Believe In Your Tomorrow

own it, do not share take your heart to the limit you know that you care

that may not ever come you are the spirit you're seeking you are the only one who can believe in God who can believe in good who can believe in love and hope whoever thought you would?

believe in yourself
beyond the average truth make other's problems charity and you the stronger sleuth give those around you trust be a witness to your strength believe with all your heart and know your are not spent when others seem to care and give you nothing back take on yourself in a dare and never do look back

make this difference for yourself and see tomorrow's sun
