12 Midnight

Its 12 midnight
Yet awake
Also alone
The night is never quiet
Dogs are making noise
Nothing entertaining
Besides the vociferous crickets
Surely its 12 midnight
Nothing is better than sleeping

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
15 Ages

When was it that you left me
Gone for good never even to send a word
Is it pain that hardened you so
Great is the pain i have caused, yes
But that which you left
Honey it is 15 ages greater

I’m living in 15 ages of pain
Never to heal, no early death
But my heart holds a secret truth
I don’t want you back
I can’t take 15 more ages of pain.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
A Hardened Heart

Patch upon patch
A heart built of scars
Thick as with a hide
A fortress of canal bars

Punch after punch
Upon a broken heart
Pain dwells inside
Yet still warm is the blood

Again and again
Pain pays a visit
But I try to revive
And keep my soul living.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
A Must

The first thing in the morning
The last in the night
Praying and praising the lord

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
A Sacrifice

There upon the fires my soul I lay
A sacrifice of sin to my King I make Pass Oh you heart crimson red
Through the veil for sins to atone

There upon the Alter my praise i give An offering of sweet savour unto The King
Burn Oh yee incenses of a sweet scent

Tinashe Mupedzapsi
A Smile

Sweet memories sweetly expressed
A solution that neutralizes toxins
Toxins that affect the heart and the mind
Anger, envy, depression

An expression of joy and love
The water that quenches burning anger
A smile alone is enough to me make forget the past
The reason i'm eversmilng

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
A Sound From Her Bedroom

Like a cry
Like a laughter
A weird groaning sound
A mixture of agony and pleasure
It was a sound i had never heard
Even now i don't know what it was
I walked away confused
For i had not guts to knock or open the door
Although she was my girlfriend

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
A Story About Love

Love was there when life was made
Love is different yet it feels the same
Mostly it comes so slow
And sometimes it suddenly dies
Many fall thinking they are standing strong
Some dive too deep to rise
But when it fails it comes back breaking

Have you ever notice people loosing sanity
Falling for those who dont even try
Some for those who are deeply loved
A recipe for chaos, for hearts are weak

Learn to love dont dive too deep
A heart too dry hurts so many
I fear for mine, at times its just empty
Yet i do need love
For i am just a man.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Aces And Eights

Full house, aces and eights
Life flowing in a flowery bed of easy
No way, it's a gumble it's a hustle
No giving up, sowing in pain
To fill our tables with goodly beholds

Hard we work, odds we break
We swim in poverty, swimming through
That great wave is to take us to the shore
We keep on paddling, its our journey out
The sea is hostile for it has met the land

Its a full house, our day to shine
Yesterday we sow, now its a payday
Still we work, no plans of rest
It is what we are, our daily song
Until a full house, aces and eights.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Addiction

My heart is big but packed to the fill
I drank love deep-down my soul
I drank it all pure and raw

I feel her flow in my veins
Creeping slow in my bones
She roams my mind
Sowing love along the way

I dived and sank so far deep bellow
Crawling at the bottom of the depths
Sunk soul-deep in her warm love
She holds me strong by the veins

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Ahab And Ben-Hadad

Let me go a little political Talking a little politics
But i tell you, i am not a politician

Ahab, Benhadad
Fear,
what would Ahab do?

Enemy delivered into his hands
Petted him kissed him brotherly
Ooh foolish king

The spirits rose in Africa
After so long, finally free
He turned to the enemy

Ahab, Benhadad
What could Ahab do,
Turn to the enemy, kissed him brotherly?

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
All Of Me

When ever i go deep inside myself
Searching to see if i still belong there anymore
I happen to find it empty
At times filled with dirty
Then i kneel down and pray
God feel my heart with your leaving spirit
Restore my all again

All of me is just nothing
A sinner praying for Grace
Hoping to receive salvation

I hate to see me fail
Or feel my heart so stained
I need my all to stand
And fight for my soul to live
So i kneel down and pray
God feel me with your spirit
And restore my all again.

All of me so strive
To see my soul survive
Getting deep into my soul
To clean the dirty inside

God feel my all with You
So that my soul can survive

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
All Things Are Possible

Nomatter how deep the red sea was Moses separated it
Did so Elias on river Jordan
Also Elisha when the spirit of Elias was upon him
Joshua stopped the sun
Elisha stopped the rain
Jesus rebuked the storm
Him also cursed the fig tree
With a jaw borne Samson killed the philistines
With a stone David killed a giant
With a sword Elijah killed 450
With his servants Abraham defeated the kings
This only to show
With God all things are possible

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Are We Not Guilty Also

Wasn't it a good idea to have back our lands?
Wasn't it our prayer to be free and independent man?
Did we not shed tears in times of torment and prayed for a change
Didn't some go to war to make our dreams live?

Wasn't we given lands and we greedily took what we cant manage
Didn't we slaughter the livestock and waste away our spoils
Who destroyed our dream
Whom should we blame
Are we not all guilty also?

We have failed ourselves
Now we blame somebody
What do we do then,
Sit back and mourn?

Are we not guilty also?

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
At The Dead End

Let us not prended
We all hate a dead end
Much of time being spent
All but just in vain
To soak a soul deep in pain
Scathe it beyond a mend.

Blessings for those in faith
Sailing in a golden chaise
Ridding along with Christ
Living no room for doubt
With a sight beyond the end
So seeing no dead end.

As you travel down your roads
Aren't there two great signs
Each for what it says
One signed by faith
The other done by doubt
Standing at the dead end.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Bad Day At Santa's Party

What a day, before chrismas night
Packed my pack, I'm out for a party
Where to now, maybe south pole
Now he else but santa's home

What a life, living under snow
What a surprise, nothing aint slow
Bring some food, im here to party
Oh my bad I dont eat candy.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Bald Eagle

Flip- flop flip-flop
Fly oh bald eagle
God gave you wings so strong
He made you a bird so mighty
You can fly against the storms
You can fly over the rains
Age has no power over your body
You can renew your youth
Swift, you can fly like the winds
Your meal is flesh so fresh
Your claws scratch on no manure pile
Your beak tastes no grain
God blessed you with eyes so sharp
He made you to see from so high
He made you like a king
For you are a pray of nobody
He gave you a coat so beautiful
God dressed you like king
He made you so mighty
Thus He likened Himself to you
Blessed be the Lord
He shall renew my strength
Like unto thee
I shall mount up high

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Barren Soul

Pain and much pain, I have taken blows so tough
Patch upon patch, my heart has been sewn with grief
Love so sweet graced me but left me near death
Healing was slow but surely to seal all cracks
Sealing my soul inside fear and much care
Now I am barren I don't feel love anymore
And now I am barren I can't love anymore.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Beautiful Girl

Dear heart, why do you so crush
Crush for a star, flying in the skies high
You have no bars, you fall for a beauty that many can't resist
She is so fair, she is too fair for me to just gaze
Unsullied beauty, her eyes are flares
Burning my heart to a melt
A lonely twilight, alone flying on a deep dark sky
Behold she smiles, her lips alone makes my knees knock
How she moves, I feel her in me even if so far
She is the one, my heart and hers belong to us
She is bright, her beauty lights the world ablaze
She is hot, my heart melts at her sight
Unsullied beauty, My heart has fallen for her

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Beautiful Star

I have seen a star shinning
Beautiful, from the star falling
Ooh was it falling
It's a thing amazing.

It was shinning on a daylight
The raises of it so bright
It left me a little blind
Taking my mind on a ride.

