jeffrey boyd(12-19-1990)

Hi everybody my name is Jeffrey I'm 17 yrs old and i live in elgin, TX. i was born in houston, TX and moved around all my life 1st from houston to bastrop then back to houston then all around houston then back to bastrop and then to houston then back to bastrop then here to elgin and now probably to round rock, TX. I dont really have any hobbies so thats is all for now.

A Life So Feeble And Sombered

Let my calloused heart be so favorable spared Its old, coarsed and feeble like a weary mongrel Its laid to rest but let his tale be truthfully told as slow and sombered
as a song or a mighty and blightful warriors hold
a life so feeble and sombered distilled the crisp death a man so sorrowfully grieves for the one he selflessly loves his weathered eyes shall see Foretold! it to be at last i ask
do you love me?

A Lonely Man's Prayer

Where shall i wonder in ten years?
will i still be lonely?
Grow old and weary
Old and weep
Nobody lays beside me as i sleep
When im old
i dont wana die in depression's deep Im a lonely man
this is...
a lonely man's prayer.

A Poem To My Girlfriend: Heather

To heather
Since I 1st talked to you I knew everything was right You left me with butterflies in my stomach as I laid my head down each and every night

You need me when I need you the most Your beauty is that greater than a dove Each and every day i fight my demons with my strongest weapon; your love

When I gaze into your sparkly emerald eyes I know I unlocked a heart of gold
The only heart I seek to have and to hold We're never what you call normal The weirdest, in fact, in sight but every night I lay next to you I know everything's right

You're my guide when I'm lost You're my soft place to land when I fall I love you and prove anything that nothing's worth the cost When chaos is swarming all around me I see love kindness and peace in your eyes is all

To heather
My sweet daring love I knew through all the stars above we can pave a golden road of love break all the chains of life and be free Heather Marie Jones will you... marry me? ?

A Prisoner's Tale

Its dark and about 3: 00am everything is quiet, hours past about 6: 00 or 7: 00 in the morning the sun's rays invade the lifeless, slumbered cell, & with the dew's soft whispering alarms, so is the echoing cursed-enchanted screams flooding through the cell unit, the whole penitentiary the walls paint a picture of violence, pain, anger, fear, shame, and false accusations
this is a prisoner's tale I've seen it all 'in the eyes in the inmates I've heard it all in the echoing halls I'm a prisoner and this is a prisoner's tale

A Warrior's Story

Let fester
Where I lay
Let me
Embrace night or day Walk through the sun and shade
Live life with a warrior's sane & die by the blade Crimson blankets cover my fallen dear
this is queer
in another time and place We'd drank a few mugs being gay in each others company and unwind
but us fighting
is shrewd insanity
Why?
cant we find calamity

jeffrey boyd

An Angel's Deadly Kiss

tastes so sweet...

An angel's deadly kiss is like a satanic's oasis her lips has peace and sorrow embedded on the skin

An angel's deadly kiss
Is so cold, yet is a congenial sin In the wake of her pursuit She seduces her feeble pray dies as it begins

her voice is soothing as a song
Her skin smooth as a velvet silk Her words chimed in perfect harmony telling you where your soul belong

Her eyes danced
special and true

An angel's deadly kiss

Baby U Live In The Fire Of My Heart

i don't know how u do it but your burning touch turns me on how our love and emotion toys and dances with each other like a flickering candle. baby you live in the fire of my heart the everlasting rage scorches my soul with embers of you

u touch me like no one else u bring the best out of me how do u do it?
that's even a mystery to me like the sparks that lit out wildfire love ablaze

Between 2 Lines

Lies life or death
between 2 lines
enable grief or happiness
between 2 lines
is where i take my last breath
between 2 lines
I was at my peak
between 2 lines
I was strong
Between 2 lines
I became weak
Between 2 lines
My blood rained from my flesh
Between 2 lines
I felt pain
Between 2 lines
I thought i was through
Between 2 lines
All I needed was you

Born With Dignity

die in pain
love forever
live in vein
die in shame
i feel alone
because my mom
says im the one to blame born in dignity
die a lonely reign
you go on living your life while i'm never the same

jeffrey boyd

Clear Minds

My freinds, lovers, family i speak to all!

lets not fight or we shall fall.

listen with your hearts and not your ears!

they cant claim our souls, just our tears.

let their bloody blades be thrusted into out blasted chests!

with our clear minds they'd see, that we dont have to fight to be free!

