Love

I want to say you something...
But i stay with nothing;
You was the one who gave this height...
Also you are the one who always stand last;
I don't want you to stand aside...
I want you to stay beside me;
Even if you hate me later
I'll show my love towards you enhance Stay cool, stay happy-But Forever i want you to stay with me...

My Dear Mother...

She is the one who carries us
before the earth carries us;
She is the one who cries for us
before we cry for us;
She is the one who think about us
before we think about us;
She is the one who teach us
before the teacher teach us;
She is the one who suffer for us to make us comfortable than her;
She is the one who leads us
in the race of life;
She is the onewho coach us
to make us to win the race of life.