My heart was caught in a raid
But i so liked the pillage
She sent my mind spinning
She has a countenance so dazzling

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Beyond The Blue

When i cross the bridge
Their will be no more pain
Beyond the river
There is an ever flowing fountain

The sun ever shines
Fellowship with the saints
Sweeter than honey
Unconditional love

No feelings, no emotions
Everlasting joy
Eternal light
Eternal life

There is no night
Across that golden bridge

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Breaking All The Rules

If Love be a crime
I am ready to break all the rules
I am willing greatly to trespass
Breaking all the barriers to your heart
Just for you and you only
I will break all the rules.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Broken Girl's Prayer

He left me
Left my heart bleeding
I have another, much better in all
But my heart cant open all wide
Yes I love him much but its not the same
I wish he was the first
But the first wasn't the best
He broke my heart and throw it away
I don, t want him back but I love him better
This one loves me more and proves it well
Yes I love him too but I love the first more Lord if it's fit make my heart new.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Broken Heart And Emptying Veins

What flows faster
Love, life and blood
What pains better
When a heart falls hard
oh bleeding heart
And emptying veins

Life dies much faster
When loosing hard
Pain growing stronger
Life slowing bad
Oh broken heart
Blood dripping veins
All life is drained.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
By The Banks Of Limpopo

By the banks of Limpopo
There we sat as we meditate our sorrows
Our eyes set upon our motherland
The land we love and call home
But couldn't cross over because of the angry river
How long shall we wait for death to come our way

Behind us are only woes and tears
Our loved ones crying as they burn alive
Some have lost their lives, many have lost hope
Guns are firing, stones are flying
Woe to us our souls are being hunted

By the banks of Limpopo
We stood and admired the beauty of our motherland
But couldn't cross over because the river was angry
But couldn't cross over because our brothers were not friendly

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Cancer

Oh my, Heavens
Winds, be I blown away
Bones, Just skin on dry bones
Who ate my flesh
I was a beauty once
Came the devil from the depth
Hungry, feasted on me while I live
Pain from the depths
For long I have tried to fight
But no more, he had me good
I have lost the fight
Now I long for rest
And let this cancer win

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Coming Of The Dry Season

Let the sower sow bountifully
Let the gatherer gather much to store
Rejoice you drinkers and fill your cups
Feast with your families and fill your tables
For the time is coming, surely is near
That the sower shall sow but the clouds will fail
The brewer will cease to brew for the vines will die
Winds will blow, but dry and empty
The morning shall be but without dew
Lands will shut their wombs and birds will cease to sing
Rivers will cease to flow and years of plenty shall be forgotten

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Confession

This is not pride
Its just a confession

yea, i am like Reuben Unstable as waters

But i am not like Soul
I am not that mischievous

I am like David
Women are my weakness

Just like all others
I sin everyday

But i am like Paul
I die everyday

And i do fear God
I love Him so

I am not being proud

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Dear Love

My Journey is long
And I'm travelling slow
Heavy to go
The wheels are soiled
My car is broken
But I am fixing it up
If I do not make it in time
Please fetch a train
If I do not fix it in time
Please fetch a train.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Dear Mama

Dear mama
The child you left with dripping nose is now a man
Guess you can see how fast life has moved Things have changed mama, much has happened
Hope you can see what I have become and you are not ashamed
I have fought in your name and tried to be strong
But not always have I won, at times I fell struggling
I haven't married yet mama, I'm still a free man
I fear falling in love, my heart is so brittle
Can you pass the word if you are with papa
His son is trying but this world is dying.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Dear, Friend

My friend
Only by love
We are bound
Trust me
As i do you
Please promise me
More of your love
More of mine
Will i give to you
Friend, I love you
More than words can say

Death

Death...
Death where is your sting
Death where is your strength
You were defeated on calvary
By my Saviour you were conquered
You can destroy the body
But the soul you can't
Your time is now short
Soon you will be no more
Life and light will soon rule
Death and night you soon perish
Death you are nothing

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Despirited

I am sick in the soul
I am feeling so low
I am out of my mind
I have lost my stand
My temper is high
But I am dropping down
My heart is broke
This has gone far
I knew I would fall
But not this way
My heart is broke
I am sick in the soul

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Do You Remember

Te amo
Do you remember the words
Doesn't they sound familiar
The click-clucking sound
When lips unite
Toungues playing the game
Click-cluck
Do you still remember the sound
Do you still remember the old times
Those good times
When love was still in you
Do you still remember
Oh yes, i miss old times
I always wonder
If you still remember
Those good old times

Tinashe Mupedzapasi

Do you still remember
Teamo
Aren't they familiar
What we used to say
What we used to do
Sharing life
Sharing love
It was good being more than friends
Now you are gone
Now im alone
My love where are you
Now I need you
Now I dont have a clue
Babie on what to do
I still love you

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Dreams

There is a gap between now and the horizon
I am standing in between Scorching grounds, freezing winds
I am tossed about survivor I am
I have my eyes on the horizon
Life treads me down
But I am rising with the wind
I am the dust of sky
I have learnt to fly
I am souring high in the heavens
I have a rendezvous with the horizon.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Dying Love

No more good nights
No more greetings in the morning
All those lies
Now with time they are dying
At least we all tried
To keep our dream living
But those little fights
Did a big killing
Those little secrets
Crippled all my feelings.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Evans Gwekwerere

Gwekwerere
What a hero, but for a season
We were toddlers then
But his name was our soccer anthem
Playing plastic made balls in the streets
We could even fight for his name
Or worse break the friendship for a time
Risking beating by writing his name on our shirts

Gwekwerere
To our disappointment he just vanished
His fame died never to rise again
A king for a season
Who rose from nowhere just to be forgotten
Who still remember him
Nobody wanna know

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Expression

Give me a pen
Together with my note book
I have got a feeling
That i need to express
All should know
I wanna let them know
For ever, i'm a poet
Give them to me
I wanna write a poem

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Father To Daughter (Letter)

Beloved Agatha
Yes i broke up with your mother
But i am still your father
And we all need each other
One way or the other.

I have been trying to be stronger
But i cant hold any longer
See i am getting older
So i should set my house in order
Before i cross the golden border.

Greetings from your brother
He is now a father
I pray you see each other
Please come home Agatha
We all need each other.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Fathomless Love

Change the waters to ink
Fill oceans and creeks
Take everyone a scroll
Spread them over the sky
Give every man a straw
Non-writers let them try
God's love to scribe
See the oceans running dry

God's love is fathomless

Tinashe Mupedzapasi

False Evidence Appearing Real
Fear is a demon
It leaves you faint, without strength
Fear, satan's best weapon

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Feast Of Valtures

What's there for the poor?
Bloody sweat and blistered hands
Let the fungi feast on them
Anyway, the strong man needs his table filled
Toil and suffer, cry and wail
Laughter from golden tables never seize to sound
Swim in mud to build with gold
Not for us to live
Not to sell for much
All they just give are deceiving smiles
And much caressing speech
So that tomorrow they feast on us again.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Feeling Like Going Home

Home sweet home
I'm feeling like going home
If i set my wings in the air
And start soaring in the blue
Yes by wings of faith
I can reach home soon

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Fellowship

Even the whole night,
Sharing words of wisdom
Sharing love
Strengthening faith
Testifying, talking about love
Giving at the same time gaining Talking about love
Talking about life
Talking about God for God is all these Sweet moments when talking about grace
In one accord, listening to one voice
Gaining love, gaining knowledge
Great moments in life
Nothing better than it
Nothing sweeter than fellowshipping
Lets keep on fellowshipping
The whole day even the whole night
For nothing is sweeter than a fellowship

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Fire

Fire never quench fire
Nor does it consume fire
Fire shares power
It never burns fire.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Freedom Fighters

They fought and died
They fought for life
A precious gift traded for freedom
Joy at last, some had to suffer
How they marched into glory
Marching into death
Standing for the weak
Acts of the brave
How they fought and died
Fighting for life.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Gentle Saviour

Oh Gentle Saviour i need thee
Fill mine heart with thine spirit
That it may be thee living even in me
That thou may not condemn me on judgement day
But will find favour in thine sight
Let it be thine will that i may be saved
That i may not taste death even the second death
But will walk into eternity
Clothed in snow white robes
Singing Glory to you the Almighty
The redeemer of all the souls
So pass me not Gentle Saviour

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Go Meet Him

Who shall roll the stone for us?
The women of Jerusalem asked
They were testifying, they were mourning
But still the question remain,
Who shall roll the stone for us?
Upon reaching the sepulcher
Behold the stone was rolled Behold the young man in white was in
Go meet him in galilee
Your problem is solved
The stone is rolled
That stone in your life
That problem is solved
Go meet Jesus in Galilee.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
God

Thou art the Messiah
Thou art the Saviour
Thou art Melchezidec
The priest of the Most High
Thou art alpha and omega
The beggining and the end
Thou art Elohim
God himself

Thou art the Lord
The kinsmen redeemer
Thou art the Spirit
The father and the son
Thou art God
Praised be your name

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
God In Nature

Look at the lion and a buck
Enemies yet in the same forest
Jackals and deers
All citizens of the jungle
Eagles and doves
All soar in the blues
The unity of buffaloes
The unity of hyenas
When fighting the enemy
The unity of bees
Working in harmony
The unity of summer and winter in equinox
The beauty of flowers
Singing birds
Making the it more entertaining
All because of God
I can see God everywhere

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
God Visited Him

Down in the plains of Mamre
A man sitting on the door of the tent
Saw men standing in the heat
He compelled to feed and wash their feet so the four sat under a tree
They talked, drank and ate some meat

The Master and the servant dine
And friends remained to commune
An oath was then sworn
To visit according to the promise of time

Tinashe Mupedzupasi
God's Wondrous Works

The unit of buffaloes
They fight for each other
All God's wondrous works
Yah, i can see God everywhere