I love my people to lay my life down!

Become one with the ground.

Maybe people will learn from my pain & drink the gratitude from my past

We all have clear minds whether we use them or not

jeffrey boyd

Fire

Embers of life Cradle feverishly on the barren earth gazing up endlessly at the torn night sky

Wind of passion Ignites their fury of hope From the smoldered years of sulked depression day by day a new light dances, flickers and burns

Slowly being kissed, these embers with life til the day they rage and crackle with happiness and freedom once again
into the beautiful fire they once were
They were known to be The fire they will become Fire
J.V. Boyd

Help Me Here Help Me Now

take my heart
take my hand
hold me
help me understand
make me free & away from depression's pull Thee said the world's beautiful Show me how lets swallow our wholesome experiences full
May our mornings shalt never be dull Every breath we take i pray be crisp
Sleep long by a milky bay Help me here
Help me now

jeffrey boyd

Hoping It Would Never End

you stole my heart across the room i knew what i wanted i had to make a move all night the idea was taunting everything about you was enticing your glowing warmth your twinkling beaming playful eyes your rich chiming soothing voice i slipped out a shy and playful grin as you floated closer to me time stood still it felt like it would never end the emotions were mutual then... you kissed me your lips velvety soft you discarded me in a trance i felt like i was on cloud nine

jeffrey boyd

How Can You Love Me?

I push you away
i hell you to leave Yet you wish to stay
How can you love me?
My emotions flee erratically from my body out of my mouth the things i say Hurt you, yet you know i dont mean them I run and hide
i scream and cry
How can you love me?
I love the blood and you love me I struggle with every essence of life, but you are where i find peace.
how can you love me?
J.V. Boyd

jeffrey boyd

I Can See It In Your Eyes

You know you are thinking of me When are you gonna take me and make me yours
You know you can't hide your emotions Your lust
Your temptation
Everything you want Everything you need Everything you are
And everything you can be.
You know I see it
I can sense it
More and more

Every time I touch you Your body grows numb and you think of nothing else than me You know you want me Let our emotions drown each other
You know I see it
And you know I want you
I can see it in your eyes

jeffrey boyd

I Feel... I Know... I Been There

I feel the taste of reality's slumbered kiss my imprisoned-caged mind drowns out the chaos around me Everyone leaves me behind what bliss!
Let me sit here and die Let me bleed
Let me cry
Let me be free

I know how it feels to have fate slap you in the face See its cold-wretched hands squeezing around you chasing close on your heels sucking the feeble life out of you til you shrivel up and turn blue

I been there your not alone
don't be afraid
Your not on your own

jeffrey boyd

I Know You Want Me

You want me anywhere you can find me At the lake
In the park Around town
You grow weak don't you?
Because you know you want me Where do you wana take me?
You breathe my name
As if you are aching for every part of me In you
Around you Holding you
Kissing you Taking you
Wanting you
I know you want me

jeffrey boyd

I Love You

I love you
Don't forget
I love you
That's just it
I cant help it
I cant stop
Don't you see
The passion in my eyes
I love you Cant hear it in Ringing in my jubliant voice Whispering your name?
I love you
You might not hear me Say very many things
But I love you

jeffrey boyd

I Wana Die

die and get it done with
I want to bury myself and never come back
so just put my memory and misery
on a shelf
just because I wana die.

jeffrey boyd

I Want To Die

whats the use of living when all you feel like is dying how can you feel happy when youre crying deep inside

