Jami Duke(9-6-1981)

I love writing poetry. I use it to express myself because I am better at writing them down on paper instead of telling someone.

'Bring Me My All'

Lord, can you hear me;
I'm calling out to you.
I'm in desperate need for help
For I'm a lost soul, can't you see?
I'm a loving mother of four
That was my whole life
But then they were taken
Away from me so quickly
Oh why did this happen
I don't get it at all.
They were my whole life
My happiness, my all.
I cared for them each day
And loved them with all my heart.
Lord, have I done something
That has caused this to happen?
Please help me, dear Lord
For I can't take no more
All this pain and this anguish
That's deep within my heart.
Won't you please bring back
My sweet little ones back to me?
Bring back my happiness,
My all, my everything.

My Gentle Heart Is Yours

How do I tell you
That you are the one,
The only one for me?
And also let me tell you
You're the one that has my heart
So please don't give it back to me
Please just hold on to it tight
For it wants only you.
It craves your warm embraces
And all those oh so gentle kisses
You place upon my lips
It even craves your gently caresses
All down my slender body
It craves to hear the words you speak
So lovingly with those eyes of yours
They speak of all your compassion
And even your burning passions
You hold deep down for me
I wish for you to just hold on
Hold on to everything
Hold on tight so it might
Not slip away and go
For it it slips away and goes
My heart will be in misery
Because you're the only one
The only one I'll always want
The one I'll always crave
The one I'll always love
So deep and unconditionally.

These Sweet Words I Write To You

What do you think
Of all the sweet
Lines of poetry
I write each night
To show you
Just how much
You truly mean to me
And that I so sincerely
Love you unconditionally
I swear, I only want
To show you everyday
That my love grows
More and more everyday.

To Make A Wish Upon You

Each night when I look up
Into the sky above me
My mind goes blank
And slowly starts to wander
On how you came about
To hang way high above
There are so many of you
Up in the vast, dark sky
Each one of you so tiny
But strickengly bright
You come out at night
For people like me
To gaze upon your beauty
Oh how truly amaze me
As you hang and twinkle softly
And then, right there
How very neat that was
It looked like one of you
Were falling right out of the sky
I heard way back
Just once before
That you were called a wishing star
All I have to do is close my eyes real tight
And think real hard and wish
And then go on my wat
To see what my then come
With the wish i wished tonight.
How truly you are amazing
And what a site to see
I'm so glad that you some out
Each night to hang above me.

Untitled

As I stare into the sky tonight
I suddenly freeze in a deep trance
Oh how so simply wonderful
You look up there tonight
So round and so big
And oh so bright too
You hang up there tonight
Casting your glow
On us down below
Each night as we start to dream
Oh how amazing it is to see
You shining up there so bright
I'm under this deep trance
Lost in all your beauty.