Green Tea With Ginger And Cinnamon

One sugar, one pinch ginger, one pinch cinnamon
Pour some water, a bag of green tea add no milk
One good sip, another sip and then a gallop
What is that song playing, turn on the volume
Ooh sweet beverage, how you flow with the rhythm
Free all my veins from the morning cold
Free up my mind from the Monday blues
How sweet of you a drink of mixed flavors
How quickening you are, the strength of natural healing
One sugar, a pinch ginger, a pinch cinnamon
One bag green tea, and remember no milk

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Happy Birthday Sammy

Happy birthday, happy birthday my love
I'm happy you are growing
I'm worried you are going to face the world
I wish you many more
I wish you more blessings
May God be in your heart
May he stay by your side
Happy birthday, happy birthday Sammy
Happy birthday brother, son

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Heart Breaker's Prayer

My heart pains because of the sins it bear
I have scars, most caused by my own nails
I bear the pain, even of those i have broken
Broken and healed, then wounds upon scars
Lord I don't wanna break no heart again
For I bear the pain of the broken too
Give me strength to stand my word
For i fear one day I will break a life
I have no pleasure in causing pain
Lord I pray to have my heart rebuilt

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Heartache

They say a tooth hurts the most
I'm sure they had never loved fully
If their hearts had ever been broken
They would have changed their minds

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
His Legacy

He walked into the class
Like always with just two sticks of chalk
I still remember that smile on his face
His usual style
Of pointing in the air before he speaks
That day he had a different story
He had another lesson to teach us
In his eyes I could see love
I knew something good was he about to speak

'I chose to be the bridge'
I had him softly saying it
Its now long but the voice still rings in my ears
"I chose to be the bridge, through me, you will get there"
Thats his legacy to us
Knowledge and love
His voice will sound forever
"I chose to be the bridge"

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
His Scars

Good deeds carved into the hands of a merciful man
An act the world had never seen
Written with nails on both His hands
That you and me be redeemed

Good deeds scribbled on the head of a just man
To show the world Who lived in Him
An act the world so needed to live
By His scars thus we were redeemed

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Hope For The Dead (The Resurrection)

Is this the sun rising again
Hiding it's tail behind the horizon
Peeping its head through the fluffy clouds
Accompanied by a sweet morning breeze
Giving nature a hope of life
See trees making a dance
Shaking death out of their veins
For their lives are hidden in the sun's bosom

Oh, its amazing
For yesterday I saw it dying
But today its again living
Where was it hidding?
Where death cant hold it dead

So fear not dear soul
There is hope for the dead
Their lives are hidden In their roots
At the last trump shall they rise
Putting on incorruption
Bearing image of the heavenly
See, nature proving it
See, the sun rising again

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
House Of Pain

Be my soul a house of pain
Broken heart, pieces of brain Failures of thoughts, the body is paying
All of much, wasting my sane
Pain and much pain on loosing heart
All my soul to bear in vain

Aint there no reason to cry
When my blood is feeling so dry
Such affliction and how i look wry
Feeling no wind when flying by
But i will fight until i die.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
House Of The Strong

No room for the feeble or tender hearted
No hate for pain for its the pathway to gain
Much sweat you give, much sweet you earn Loose yourself into the realm of thrilling agony welcome to the house of the strong

Where all are equal in mission and passion
To gain what we lost and take what we wish
Sow in sweat reap some sweet
Follow your passion sailing in your pain

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
I Cant Love You

If I tell you not beautiful
I would be a lair
If I tell you are not good in love
I would be lying
But love is stubborn i tell you babe
The mind might be willing
But the soul might deny it
My eyes so likes
And my body supports them
But my soul is barren
I just cant love you

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
I Don't Have A Choice

Do I have a choice?
No i don't
Is there the other way
I don't think so
I'm nothing but dust
So i don't have a voice
I don't belong here,
I am a stranger
My home is yonder
Beyond the river is my inheritance
Here i have nothing
Nothing but my soul
So i don't have a choice
But to follow my Lord

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
I Had Never Seen Snow

I had never seen snow
I'm used to waters that flow
In the rivers where reeds grow
Yes I have seen a few blocks in the winter
A little frost, that I know

At times temperature drops so low
Down to zero even below
Thus life goes so slow
This all happens in winter
But I had never seen snow

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
I Still Need You

You were always by my side
In my ear, whispering sweet nothings
Words i can't even remember
But i can still hear your voice
Cool in my ears
Sweet in my heart
I always wander
Wander why you left me
I still need you

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
I Will Sing For You

Give up your mind to the comfort of my music
Find solace in the sound of my strings
Let the melody be of comfort to your soul
A cure to the wounds of your dying soul come and find a rest you so longed for My strings will be of refuge to your mind

Let me conquer the feelings of your heart
Let me play and sing for your soul
My music will be of healing to your heart.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
I Wish I Could Call

Far are the lands of the gone, I heard
And thick are the barriers thereto to break
How deeply I so wish to have a talk
With the one, I miss, in the lands above
But Far are the lands of the loved long gone
Far even far to make a call.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
I Wish She Was A Gardener

I love flowers
Roses, that green teff
And those small blooming trees
I dont know what they are called
But always look beautiful when they start to blossom
Who wouldn't like a garden of herbs
Some aloe and those sweet smelling weeds

I would love someone to green up my yard
Making it look near Eden
That time when summer is nearing
And the sweet smelling summer scent of the blossom
Sneaking smoothly into the house
I would always love the feeling of nature inside
So bad i aint a gardener
So bad she aint a gardener

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
If forever be ours
Will we raise a family, to see our joy grow Strengthening the bond that only lust has started Raising generations and creating our future image
But only if forever be ours.

Will we be a testimony of love to our future selves Having it carved on the tablets of our hearts
A poem of love that our hearts sang to the world
A beautiful legacy to generation to come
But only if forever be ours.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
If Rats Were Good Animals

If rats were good animals
I could have kept them pets
Showing them to my pals
Protecting them from killer cats
Only if they were good animals

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
I'M Alive

I'm alive
My soul is bound in the bundle of life
I'm alive
I'm not yet shadowed by the blanket of death
I'm still sailing in the water of life
My canoe is not yet broken
Yes i'm alive
I'm living to see a tomorrow
And tomorrow will usher a new day
Making me older and stronger
Gray haired and wiser
I'm glad i'm alive
I'm living to see the fulfilment of promises
To witness the going of the bride
The sinking of a famous city
The falling of a great nation
I'm living to see the end
I'm waiting to be raptured

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
I'M Back

I'm back
Oh Lord allow me in
I'm in the hallway
Open the door.

Open thy arms
Allow me into the comfort of your mercy
Let me find grace in thee
Thee, my rescue
I was lost
Dip in the world
Now i come
I'm back to thy word
Yea, i come
I'm back to my Lord.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
I'M Still Young

I'm still young
I'm still a child
My heart is still tender
My dreams are childish
Yea, they are childish
Yet i'm visionery
I'm destined for greatness
I'm a history maker

Don't spoil my future
Don't lead me astray
Show me love
Thats all i need from you

Sometimes i go astray
Sometimes i lose hope
I need Mercy
I need Grace
I need faith
I need the holy spirit

I'm still a child
Father i need thee.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Imagination

I am a man I know, I am just a man
Maybe not a man enough but half a beast
If I had a heart maybe I would have fallen in love
If I was a man I would have cared

I have written a song but lost my voice
Maybe if I had a voice I would sing
Still, I am a man, I am just a man
I am poet, a heart full of words.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
In My World, Alone

Alone
In my world alone
Where stress and boredom prevail
Having nothing in mind
But only memories
Sleepless nights
Peaceless days
Having war with my own mind
No ally
No intermediator
In my world alone
Alone, yes alone
A couple of hours
Became a thousand years
A few minutes became countless Countless dreams
Some nightmares
But none of the dreams
Seem to have life
In my world alone.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
In The Woods

Yes i remember
Those melodious songs from the birds
The rythmic sound from the nearby waterfall
That sweet scent from the flowers
The green pastures just beyond the river
Yes i was alone yet not feeling it
Oh my i wish to be alone in the woods again

Tinashe Mupedzapasi

It's saturday again
Why don't we go out
Out in the woods
I should be with you
Just you all day
And i will make you know
That i love you
Just us in the woods
It will be a great day
And worthy to be remembered

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
In The Woods 3

I was alone in the woods
Sitting under a tree
Hearing the trees sing
Birds composing a melody
Singing a hope and faith song
'There shall be showers of blessings'
Then I felt floods of strength
Rising from the depths of my soul
I felt I was not alone
Nature was there with me
God was there in nature
He was there with me
Hearing trees sing
Hearing nature sing

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Iron Rulers

Fishing in troubled waters
Causing the poor to cry
Dying begging for their lives
Cursing the days they were born
Wishing they were never born
Cursing the womb in which they were conceived
Causing the needy to weep
Taking a little they have Blood thirst brutal s
They rule with iron feasts
Bloody killers
They call themselves politicians.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Jesus, God

