fishes swimming i see also birds flying free trees swaying carelessly and flowers blooming so pretty such beauty in front of me i wasn't able to see all because of one thing a boy, so it seems a long time i have spent to pretend? i just can't i used to show off a smile then everything changes in a while why did i have to see him?

why did i cry for him?
questions that will never be answered is this for real? i've wondered but then, now i know what to do, and where to go he's just a nobody, i say i'll forget him, one day so i've already decided i'll do what i've always wanted i'll leave and let him be i'll be happy without him, he'll see

P.S. if any of you would like to give a title, please free to do so.. thank you...

Julia Pascual

sooner or later we'll have to part it's now or never for this pained heart few months to go the end is near shall i let you know shall i let you hear of course i won't i'll hide it til the end to spill please don't i must pretend what's the use if i were to tell if i would choose to ring the bell for if i tell you now it's already too late will you tell me how to change one's fate

all will be gone in just a short while all the tears and fun the pains and smile

so if i would show this feeling inside it can never grow so i should just hide in less than a year we'll wave goodbye the moment i fear the moment i'll cry though i'm really sorry i still won't tell you just please let me be i can't say what's true can you not feel?

i love you so but what's real you can never know can you not see?

i love you so but i can only only let you go...

Julia Pascual

~~~~goodbye to be frank i'm tired so many times i've tried to tell you i'm sick silly me so weak to be clear i'm done memories be gone to be short i quit you and i don't fit

my last quote i'll cry cause this is GOODBYE

Julia Pascual

~~~i Wish... I Hope...~~~

i know
that someday someone will be there

i know that one day true love will find me

i hope in that day you'll be there with me

i hope that it's you who will stay with me

i wish that it's you
stand by me

i wish it'll be you to care and love me

my last day
i hope to see you

my last hour
i wish to hold you

my last breath i want to love you...

Julia Pascual

~~not Now... Nor Tomorrow...~~ a day, a month, a year or so no time can ever measure how this love will grow endless, infinite, continuous or so no word can ever describe how i love you so today, tomorrow, and the day after no day can ever let me stop feeling this love fever not time nor words can ever tell no statements no actions can ring the bell

i'll love you not now nor tomorrow

i'll love you not next month nor the month after

not this year nor the decade after

i'll love you not until i grow nor until i'm old

oh baby...

not until i die... but until forever...

definitely until FOREVER...

Julia Pascual

~rather~

I don't want to just BE in love with you Rather, I want to STAY in love with you...

be with you NOW Rather, I want to be with you FOREVER

I don't want to hold your HAND Rather, I want to hold your HEART

I don't want to SLEEP beside you Rather, I want to DIE beside you...

I don't like the image of YOU and ME Rather, I love the view of US...

I LOVE YOU
=D

Julia Pascual

~run~

I should run away from you I should run
from what's true

I must go on now i see I must move on set you free

I have to go the other way
not to stay

I want to run
But why can't I?
I need to run why, oh why?

I need to leave but it won't let me
I have to leave! !
stupid gravity...

Julia Pascual

~~sorry~~

The way you
Tease me
Without any reason Without any cause
And quickly say sorry
When I'm already angry

The way you
Criticize me
What I wear
What I do
And tell me the truth
Though it's not that good

The way you
Feed me
Your teachings
Your words of wisdom
And then also let me
Feed you with reality

The way you
Cheer me up
At times I'm troubled
At times I'm falling
Then you'd let me stand While giving me a hand

The way you
Cherish me
As your close friend
As your special companion
Then you'd make me feel That what you are is real

The way you do this
The way you do that Those are just few
Of what I miss

Few things that make me
Want to go back To the time when We were still FRIENDS
When you and me
Were still HAPPY....

SORRY...

Julia Pascual

~~speak To Me~~

HAPPINESS be my deepest SORROW
please tell me is there still a tomorrow?

strong WALL be the one to let me FALL answer me can you feel me at all?

OXYGEN
be the one to let me DIE tell me now can you see me cry?

LOVE
be the one to break this HEART
oh please reply!
were we really meant to part?

~~waiting~~

I'll just sit Plus wait
Be patient
Nothing else

I'll just stay Trust fate
Oh time! Be
By my side

I'll be here
Till when?
Till you say
"You are mine..."

Julia Pascual

~the Biggest Challenge~~

i'll ever do.. is to pretend that i don't see you, to act tough in front of you, and to not notice what you do...

A mere disguise
i have worn.. to cover up what is torn, a smile given to deceive other's feelings i must conceive...

Before myself,
i put others.. what they say are all that matters, whether i'm hurt is not an issue what they feel is what i value...

I will continue on pretending until they're gone all my feelings then i'll come clean once it is through i'll admit to you i once loved you...

Julia Pascual

1000 Times

1000 times i've thought 1000 times i've pondered finding an easy way to end this endless sorrow

1000 times i've cried 1000 times i've pretended that i don't give a damn that i'm not affected

1000 times i've run away 1000 times i've escaped from my own doings from my very own self

1000 times i've decided 1000 times i've wanted to kneel down and beg to be forgiven by you

1000 times i've tried to say sorry 1000 times i have failed so i'll try again 1000 times for sure...

A Late Greeting For The New Year

Today is the right time to set things straight, Today is the right time to make things clear.
Take all the love and throw all the hate,
For this is the start of a new year...

