through the man seated on the throne
Cast your nefarious acts to the cloud
Let it flow with the river of past

I am a warrior of peace not war
I lay myself at your door
With our hearts sealed with God's love
I doff my hat, love from your friend, the peaceful one

Falana Idowu Zion
The Psalm Of The Drummer Boy

How far can I go?
With too many cargoes
My bird would be flightless
Without His indomitable air

I would be a plant
Wandering on a dry land
Struggling its lifetime to rise
Without His rain falling from the sky

My fear would have become an iceberg
Building its tower to the sky
My beards would have become a thick forest
Harbouring pain, distress and lack

My weakness would be the red sea
Hindering me from entering the promise land
Standing against my Israelite
Saying no to my freedom like the Egyptians

I'm an Israelite
Journeying to the promise land
Without Him on my side
I would have long ago fallen
Into the hands of the Amorites

Who am I to be His friend?
Who am I to be His peer?
Does my chicken knows the end of its eggs
Maybe they will surely end as someone's repast

It's not about Him walking by my side like a flesh
That disappears in time of fear
It is all about His presence dwelling in me like a God
That never leaves even when I fall

Falana Idowu Zion
The Rising Stars

River of thoughts swallow me not, storm of words strike not my heart.....imagination filled my coat like wine, all the world lay stretched before me like the open palm of my hand.......In the modern world all is unconscious like a barren flower.

What a generation! An eyes as bright as the day is now turning to a crimson red because of the bright futures that are always truncated. The future became an ironical term, fraud and rituals is the flag flying on the Nation's cloud, forgetting the fact that all that's beautiful drifts away like the waters.

Who will change the world? Who will raise the freedom flag? ....that's a question deep as the mystery of life, Painfully, all our thoughts ran into tears like sunshine into rain, river of thoughts swallowed us all when those who supposed to raise the changing flag are saying deep down their heart, let's continue living like that because it is normal.

Unfortunately, change became a political term, a word to camouflage, tears like silver continue glistening in the corner of the people's eye......However, we need passion to stop the world's naughty alteration, zeal to make something done, changing our normal thoughts, moving closer to God, having a little amelioration..........

We need you the rising stars, to raise the indefatigable hands in creating an effective impact, changing the normal to better, rising as a shining star, joining our hands together changing the phenomenal world to a better land.

Behold the freedom light shining on the beautiful sky, , shining on you and I, reflecting our zealous might, dancing to the blissful clap, weaving our future from our past......You're a Rising star, the change is in you!

Falana Idowu Zion
The Soul Of A Pilgrim

I cast my face on my head
I grow wings like the birds
I stand straight on my legs
Hoping in grace as I trek

My heart trembles in fear
The world's threats I hear
Though, thoughts kowtow my fear
I cast on Him all my cares

I lay His word on my heart
I grab His sight as my lamp
Though, my soul tumbles within my heart
I refresh my soul with His light

I'm a stranger here
Within a foreign land
My home is brighter far
More than the Sharon rosy plain

I'm a pilgrim
Running the race of life
To the field of stars
Where springs not fail and sided hail

Falana Idowu Zion
The Suicide Note (The Counsel)

The Raging of A Drunk Mind

Is this the life I've chosen to be Where lives are weeping on the street
Where the sky is always dark,
Pretentiously proving to be white

I'm sitting on the fence
Preparing to dive by in to death
Everything looks stormy, cloudy and dark
For all in life are by fight and chance

I've casted my heart on my face
My heart I've sealed without a brace
For life to me is more or less a fight
And everything within the stage are all opaque

On this one cornered Earth
My thoughts won't last a night
My dreams and eyes are no more within my sight
For my soul is giving up to life

I'm on my way driving ashore
For no purpose I was born
These are my drunken words
I'm restless, lonely, aimless and drunk

Give It A Chance

Oh man of raging mind
Take your indefatigable chair
Clean your raging mind
To learn and give life a second chance

I speak not vainly but out of experience
That whatever life has to offer comes with lots of inconvenience
Still put a smile up your face
Lest the raging of your mind puts you down
I speak again not out of compulsion
But cause I have seen that all there is to life is competition
I wouldn't say you fight
But fight hard the pain, lest your mind go mad

Think not about the end
Lest the problems cloud your thoughts
Even the singing of the nightingale is enough
For you learn and never give up

Sit up, fasten your sit belt
Take a walk into the market square
See for yourself lives drunk in misery
Then you would see what golden opportunity lies at your feet

I certainly do not know what the beginning might have been
But I know there will be no peace in the abyss
Keep saying no to suicide
Lest deep in hades they drag you down

A duet by:

Adelynn Olakunle
Falana Idowu Zion

Falana Idowu Zion
The Tales Of Love

The Crimson rose of love
You blazed across my heart
You hearken to my timeless rhymes
The wind blowing through my heart

The crisp of the shining light
The Twinkle star in the sky
She place my emotions on repeat
The soul to the soulless heart

The complete mystery
Standing like the colorful tree
Casting the magical spell of love
Sending the heart to the world of Love

The Thousand voice at my dawn
The brace in an outcast earth
The shining star beside the moonlight
The moon of the moonless night

Life would be a lifeless ride
If you're not on the planet earth
Always present in my heart
Flying like the colorful butterfly

The question deep as life
A silver moon like the new-stamped coin
You're the song, I'm the voice
Telling the wonderful tales of love