God's love fathomless
His grace amazing
God's promises immutable
His Holly word unchangable

By His blood i'm cleansed
By His grace i'm saved
By His love i'm raised
By His stripes i'm healed

He caused the poor to feast
He caused the blind to see
Raging seas He calmed

The mighty Lion is He
The humble Lamb He is
He is the Son of man
God Himself is He

He is God but He will come
He is here in His people
He will take me up to the Father
The will dwell with us

Blessed be His mighty name
Praise God all His people.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Joy Cometh In The Morning

Behold cometh the morning
Bearing joy on its wings
Assurance hidden in its bosom
That there is hope for the sleeping
Thus you see me rejoicing
Oh, nature too is rejoicing

Behold the smiling sun
Bringing freedom to lives frozen
See the frost hastily evading
See the trees softly weeping
Tears of joy, dew cascading
Down the leaves, slowly flowing
The night and its nightmares are gone
By the morning breeze all the sorrows are blown
On the sands of the heart, new hope is sown
A new life in the veins flowing
See everything rejoicing
Truly joy cometh in the morning

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Juicy Crocodile Meat

Tasty, juicy, tender crocodile meat
What a pleasure to feast on the beast
Braaaii, grill, stew or roast
A beast so large for all to feast

Who remembers when he roams the lands
Deadly, fearsome for any to behold
Boasting, swearing he will ever prey
So amazing how he hast fallen.

Away with history, lets enjoy the meat
What a pleasure to dine on the beast
Amazing GRACE, Its a kingly treat
A queenly treat an enemy cannot resist.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Knowledge And Wisdom

The fruits of success
You suck the sap thereof
You become ever stronger
Once you tasted them
You can't stop taking from their chalice
Better than a fortified city
Be wise to be strong

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
What is there in life
What is so special about it
Leaving with my heart in my hand
Oh LORD,
Will the fear of tomorrow ever end?

Im on the verge of loosing my comfort
I have my eyes set on the road
Ears locked on the walls
Fearing the evil that im always promised
My heart trembles to the calling of my name

Though I lament in pain and in sorrow
Though in my enemy's encompassment
Come ye all evil, I shall tremble not
For the Lord of host is my banner
I will fight my battles with Faith and strength

Tremble not ooh you heart of flesh
For not forever shall you toil and bleed
You have a home and a rest waiting for you
Just live and fight until the end
Wash your stains in the blood of life.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Lamentations Chapter 2

What am i to you ooh people
That you seek after my life
As a lion after a deer
What have I that you hate me that much
But I am just harmless and free in heart

Have not thou mercy and reason
How can you find comfort in our lament
What pleasure is there in our tears
That you wash in them on their falling
Whilst you dance to the sound of our lament

Shall my heart be forever broken
Will sorrows abound never to cease
Or the fall of tears forever stay
Shall I stay forever a footstool
And bleed to the comfort of others

Ney, my Lord is not a fool
He shall rise from the mercy sit
And hide me under the comfort of His wings
I shall laugh at them that sought my soul
And sing psalms in place of my lament.
Selah.

Laters To My Friends

Dear Gajanan Mishra
Halo poet
I appreciate your writtings
I appreciate your kindness
Keep it on
You are the best

Dear karen
Your love
I had hidden it deep in my heart
But i had never known
I was doing it in vain
You broke my heart
Oh yes, it hurts
But i still need you

Dear Andrew
You were in my bossom
You were like a brother
But since you have gone
Our friendship is now loose
You don't even call

Dear petsyworld
I understand your excuse
But i wanted you to have her
I liked her

Dear Allen
Dear friend, dear brother
I love you more than my real brother
The only one i trust
I appreciate your behaviour
Keep it on bro
There is a reward waiting for you
Thats in the end of time

God bless you all my dears
Lawless Zone

In a lawless zone
Where everyone is the ruler of his own world
World of devils and monsters
Animal like beings
Blood sucking pest
Them like war than peace
Blood than water
In a lawless zone
There is no master
They don't fear
Even God himself
No peace no smile
War after war

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Letter From The Heart

Love is rude
Love is a pain that breaks us dead
I love you much but the pain feels much greater Yes I am a breaker i can't make you happier
I am odd, i am not like them but I feel better
I can't change, I know it makes you lesser
You need more and the world has much to offer
You left me, I am leaving you to be happier
Good bye love it was all our pleasure

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Letter To My Son

I have tried to live my life one step at a time
Sometime I tried a leap and broke my ankle
Now I am down to earth on my knees life is tough but we have to live son life is tough but we have to smile

All being dark, you are all that matters son

Grow in light and mind your steps
Lean to your mother and she will protect you
Pray always and God will guide you

Make some friends and have moments to remember
Never regret mistakes of your youth, son
For when you are old, there will be much to repent

Strengthen your heart and beware of love son
It can blind you and drag you to the pits

Think with your mind, a heart is for feeling
Listen to your heart and you will always be at peace

Choose your path wisely and walk it with humility
Be on your knees before God always son
Pray to God and you will have a life.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Life After Love

Down In barren land I travail
Down the rugged lands I travel
Facing hostile winds as they prevail
Bringing to a broken heart much trouble like wind will My sorrows settle

Or my efforts to heal are just futile
But I can't die without a struggle
An effort to recover is always vital

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Life Is A Song

Life is a song
Yes it's like a song
The tone is sometimes low
Sometimes high
Sometimes sweet
Sometimes boring
The rhythms differs
The tune changes
Singers are many Dancers are few
Which we all need to sing
To sing even to the end

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Life What Is Life

Life is like a wind driven canoe,
You don't really know where it will take you
Life is a broken-winged bird,
It can not fly
At the same time life is fair,
Because you can plan it
But it's not really fair,
Because you can make a wrong plan
Life is like a madman's bag,
Everything is found in it
Life is a dream
And it can be a nightmare too
Life is just life
Nobody understands it.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Little Lindy

She stood in the corner
Like a new dog in the kennel Wondering what was going on
And what she was doing there
Finally she had the voice
Welcome to pre-school Lindy

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Lone Flower (A Memory)

Blossoms
Oh beautiful summer day sweetly scented
Petals, butterflies, oh lonely flower on a barren heart
For once we were one
But time sure did move
Petals wither, flies desert
Oh lonely lily on a barren heart
Time does move and memories fade
Will we remember the summer blossoms
And the love that brought us close.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Lonely

The bed is cold and the night is empty
The night is long
Starring at the curtain dancing to the cold night winds
I have nothing to do no words to utter
The bed is cold and empty
I cant make it warm
I'm alone, where art thou
You didn't text tonight
I thought you would stop by This night is long and cold i need you here

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Lonely (Acrostic)

Lost In the dip forest of confusion
Overwhelmed by sorrow and pain
Never dreaming of a better tomorrow
Even though have i no more hope
Letting go never will I
Yah im LONELY but still surviving

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Lord Change Me

Lord I love Thee
And I dont wanna be the same again
Please change me
Make me what You want me to be
I give my heart to Thee
Cause all I need in life is Thee

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Lost

Dummy walk
Slow
I feel like i am sinking
My world is spinning around
Out in the streets
Body without a mind
I have lost it all
I have forgotten my existence
She had me pinned down
Now I am a fool

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Lost It To A Stranger

How she offered her only treasure
To me a total stranger
Did she know, I was just a visitor

How can you fall on me, I'm a man
Why not tell me you were still new Tomorrow I will take a ride
And you will never see me again
Don't hold me guilty
For I didn't know

She said I did it willingly
And with pleasure
I wasn't gonna stay new for long or forever
Now I have offered you my born-with treasure
And i did it willingly and with pleasure.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Love Ain't Shoes

One for the right
Lets say, one pair for this event
One for the other
These are shoes but love ain't the same
You cant love him now
And switch for me tomorrow
Love ain't shoes, it builds with time.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Love Found Me Crying

Love found me crying
Alone, thinking I was dying
Broken heart, soul bleeding
Lights of life slowly dimming
All the hope away drifting
All to leave my heart bleeding
Thus Love found me wailing

Behold in the sky I saw it flying
Behold I saw it coming
On its wings bearing healing
Blessing coming down pouring
Like waters they were raining
Bringing peace to a soul crying
Bringing life to a heart dying
Behold I saw it coming
It found me crying.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Make Me Cry

Give me love
And make me feel Make me feel
And make me smile
Make me smile
And make me happy
Make me happy
Until i cry

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Memories

Carried in the flood of memories
Some sweet, some sour
Hoping to reach the dreamland
Trying to escape nightmares
But still blown by the winds of memories
Smiling, crying
Thinking of the past
Blaming yourself
At times praising yourself
Memories sweet and sour
We can't escape from memories

