Fate

When life began, was our fate already written?
When i was young, why was i never bothered?
So thoughtless to even worry about what my fate is
I was blithe about anything that was around me

Now i started learning and thinking about my fate
What has brought me here and where i am going
I just drive along the flow of life, where i know that a fate is waiting for me

I felt in love, I did what ever i could to keep her happy
But i broke my heart when i knew she loved someone
I got miserable, i did everything i could for her
But i know, i my fate was to live without her

I dont know what is my fate for tomorrow
When will i understand life's nature
Where my fate will take me
But i still dream, where i make my own fate
A fate where i know how it ends
A fate where i become happy

God! I Am Broken

I never knew i could be this broken, helplessly broken
I never knew there could be this much silence in me
Oh! God its painful to go on this way
I never knew i could be this broken hearted for loving someone so badly

What kind of feeling is this where my heart does not understand that she is not mine
How can i tell my heart that she belongs to someone already where she has given her heart away
When will this feeling end, and get subsided, Is it madness?
How can i explain my heart that you are not mine.

Why cant i face you yet why am i stuck in you?
I know i am stubborn and can never move on.
Looks like it will never raise again and love the way i love you
I love you but, I dont know why, i have fallen too deep in you
I dont want to cry but tears just roll down, Why am i so helpless?

Why cant i see in someone to fall for her
Why cant i see in someone else what i saw in you,
And become madly in love with her like i am with you
Why do i feel suffocated so much
And why do i feel lonely when everyone is around me.

When will i smile?

I Am Always Here For You

Its been a while i have fallen for you
Its been a while, you think you have the right man with you
I was already in love with you when you chose him
I was standing there beside you when you hold his hand
But its ok, if only, he is your happiness

Just want to tell you, i will always be there for you
If you go weary and need a shoulder to lie on
When you needed someone to cry on
And you find no one to rely on
I will still be standing there for you

May be i cant ease you aching heart neither can i take the pain away
But let me stay, cos i made a promise to myself to be with you
Let me take a walk with you, when you needed a walk
I will listen to you when you talk
I will share the worries that come along your way
And i will help you face your fears

I will hold you till the end

I Have A Dream

Even though you are not going to be with me i already had a dream about you and me together

A dream where i take care of you and we both are happy.

You love him so much, but do you know i die loving you each day.

Do you know that my every heartbeats thinks about you.

I will still love you even if you are not with me.

But it hurts everyday when i see you go

Even if you dont care how i feel, but i just wish you care someday, even if not today.

Time will change so many things between you, but i am afraid i cant stop loving you, please forgive me.

Its funny when i dream about you, till the dream its happy

But when i wake up, i realise i am still going to be alone

I dont have hope for me to be happy cos i know i have asked you more than i should

Wish one day you realise there was a person who love you hopelessly

And waiting for the day, counting each day with a pain in his heart.

Love you always, even if you dont love me.

I Have Been Trying

Hello my love, i have been trying to leave you lately, but it seems its not so easy for me. I have explained myself alot, i prayed alot not to be over sentimental on you, but you know what my dear. It hurts when i see you loving someone hopelessly and madely. I do understand its the heart thing that you cannot control as the same way i can't control myself. i dont know how long will it take me, but i think i might die this way and i am sacred i will die unhappy cos i cant find happiness apart from you. To tell you the truth i have tried to be happy without you but i have failed quite a lot of time, now i have given up tryin to be happy, cos i know it not without you. I see you happy when you take his name but i go burning all alone to ashes. May be i wont get to be with you, but i will always pray that whether you are witout me, you live happy.

I will try to walk away cos its not hard to live this way and no one understands my pain, and i understand them too cos its my pain and my love for you which i have to carry till the end.

Afraid to shead to my tears but it helplessly fall, I wish a lot of things but its always a but.....love you always My Billi

It Rained Today

It rained here today, wish you were here, nothing remains the same anymore.
It reminds me of us together, when in your smile i could see the joy in you.
Its hard to survive without you but i have always remembered what you have said

'its better to take the pain smiling than crying'.

It's harder to let it go than to survive with it, i am glad you are still in me.

It seems i am missing you much more than i should, but i know I shouldn't.

Time is trying its best to heal me, but i am so stubborn.

The day you left, i dont know what's wrong with me, i can't find myself in me.

Your thoughts have never left me alone, wherever i go, and whatever i do, i have never find myself alone.

Time has shown me many things and so many colors and reasons to cherish, but i cant find myself to feel happier.

Just wondering when the sun will shine for me.

I hope you are being taken care of, and i pray that you don't dropp a tear because you are hurt.

I know i cant be happy without you, but i cant negotiate it with your happiness.

I won't complain if i don't have you, but i cant stop loving you, cause i have tried but always failed.

I guess i will remain a suffering soul, and i know it's me to live with it.

I just don't know how to control my heart.

Some people have rightly said, 'there is no love whithout hurt'

Just A Broken Hearted Man

I am not able to move on my love
Because how hard i try, i still know i am madly in love with you
I know i should not be missing you, but i end up missing you more that i think i should.
Never knew i would wake up thinking about you alone.

I know you never loved me, but i dont know why cant i teach myself not to fall for you everyday
I never knew you would be 24*7 inside my head.
I dont know why am i so stubborn to move on Its hard to take this pain everyday and everynight

I wish you could have seen how much i am into you
I wish you could tell me i love you
Its like everyday is a suicide for me loveing you more, when i know that you would be in someone's arm when you needed a shoulder
I want to fight the whole world to be with you if you could only tell me that you love me
Yet I will still stab myself everyday and take the pain just to see you happy with him, if not with me

Solitary Silence

How wonder, i have become so hollow, so empty
I don't know why i miss every single bit of you
I am so tired of being so alone, this solitary moments makes me difficult to breath.
I don't want to desire you, my flesh is tired trying to make myself understand.

I am giving up on myself, cos i can't give up on you
And i am dying, trying not to miss you anymore
I want that one day to come when i wake you i dont long for you
I wanna stop fighting and i am tired of being unhappy.

I don't wanna wake up in the middle of the night thinking about you And just to realise that am all alone, and know that you dont care.
I am tired to creaming our loud trying to resist you, I am giving up on myself.

I how don't even know how to end this words, but i wish i do.
I wish you understand the silence and the depth withing these words.

Its suffocating to live a life without even seing you and not hearing from you.

Why Am I So Broken

Why isnt is getting over.

Why cant i move on
Why do i have to be broken single everyday
Why cant i give up on you
Why everyday is so misserable for me

Its already been a year, why cant i just wipe this pain out
This is not me anymore, i dont know who is inside me
I hate this person inside me, where i cant even smile
When do i know that it is geting over, i am helpless
I am helpless and i dont have a control over myself

I am afraid of what i am becoming
I am scared of tomorrow's morning
I am scared.

People find me discusted
Everyone tells me to move on and i tell them even me i want to move on
But i dont know what am this way, why cant i move on Just want to cut it all so that i stop thinking about you,
So that the heart stops for you.

Just cant understand whats happening

Wish You Listen To The Song I Sing

There ain't a day i won't sing for you
There ain't a day my heart don't don't get sentimental for you
There ain't a moment i don't expect you
Its suffocating but you are the source of my breath.

I wonder how you push me away, how you look down on me.
I never meant to take you away from anyone without your consent
I wanted to be a part of your world, though i know i am not
I only imagine to be around you, even though you don't care for me.

How long can i deceive heart that you care
How long can i be stubborn to understand that you dont belong to me
You say i should grow up, and not be a stuck up.
But i wonder when will you understand this is a feeling of love not achievement,
Not to achieve you, but simply to love you