A new year is a new beginning,
A second chance? Yes, for me it is.
So take that chance and start mending,
All the pain and hardship there is...

You must forgive, also forget.
Learn to love and be loved by some.
Every move you must not regret,
Your happiness is yet to come...

Let go of those who do not want you,
Take in those who've protected your heart.
Let go of those not worth holding onto,
To give some space for those people who are...

Be kind to everybody,
But only trust a few.
When hurt by somebody,
Stand up and start anew...

You must be brave when trials are near Backing down is never an option
You must not waver, and do not fear,
Do not wander into oblivion...

This humble poem was made for all of you,
To let you know you are appreciated.
Thank you for all the things you do,
For the memories we've created...

Let us remember moments that made us smile,
Let us forget memories that brought us tears.
Let us all bid the last year goodbye,
And gladly welcome this new year...

This is me saying thank you for the times,
Please be with me again in this new year...

A Senseless Write

I tried writing something...
But I can't think of anything to write...

I tried reading a book...
But it's not me to read a book...

I tried listening to music...
But my ears can't hear anything...

That's when I realized...
Things I never realized before...

That I only write if it's about you...

That I only read if there's you in it...

And I only listen if it's your voice I hear...

Life's just not the same...

Life's just so useless...

Life's just empty...

If there's no you in it...

Julia Pascual

All Because Of Her

The reason why I look away
The reason why I turn away
The reason why I feel so gray
It's all because of her..

The reason why I've let you down
The reason why I've made you frown
The reason why I want to drown
It's all because of her...

The reason why I broke my promise
The reason why I have no bliss
The reason why everything I miss
It's all because of her...

The reason why I'm always blue
The reason why I haven't been true
The reason why I miss you
It's all because of her...

She is to me, a very close friend
For her, I can easily learn how to bend That's why the reason I'll forever pretend
It's all because of her...

I'd rather be the one who's breaking Than be the one who leaves her aching
So the reason why I'll be departing
It's all because of her...

If I say the truth, I will betray her
So I'll keep this secret until forever
And the reason for this painful sever
It's all because of her...

So the reason why I can't be true
The reason why I must hate you

And the reason why I can't love you
It's all because of her...

It's all because of her...

Julia Pascual

All I Ask From You

All I Ask From You

You know, I've been thinking lately
Maybe I've done something wrong
I've done something to make you hate me Though we've been friends for so long

The tight bond between us I have ruined
I did all things possible to keep you away
Our friendship, because of me was broken Though you have tried your best to stay

You might think of me as someone very selfish Maybe you would say that I think of myself only
The truth is, our memories I will always cherish Believe me, you will always be a part of me

I have always tried to tell you the very reason
But my words never reached your hard heart
My chances for you was only one in a million
That's why I chose for you and me to be apart

Why would I even waste my precious time Loving someone who doesn't even love me back?
Why would I keep forcing myself into something When there is definitely no space for me to stay in?

Keeping our friendship as it is would just hurt me
'Cause I can't be a friend to somebody I love
So please, just let my decision be as it should be Don't make me wait for something I will never have

As long as my wound from loving you is still fresh
I know that the best way is for me to stay away
And I'll keep it that way until my feelings would all fade Until then, I hope I won't see you by any means or way

It would be a great help if you'd be cold to me
So that it won't be that difficult to forget you

If only it's possible for you to be my worst enemy
Then leaving you forever will not be that hard to do

All I ask from you for now is time and space to think alone
Let me live a couple of weeks, months, or years without you
By then, I'll be able to know whether I need you in my life or not Whatever the result may be, I'll be the one to let you know

Julia Pascual

All This Time

All this time

All this time
I made myself believe In something not true
In something not real

All this time
I kept myself hiding
From something that is true
From something that is real

All this time
I knew the whole story
But I'm such a coward Running away, far far away

All this time
I shouldn't have stayed
For it only scarred me inside
For it only hurt my pride

All this time
I knew what was going on
But I closed my eyes
Yes, I just closed my eyes

All this time
I knew you don't love me
But I pretended not to know
'Cause I just don't want to go

Julia Pascual

Another Day...

Another day... comes by...
The same ritual...
Same habits done...

Another day...
goes by...
Still nothing... still dreaming...

Another day...
one more for me...
But I'm still here...
Doing things unclear...

Why do I do this?
How about that?
Why don't I feel this?
Same is true with that?

Questions today... up until tomorrow... queries until forever...
But answers? ? never...

So another day... will pass by...
And I'm still here...
Still waiting...

For something...
For someone... to unlock my mind... to unblind my eyes...

Julia Pascual

As I Close My Eyes

As I close my eyes...
I see your face your heavenly eyes oh! I'm amazed...

I can imagine you smiling at me... telling me stories... a beautiful scenery...

I can see myself being so happy... very relaxed and calm...
'cause you were with me...

As I close my eyes...
All I see is you...
But when I open them...
All of those... not true...

I wish the eyes could tell What the heart feels inside...
'Cause my eyes can reveal... what my heart tried to hide...

I wish the eyes could show... what is fake and what is true... cause even if I close my eyes...
All I still see is YOU...

Julia Pascual

Assurance

Just relax
Lie down Worry not
And don't frown

And be calm
Don't panic
Touch my palm

I assure you
It'll be fine
Close your eyes
We'll stop time

Until it's over
Then we shall see
The result
Is it you and me?