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Men's Ways

Born in sin, shaped in iniquity
Raised with no rod to spare
It took a whip and hardened speech
All in hope to raise one better
But not all are perfect in walk

Built of mistakes
Raised in err
Be all man short of perfection
Weighed by God and found wanting Just His Grace keeps us going

Watch our ways
From times behind
Bands of chaos and self killing
Destroying the world and everything natural Unsatisfied hearts, thirsting for life

We are men and never perfect
We eat all and long for more
Creating a comfort to die within
And do we know but without care
For we are men, built of sin.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Missed A Train Sleeping

Sleepy and much out of shape
Dozing, sitting at a train stop
Man, how i needed sleep
Too bad, i had a promise to keep

Sleepy and waiting for a train
Bored, the train is delaying Man, I am going insane
Too bad, its a must journey

Delayed and time was moving fast
Tired, sleep got me at last Man, how I slept so fast
Too bad, my train passed

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The pain of missing you
The pain of separation and loss
That pain I tried to ignore
But memories can't let me do so
I love you mom; I love you dad
I need you, I'm still young
I know you loved me
Oh my, that love I still need
I wish we could meet again in the end of time
I wish to be with you forever
I miss you mom; I miss you dad
And I still love you

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Monkey

Chit-chat-chat
Hear the chatter sing
Dive from branch to branch
Give a fruit a bite
Make a little joke
Then gives us a song
Chit-chat-chat
Chit-chat-chat
Hear monkey sing

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Music And Poetry

When alone with my music
Understanding lyrics when depressed
Enjoying the beat when happy
Music sweet in the ears
Bringing peace to the heart
Giving hopes for the future
So poetry does
Enjoying the rhymes
Understanding the massage
The rhyming of words
The rhyming of thoughts
Turning the poems into lyrics
Searching for a tune
Composing a melody
Making it sweeter, sweeter, sweeter
Music is sweet so as poetry

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
My Beliefs

I believe in the true unfailling love
I believe in God the heavenly King
I believe in blessing that pours from above
I believe in the glory and life they bring

The Heavenly Glory and angels that sing
The living word as the holy food
I believe that trials makes us strong
To face the world and teach it good

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
My Birthday Song

The waters broke forth
Blood followed after
A head sooner appeared
A push truly was needed
A nurse does a little pulling Legs now were out
The chord had to be cut
A slap on the back was good

A cry sweet to hear
A new soul was born
Healthy, alive, breathing
Held dearly in the bosom
Songs were sung, praising
God's works, amazing

The child is still surviving
Mom did works so great
Now she is long gone
Good had she taught him
His soul now in God anchored
One score and a year since birth

Prayers and praises everyday
He prays for mercy
Forgiveness of sins
To have a soul so clean
Escape from spiritual bondage
To be free from filthy and sin
He prays for love and freedom
He hates a life so sinful

Pain and sorrow he knows all
In life he is ready to see more
Grow old, gray haired and wax wise
Give love, help lives and live a legacy
Live long, live good and be raptured

Glory to God im 21
Tinashe Mupedzapasi
My Birthday Song 2

Yesterday is now history
Tomorrow remains a mystery
Today is a true gift
It's a blessing watching its drift
Truely time goes so fast Childhood never last
Thank God mama didn't abort
Wish I could build her a fort

Heartbreaks, stress and sleepless nights
With no end of them in sight
Pimples, moustache comes at this age
I had it's just a life stage
It's age that makes me stronger
Gaining experience as I grow older
Now im 21, it's my third round
Life and strength still abound
Love and mercy has taken me this far
Thank God for carrying me this far

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
My Innocency

Don't steal my innocency
That's all I have
But a needy soul
I'm still tender hearted
I need an adviser
Fill my heart with motherly love
Teach me the right way
Never lead me astray
Teach me the word
Let me hear your testimony
Help me protect my innocency
I don't want to be a victim of crimes
I want to live right
And please my Lord
Don't teach me wrong
Don't steal my innocency I pray

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
My Love

Where are you my love
I'm now feeling lonely
I miss you my love
Come to me
I need you now

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
My Saviour

He gave me strength
He let me stand
He took me higher
And never let me fall
He quenched me with waters of joy
When fires of sorrow engulfed me
He died for me on the cross
By His blood, He served me
He is always there when I cry
He fills my heart with joy
He loves me
I'm His
That's my saviour I'm talking of

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
My Saviour

Who laid the foundations of the earth
Who built the mountains
Who dug the seas and oceans
And filled them with many waters
The same made the stars and the moon to rule the night
And the sun ruler of the day
Fowls of the heaven
Beasts of the land
Clouds that condense into rain
To water the natural gardens of the earth who made the plants to feed on light
And plants to hold animal and people's lives in them
The one who have got everlasting love
My saviour

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
My Valentine (Acrostic)

My valentine, my life, my all
You who take me across these romantic planes
Verily, you take me on your magical mystery ride
And you leave me dizzy yet begging for more
Lips to Lips, we play a secret game
Every move you make babe is perfect
Now and forever, you stay inside my heart
Time will come, yes, but death will not take you out
Inside deep, both we know
Never will this love wither or die

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Nature

Look at the mountains
Rugged yet beautiful
The blueness of the sky
Making the sun shiny and brighter
A cool breeze sweeping the land
Bringing new hope for trees in the woods
A sweet scent from the flowers
The beauty of the jungle

Trees casting their shadows to the east
Mountains stood dark and rugged
The jungle is becoming alive
As the sun dip its tail into the horizon
Birds going back to their nests
Nocturnal's ruling the world
That's the way it is Nature controlling itself

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
I have no words to explain
The beauty of the sun as it sets in the west
Clothing the horizon in a reddish mantle

The smoking, thundering falling waters
Forming a rainbow as the mist meet the sun raise

A meandering river running through the forest Leaving life to plants and animals as it passes by

At diver times the eagle appears in the sky
Flying down the river searching for prey

The blossoming flowers beyond the river
Red, white, pink, diver colors

Flowers, bees and butterflies
All falling in non-lustful love

Nature holding the comfort everyone dreams of Giving comfort to those seeking it.
Show casing its beauty to all.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Never Give Up

Never give up
Keep on working hard sweat sweetens success
So better sweat to make it much sweeter

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
New World

The river is flowing silently
Carrying away all my sorrows
The old world drifting away
The new world coming in like a vision
Old things dissolving
New things emerging
Beautiful evergreen lands
Well patterned mountains
Breathing new air
Living a new life
Love has taken me to the new world

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Old Ben And A Hat Full Of Mushroom

On my way from the market
I met little old Ben
He had a hat full of mushroom
A full big woolen hat
He asked me for some tomatoes
I gave him one and an onion
He smiled and licked his mouth
Went on home whistling and smiling
I felt good as if something happened
Something bigger than what happened
How could it be just a smile
That changed my mood and get me going Poor old Ben, with a hat full of mushroom.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
One More Time

Kiss my lips one more time
One more time lets make love
A little more romance is all i need
Give me romance and make me smile
Breath on me while i breath on you
'cause i wanna feel the warmth of your breath
Kiss my ear and give a little bite
Make me feel we are in love

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Our Father Is Sick And Old

We come from that land you heard and know of Where milk used flow in the rivers
And creeks filled with honey
But our brothers and chiefs are greedy
They have guarded all wells with their laws and dogs
So we are here in search of supplies

Our chiefs have allied with the stranger
Norms have changed and treasures are disappearing
Corruption has found a home but who can see it
We have lost order, our home is ruined
Because our king is sick and well stricken in age

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Owls Or Rats

What's better
Owls or rats?

Squeakers or hooters
Squeak-squeak, hoot-hoot?

Spent a night with owls
Twu-hiiiiii hoot-hoot?

Sleep in a house with rats
Swk-swk squeak-squeak?

The scary songs of an owl
Hoot-hoot?

The boring sounds of a rat
Squeak-squeak?

What's better
Owls or rats?

