I moved to Petersburg when I was about 4 or 5 and lived here ever since.

Alone In The Night

I imagine how it would be if I were up there with no air
All alone in the night
The stars makes it bright
And brings back my sight
While I'm all alone in the night

Beefs

She doesn't like you and you dont like you
But doesthat really matter?
Why cant we all get along
Why do we always judge and prejudge
But dont like when it's done to us
Beefs will never get saltied until you swash it
Give up your grudges
Because it isnt beef it's jealousy

Curiosity

I always want to know stuff
I need to know why butterflies float, birds fly
But why
Why cant we fly
The only one who knows is the lord

Deaths Flow

As the wind blows the dust goes
Looking at the dust am I?
Is it a body before my eyes?
Deaths flow never lies,
It conquers souls
that'll never grow to see the daylight of the next days flow

Drama

What I feel about drama is that it never ends
And that when you try to stay away from it that it'll always get there faster
I dont like drama but it likes me so buckle your seat belt good because and journey's about to begin

Getting To Know You

When I first saw you I thought you were just another kid
But as I got to know you I began to see more
I may have just gotten to know you know you but I feel as if I've known you
I know that you've been through alot
And that you may not want to talk about it
But what I have to say is That you've shown that your a strong and forgiving
And that getting to know what I've already known

Give It Away

Give your love away is what they say
Give your heart to one is what you may Give your love to him he'll stay
Give your body to no one father say
But of I feel I should I,
If I feel it's time could I
No, give your body to the lord and you shall stay purified should I
Why cant I give him my all I ask
Why cant I be his all I say
Why should I make him give me his life
If yet he doesn't have mine
Father says because his lust is cruel and he's a fool
I say father we're married were one
I'll give him my life because I only have one
. . . . .
I love you father but I must go,
Go to the towers of my love and tell him of ye T love you father but I must

Innocent

A killer can win a war
But does that prove his innocence
You can take something thats not yours and not get caught Does that prove your innocence
No No it doesn't
It just proves how sneaky you are

Is It Love?

Do you know what real love is?

How do you know if your in live with someone?

When you kiss himdo you feel a spark?

Do you let your mind leave when yuor around him?

Does he do everything right?

Is he your Mr. Perfect?

No, love is what you'll never know ifit's love until you have experienced love

jordan sampson

Life

life will never let you know when a wrong turn is coming until its there You'll never know truly where you belong until your there You'll never know your place until your in it

jordan sampson

Me

I am luxury

I am one of a kind

I am glorious, victorious am I

Beautiful on the inside gorgeous on the outside

jordan sampson

One Of A Kind

His smile glitter in the sun
His eyes sparkle through the night
His skin is as soft as a cloudfloating in the sky
His voice is as calm as the ocean on a breezy day
His walk is as smooth as a woman's skin
He is as graceful as the midnight sky
His posture is confident
His words are powerful
He is one of a kind

The Dove

It flutters,
It chirps,
As it's blue eyes surf the sky
It flutters,
It chirps,
Get ready for take off
And away it goes unto the sun as it rise bye dove bye

jordan sampson

The Dream

As I lye asleep my mind is wide awake
As I toss and turn my mind takes me away
In space am I floating about Flipping upside down
Being tossed round and round
Where am I going I say
The dream is taking me away

jordan sampson

The Naked Wall

As I am sitting on my bed looking at my wall
Just starin at it with the sound of a empty room
Nothing just white and I ask myself why is there nothing there
Where is the color
But I get no answer
so
I just sit in my room with a naked wall

jordan sampson

The One

How would you ever know if he is the one
Because he tells you that he loves you,
Because he says that you is everything
How will you ever know that what he says is sincere?
Is it the way you feel about him
You'll never know truly unless he stuck with you through all the bad times Unless he does things out of love and truly cares about you
Then you'll know truly
That he's the one

jordan sampson

The Shallow Tree

It sits beside a rusted nut
It yet to feel the breeze
It never grows or give leaves hope
It feels as if it's not even there
As if there is no breeze
But as the years go by and by
It still yet survives
Because everything has a heart
That strives and strives
Once you thought of a shallow tree
The shallow tree is me

jordan sampson

Trif

I never knew what people you love could do and would do to you
But there is always a time to find out
Now I know that you cant trust your own family members with your own life
The one time when they show you their true colors you will never think the same of them

Why I Do

He is the light of my life
I wouldn't be here right now if he wont here
I do not kno where i would be if he wont here
Thats why i do