Julia Pascual

Confessions Of A Broken Person

You used to be the one
My love for all time
But now all of it is gone
You're already not mine

I thought you won't leave me
'Cause that's what you promised
I thought we were meant to be But all of these I missed

Before, I believe in happy endings
But now, all I see is the reality
That all were pains and sufferings
And that there was no more you and me

Tell me, is this my destiny?
Do I deserve this kind of fate?
Why do I feel so empty?
Why do I feel betrayed?

Well maybe I've just got to learn
And learn it the hardest way Everything I've gathered, I've earned
All of those, just thrown away

So now I'll be going away
Even if I don't know where to go now 'Cause I know I'm never meant to stay Still I hope I can survive somehow

Julia Pascual

Confusion

I do not know What I will do
Where I will go
To him or you

Yes he loves me
But I love you
He sees me but
All I see's you

He has it all
Fame, glory, gold
But you have me
Body, heart, soul

He catches me
Each time I fall Cause you let go
Made me hollow

He wipes my tears
Each time I cry
Cause you hurt me
And let me die

I wish I could
Let go of you
And turn to him
And love him too

But how can I
Let go of you
If you have me
And my heart too

How can I lie
To him and you

How can I say Something not true

How can he know
I don't love him
Cause I love you
Yes I love you

And how can I Say this to you
That 'I need you'
And 'I love you'

Julia Pascual

Final Bow

The time has come
For it to be stopped
The time has come
For it to be dropped

The time for it
To be really finished
To be left diminished

The time is now
To leave, turn away
I don't know how
But I will find a way

The clock's ticking
I should now make a move
The boat's sinking
I'm now ready to prove

'Prove what? ' you ask
The answer you shall see Please remove this mask
And go see the real me

Aye, the real me
A sensitive woman
Yes, do you see?
I've been hurt by a man

But now I'm aware Never fall for it again
Everything I can bear
I'll never be broken

Oh no, it's time
I should stop now
Ran out of rhyme
I'll take my final bow

Julia Pascual

For It Won'T Matter Anymore

Don't bother asking me if I'm okay
Don't bother asking me what I want to say

Don't you dare
show me that your guilty
Don't you dare
make me feel that you're sorry

You're just wasting time standing in front of my house You're wasting your time making up soon-to-be broken vows

You'll never make me believe you again
fall for you again

Whatever you say they won't matter anymore Whatever you do
YOU just don't matter anymore..

For You... Who Am I?

For you... Who am I?

For you...

Am I worth talking to?
Or am I worth laughing at?

For you...

Am I someone you can depend?
Or am I someone you just throw away?

For you...

Am I someone you want to protect?
Or am I someone you want to abandon?

For you...

Am I someone you want to be with?
Or am I someone you just want to leave?

For you...

Am I someone worth loving?
Or am I someone worth hurting?

For you...

Am I the kind that you'd take seriously?
Or am I the kind that you'd take half-heartedly?

For you...

Am I to be treated kindly?
Or am I to be treated badly?

For you...

Am I someone priceless?
Or am I someone senseless?

For you...

Am I worth kissing in the rain?
Or am I worth giving much pain?

For you...

Who am I?

Julia Pascual

Force Myself

i force myself by telling me you're not worth it you're not for me...

you're not good good enough to change my mood

you're not real you'll leave me leave me here...

that I cannot I should not and I would not...

yes, i can force myself to stay away to run away...

yes i force myself to stop my cries by telling those stupid stupid lies but can I go on?

can I continue blinding myself staying away from you...

can I really do that? will it be easy not with you? ?
oh, stupid me...

well... i know and i know it well I do love you... but I can never tell...

Julia Pascual

Free My Heart

I don't know how to start,
I don't know what to say,
Expressing my feelings,
Just ruins the day.

I can't even confess.
The words I seem to eat.
Me together with my pride,
Is such a shemeful team.

But then again,
He's also wrong.
Making a fool of me,
For just too long.

I don't know now
If I'll ever believe him.
But even if I won't I'll still stupidly fall for him

See what can happen?
See what love can do?
It can never ever end, even after a decade or two.

Well I hope it's not true love But just a mere infatuation 'Cause I don't want this I don't want such frustration

If loving him will cause me tears
If loving him will only make me bleed
Then I shall stop it right this moment
For my chained heart to be freed

Julia Pascual

Hard To Say

My unforgettable laughs
They were because of you
My devastating cries
The reason was also you

Moments to be treasured
Were when I'm with you Experiences to be thrown Never, there was you

There's a blush on my face Whenever you look at me
There's a tear on my eye
Whenever you ignore me

A bright sun I see
When I'm able to be with you
A dark day for me
When I can't be next to you

I feel very enlightened
When I see you with glee
I carry a heavy burden
When I don't see you happy

My heart jumps with joy
When I feel your presence near My mind thinks so slow
When your voice I can't hear

Different things I feel and do
But all of these just proves me true
My true feelings towards you
So hard to say, 'I love you'

Julia Pascual

Here And Now

Here and Now

It's just not clear to me...
Why I feel this way...
I just can't seem to see...
Why this happens everyday...

At times you're cold...
At times you're hot...
At times you're bold...
At times you're not...

At times you make me angry...
At times you make me sad...
At times you make me happy...
At times you make me glad...

You lift me high...
Then bring me down...
You make me fly...
Then make me frown...

You give me kindness...
Then make me cry...
You give me calmness...
Then tell me lies...