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Pain

Pain is a friend
It means you are still alive
Pain is a reminder
It reminds you that life changes
It is a teacher
It shows you how to live right
Pain does not cause death
It's what causes pain that causes death
If you feel pain you feel life
Pain, yes pain

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
People Are Poor

There they are
Seating feeling up the chairs
What is so special about power
If monkeys can rule themselves
Ooh poor us, says Tina
Oooh poor people

What sort of a thirst
That can be quenched
Drinking, drinking they keep on drinking
Until they thirst for blood
Oooh poor people

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Pieces Of A Man

Squated in a corner
Likely to be in a coma
Induced by some trauma
Oh, just pieces of a man
What that woman has done
Make a man's life grow thinner

Is this the way love go
Or its what women can do
Pressing a man so low
Leaving him only in pieces
Life full of ditchies
Seeing life going slow

Sailing in his own train
But only pieces a of man.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Poem Of A Dying Old King

Surely age is cruel
Who new a woman would rule my house
Rats would even squeak at me boldly
And my voice would not scare them anymore
Strangers and neighbors are fighting over my throne
Ears wide open for the news of my death
Who knew my fall would be so deep
And who will remember the days of my strength

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Poets, Poetry And Poems

Poetry poetry
What is better than poetry
Feelings of the heart
Expressed in a rhythmic form
Who else can inspire the world
Change it into a new thing
Poets can be taken by time
But there voices exists forever
They are voices to the voiceless
Entertainers, teachers and reminders
Poems give hope, faith and strength
Poems are good for every soul
No one can stop poetry

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Precious Things

There are some things we don't need to be told Things that we feel and see all life long
The love of a mother living or dead
The Passion of Christ hidden behind His tough words of chastisement
The sweetness of the precious words from the bible
Who needs to tell us of the importants of the sun at the beginning of a new day
Those precious things we don't think of
But we need no one to tell us of.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Price

Yes I once had Life is a race
Don't run fast
Then get trampled
If so, then whats the price?

Some so say
Life begins with murder
Weak so dies
The strong sail through
A race for the price

Is there a price for life
At the end of life
Is death a price
Is there another price
Whats that price?

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Rain

Lightning strikes
Splitting the skies
Thunder shakes the earth
Nature ceases to breath
Paying the needed obeisance
To the harsh commanding voice
Of the so angry skies

Clouds blanketing the skies
Heavily laden with life
Food to cherish nature
Thirsting mother nature
What a beautiful scene
But its scary too
Yes its scary too

But all has to rejoice
For rain is come

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Rats Again

Ooh rats
Those animals
Making my house a play ground
Rondents
They are pests
Beautiful in their weird nature
Bats
They are not bats
But bats are rats that fly

One thing I like about rats
They are free
And silent...
Are they silent? ??

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Retaliation

We are all rats in a hole
Scrap we eat
A scramble for life
I will bite your tail

Scratch my back buddie
I will scratch yours
Bite my tail
I will swallow your head
We are all rats in a hole
Scrambling for life

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Revenge Of Isandwana

The battle between the warriors
Was it between warriors and brutals?
The battle of isandwana

Though with dangerous weapons
Grenades and machine guns
The British lost it
It was the time for the Zulu
To protect their inheritance

The battle is raging on again
Now between spirits
It's time for revenge
The revenge of isandwana
The white are bringing in a curse
The Zulus are swallowing iniquity

Allowing homosexuality
Bringing a curse into SouthAfrica
White spirits against black spirits
The Zulus are getting weary
White waxing stronger

Rise The Zulu
And stand like a Zulu
Fight the spirit
The spirit of sodom
Beware of that spirit
It has come for vengeance

Secrete

secretes
Secretes are secretes
Only if known by one heart
If you wanna keep them secrete
Never tell them even to your mind
A secrete is not a secrete
If known by more than one heart

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
She Is Beautiful

So fair she is to gaze upon
So bright her face glows like the sun
As its rays strikes a diamond stone Beholding the beauty of cunning works so fair to look upon

So fair like a cloudless night
A star lighting a moonless night
Beholding how she smiles
Her beauty is incomparable
A creature perfectly built

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Sheds Of Grey

Vague,
Something, you can't really tell
Ain't it supposed to be in black and white?
Nay, be it far from me
Life is a way too many sheds of grey.

I came to the world knowing only Love
The only definition of everything i knew
All my dreams were purely green
Thought i would just sail on golden decks
Now it seems I am knowing better
Nothing comes on a flowery bed of easy.

Nothing is neither black nor white
All is wrapped in sheds of grey.

Can i say i have lost my faith
Or it's the world that has lost it's ways
Things have changed, things are changing
What is wrong, what is right
Only a few can tell

Nothing is neither black nor white,
It's all wrapped in sheds of grey.

What makes some cry and wail,
Watch some drink and lough
Who still feels for the weak
Are only the strong to survive?
someone has to tell the way
For evil and good looks the same.

Life is a way too many sheds of grey.

Sing My Soul

Sweet melody, sing oh my soul
Sweet carol, good in the ears to hear
Sweet in the soul, all the sorrows it clear
Sweet a song, sing it oh my dear
Sweet a psalm, sing it to all

Amazing grace, proclaim His Love
Swing low sweet chariot, coming from above
Lord im coming home, there I wont starve
Oh I want to see Him, sing it oh my soul
Sing it loud, sing it sweet a song

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Sing to God oh my soul
He is your all in all
In love with Him you fall
Thus He will bless you so
In His bosom then you rest
No more need for you to toil
Just do what He say
And He will raise you so high
Like an eagle you will fly
And never fear to fall
He will hear you when you cry
But sometimes gives you test
Oh, fear not dear soul
For that's the time to pray

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Smiling Star

A star smiling on clear summer night
From the skys rays descending so bright
Striking through my mind as i take the stride
In to a world that breeds no strife
A star came to shine in my life.

Is that beauty at its purest?
The possession of that fair you owns't
A look no eyes cans't resist
A goal my heart so pursuits
To explore such an unsullied beauty.

A star smiling so brightly
How did you learn to smile so softly
You leave the heart well caressed
With your smile and beauty unmatched
Thou art truly blessed.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
So Beautiful

How did you learn to smile so softly
Expressing love on your well cut lips
Can i say you are blessed with an incomparable beauty
One good creature that is perfectly made
Yes it is so said non is perfect
But all you imperfections are well perfected

If its love that has blinded me so, then it's fine because the same love will give a perfect sight
Can i say you are the best creature i have ever met?
No, but the best creature that i always see
I always see you when ever i close my eyes
Thus at times i hate waking up, fearing to loose you.

Be this a vision, be it dream, be it real
You are beautiful.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Sojourner On Earth

Where is my home?
It's not here on earth
Up beyond the blue
Is where I belove
I'm not earthly bound
Soon I will give my farewell
One big jump will take me there
I will meet Christ in the clouds
And he will take me there
To my home where I'm not a stranger
To my home, yea, because on earth I'm a sojourner.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Still Young

You are still young
You are still young
The waters of your love
Cannot quench the thirst of mine
The wind of your love is not that strong
That my heart can set its wings on it
Not deep is the foundain of your love
That it can easly dry up
Yes i love you but you are still young

Its not yet summer to you
That you expect my love to rain on you
Or winter
That you may need the warmth of my love
Have faith in the clouds
My love will soon rain
Oh my, you are still young

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Summer Is Past

The rain is over and gone
Flowers appear on earth
The time of the singing of birds
Even bees and butterflies rejoice

Winter approaches
Trees loose leaves in salutation of the frost
Its now sweet to make love
Providing warmth for each other
An exodus of the seasonal birds
Heading towards the nothern hemisphere
We are going to miss their beauty

Its now winter
The world has changed
Summer is over
There is no more rain

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Sun Or Wind

What can you choose if it be a judgement
The heat of the sun
Or the wrath of the wind
Being baked to ashes
Or blown to pieces
I would rather face the heat
For i had never liked the wind

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Sweet Motherly Love

Sweet is the love
Love of a mother
Though mine left me young
I still feel her love
Who else can give me such a love
Sweet unconditional love
God bless mothers of this world
They are special

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Sweet Songs

Sweet sweet works of psalmody
Flowing softly in my veins
Sweet sacred songs of the blest
Sounding sweetly in my ears
Carols sung from a joyful heart
Sweet notes on mortal tongue
Organs, harps, viols and drums
Joyful noise from a blessed soul

Sweet the music of worship and praise
Carrying away all my sorrows as it sweeps over my soul
Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine
Filling hope into my mended heart
Leaving me happy, singing and blessed
Giving praise to the everlasting King
Melodious songs of blest

Testimony

Let me write about a testimony
Because i'm a living testimony
Some testimonies brings tears to our eyes
Some put smiles on our faces
But some leave us a deeper meaning
Some make us smile then lough
Afterward they deep us in a pool of thoughts
Some are supernatural and outstanding
Some give hope and courage
Testimonies
That's all about testimonies

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
That First Kiss

The night was clear and cold i remember
The road was empty, as if the nyt was planned
We walked slowly for the world was ours then
Who was caring about time, we had no train to catch
Her voice was sweetly sounding in my ears
But only a few words reached my mind
Most of them were trapped in my nerves by the drumming sound of my heart beat
She kept coming closer at times i could feel the warmth of her skin

Was it all the night had for me? us?
Who wouldn't fear a decent beautiful girl?
But with an opportunity who wouldn't dare a try?

I reached for her hand and hold her little finger
Ooh she was calm, just looked at me and smile
Enough for then...maybe that whole night
For i couldnt tell what was beyond those beautiful eyes
Talking, we talked but who care to remember the subjects
So much for the stories, we had reached at her home gate

Was it all for the night?
How was i to change the subject?
What was she gonna say?

