A Letter To My Lover

Your with me, you haunt me
Your in my every dream
I see you, I hear you
You mean everything to me

I love you, I swear it There's no where I'd rather be Than here with you by my side
This is how things are meant to be

I'm not perfect, I'm not wonderful
But I hope I'm enough
To love you and keep you
You're forever in my heart

Alone

I'm all alone with my own thoughts for company
Trying to ignore the fact that you just left me
I'm on the outside looking in, into a broken heart
And now we've reached our end and I'm wondering where did it start

I never saw it coming heartache hit me like a train
No escape from unanswered questions, drivin' me insane
I thought it was going great and you were in love with me
But I guess I was the only one and this is a taste of reality

Was I to kind, to strong, to in love to see That you were lying all along and only using me
Did I hold on when all I should have done was let go
But now you're gone and I guess ill never know

You had me strung along like your little puppet
And since you were holding the strings I was lovin' it I gave everything and had a few things I had to find
And you took it all and left me broken behind

In my head are those words, on repeat, that changed it all
And I'm waiting for an apology from the girl who wont call
I'm going over it, wonderin' how it got from Us to Me
I wish I could just wake up and find things how they used to be

It's so much harder to breath without you by my side
But the constant pain shows me; somehow, I'm still alive
I've been with you for so long I've never known
How to be without you and just be on my own

How Could You?

I never thought things would be this way
Heartache rushing through my veins
You left me now there's nothing to say
But I hope you have a nice day
Goodbye, farewell, I wont see you this summer
Of all the things you chose to believe
You had enough changes, get out of my life; Please leave I'm sick of hearing your voice; it's sad how you're not my friend
After all we've been through you think you'd want to be
I should have seen it coming
With it happening all around me
How could I be so dumb?
Surprised by this thought of being on my own?
Yeah, nothing will ever be the same
All this silence is wrecking my brain
But I'll pull through it and I'll stand strong alone

I

I am tall, I am small -er than you think
I am light, I am dark
-ening my eyes, looking into your soul

It's Over

I could tell she was getting bored
Didn't treat her all that good Didn't do everything I should Never said everything I could
Not a day that passes by
I don't miss her in my life
It's over; Move on I'm sober; She's gone
It's time to forget
My last regret
I could tell she was getting bored
I can hear it in her voice
I know that it is her choice
I can tell I'm not gunna rejoice
Not a day that passes by
I'm not going to live my life

Just Wishing

I stood there all alone
Looking into the night sky
Wishing I had some one to spend life with Hoping it could be you and I

Knowing you could never love me again
I never wanted to be just friends
You asked and asked and still I denied Everything you said was a lie!

As time goes by, people change
Nothing ever stays the same Friends come and go and life moves on But baby my love for you is unwaverin'

So there I stood all alone
Looking into the night sky
Looking, searching for someone to hold on to And hoping, just hoping, it could be YOU and I

Love

The sun rises as the moon goes away
The sky brightens as the night rolls away
You are the reason I get up in the morning
The whole reason for my day
I know things may seem wrong
When you're falling away
Just know I'll stay strong
Strong for our love
Please stay with me for a little while
As the day fades away to gray
I know I can count on your smile
To make me happy all over again
There is nothing in this world that could take me away
Just as long as you will stay
I'll make it through another day

Onward

Joe was small, weak
It was getting harder
Harder to stay in the air
But still Joe flew onward

the pain, war, everywhere men, falling, a bloody sky no ones left but him still, but still Joe flew onward

The wind, nice wind
Brushing against his face
His wings, red, flowing Still, still, Joe flew onward captured, tortured, beaten falling, failing at the mission the wings, red, flowing joe, alone, must still fly onward

James Woodleaf

Right Now

You tempt me and you haunt me
I know I'm not alone
And I know I'm not free
We belong together

Sitting here thinking about you
Why did I ever agree
I don't know if you feel this too
Are we meant to be

I can't tell what's right or wrong
Does any one know where to go I'm so lost here on my own please come and help me

Can you here me
Is anyone out there
Can you feel this Because I'm feeling you right now

Holding on to you
Right now and forever
I don't know what to do
With someone like you

James Woodleaf

Why Do I Keep Going Back?

Hiding, Falling, No where to run
Right here, Right now
What is there to say Nothing is new under the sun

Coming after you, theres no one here
Trying hard to live in sin
You lead me away from where I need to be Stabbing my back, You're taking over me

I'm not doing this anymore
Those words ring through my mind
But every time you come around
I'm always jumping inside

This will be different, this will be good
She has changed, this is all new
I know what she did to me before
She has changed, this is all new

Calling out to you, in this lonely wilderness Life is but the coal, nothing more
I need the fire in my life, that is you
To keep the steem coming, and keep me going

James Woodleaf

Why Me?

Who are you and where did you come from?
You know me better than I do
And I've never even seen you How could this be, have I lost my mind?
You ask, you ask, you ask; but why?
You say you love me but how can that be true?
When we've just met and I still don't know you
I guess I'll try it out for now, but in the end
I know it will all be wrong and we wont be again
I new it would end this way me all alone, you with another man
I never will again like this day
April 11 just wont be the same Without you here by my side
I don't think I can move on with my life

James Woodleaf

Why Police Fun?

to see joy, to see Peace love, hate why hate the ones who Love why Police a couple Of people just trying to have fun no one wants overly aggressive laws from the midnight Sun