You raise me up...
Then let me fall...
You cheer me up...
Then let me crawl...

You give me glee...
You give me pain...
You set me free...
Then leave me in vain...

You're this and you're that...
My dream and my nightmare...

My bliss and my wrath...
My hymn and my despair...

So let's clear things...
Tell me here, tell me now...
Tell me your genuine feelings...
Were I a part of you somehow?

Julia Pascual

Him and Her...

This is a story of him and her...
One so smart.. and one not that clever...
About him who is so numb...
And about her who is so dumb...

About him who never cared...
And her who never dared...
To show how she feels inside...
To reveal what she couldn't hide...

This is about him who can't love her...
And about her who can't go on further...
About him who doesn't even recognize...
Her doings he always finds time to criticize...

This is a story of a girl being martyr...
For a boy she'll never have near...
A story of a girl who's been deeply injured...
But still the aches and the pains she endured...

This is a story of a girl who's so senseless...
And a boy who seems to be so heartless...
A story of a girl giving almost her everything...
And yet, after all things, she receives nothing...

Yes, this is a story of a one-sided infatuation...
Definitely a story of one-sided admiration...
And to tell, this story is nothing but true...
For this story is about me and you...

Julia Pascual

How I Wish

As my days pass by...
You're still on my mind...
How easy for me to say goodbye...
But I say those things with teary eyes...

Though I forced myself to forget...
My heart won't allow me to...
Yes, you were the reason I smiled...
But you were also the reason I cried...

It wasn't easy to pretend...
Pretend that I'm doing fine...
And still showing a happy face...
When all I wanted was to die...

How I wish I could turn back time...
Rewind it when we were still there...
Go back when you and I collided...
Back when we were 'us'...

How I wish I could be your wall...
So that you'd have someone to lean on...
Or maybe I could be your pillow...
For you to rest on while you sleep...

But wishing won't do me anything...
I could never turn back time...
It'll just give me false hopes...
Dreaming you'd be mine...

So maybe it's time to wake up...
And start to face the consequences...
I've made the wrong decision...
And take in my retribution...

My punishment has never been this hard...
It's really hard for me to bear and stand...
Though it might take a lifetime to get over with...
It would be better to accept that you're gone...

Julia Pascual

I Just Have To Let Go

We Just Have to Let Go

Nothing in this world is permanent
With just a blink everything can change
That's why in every day we should be ready
'Cause we may never know what will come our way

A very loyal dog can even betray its master
Even if it was fed and given a warm shelter
With that, we can never tell whom we can trust Even though you've known each other for a while

Even a friend whom you think will never leave Will find time to put you down and make you cry
And after everything, all you can do is forgive
'Cause he was a part of your life somehow

This is written from the bottom of my heart
'Cause a friend of mine would be leaving tonight Though it's hard for me to understand
I'll just have to accept everything beforehand

This friend of mine was never ordinary
To me, he was a total, lucky charm
'Cause when I'm with him I feel no harm
He makes me realize that I'm very special

But the time came that we have to part
And the reason, I can never understand
He was like a million miles away from me
And I felt that from my heart, he was very far

It really hurt me, and even made me cry rivers
The scar on my heart will take long to heal
For he was never that easy to stay away from
In fact, he was the one that made me feel I was real

Though it's hard to face the truth, we just have to move on And believe that for everyone of us, there's still a tomorrow

We just need to, and have to continue on with our living Though it's never gonna be that easy for us to forget

So when the time a friend of us will have to depart, Let's just smile and wave goodbye as they go Even if it's something that will never be that easy to accept Sometimes, just sometimes, we have to let go of them

Julia Pascual

I May Not Be Smart, But I'M Certainly Not Stupid

When we were together
I thought you were the one
I assumed we'd be forever
I never thought you'd be gone

Then I tried fixing the problem
I tried taking you back
But I realized it's not you that was broken
It was me who can no longer keep on track

You started setting me aside Kept thinking of me as a nuisance
You kept on hurting my pride
To you, I was only a hindrance

But now, it's different I've changed for the better
I'm no longer that fervent I've learned to be more sober

So from now, as I make my decisions
I'll put my head before my heart
I'll make certain of all the choices
This for me is a brand new start

I learned we were meant to part Now things appear to be vivid
I know I'm not that smart
But I'm certainly not that stupid..

Julia Pascual

I Promise... I'll be there...

Whenever you need me
To be by your side

Whenever you need me
To not make you slide

Whenever you need me
To stand tall for you

Whenever you need me
To always stay true

Whenever you need me
To not tell you lies

Whenever you need me
To not give you cries

Whenever you need me
To give you all you need

Whenever you need me
To be a friend indeed

Whenever you need me
To protect and fight for you

And whenever you need me
To be strong and mighty for you

Just remember one thing...