I feel so alone without you so i lay my last painful tear filled night in bed scream after scream erupt from my throat cut after cut explode onto my skin dropp after dropp of blood falls to the floor
all i want to do is die i dont want to live anymore i just want to take a moment & say good-bye
i want to die

jeffrey boyd

I Wish You Were Here

Babe I wish you were here to hold me in your arms make everything feel right
Give me comfort
Give me support Love me forever
because i know that task is no easy effort Babe the only thing i ask is i wish you were here.
Angellica, I love you
I wish you were here

jeffrey boyd

If Only

if only you knew how much i cry how much i wander lost without u ur love
if only u knew how much i regret hurting u
if only u could feel my heart caving in closer to death
if only u knew how close i am to dying sandy if only u knew what is wrong with me what disease
if only u loved me

jeffrey boyd

I'M At The End Of My Reign

I gave it everything i had I tried to go out right but who really knows what that is anyways I've kept everything boiled up inside so much i wanted to say a lot of things i needed to do somethings i had to do for myself other things for you because i want to see happiness dance in your eyes or hear the joy ring in your voice everything is corrupted and ordinary but not you you're beautiful and pure but when you dont talk to me i feel all the pain i've felt in my whole world but then again
I'm at the end of my reign

jeffrey boyd

Im Dying

Every second wasted away I feel like there's no more hope
life isnt mine no more I can smell death searching for me His wings are broked and stoned black Im dying
Hes coming for us
Hi doesnt discriminate He'll take all of us
'die! Die! I'll gladly take you! he taunts and howls.
I grow cold Tim turning blue death is feasting from the gorges of my sould Im dying and shall never return
J.V. Boyd

jeffrey boyd

I'M Here

I'm here, standing strong

I almost died twice

4 and 6

I was broken now im fixed

I'm here, surviving on the stength of my family and friends there for me til the end

I'm here, to everyone that reads this will you be my friend

jeffrey boyd

Im Lost

in this cold-hearted world feeling alone is the only thing i know time trudges on agonizing and slow

in the ways of life i cant tell what wrong or whats right i wish i could quit just let it all go

Im lost
& wish to be set free boundless wonders
i shall let be why cant i appreciate the things that make me; me

jeffrey boyd

Im Over You

hello! who are you?
sorry, last night i forgot about you the bottle hit me a little hard why are you following me around the next woman is better than you she gives me what i want... why are you crying?

you said we were through
your all alone
and i got the booze ha! i win
you lose

jeffrey boyd

I've Thrown My Life Away

What does this life
have to do with me?
What does this life
Have to do with thee?
What has become of us?
Are we barbaric?
What is love?
what is trust?
All these questions are just about to make my head bust!
let my feelings awake
all my sins
fallen like flies
from the shame
casted and shunned
my eyes will never meet the twinkle of fame
I've thrown my life away.

Just Believe It

I stand just inches away from you but i feel like i am half way around the world from you and i can't get any closer to you @ that moment i run my hand through your hair In life i've battled through obstacles and huurls but i dont care i will tell you til my face is blue i'll fight anything for you, i'm sorry i thought you knew even if the pain is too much to bare i've been with a lot of gurls but none of them compare to you if you ever doubt how much i love you let me tell you this i wont promise i will love you for the rest of your life but i can love you for the rest of mine & i can promise i will try to make you happy to the best of my abilities Angellica, i love you more than life itself. believe me i'll love you until time stands still. just believe it.

