Juan Manuel Pena(03/08/1989)

Hey Guys...well I'm 18 years old..And I just graduated from James Pace High School. I like to go out for fun and sometimes write poems..as you can tell. I haven't written in quite a while but I plan to start again. If you have any questions or want to chat..i'm on

Days Go By

Days go by...and still I think of yo 11 months it's been Since you left me and threw away my heart
I hate going on everyday without you
I hate not having you there by my side
I never thought my life would be so miserable without you
There has hardly ever been a day
That the memory of you and me crosses my mind
What should have been?
What could have been?
I guess we'll never find out
I don't know what I did to you
What I did for you to leave me and my heart
Bitter, cold and empty
I went through anything and everything for you
I did what I had never done with any other person
I did anything you wanted me to
I was faithful and truthful to you
But now I see that it wasn't enough for you
Forever..Is what you always said to me
Well I guess forever was to long for you
I never understood why you left me..
You left me when I was at my worst
And now I'm miserable without you
Feeling as if I've been cursed
All I ask myself everday is...why?
As days go by
I also began to feel thankful
Thankful to have been given a chance to love
To know what love is, and to be loved by you
Even If it was for a short amount of time
My love is neverending
As days go by....I'll always be here thinking of you.....

I Can'T Stop Thinking Of You

I can't stop thinking of you
Day and night, Rain or Shine, You're all I think about
I stay up every night thinking of you
And wonder if you're doing the same
.....i cant stop thinking of you
I thank god everyday for sending you to me
Your like an angel from heaven that fell into my arms
The minutes without you turned into days,
And the seconds with you flew fast.
I could only wish to see you more,
And make each moment last
As the days go by
I feel our friendship getting closer and closer
I don't know if you feel the same way I do
But all I can say to you is
I Like You, and I cant stop thinking of you

I Wonder

As I sit here and watch the cold hard rain beat down
Upon the roads of night black tar
I begin thinking, and remembering of the past
Of you, and how you are doing
I think of how your life is going
And of how we ended up
As the cold hard rain beats down
I wonder what could have been...
What should have been
I begin to recall those hot summer days I spent with you
Of the day we first met and I caught a glimpse of you
From the moment we met
From the moment we kissed
I've dreamt about you every night
My mind recalls your beauty and your love
My soul is engulfed by the love you gave me
Of the joy you gave me
If i could just hold you one more time
Or just to simply hear you speak or see you smile
I wonder if it'll take this pain in my heart away
As the cold hard rain beats down on me
I wonder why I'm so haunted by these memories
....I wonder...Do you also think of me?

I'll Never Forget You

I'll never forget you
I would do anything just to see you one last time
Just one last time where I could hold you in my arms and look deep into your beautiful eyes
And tell you how much I'm going to miss you
One last time that I could see your beautiful smile
One last time to feel your lips touch mine
It's so hard for me to say goodbye
I wished this moment would never come
I prayed every night, hoping that my worst fear wouldn't come true
But as the day that you leave gets closer
I know that my prayers have gone unanswered
It's hard to believe that you'll be leaving soon
A person that brought so much joy to my life
A person that made everything seem so perfect
Is just gone in an instant
I'll never forget you
We started as friends
Talking everyday, for hours at a time
And in all that time
I'd never thought I would fall so mad for you
You're the angel that stole my heart
And I hope you know that my heart will always be with you, no matter where you are
So I'll say goodbye for now, or maybe forever
And I'll pray every night hoping that you'll come back
But before you go I just want you to know that I'll never forget the way you looked at me with your beautiful eyes
I'll never forget the way you made me feel when I was down
I'll never forget the way it felt when I had you in my arms
I'll never forget the softness of your touch
I'll never forget the way you smiled at me
I'll never forget your beautiful dimples
I'll never forget the way you said good night
I'll never forget your sweet voice
But most of all
I'll never ever forget you even if we never see each other again you'll always have a place in my heart

I'll carry you with me everywhere and we'll never be apart
Goodbye..... I'll never forget you

I'M Sorry I Didn'T

Why do I keep denying it?
Why can't I just accept the truth?
Why do I always walk away?
I'm sorry I never followed through
I'm sorry I never took the chance
I had you at arms reach, and I let you go
I cant change the past, and it hurts
Its hard to forget those past memories
That just makes me cry
I could have had you....
I'm sorry I never followed through
I've turned my back on you more than once
If you ever wonder why,
I don't know what I'll say
But the truth is I never stopped loving you
I thought of you each and every day
My feelings for you will never change
Why do I keep denying it?
Why cant I follow through
Why didn't I ever take the chance?
.....You're my best friend....
I just wish it would be so much more.