Just call my name... and

I Thank You

I Thank You

It was you who was always there for me
You were my eyes when I couldn't see You took my burdens and made them yours Letting you in my life, I'll never remorse

I'm grateful to spend each day with you
You lifted me up every time I feel so blue
You really know it whenever I'm down
Still, you turn my frown upside down

At first your worth I haven't recognized
But now, I've already come to realize That a life without you, to me would be so sad
So right now, I'm telling you, you make me glad

You were always reaching out for me
Even if I'm wrong, you still stood up for me
I really appreciate every second we're together
And hope we'd never be apart to God the father

I'll take this opportunity to say sorry
For being such an ass and for being so naughty
I won't promise that I won't do them again
But I'll try my best at least to make my sins lessened

You took on your role and did your best at it
You were, for me really someone to beat
You were the reason why I am breathing
You made each and every day worth living

So as I finish what I have started
I just wanted you to know that you're sacred
And for having you, I will never suppress I thank you with all the words my heart can express

This is also to say that I love you so much
And when I say 'so much', I mean 'so much'

This is all written for you my dearest mom Truly, definitely, you are very awesome

Julia Pascual

I'M Not For You

You're telling me you've regretted
And that it's only me in your heart
I'm telling you now not to force me
I don't love you like before anymore

It was all your fault in the first place
You thought I will never leave you But now, you're all alone thinking
How stupid you were to let me go

I never took you for granted
In fact you never cared for me
I never forgot the memories we had The truth is, that fool was you

I continued on loving you While you were busy loving her
I watched the two of you be happy
While I was there, alone and empty

Now you're telling me you're sorry
And you won't betray me again
But now, I'm in the arms of another
And you can never have me again

Honestly, I'm thankful for what you've done
You made me realize something genuine
That I wasn't meant to be with you...
I was meant to be loved and to love him

Julia Pascual

I'M Sorry

I'm Sorry

Yes, you are indeed
A great person
With your true smiles
And unending laughs

Yes, you do make me Feel comfy, and at ease
With the way you talk
And how you treat me

Yes, I'm thankful for you
For always being there
For never leaving me
Oh, I thank you

And really, I'm sorry
For letting you down
For disappointing you Really, I'm sorry

I'm sorry, I'm sorry
For I can't love you
The way you love me
Oh, I'm really sorry

The reason is very clear
And I hope you'll understand Why I can't love you?
It's because I love him

How can I tell you my feelings?
That I don't have feelings for you How can I be in love with you?
If I'm deeply in love with him

How can I see you as you
If all my eyes could see is him

Oh, how can I be with you
If I only want to be with him

I'm really sorry, really sorry
I can no longer pretend Please forgive me, forgive me
I hope we could still be friends

Julia Pascual

I'm Tired

Up until now, I never thought
That I could do something like this But there is only one choice left
And that is to stay away from you

At first, I thought that I could make it
But it's been very long since then Things change, and time lets them to I'm sorry, but this is also for you

This is the best solution I could think of Though it hurts, this is the right thing to do Please understand, I can't get to know you 'Cause it will only deepen the wound within me

It wasn't my intention to fall for you To be honest, I never thought of doing that But I guess, the heart has a mind of its own
It makes decisions when the brain cannot

If only I could take my heart away, I would That's the only way I could forget you
But I can't and even if I can, I'm such a coward
I can't imagine a life without meeting you

Though I have to go away and leave I'm still thankful that our paths crossed To be a part of you is more than I could wish for
To be someone you trust is beyond perfect

I just want to say thank you for everything
You have been my inspiration through the long run
But dear, nothing lasts forever, they say Even a thing that makes you happy can make you cry

Aside from thank you, I should also say sorry
I never meant for the result to be like this

It's just that this isn't working out for us
We're not lovers, we're not even friends

I'm just someone you met along the way
Someone you never expected in your perfect life
I'm just someone who expects so much from you
And at the end, I'm someone who gets disappointed

I guess it's just the time for me to face the truth
After all the love and care I have offered
You still wouldn't be contented with just 'me'
It's now that I have realized, I'm tired

I'm tired of always giving, but not taking any Tired of running and running to get your needs
I've realized every little damn thing just now Simply, we were just, not destined to be

In Her Eyes

In her eyes
he was the hero of heroes he lifted her up took away her sorrows

in her eyes
there was no one but him he was the only one the man of her dreams

in her eyes he loved her she was sure of it no one can fit her better but her eyes they have deceived her he was nothing but a lie she was nothing but a stranger now her heart is battling with valour to convince her eyes that he is no more...

Irreconcilable

Irreconcilable

Irreconcilable...

A very complex word to describe How something broken can't be unbroken
How something done can't be undone
How something said can't be unsaid

Irreconcilable...

A word used in conversations
When someone was severely hurt
When someone was deeply wounded
When someone was badly betrayed

Irreconcilable...

A word with the same meaning
As something unforgivable
As something unbearable
As something unacceptable

Irreconcilable...

A word commonly said
When something can't be repaired
When something can't be brought back When something can't be fixed

Irreconcilable...

Is the only word I can say
After what you have broken
After what you have done
After what you have said

Irreconcilable...

Is the way I think of you After breaking my heart
After doing hurtful things
After saying brutal words

You are... IRRECONCILABLE

Julia Pascual

Is It Ok?

You were someone I only knew
And I thought you won't be special For me, you won't bring anything new And my life would be the same, boring ritual

But I think I got everything wrong
You made my ruthless life worth living
So now, written in this tuneless song
Are all of my true, endless feelings

Some time after knowing you, I felt strange My impression about you turned to gold from grey
I never expected that for you I would change
And now I even say your name whenever I pray

I will never ever forget the day we met
I ignored you and even rolled my eyes
But now each time I surf the internet
I visit your account and try to send my hi's

Even at school I tend not to notice
But honestly, I know you're every move
Your class schedule and what subjects you miss
And I'm very familiar with your every move

Now I can't continue on pretending 'Cause my feelings grow more and more
I can't go on with my life hiding
I can't be only a friend anymore

So this question I'll ask only once
And can this be between only you and me?
I'll ask this now cause this is the only chance
Is it ok for me to be your one and only?