Life And Death

I'm running out of time death is in front of me life is behind
the poisoned filled tears flood my pain infested eyes
im in this grave
my last achievement
my last road paved no more good byes
no more cries
life and death

jeffrey boyd

Life Is Cruel

from time to time
But none the less its a sanctuary Its passages holds many crimes All life is fuel and permission to walk blind With all its gruesome mysteries life is beautiful
even with its dark history

jeffrey boyd

Lost In You

Lost in deep thoughts of you
I sit here smiling of you I cant stop
dont know why
with out you i want to die

can you see what you do to me
you make me cry
make me bleed im lost in you...
lost in you.

jeffrey boyd

More Than Me

She says she loves me but i know she breathes ill of me behind my back after 18 years after trying to kill me trying to break me
tear my heart and tears out of my soul
like blood out of my heart mom, why? what did i do to you?
why lie?
why hurt your own son
your own blood
the other half of a mistaken and hazed relationship everything you have you want more need more everything you have you love more than me.
am i really that bad?
after i tried to love you fight for you
why did you abuse me?
why did you neglect me
why did you hate me?
was i really that bad of a son?
how can you hurt me so ruthlessly?
no remorse?
its like im a disease
you wanted to stomp out.
but guess what!
you made that choice to sleep with Chris you made the mistake of keeping me to stay jealous that my dad loved me more that he spend more time on his own son.
I'm his blood always and forever will be at least he loves me unconditionally.
he doesn't love you more than me.

My Beautiful Love, Wind (Haiku Sequel)

across the adolescent spring the wind blankets the lands back and forward

cautiously strolling along hand in hand
forever's worth of peaceful wits time the wind graces you with her long silky kiss Let comfort be subtle

Be subtle, comfort
such a reward that my dearest deserves my love, thy love, wind have no fear of thee thy love tis all i need my wind so crisp destiny bring me forward all your good fortune and will my beautiful love, wind

jeffrey boyd

My Crimsom

Shivers like a snake swimming though my veins like a river

red like a ruby dark like a cave Black as night Crashes onto my skin like rcoks being pumbled by the waves

Explodes onto my skin cut after cut my life comes to an end
A plague of darkness showers my body letting the blackness streak down my scars

My crimsom

jeffrey boyd

My Demise

I say no more for i am mute
My spirit is torn apart My heart broken and bruised My pain makes my ambition sore

My demise
I look at my life
I scream
How can a woman deeply touch my heart BUt this life has trampled me it seemed this woman is my wife

is coming for me Far and near Chasing me so fast
I feel no fear death let me be

My demise

jeffrey boyd

My Disire

Really, i dont know what my disire is I've got almost everything a girlfriend that has a velvet kiss of an angel and love hotter than hell thats my disire
then two brothers
that thinks im a god they need all the love and protection i can give them
so i dont know my disire (dedicated to my baby brothers: Ricky Jr. & Arron and the most beautiful, pure, sweetest, deepest love i know. Angellica i love you baby! ! ! !)

jeffrey boyd

My Spirit

Rises and dances like a fire smolders under the wind's depression deflating to a tiny flicker So small it couldn't scorch a leaf, but play with the leaf

Shimmers and hums
like a jubilant moon dancing daintly across the creamy silky sky

My spirit...
Dear spirit how can we fix the broken harmony in which we sing My spirit. My love come back to me
Talk to me whisper sweetly in my ear

jeffrey boyd

Secrets Of Passion

Shivers and cries
Secrets of passion
Kisses you and lies
Secrets of passion
Floats you even higher
Secrets of passion
Crashes you into a pit o' fire
Secrets of passion
You feel deffered
Secrets of passion
Please...

Just die in vain.

She Left Me (Alibi)

She left me
Broken and discarded Tore my world apart Numb and cold-hearted
Let me cry alone Lost and bombarded Stomped and trampled I've made my way past hell's drunken gates

and never coming back save your breath
I know its a fact

She never cared or she would've stayed so drunk and high
she made me
turned this way
to night
I learned how to fly high in the sky
with her heartbreak as my alibi

jeffrey boyd

Sitting Here Thinking

Walking through my barren wasteland of life My feet cracked and bloody like my heart Each time I'm alone i die a little bit every time Just sitting here thinking why am i alive

