

Poetry Series

jane kendall
- poems -

Publication Date:
2010

Publisher:
Poemhunter.com - The World's Poetry Archive

jane kendall(28\10\1997)

I started writing these poems because my little sister Karsha died on the night of mothers 9th of May. How hard it was for mum. I've been writing poems ever since. Obviously about her and that is why i write poems

Thank You

Coke

The sweetest and fizziest drink has to be coke Coke oh coke was my sisters favourite drink all she would ask for is coke, coke and more coke everyone says it stunts your growth but she never thought of that She thought of what it taste like, yum yum she always said so always got it for her,
she loved coke yummy yummy coke KARSHA WAS HER NAME!

jane kendall

Karsha

Karsha Oh Karsha
Our Little Sweet Pea
Was Born in November 2003
Curly Hair She Wears On Head
I Like To See Her Sleeping In Bed
Every Time She Sees Me
She Says I Love You
She likes To Hear The Cow Go Moo
I Love Karsha
She Is As Cute As A Duckling
Good Bye Karsha!

jane kendall

Love To Death

Love to death it has made my heart break so i will let you rest in peace and we know your always gonna be our girl so from love to death is also a time of sadness and hearts breaking, your our little sweet pea and jane and matty so much that you are in our hearts

FROM LOVE TO DEATH

jane kendall