Jonathan Pendley(03/12/1984)

I wrote most of my poems after my split up with my ex-wife, I write mostly in the hard times in my life and about the hard times in my life. If I write about it I went through it.

I am 27 live in Albuquerque, NM. I started writing back in high school just never published them anywhere and would like to but cannot find those poems. I write every now and then and as I write I put them up here.

I believe poems are a good way to express feelings, and I don't stick to the 'traditional' way of writing as one may call it.

I believe poems are an expression of how one feels and how they should be written as such, I do have a style of writing that I like to keep standard on all of my poems but some poems just can't be written like other ones. Hope you like my poems please leave comments as to what you think. And if you haven't my e-book.

Danielle

Why did our relationship have to end?
Why couldn't we just go on and be happy?
Why couldn't we just get along?
Why did I have to mess up?

I love you so much, but all I showed was not
My actions spoke, and now I have lost you
I feel like a man that is 10 inches tall
I feel like a screw up.

My feelings for you will never die
My love for you will never die
Danielle you were the one for me
You were the love of my life and no one can replace that
Some people may try, but will not succeed
For someone cannot love without a heart

You have my heart and you always will
You have my soul and you always will
You are by far the best person I have met
And for that I have no regret.

I know I will remember the good times and the bad
But I know the good times will always be there.
You are the girl of my dreams
I just wish I was the man in yours

Always remember my love is here
And no matter what I will be here.
I love you and I always have
I love you and always will Remember

I Am Sorry

Danielle I am sorry I messed up
I am sorry that I wasn't what you wanted
I am sorry that we ended
I am sorry that I did most things wrong

I am sorry I didn't think of you
I am sorry that I didn't help you like I should
I am sorry that I am not your man

Danielle I love you so
I just wish it would show
I wish you would forgive me
I wish you would give me another try
I wish that we could be together forever
Cause baby I want you for eternity

Danielle I am sorry that I didn't live up to your expectations
I am sorry that I have taken my anger out on you
I am sorry that I keep getting jealous
But, baby anyone would be lucky to be with you

Danielle you are the sun in my sky
Every breath I take
You are the stars in my sky
You are the reason for living, crying, laughing and dying
You are an angel sent to earth
You are the reason my heart keeps beatin

I beat myself up every day,
For everything I have done wrong
I just wish you would see, that my love for you is strong
It hurts to know the love will never be returned

I wait for the day that will never come,
The day when we can try again
The day that I can show you we can work
The day I can show you we belong together
The day I can show you I am a different man
The day I can show you how I can take care of you

I messed up in so many ways
I should have taken care of you in every way
I should have been that shoulder to cry on
I should have been that person you could talk to
I should have been the guy you could count on

I wish I had paid more attention
I wish I had listened
I wish you would see
How much you mean to me

I wish you could see how much I hurt
No words can describe the pain
That I feel everyday
The pain of crying myself to sleep
The pain of thinking of you every minute of every day
The pain of just wanting you

Every time I see your smile
I brighten my day by a mile
Every time we hug
I am the happiest man alive

When I see your shining face
I know how lucky I am to know you
I know how honored I am to know you

I thank god everyday for meeting you
I just wish things were the same
I wish you would love me
I wish that you could forgive me
I wish you could let go of yesterday and give me the chance

Danielle, I don't know much
But I know I love you
I know I care about you
Please remember this
And your beautiful.

I Am Waiting For This Day To Come

I cherish every moment with you
I worship the ground you walk on
I wonder why we will never work
I think of you every second of every day
I admire your personality
I love the little things you do
I think of a day that will never come
That I will be in your arms forever more
That me and you live happily ever after
Where me and you are happy
I think of this day that will never come
And wonder why I hurts so much
I wonder why it hurts me so much
To see you with somebody new
I wonder why you don't love me anymore
I wonder why you run and hide
When I say I love you
I am waiting for this day to come when I know it won't
I am waiting for the day that we are together again
But it hurts know that it will never happen

I am waiting for this day and I hope it comes soon.
I am waiting for this day and it will never come
I am waiting for the day you love me again.
I am waiting for the day that you feel the same way as before
I am waiting for the day that you need me like I need you
I am waiting

I'M Sorry (Dedicated To Danielle)

I'm Sorry for everything,
I am sorry I screwed up,
Sorry I brought you into it by saying I didn't want to live,
I'm sorry for calling your friend an idiot
I'm sorry I hurt you
I'm sorry I was never there,
I'm sorry I made you feel like you couldn't count on me,
I'm Sorry
I'm sorry if I made one tear fall down the beautiful cheeks
I'm sorry if I made one tear come out of those beautiful eyes
But most of all I'm sorry.