In The Dark

I sit here in the dark
Just feeling my life slip away
So cold, so empty i feel
I never thought it would come to this
I just feel so unwanted
No one loves me
My world, my life, my everything
Has left me to face this world without her
My days and nights have ever felt so cold and empty
There is no one left in this world for me
Thats how it feels without her beside me...

Just A Friend

Days, months, years have gone by You've come and gone in and out of my life
But you've always remained in my heart
With open arms I welcome you back in my life
For I cant even begin think of my life without you in it
I just wish you knew the truth that was eating away at my heart
You don't know how hard it is
For me not able to say the truth
To see each and every day pass
Sitting here, dreaming and wishing you were mine
I often think...can this be it?
Is this all we can be?
I truly wish we can be so much more
I've always dreamed of finding someone like you You're all I could have ever asked for And you're all I ever think about
I hope you never go away.
It was so selfish.....
How it made me jealous the way you loved that other guy
I wish you would love me to
I sometimes feel so helpless
I feel that all my love
Just isn't enough for you to be with me
What can I do?
What can I say?
.....nothing
As another day wears down
I begin to close my eyes
And I realize....that to you
I'm just another friend....nothing more
What will happen?
Only time will tell
For now I'll just sit here
Thinking, hoping, and wishing you were mine.

My Angel

Meeting you was a blessing to my heart and soul
You a present from god
An angel that fell right into my arms
You mean so much to me
I know that we were meant to be
I would say its our destiny
Your love is what keeps me alive
And its what makes me.....Me
You are the air I breathe
You are the stars in my night sky
You will and forever be my angel
The angel that will hold the key to my heart
The angel that makes me wake up every morning

Juan Manuel Pena

Not Enough

I can say 'I love you' so many times
But it would never come close
To how i really feel about you in my heart
Its nothing of which any word or poem can explain
Nothing will ever come close to showing you
How i really feel about you
I hope you know that my love for you is true
And that it comes straight from the heart
And it is not something from out of the dark
..... I love you with all my heart

What To Do?

What can I do
What can I say
How can I say it
It's more like I can't do it I can't say it
There are so many things I would like to say
I feel like a bomb waiting to explode
I feel bad that we can only be friends
Sometimes I truly wish we can be so much more
I know deep inside we can't ever be
No matter how much it hurts me
Knowing the fact that we can never be together
What can I do to make this pain go away
What can I say to you so it won't ruin our friendship
This crush is killing me inside because I know it's wrong
But yet you still pull me into you over and over again
I can think of many reasons why we can't be
But there are also reasons that we should be What could Be?
What should Be?
What will happen?
I doubt we'll ever find out
Until then I'll keep my word to you
I'll always be here somehow somehow
I'm You're a friend for life no matter what happens
I'll be you're guardian angel. Alive or Dead
I'll always be beside you
What can I say
What can we do?
Only Time will tell...Until then
I will cherish what we have now....Our Everlasting Friendship

When Im With You

Its hard to explain the way I feel when im with you
Nothing can ever come close to describing it
You're the only person in the world that makes my heart beat faster and slower at the same time
Ever since the first time I kissed you
Ive dreamt about you every night
Sometimes I wish that I would never wake up
Just to be with you in my dreams
When I hold you near
I know that I have an angel in my arms
I feel like im being lifted into the heavens above
.....I wish that moment would never end your smile takes me away from this hateful place it feels like heaven
when i see your face
When I look at you
I see a beautiful angel with a bright smile whispering my name
I always dreamed I would find a person like you
I thank god every night for sending you to me
For there isn't a feeling that i would want more in the world
Than the one I feel when i'm with you
