Goodbye

Living in darkness
Wishing it was light
Throughout my life
My heart is filled with fright
Never will I love again
Never will I cry
I wish that I could just lay down and die
For one night I wish that all this would end
Through darkness and death
My one chance at life is not in the mist
I try not to run
But all I do is hide
My life have no use
I will never have a purpose
When I see you I live
When I turn around I die
With one last breathe all I say is goodbye

Life Goes On

When right goes wrong
Good turns bad
You're the only one
That ends up sad
You have regrets
Lies fill your mind
People go unforgiven
Makes you want to Breakdown and cry
Always forgive but never forget
Learn from mistakes
But never regret
Love what you got Forget what you had
Take the good with the bad
People change
Things go wrong
Just remember life goes on

My Mother Taught Me

My mother taught me how to live
She gave me more than I could give
When I told her couldn't do it
She told me don't give up you'll get through it
When times had gotten really bad
My mother had gotten really sad
And all of a sudden she got sick
The doctor said there wasn't time
And now I sit outside our house and hear the chime
Of ringing bells, I look up with a tear in my eye
Now all I do is wonder why did this happen
Please tell me why

Perfect

I think about my life
As the way some people see it
So perfect
Perfect family
Perfect friends
Perfect boyfriend
Perfect everything
If they really understood my life
They would know that
It's not perfect at all
Broken family
Few friends
No boyfriend
Very little money
Nothing special
My so called perfect life
Just turned out to be a perfect disaster

Suicide

Razors, blades
Screamingpains
Living a life in a world never ending
I wish it would stop
Go back and start over
This is the end
No more pain
No more horror
The time I spent thinking
Was a waste
Trying to find what
The world leaves behind
One lie
One mistake
Could end your liferight there
Til the end with a kiss
One small slit on my wrist
No more pain
No more crys
nothing of you left behind
You will soon be forgotten
No one will shed a tear
Took away all their fears
Just to think some one cares
And that your one last mistake
Was a permanent to solution to something that could have been solved

Untitled

Death and despare
But no one will care
They point and laugh
Not seeing the sign
That soon you'll be no more
My arms covered with scars
Thinking about why I don't need to be here anymore
A blade on my wrist
Guiding it across your vein
I close my eyes
And the skin breaks blood begins to drip
I fall to the floor
I bleed and I bleed
Til I can't anymore
I take onelast breathe
remember that your my perfect suicide
Then I breathe no more