Silence seized the moment
No more voices to hide my heart beat
Eyes locked, my lips were trembling
She saw it and i knew it but what was i to do
I couldnt say goodbye, i couldnt come any closer.
But she couldnt waste a good night to laughs and stories
Lips could do better than talking
She was soft and calm, and then a little bite
I dont know for how long but surely short enough
I watched her walk away, give a wave and closed the door
I jogged back home and was all for the night
That was all for us
For in the morrow she left the city
Never to come back
That was all for our love.

The Art Of Creation (Poetry, Painting And Music)

A combination of talent and passion
Exploring nature and life
Creating something out of nothing
In the world where nothing can be something
The world of art
Where the most beautiful experience is the mysterious
The fundamental emotion which stands at the cradle of true art
The world where nature and souls are in partnership
Poets being thirsty for the marvelous
And only the marvelous has power over the poets
Artists dreaming the painting
Poets painting the dreams
Driven by inspiration
Only by inspiration they gain the power of creation
Explaining life lyrically and poetically
In whom feelings are much stronger as reason
Breathing life into long dead dreams
Creating hope and strength for the weak
Bringing peace to the troubled souls
Creating hope to the crippled life
Putting smiles on people's faces
Creating joy that will fill the world
Creating a new world through music and poetry
Where joy rules and peace prevails

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Beauty Of The Night

Falling be the sun, falling into blackness
Little twinkling lights, piercing through the darkness Smiling shiny moon, how glorious it is Blessed be the skies to host such a glory
Blessed be the stars, they that grace the heavens
Beautiful is the night, wish it could be ours.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Black Sheep

Sheep are sheep
Black or white
I have speckles I know
And you said I cant fit in the flock
But sheep are sheep
Black or White
But I'm one odd
Humble, brave and strong
Sent me to the wolves
I will lead the pack
Sheep are sheep
But I'm one odd.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Brook

The waters cascading down the mountain
Forming a brook down into the woods
Watering the plants
Making the natural garden ever green
Source of water for the jungle dwellers
The brook proceeds down the villages
Living life as it proceeds to the sea
Becoming wider and gaining fame
As it becomes longer
Some other rivers feed it as it goes to the sea
There it feeds it and vomits its contents
There it dies and flows no more

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Chronicles Of Zimbabwe

Are not all their works written in the book of chronicles
The massacre in matebeleland when justice was wrought with a smoking iron Gukurahundi, murumbatsvina, were not homes crushed
2008, should I mention or spare you a sour memory
Rex Nhongo, Itai Dzamara maybe I should start with Tongogara And Chitepo
Should I lament over the 15 Billion that vanished
Or Millions of carats of Chiyadzwa diamonds
Who remembers a series of deaths by military trucks
Acts unjustified all written in our memories
I cant tell them all, but we know them all
Even the fruitless battle for change by the opposition
After saying it all we then talk of Doctor Grace
How many interface rallies just to torment the hearts of many Don't you think i have forgotten chipangano
Innocent souls did perish for naught
And today we turn over a new page
The end of a 37 year ruling streak
The beginning of change, an era of confusion
The military has taken over the rule
Is that all not written in the book of chronicles

The Comfort Of A Dream

On one cold winter morning
A man sitting at bus station, alone
Alone, he folded his arms and caught a sleep
He dreamt a dream, boarding bus
So comforted as he got home
Enjoying the heat and the warmth of his lover
He woke up and the bus was gone.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Creation

Looking back into history
Where the world was void
Not even a single creature
Just to make a single sound
In darkness it was wrapped
And by light, away the darkness was scared
The waters then separated
And the dry land appeared
Plants of all kind
All of them yielding seed
Natural lights, God created
And day and night He separated
Moon and sun were created
The day by the sun was ruled
On day six He rested
After creating mankind

Out of void
Was the world

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Devil To Save

I have a gun and a knife in my pocket
I have a bible I am preaching love
I have brought roses to my victims grave
All my enemies come for a feast
Bygones be bygones help build a castle
My past is gone I have brought a change
I was a destroyer but did not point a gun
No to corruption, I will clean out the criminals
Stand with me and I will make you tall
Lets build Madzimbahwe
We are here for a change

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Great Tribulation

Sorrow and grief will rule
Pain and man will be friends
Death will be longed for Life will become a plague
Good will not be heard of Laughter will become a blasphemy
Love will become a myth
Wars will be games
Guns will be toys
Plagues will multiply
People will regret
But mercy will be no more
The mercy seat
Will become the judgement seat
Church s will become armories
Friendship will be for evil
Good will cease to exist
Peace will be forgotten
Wars will be everywhere
The bride will be gone
And servants dealt with Christ will be seen
And judgement will be

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Joy Of The Day

Ooh sun the lamp of the day
Shine on us, bring a new day
Ooh sunshine the happiness of all
Smile on us and give us hope
Come to us bringing life
Bring us dew from the watery skies
Feed our lands and free the bound

Let the poor have much to gather
Give the weak, the hope they need
Free the people from the fangs of the night
Give the doubtful a faith in rising
Bring us smiles that left us yesterday
Scare away night and all its terrors
Ooh sunshine, the joy of the day

The Log By The Roadside

The is a log by the roadside
It has a hole on it
Inside the small hole
Stays a little creature
It keeps on peeping Starring at people passing by
It always looks happy
And a little bit naughty
A little naughty animal

The Old Woman's Garden

There is a garden of flowers at my next door house
Butterflies, chirping birds and buzzing bees
I would sit by the the window enjoying the melody, loving the scene
And sometimes long to take a petal and smell the scent
But there is a mean old woman there
Oh my she hates me even staring at them
But i never mind her, just give her wave and smile
Sit still and continue to enjoy the beauty

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Owel

Good morning
Good morning mr hooter
Good morning
Good morning the dark master
Hope you had a good night
Good day then mr owel

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Owel 2

Hey there Mr hooter
How did you get those horn like ears
That man like face
With an ugly short beak
Why are you so rude
I hate your scary boring cry
I dont like you

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Owel 3

There you are
The nocturnal bird
Going back to your nest
For the day is breaking
You now go and take a rest
For you make hell during the night
I wonder what is there in the darkness
That makes you hate the light
And it's only the night
That you become mighty
When ever you raise your voice
Children got chilly
Mice stop squeak
For you are the master of darkness

The Portrait Of A Cougar

There was an old famous beggar
Who had a beautiful portrait of a cougar
Which looked much like a tiger
Even some argued it was a jaguar
But cougar, insists the beggar.

One day came a rich man
Who had much of a good hand
He called out to the paint-man
'How much for the portrait'
Beggar said it wasn't on the market.

Rich man drew a bit closer
Admiring the works of splendor
His passion grew stronger
So he offered bigger
And beggar went home richer.

The Question

My eyes were filled with tears
That i couldn't hold them anymore
Finally one drop escaped
And they started streaming down my cheeks
Running down to my chin
And i had the question repeated
Honey, will you marry me?

Search everywhere
I wanna kill that rat
It has eaten my socks

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Storm

Oh angry skys and raging
What hast thou for a lonely man
Stirring the waters
Tossing my ship
Shaking the lands
And scaring lives
Ooh angry skys and raging seas

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Sun

Look over the mountains to the east
There is a little smiling creature
Shiny though still weak
It's in the morning it's still a baby
Soon in the noon it will mature
And gain its full strength
All the plants will be set free
Free from the frost of the night
But soon it will begin to fall
And finally set over again in the west
As it dies out for the day
But tomorrow it will come back again
Bringing back a new day for us
Thus fulfilling its purpose

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The Two I Trust (Sonnet)

There are two who will never forsake me
There are only two who will never give up on me
They always encourage me when I fail
One always pick me up when I fall

If I die, One will raise me
When im raised, one will become me
If I sorrow, they will comfort me
When im weak, He strengthens me

Be I sick, He will heal me
Be I healed, he will praise Him
If I hunger, He will nourish me
If im nourished, he will praise Him

The two will never fail me
The two are God and Me.

The Unsung Hero (Bob)

Every hero is so hated
Cowards so praised
Truth begot hate
That is if not death
Cowards can't stand the truth
Thus they it evil

Africa thinks itself free
Yet mentally colonized
One man stood up
Denying mental colonialism
Fighting against gay rights
Was Plagued with critics and hate

Hated by some of his blood
Hated by people of his own
The unsung hero
Who always cries for freedom
An enemy of the west
The son of the soil

How he firmly stood against gay rights
And risked his life for the truth
Hated for taking what's his Blamed for fighting the enemy
Stabbed for recovering the spoils
Hated for bravery

The true unsung hero
The great man of Africa
The most hated Old Bob

The Way Of A True Hustle

Such as i have, i need a double
What ever it takes, be it a struggle
Even a time of years in jungle
I will bravely fight as in a rumble
Never to back down, never to fall
Thats the way of a true hustle.