jeffrey boyd

Spirits Fade

Spirits fade like eroded statues history leaving all evidence destroyed but the names will taunt new minds to come and haunt this earth forever because the past is key to destiny today moves so fast so make a move now before its too late spirits fade, but their names are whispered forever

jeffrey boyd

Terror And Hell

i sit here and dwell
at their feet
i fell mourning endlessly for the things outside my control
has in my life
a strong hold
awaits and sees how much crimson
from my arms i bleed
takes flight
on my solemn blight
what an ugly sight
terror and hell

jeffrey boyd

The Cage That Imprisoned My Soul

Cold and pale steel depressing my spirit

The cage that imprisoned my soul
I feel isolated from my skin I can't feel the freedom of my own thoughts, and actions

The cage that imprisoned my soul Nothing I know I can relate to so let me die in this savage hypocrisy these morons call life

The cage that imprisoned my soul
J.V. Boyd

jeffrey boyd

Those Mysterious Eyes

I've slumbered heavily through life Til' the day I slained my gaze in your direction Into those mysterious eyes The intisement... Perfection
The only one in the room that can be picky make your own selections Your fiery soul blaze your patience and attitude bloom It stole me out of this party, and hetic haze just by
those mysterious eyes

jeffrey boyd

Twisted Souls

covered in pain-engraved festers devoured in darkness Eroded away from maked-hatred Past falls from your eyes like blood, ruby danced, tears your eyes stare endlessly emotionally Your pity falls on the audacious losers that schreech and howl in pity forever in the lonesome boxes live in Twisted souls
Blind to the embezled pride of the pain-strickened survivors of the lost they so feasibly endured twisted souls.

jeffrey boyd

Vexed Into The Abyss

Peering vexed into the abyss my sanity illustrating ticks in my brain every step I take feels like I take in vain hallowed souls' hallucinations paint me estranged calloused spirit pressed against the ragged breath fueling chaotic oxygen to the fiery beast within people cringe in fear and attempt to condemn all the while wasting away trying to forget about their own sin the sin masked by their own righteous they pretend the incoherent ability of hatred for his putrid existence through violence and ignorance sowed his twisted presence so quick to reveal his wicked nature ever so perplexed the black fire rage christened in animosity and that looking back was his thoughts so wrong for what he seen?

What's This Life For

What's this life for can you tell me that Or how com it throws you away like trash It doesnt remember you when your bones turns to ash Or when your crimsom flows out to the sea

to ach and hurt; to feel pain all of your living and miserable days

tell me whats this life for.

Who Knew

the pain that's embordered in my soul laced with my heart

Who would've thought me dying slowly inside my own shell
here to die
above everything i feel i cry
i cant heel there's no way out trading souls is the only deal who knew, who would've thought this is the only way i see things the only way i seal my deals i feel distraught

who knew that i had a love stronger than life itself that love is my fiance angellica i love you babe that is the real deal thats how i feel but... you see... who knew... who knew... but... me

jeffrey boyd

Why

after all this time you want to leave

why
after all the sweat, blood, and tears you say you've had enough wanting to break all ties with me the pain too much to bare

why
why hurt me when you know it unleashes a gruesome demon inside bringing me to the brink of obstruction for the last time

do you want me dead
if so why you said how you've always love me
why

why
please just tell me why

jeffrey boyd

You Show Me More

twilight fades from your eyes, Animosity grows with every breath.
With your unmerciful words, Hurling through my ears.

Makes me cry in sorrow tragedy
The fire in your belly vibrates through the room forever pain
you seek in me
to die in vain

Through stupidity and drunken escapade we meet Shamed of what we done, By dawn's light we scream

But our curiosity drives us farther than a one night stand, by the weeks our lust craves more than lust craves itself you wanted me and I wanted thee You hated me and I hated thee
The seed of love sprouted throughout the chaos It revealed a greater meaning than before

Loving you more than all the sluts and whores Heather I love you more than life itself You show me more than I ever felt