Julia Pascual

It's All...

Sorry is all
I want to say But they just Won't come out

Sorry is all
I'd like to be But fate just Won't let me be

Sorry is all
I could think of
But my pride just Overcomes me

Sorry is all
That's in my head
But time just won't set me free

Sorry is all
I need to say
To make things Go back to ok

Sorry is all
You need to hear
But I just can't Damn, I just can't

Julia Pascual

It's Just A Matter Of Time

It's Just a Matter of Time

What we had was very extraordinary Memories so precious and dear
But still it really had to end so early I thought I could have you near

I'll be honest to you and to my heart
I loved everything about you
And I never thought we'd be apart
I know that you feel that too

If only I could change the past
I'd do it just to be with my love
And hope it will never ever last But memoirs are all I'll have

So my dear, wherever I'll be going I'll keep my promise that I won't forget
To share with you all my doings
Is something I'll never regret

As I go, I wish to see you smile
And hug me with all your might Though the distance will take miles
I will leave you with no fright

Before the day ends I'll be gone
Take care, be safe and warm
Remember the things for you I have done
And keep yourself away from harm

But still keep your hopes up
It will not at all be too late
My departure is not a reason to stop Someday, we might meet through fate

Whatever the result may be in the end

Neither you, nor me can ring the bell
If you are to be my lover or my friend
No more than time can ever tell

Julia Pascual

It's Time

It's Time...

I guess I've made a choice
I'll be leaving you soon
Besides you won't even notice I'm gone
You didn't even know I'm here

I'm tired of being your support
When all I am to you is an open air
I was never visible to you
I was a nothing to you

You used to be my inspiration
But now I've realized I was used
I was never important to you
And by that, I was only a hindrance

The sacrifices I made were all worthless
You still pretend not to see me
After all that I have done
I'm still the senseless one

Now I know you don't deserve me
You're not worth my tears
I won't let myself be down
In front of you, I'll never frown

So the next time you see me
I'll make sure you'll regret You'll see me happy with someone else
And everything about you I'll forget

July 25...

July 25...

We're already in senior year...
Graduation is almost near...
But leaving would never ache...
For bonds would never break...

Tomorrow until forever...
Forgetting would be never...
And so I'll start reminiscing...
Moments I'll be missing...

July 25 so I say...
That day was 'our day'...
Friendship of ours started...
And never it has ended...

The six of us created a tight rope...
The six of us never loosed hope...
With problems I never fear...
For I know you'd always be here...

Though at times we would fight...
But in hours it'll all be alright...
For our friendship we can't hide...
It's much stronger than pride...

Though our attitudes are not the same...
What we have in common is our aim...
And that is to stand strong 'till the end...
Stand strong and never ever bend...

Few months to go, and we'll be leaving...
But we shall never forget our merry doings...
Our tears of laughter, and tears of sorrow...
The way we lead, and how others follow...

The way we go home together everyday...
And at times we meet trouble along the way...

Just simple things that usually make us laugh...
But when I remember, tears are all I'll have...

Surely saying goodbye is never easy...
For I'm sure I'll miss you, and you'll miss me...
But take in mind that this ain't the end...
This is another start, my dear friends...

So as early as now, I say farewell...
To all of you and I hope you well...
I'll be trying to smile as hard as I can...
As I say 'until we meet again'...

Just When

Just when she thought
That she was right on track
That's when everything fell apart
Her sky turned from blue to black

Just when she had the courage
To stand up to him and confess That's when she came to realization Her feelings, she must suppress

Just when the time was right Fate took a turn for the worse
Her love for him used to be a blessing
Now all it seems to be is a curse

Just when she was ready To tell him of her longing
That's when it all comes to her
It was a mistake she was making

But just when she had given up Fate took another turn
To him she was as important
In his heart, there was no one but her...

-life's Mission-

One's life will never be easy
There'll be troubles believe me
Along the journey there'll be trials
There'll be agreements, also denials

But this one thing's for sure
You must find your mission monsieur
And that mission is to take hold Your greatest love and let it unfold

To find the other half of your soul
Gives you glee beyond your control
A glaring smile will unknowingly glow
When your partner begins to show

Love is the greatest gift to mankind
It's for everyone for them to find So once you've found your true love Never let them go, and give them all you have

Maybe Tomorrow

Maybe tomorrow

The time I'll start
The time you'll know
About this lame heart
Maybe it's tomorrow...

The time I'll make clear
The things you don't know
The things you'd like to hear
Maybe it's tomorrow...

The time I'll be brave
About what you should know
This relationship I will save
Maybe it's tomorrow...

The time I'll be strong
To tell you what I know
So you won't get things wrong
Maybe it's tomorrow...

The time I'll be honest
On what you are to know
For me to pass this test
Maybe it's tomorrow...

The time I'll be true
To what I feel and what I know About me endlessly loving you
Maybe it's tomorrow...

Maybe... just maybe...
I'll tell it tomorrow...