Falana Idowu Zion
The Travelers

It was the time again
For the word to set the world ablaze
Like the moon shedding its light around its gaze
We set out to dish His word at the unreached place

Imagination rolled down the memory lane
As the bus jacked up and down like an unhasting clay
River of thought swallowed our minds
As we journeyed on the yellow dusty ground

Though the sky folded its light around its chest
The bus stopped with its last breath
We stepped down like a soldier with the word headed
And knelt to be blessed from the heavenly realm

Under the flesh shrinking shining sky
The village was paraded with the life-saving psalms
As we tread the yellow dusty ground
The villagers lost their breath in surprise

As the sky fly with the time
His word became the village tapping hand
Through the audio word hope-giving sound
The villagers rests their hearts on their minds

We became the stars in their sky
They became the ripped fruit on our land
With God's word bounded with love
The village became an isle of paradise

With their hearts kowtowing His heart
They promised not to depart from His sight
But with tears filled face
They waved at us, as we fold our sky from their gaze

My experience on my 2018 Christmas Trip to an unknown land.
Time

You're unstoppable
Your fist strong indomitable
You swift without doffing your hat
You count in the twinkle of an eye
Are you not tired of running up and down?

I love the sound "tick tack"
You set yourself on a track
Changing the world and her fading sweets
You differentiate between the sunrise and the sunset
Between the day and the night

Wait, let me take my tie
Hold your power to take a ride
Let me fly reaching the sky
How I wish you listen to my pleas
And take me back to my nostalgic smile

You fly without wings
We watch you fly as the pendulum swings
We watch you move as you sing
We gaze at you even as you clock life away
You show us signs, you fade away

O Time,
We can't hold but walk with you
You blow away life from our sight
You're duration of our existence on earth
You wait for no man, we love you, even as you kick our lives to the past

Falana Idowu Zion
Trust

Trust is like a blade
It has two sharp edges
Holding it at the edge
It might hurt your hand

Trust is the believe
That something is good
Honest and will not harm you
And always safe and reliable.

Sitting down,
Listening to the chirping of birds
You can't trust anyone else,
Except you first trust yourself

Trust lies in telling the truth
Trust lies in you
Depends on you
And Determines you

Trust is the powerful tool,
With which you can bind and loose
Trust is valuable
And Not analyzable

Trust is like a mirror
You can fix it when it is not broken
The trust you have in people
Reflects in you

Trust like the day
The night go for it to come
Trust is the glue of life
It's a sine qua non ingredient in effective communication

Falana Idowu Zion
Under The Stars, You And I

Under The stars, You and I
Heaven is not far from our sight
Angels sitting beside our heart
Bearing the witness in our heart

I can see your eyes meeting mine
Your hands reaching for mine
Our smile connecting with the stars
Tonight, under the stars is you and I

Under the stars, you and I
Disclosing all our wishes to the sky
Leaning on each other's lap
Beholding the stars in the sky

Under the stars tonight
I feel your heart hugging mine
I can feel the warmth of your heart
As you wrap your heart in my arms

Under the stars tonight
Tell me your weakness, I will tell you mine
Show me your scars, I'll show you mine
Hold my hand, Let's fly reaching the sky

The stars is the light
Reflecting our colorful smile
I throw my hands in the air
Waiting for yours to entwine

Leaning my head on your lap
I can recall my Nostalgic smile
The warmth of my mother's arms
Under the stars, is you and I

We were kids when we fell in love
Not knowing what it was
But tonight, under the stars is you and I
Feeling deep the love in our heart
Falana Idowu Zion
What's Me Without You

What's hope without the glory of dawn
What's a flower without its charming power
What's a king without a queen
What's the moon without the night
What's the time with a lifeless hour
What's me without your beautiful smile

Falana Idowu Zion
When the world unite
Wars would stay benight
Like the moon and the stars
The world would be an isle of paradise

When the world unite
Our joy would reach the stars
Our love like the home above the sky
We would fly reaching the sky

When the world unite
All would grow in peace and might
Our future would be beautiful and bright
Like the snowflakes falling from the sky

I hope the world unite
So there would be no goat or cat
But a group of animals
No rebel or elite
But humans running together the race of life

There would be no black or white
No Giant or dwarf
But a group of human Running to the field of stars
If the world unite

Falana Idowu Zion
You Came

It was the time again
To receive the breeze of life
To behold the moon and the stars
To see the earth beyond the normal plan
At the one cornered side of earth
Then you came like a light
To tell me the word have never heard
To arouse my emotions within my heart
With a face filled with ardent smile
With promises that gingersa mind

You told me you will be my light
You told me you will fill my heart
You promised me a star
You promised a hope of new dawn
You filled my heart with smile
I fell into your arms
I told you who I am
I gave you my heart like the stars and night
You reach your hand for mine
With the hope of reaching the sky

The journey of love began
With joy that rips a heart apart
The love maddened our souls like wine
We became the talk of the town
We wine and dine like moon and stars
But the evil night came
You lifted me with your hands
I woke up with joy to behold my half
You hugged with your heart
To deliver the letter in your hand

I opened it with ardent smile
With flashes of hope in my mind
With the hope of seeing something wow
But I fell off my bed
Tears rolled down my eyes
To see the word Goodbye
I remembered your promises
But I got myself together
Lifted my eyes to the sky
And said to the soul within my heart it is a lesson of life.

Falana Idowu Zion