I Wish

I wish that I have a couple of days left

I would have done my best

I WISH

I wish that I had another chance to demonstrate my gratitude for all that you have done great

I WISH

I wish that I knew how to greet

I would have given you my greatest

I WISH

I wish the opportunity that I had yesterday; I could again have it

I would have done more than what you expect

I WISH

I wish that I was less rational throughout our argument

I would have not turnout to be against it

I WISH

I wish that I was knowledgeable enough to empathize with the way you felt

I would have changed, to be honest

Now, I realize there isn't any one who deserves my desires more than you do.

Therefore,

I should have given all to you.