Rise for good, shun the wrong
Take my journey up, where i belong Gather my virtue to stand strong
Readying for the journey, it may be long
Never to fall but stand strong.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
The World And Hearts Of Many

why strive for naught
Had not we a lesson of a sort
From a pain this has once brought Which left hearts of many so broke
What this world has done to us
That brought the hearts of many to naught.

How we love this world so much
How it has given many a touch
That we forget to keep our watch
Now our hearts are all corrupt
The devil has found comfort in us
Because many love the world so much.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Things You Cant Try

Some people have a passion for music
Whilst having a bad voice
But still in discord they sing
Some loves art
But are bad painters
Still they can do the sketching
And make some potraits
Some have persued their dreams
Though without talent
Some things you can just do
As long as you are willing

But search your heart
Listen to your soul
Try some things
And see you fail
Try to love not from the soul
Make your heart to long for Only will your mind deceive you
Will and lust may conquer your flesh
But if your heart is dry, it's dry
Try some things and see you fail
Try to love not from your soul.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Till We Meet

In the land yonder
Where honey and milk flows
Along the golden streets we'll trod
Only if i live right we'll meet

Till we meet
On that tree of life
The fruit thereof we'll enjoy
The blessed waters from that foundain
Which ceaseth not
Not with seasons
But flows, eternally flows

Beyond the bridge
The golden bridge
There we'll meet
When i'm called
We we'll rejoice
When we get there

Till we meet
Till we meet
We'll rejoice
When we meet.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
To My Queen

I am a Romeo
Only if you are a Juliet
I am a King
Only if you are a Queen
As Eve was created for Adam
You was created for me
You are the sun on a stormy day
The only star on a dark night
You are the good sand
On which i have planted the plant of love
I need you my Queen

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
To The Orator

Speeches
When it comes to speaking
Your mouth spit words in abundance sire
Vein words no sound plan
But lies and immature speech
What have you in your bag sire
What do you have for the people
Words or action or just hope for the blind
Preaching change preacher
how will you bring it to life
Greed and excitement or you surely are the living hope
Sire we have had much of the verbal battle
Now we long for deeds
Many may stand with you
But the wise doubt your maturity
The time is yours, let your deeds prove you.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Tom Cat

Oooh You Tom cat
What a beautiful pet
Oh you smile and look great
Even when troubled by that rat

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
We all wish to see a tomorrow
But God made it a mystery

He made it a gift
A gift, a surprise

A surprise is a revelation
The unveiling of the future

Tomorrow is dream
And everyone is a dreamer

It is a true image of yesterday

Tomorrow is a gift
A true sign of survival.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Toothache

Danie, bring me some asprin
And a glass of water darling
Oh my head is gonna blow
Oh boy give me all! !
Jesus, its that tooth again.

Tinashe Mupedzpasi
Untill Victory

Ever busy
Never at ease
Wheels of life are not yet oiled
Its never easy
The burden is so heavy
The bearings of the wheels are heavily soiled Moving on and on
For the truth, I have found Still pressing on
For I'm onward bound
Beyond the great wave is the shore
I will keep on sailing
Sailing till I taste victory

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Vanity Of Vanities

Vanity of vanities
I heard the preacher saying
Vanity of vanities
All is vanity
All is vanity

My mind took me for a ride
A ride from a life present
Back to what they call history
What we all call history
All of it is vanity

I saddled back
To the world present
What i am, what it is
This life so present
All of it, all is vanity

Then to the future
So bright and promising yet so unpredictable
Yet keen to meet it
So its vanity

Vanity of vanities
All is vanities

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Waiting For Our World To Change

We have seen the sun rising and hoped it be another day
But its just yesterday rising from a temporary slumber
The world we live in has no heart for the weak
All that all need is a hope for the great day of change
So we keep on waiting, waiting for the world to change

We have heard, if you grow and learn you will work and live better
The said education is the key to all gates of success
We have learnt, worked hard but still no change to see
Now all we need is a hope for the great day of change
So we keep on waiting, waiting for our world to change

We wish we had the power to change the times
And erase the days of our sorrows even those yet to come
But only God makes a path for things to go on Now we kneel and pray for a hope that we all need
And keep on waiting, waiting for our day to come

I wish one day an art-man would take the throne to rule
And paint for all, a world where no poverty won't be
And seize the power from the corrupt and unearthly man
But without hope no one will rise and the weak will perish
So we keep on waiting, waiting for the world to change.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Waiting For The Rain

Winter is over
We have been through much cold
Let now the sun shine
But there is a cloud heavy in the skies
We are waiting hungrily
Speculations looming the air
Who shall, what will
Have the season brought with it rains?
Will the cloud melt and water the gardens?
Will the skies melt and clear the skies?
Is this the change we have been waiting for?
Or it's just another cloud drifting on the winds.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
War

My mind is weak
It is my greatest strength
A man In a conflicting state
He is not going to fall
Don't be fooled
He Can stand on his toe
He can sleep over a simplest thought
He forget a vexing notion
Burden is of the mind
Pain dwells in the heart
Mine is a fortress
A bailey of rock and steel
A wind freezing blows within A fire blazing burns within
A man in a conflicting state.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Watching Over My Son

Up from a mountain top
There stood a troubled man
Barely shaking, only but by wind
Wonder, what kind of a man so doeth

I am watching over my son says he
I have my heart upon him
I have my arrow on the bow
I am watching over my son

We Keep On Dreaming

Let's leave today to the fullest
For we know not what tomorrow bringeth
Aint this moment the finest
For it's now that we are leaving
Yet we keep on dreaming.

When life is at its best
Seeing the sun setting in the west
All life going to rest
But time keeps on moving
And we keep on dreaming.

When life is at its worst
Seeing it rising in the east
Hoping to make it to dusk
Fearing to know what's coming
But we keep on dreaming.

Weapons Of Mass Destruction

Weapons of mass destruction are not haboured in the amoury of a country somewhere
Weapons of mass destruction are not in the crevices and dungeons of any country
They are not hidden somewhere private
They are not made of metals or atoms
They can't be touched or seen
But can only be felt for they are in peoples' hearts
Its not a bomb that brings malice
But it's malice that causes someone to design a bomb
Envy, grudges, malice and anger
Weapons of mass destruction are in the heart

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
What I Want

Is this what i want?
Being a victim of love
Bathing in tears all day long
Not hoping ever to be strong
Embracing pain everyday
Everyday of my life
Waking everyday to see strife
Pain is now my friend
Sorrow my mate
Is that what i want?
Is that the meaning of love?
Suffering in order to gain
Gaining nothing but pain
If that's the meaning of love
Then love does not exist
That's not what i want
What i want is to be me
Me and love

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
When A Loving Heart Dies

Love stays for long
Love stays forever
It doesn't die
But it can vanish
Leaving the heart dead and empty
Only a taste of unbearable pain
Which no soul can resist

Sometimes love fails
Only to see hate grow strong
To combine pain and jealousy
Only to kill the heart empty
But true love never die
It only fades away
Leaving the heart dead and empty

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Who Knows The Devil

Who painted the image of the devil?
Who saw him walking?
Having horns like a buffalo
A tail with a teethed end

Spitting smoke and fire
Eyes heavily blazing
Muscles like a village smith
Charcoal black, with a Spiked fork.
Wo made such a portrait?
Who saw him flying?

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
Who Knows What

Is fighting a must for survival?
What about the weak?

Is freedom compulsory,
Or it comes at a cost?

Is power for leading,
Or a tool for ruling?

Are there still any rights,
Or they had never been there?

Will someone make things better,
Or this is all for us?

Is there any to answer,
Or more to ask?

Who knows what? ??

Will Keep You In My Soul

In the sky stretching wide
A million stars shining bright
I look for none but the moon

Women

Women are cool and sweet
Why not praise them
Sources of joy
Instruments of leisure
When tired they help you rest
When stressed they help you forget

You And Me

Be it through the fire
I will walk with you
Flood waves rising higher
We will swim through
In the journey and you tire
Yes i will carry you
Battles getting harder
More guns will we fire
You and me brother we will make it through.

Tinashe Mupedzapasi
You, Me

This is the world
It has nothing in it

You hate me
I hate you
We hurt ourselves

You lack love
I lack love
We have malice

We hurt ourselves
We know not
Nature does know
We belong not here
We are pilgrims

We do know
We care not
Life is so short

You gain not
You should not

You soon
Or I soon
Will leave the world

One leaves
One stays
The later will follow

We may meet
May not
Only God knows

So now
Lets live right
And live in love

God bless you
