Broken Heart

you broke my heart and played the part you said you loved me but now i see you dont anymore i dont know wat i care for just remember how i acted it is because you made me this way but i still love you everyday until i die i will never know why i loved you so much and i will always be missin ur touch

Jaelyn Fields

God

who is this mystery person who always watches over me the only person who can judge thee the one person that truly love me thy is the only one who helps me see thy moves the clouds so i can see clearly thank you G.O.D.

Life

this is sumthin we all have to deal with even tho none of us want to but have you ever thought someone gave you life and it was for a good reason GOD wanted your parents to have you so he is gana plan our lives and take care of us no matter what he will love and care for us so be thankful that he gave us life because he can take it form us just as fast

Love

love is like a mountain love is like the sea i cant help but wonder what love is instore for me i think about it night n day wondering why i feel this way i asking myself what am i doing someone please tell me is love Misconstruing maybe one day ill find it or maybe just maybe ill be lucky enogh for it to find me

Love/Pain

the difference between love and pain love is great pain just aint the same love is more dedication pain is frustration

My Love

my love for you is hard my love for you is strong and when im with you nothing will go wrong an to you i dedicated my song i hope this love will be long and i knw it will we both knw its the real deal if its for you ill die or kill and im for real no one can take it away and this is wat i say i will love you everyday i love every word you say i want to be with you every second of everyday

People

you know i been holding on people are trying to make me weak but i still stay strong they always look at me like im doing somthin wrong