Midnight Dream

I was walking alone
Under a sky so grey Then I heard your calm tone
Ready to sweep me away

You smiled at me
Asked for my name
Made me kinda happy
I felt a bit of shame

You continued with your flirting
I continued with my blushing
You kept on complementing
I felt the temperature rising

Next day we talked for hours
I was definitely a complete mess
Then you knelt, gave me flowers
And asked for my sweet yes

We laughed when we're together
Mourned when we're apart
We believed we are forever
We believed we'd never part

The happiness I felt
Is something I've never felt before Into emptiness I can melt I'm wanting you more and more

Then the night ended Morning came
I felt your presence dreaded
I no longer know your name

They're not what they seem You're not what you appear to be
Was it all just a dream?
But they seemed very real to me...

My Purpose

I used to think I'd get by just fine
I have a nice family, a lot of friends
I did think I needed nothing more
'Til I had to see the beginning in the end

I always thought what I had was enough
Until the day came that I had to think back Am I really satisfied with what I have?
But why do I feel there are things that lack?

There's this longing within me
To have someone else Someone who could save me
Who could make my heart melt

I craved for something Something more than what I had Something beyond any comparison Beyond any doubt I've had

I learned new things Things like faith and trust
I had new perspectives
One is that to believe is a must

I learned that I was selfish
The center of the world is not me
For it is no one but Him
He, who's been looking after me

Now I know I can never get by Without Him by my side
I know I need Him now
And forever, if He wouldn't mind

I was created by Him Not to live my life the way I wanted to
I was created to live my years Upholding His glory in all that I do

I am breathing for one reason Because He wanted me to
It was in his plans for me to see
The fields so green and the sky so blue

There is nothing more I could do
But to give him the praise He deserves
There is nothing more that I could offer
But my body, all of me, down to the nerves

All of me I'm giving back to You Use me in accordance to Your will Make me a tool in upholding Your name
I know my dreams You will make real

To lift everything I am
This I will do
And this will never be enough
But I do hope this can prove You

That I am here
Because of You
And I will stay here
To worship You

I will sing songs about You
I will do works that are good
All that I am is my offering to You
And with that, my purpose has been renewed

Never Again

Never Again

Never again.. will I bother you...
Never again... will I annoy you...

Never again...
will I be a hindrance...
Never again...
will I take a glance...

Never again...
will I make you mad...
Never again... will I make you sad...

AND

Never again... will I cry...
Never again... will I sigh...

Never again...
will I be broken...
Never again... will I be sunken...

Never again... will I look for you...
Never again... will I be blue...

FOR...

Never again.. will I LIKE you...

Never again... will I LOVE you...

Of Both My Dreams And Reality

I've been looking all around
For a guy who'll care for me
A guy to keep me safe and sound
I'll need him and he'll need me

I've been searching near and far For my Mr. Right to come finally I've always been wishing on a star
Asking God - 'please give my man to me'

I've been wandering here and there With hopes that i'll pass him by I've been looking everywhere
Thinking we're both under the same sky

Finally, I was able to see How wonderful things came to be Just standing there in front of me
The man of both my dreams and reality

He is ideal, yet he is also real
He always makes me feel at ease
He gives me blushes, gives me chills He's as cool as the morning breeze

He's the closest thing I have to perfection
And yet he's as down to earth as he can be He does not curse his own reflection
He sees everything so clearly

I adore him with every step of the way
The one I dream of every night is he I yearn for him each and every day
He is the man of both my dreams and reality..

Scars

As the night turns to dawn
She wonders by herself How much longer should it be Till there were no pains left

She stares at the stars
Envyng how they shine
Pityng herself all alone
Over all the lost time

Remorse is what she felt
As she tried to hide her tears
She thought of every moment Collected throughout the years

If she could only redo
That life changing moment
If she could only change
The things she had said

If she can only accept The truth she'd been denying If she can only say yes
To that mutual feeling

But time is irreplaceable
That's what she'd realized
To the feelings she'd been keeping
It was time to say goodbye

And so as the night turns to dawn
She stares alone at the stars
Trying to heal the wounds Wounds that will surely leave scars

Someday You'll Know

Someday You'll Know

I know that you're puzzled right now
But believe me, one day you'll be solved
I know that you're lost right now,
Just have faith, and you'll be found

Though it may seem that I don't care,
Deep inside, I'll be your support
Even if it looks like I hate you Truth is that you're the only one I think of

Maybe to you I'm a hard person
But that's the only thing I could do
To show you that I have no more feelings
Even though all of it is not true

All of my confessions are written here
I just hope that one day you'll realize That everything I'm doing is for you
'Coz I know you don't want me like I want you

I know you think of me as a bad person
But that's because I don't want to be attached
'Coz I know we're only close friends
And we will never go beyond that

So I wish that one day you'll read this
And when that time comes we'll just laugh at it
'Coz everything about it I already forgot
To me, you were just a memory meant to pass

Julia Pascual

Stay The Same

It's been years since the last time we talked We've parted ways since we were young Though we never saw each other since then Our friendship was still tight and unending

And now our paths have crossed again
He's still the same him I met before Same eyes, same cheeks, same smile
But he felt a bit different

It's only that I had known Something that made me surprised
That the boy who's such a brat and spoiled
Is now a man, so modest, and in love

I've never seen such eyes glowing His cheeks, still round, but blushing
And his smile, the same, but with charm
With his appearance, love can be seen

After a few weeks we had the chance to chat
We had a conversation so sensational
He said things I never thought he'd share His heart, though beating, was broken

He told me it was his entire fault
He took her for granted
But now, everything he regretted
He's now ready to ask for forgiveness

