In Love!

as i'm walking down the street, i feel the cold wind blowing in my face and i see snow blocking my view of you, more and more i try to see. the snow slows down but i see blank i'm wondering where i am, i walk further down the street, i take one more step that was a mistake, i fall through a hole and i keep falling and falling until i hit the ground, it ends up being a giant heart. i look up and see strange colors and hearts flying everywhere, i wonder "where is this place? " until an illusion of you shines in front of me. you come walking towards me, i ask "where am i? " you say "your in love."

You Could Be My Bonnie

You could be my Bonnie,
and i could be your Clyde.
we stick together all are our lives
by each other side.
Robbing banks,
and stealing cars,
escaping cops down the boulevard.
We go to jail one month,
escape the next,
and do this all over again
until we need a rest.
So baby come with me
and I'll show you how it is to be the girl of the number on public enemy

You Messed Up My Life

you messed up my life,
i wanted you to be my future wife.
i wanted to be you knight.
i wanted to take you in the night and day.
so we can go to the bay and watch the waves sway in its own way.
i wanted to wake up everyday to see your pretty face.
i wanted to protect you in all the ways i can.
but it is to late i have already went my way.
now i want to cry because you messed up my life.

Your Beautiful

You are beautiful.

Beautiful from my point of view

You are so beautiful I will stop a bullet for you

You're so beautiful that I will die to have a girl like you

You are beautiful by the way you walk

You are beautiful by the way you talk

You are really beautiful when you smile

You are beautiful

Your Eyes

when when i look into those eyes i see your life it makes me want to cry on how i might never be in your life. it makes happy that i was in your life, always making you laugh when your sad. when i die and when your sad think of me, and dont give up on life

Your Eyes Pt.2

when i see your eyes, i see us fly high into the sky.

when i see your eyes, they remind me of beautiful butterflies.

when i see your eyes, i sigh with a why.

when i see your eyes, i feel alive.

those eyes, those beautiful eyes, will be in my mind till the day i die.

James Hernandez

Your Eyes Pt.3

when i look up, and i see that beautiful shinning star, in that beautiful night sky, it reminds me of your beautiful shinning eyes.
