im decinated to all humanity

Shes All I Ever Wanted But Also What Ruined Me i crave her every moment of the day a smile to make this pain disapate forever yours in the holy grail never to forget your smile a sile that engraves a grin on my face and takes me to that special place another day

another fight let me take you to thie light and love me when the morning comes when morning comes i will awake to look at her with dazzeling fate i sprinkle sunshine on her eyes her love is all i need