Now, the girl asks for space and time
All he could do is to agree to her He'll wait for her until forever
'Cause his love for her will end never

And I'm here sitting, watching

Waiting for the time the girl will realize How much my friend loves her
And how he cares for that lucky girl

All I can say to you dear friend Is just stay the same as you are Never be too weak to quit
Be strong like the tree of hope

Stay as loyal and true as possible
I know that you'll make it through Cause I know that as long as you're in love Waiting will never be that hard to do

Julia Pascual

Tell Me The Truth

Tell Me the Truth

Everytime I look at you
You seem to look at me too
I'm never sure of what I feel But all I know is that it's real

I don't really know the reason Why to me you're one in a million
To me you're my angel, my hero
With you my worries are down to zero

I do wish you feel the same way
'Cause you surely make my day
Though at times I hide this feeling
It doesn't mean I'll go on running

I think I know this feeling that I have I think it's the one called love
But maybe this is just one-sided
To you, I feel I'm nothing but a friend

To be honest, I'm really unsure Beside you, I can feel the intense pressure
When we're together I'm insane
I can feel my blood rushing through my vein

Maybe this is the truth, reality
Or it's just a silly fantasy Whatever way I'm still happy
'Cause even for a while, you were with me

So if ever I would admit that I love you Will you say the same thing too?
Tell me the truth, will you?
Do you love me too?

The Way You Are

The Way You Are

Sometimes you ignore me
Sometimes you roll your eyes
Sometimes you don't notice me
And just give me a deep sigh

Sometimes you make me cry
Sometimes you make me weep Sometimes when I pass by I just give you the creeps

Sometimes you boss me around Sometimes you tell me what to do
Sometimes I go round and round
Just to please and satisfy you

BUT...

Most of the time you make me happy
Most of the time you give me smiles
Most of the time you make me feel uneasy
I can hear my heart beat through miles

Most of the time you raise me up
Most of the time you encourage me
Most of the time you fill me up Fill me up with overflowing glee

Most of the time you hold me tight
Most of the time you lift me up so high
Most of the time you teach me what's right
You make me fly way into the sky

Most of the time you are my support
Most of the time you are my light
Most of the time you give me comfort You help me with all your might Sometimes you make me hate you

Most of the time I just hide it inside
Sometimes you make me want to kill you
But most of the time, I just want you by my side

Sometimes...
Most of the time...
Sometimes...
Most of the time...

That's just the way it is That's just the way you are

But I love the way it is...

And I certainly love...

The way you are

These Feelings We Have...

With the way my head rests on your shoulder
And the way your palm touches my cheek
You convince me that the pain in my life is over You persuade me that it's alright to be weak...

In the way your eyes meet mine while talking
And in the way you stare at me so deep I've always felt that certain longing
That desire I bring with me even to sleep...

With how you caress me each morning as I wake
And with how you tuck me in to bed at night
It seems like I'm willing to put all I have at stake
'Cause I have no doubt that you'll be my knight...

With the way you hug me tight in a gentle way
And the way you kiss my eyes, my nose, and my lips
I always know you're here, though far away
I always feel that this love's for keeps...

In the way you give me chills whenever you say my name
And the way your voice makes my heart pump out of my chest
I can't help but hope that we stay the same
I can't help but wish that we could stand the test...

In the way you say you miss me
And in the way you show your love I'm assured that wherever we may be We'll take these with us, these feelings we have...

To Be Happy

I think I should just let it go
I think that's the best for me
To go back is a big no no
There's nothing left for me...

I think I should just stop There's nothing else to do
I know I can never be on top There's no point to continue...

I think it's not worth the fight
If the other side gives no care Though I've tried with all my might This pain is just something I can't bear...

I've suffered enough
I'm torn into pieces
I'm tired of acting tough
Tired of making excuses...

Pretending is all I've been doing
To convince myself of these lies
But you'll get to see my true feelings
Once you look deeper into my eyes...

Fate is never on my side
It keeps holding me down To oppose it I have tried
But it always takes the crown...

I'm not that stupid
I know when to quit
I'm done being placid
I know when to accept defeat...

I have to take off this disguise Unmask the girl who's been acting fine
It's now time for me to cut our ties
Let go of things that aren't mine...

I know it will not be easy
But I have to set my heart free
It's time for nobody else but me
I think it's time for me to be happy...

When Will This Hardship End?

When Will This Hardship End?

It started when I was a child
Then it continued to grow
This feeling inside of me
It's really hard to show

As I grow up your bad side shows
I really hate it when you scold
It seems like you hate everything
It seems like everything is wrong

I'm always the wrong one And you're always right
Even if I can reason out
You always shut me up

Why do I need to bear this always?
I have had enough already Well I know I can always reject you But why can't I do it to you?

Maybe because you're special to me
Even though I hate you so much
I feel that we have a connection
Though at times I wish you would die

It's really hard to deny the truth
That you have a space in my heart
Even if that space is really small
It doesn't change the fact that you matter

So I think I'll just have to be patient
I'll try my best to be perfect for you But still I can't stop questioning,
When will this hardship end?

I remember the way you kissed me
With such love and passion
I remember the way you looked at me Like we were the only ones in motion

Your kiss made me shiver
It made me feel alive
Your kiss gave me reason
A reason to strive

I want to feel that way again
I want to feel your kiss
I want to be alive again
Won't you make me feel your kiss?