The Anger In Me

This ill temper I have is making me mad
I blow up and I don't know why
I wish for just a moment I could handle my anger right
I wish for just a moment I could love you right
I wish my attitude would just go away
I wish my anger would stay at bay
This outlook I have on life needs to change
This outlook I have you needs to say the same
I love you deep down inside
I wish you would see
That you're the only princess for me

The anger I have deep in side
Comes out when I least expect it
This anger I have in me should just go away
This anger I have is an annoyance
This anger I have has messed my life up
This anger I have is stupid
Anger you have messed up my marriage
Anger you have messed up my life
Anger you have destroyed who I am inside and out
Anger you are the devil
Anger you are all that is bad
This anger I have in me has made me fight
A fight that was not worth it

Anger you made me hit the wrong person
Anger you made me do the wrong things
Anger you are the feeling that I would never miss
Anger you have caused me so much sorrow
Anger you have caused nothing but grief.
Anger just go away

The Girl Of My Dreams

I met the girl of my dreams
I held her, I love her, but that wasn't a dream
She made me feel so special inside
Now I feel like a failure inside

The girl of my dreams was so pretty and pure
The girl of my dreams was so perfect
The girl in my dreams is everything I want
The girl in my dreams is everything that is right
The girl in my dreams talked with me
The girl in my dreams is named Dee
The girl in my dreams showed me who I am
The girl in my dreams showed me what love is
The girl in my dreams showed me how to love
The girl in my dreams I love so much

The girl of my dreams I love you so
The girl of my dreams I hate that you let go
The girl of my dreams you are so rare
The girl of my dreams you for me

The girl of my dreams without life doesn't seem right
The girl of my dreams without you why put up the fight
The girl of my dreams without you I am not whole
The girl of my dreams without you I feel like I am in a hole.
The girl of my dreams, you are for me
The girl of my dreams is Dee.

This Feeling

I have this feeling deep down in side
I have this feeling that is so hard to hide
This feeling I have hurts me every day
Its feels that you are no one cares
The one I thought cared about me doesn't
All they do is hide
This feeling I have won't let me cry
This feeling that I have is tearing me apart

This feeling of being away from the one I love
Hurts me so very much
This feeling that I cannot come home
Hurts me every second
This feeling that I have will not go away
I think this feeling is here to stay
The things you do give me this feeling of hurt
By telling me I am nothing but dirt
This feeling that I get when I am by your side
Seems to be the brightest thing in the night

This feeling that I get when I hold you close
Is the most wonderful feeling that I could ever boast.
This feeling I get when I look in to your eyes
Is this feeling of a big despise
Not from me to you, but from you to me
This feeling make me hurt inside
This feeling that you don't love me
Makes me wanna cry
But this feeling will not hold my head up high
This feeling just makes me wanna die

I wish this feeling would just go away
But this feeling I have just grows stronger
With every day that passes
This feeling I have in side is making me lie
To the person whom you can tell no lies
I have lied to myself so many times
That this feeling I have is wrong
That this feeling I have is stupid

But the actions you do
Show me that this feeling is true

I wish this feeling would be proven wrong
I wish that this feeling could be long gone.
This feeling I have deep down in side
Is this feeling of wanting you
Is this feeling deep down in side from all the pain
I wish I knew where this feeling came from
But all I know is I have this feeling.

Why Must It End Like This?

Why must it end like this
With all of our dreams thrown away
I wish you would grow up and see
That the one who really loves you is me
Why must it end like this with our love just thrown away
For some guy that you know even know
Why must you make me hurt
When all I wanted us to do was work
I have tried so hard to do just that
But after all that why must it end like this

We shared those special moments
We shared those special times
Why must it end with some guy from the net
Why must it end like this
Why must you hurt me so bad
When the one that loves you was standing right here
You will never know the love I have for you
You will never know how much I care
Why must it end like this

Why must our love just die right here
Why must our love just go away
I wish you would see, that the one who loves you is me
This guy doesn't love you
This guy doesn't care
No one will love you more than I do
No one else will come close
Why must it end like this
