Love Puppet

Waiting Patiently waiting to hear your voice
But you seem to not care
Made me the one at fault
Just don't understand what you take me for Guess I will keep waiting
For the puppet master to pull the strings
Love puppet that's what I am
All I ever wanted was to be there for you
I'm so sorry I care
Massages flooding my phone just not yours
It seems you can't even keep your words
Ohh puppet master please pull the strings
The one attached to my heart is causing pain
But like a dog I will Patiently wait
I know my tail will swing of joy soon as I hear your voice
My master
I promise not ask further questions
I'll serve you my tongue on a silver platter
My master
The walls have ears cut off mine instead
My master
I'm sorry you too busy for me
I'm sorry there a better dolls than me
It's not your fault I take the blame.

Pull the strings as wish when you need
I'll just dance to your beat.
But for now I'll just sleep.

Dear Alcohol

Dear alcohol I know we not friends
You may not remember but we met back when I was turning 16
I was so young just a kid and didn't know what I was getting into Even though our relationship lasted a weekend with no memories
I must say sometimes I miss you
Actually sometimes I need you.

See it's hard being sober all the time and not being able to fake a smile
It's hard no having plans for the weekend
So I chill with my demons instead
Sometimes I wish I could have the genuine laugh even if it's just for a night
Or live life to the fullest yes for just that night
Sometimes I wish I could really express my mind
I thought that, I will master in time.

The pressure on my shoulders is pulling me down
I'm not asking for much I just need you for a night
Can you be by my side
I will consume you with pride
I hope I'm not late cause my peers started with you a long time

I know you have a friend who can also numb the pain
His name is drugs
I'm so scared to approach him cause I might lose my mind
And I heard he is addictive
But I have a family waiting for me to provide

I hope I'm not asking for much
Just a little time with you is all I require

Let's numb this feelings together faster than McGuire
Did I tell you I'm a musician maybe we can open a choir

Look Im dying inside
I'm in desperate need of your help
I know it ain't fair but life ain't fair
I've kneeled and still didn't help
But with you I know there will me a difference
Stop saying I don't wanna do this

Cause I'm ready
If it ain't good for me it might be good with me
You sound like millionnaires saying money don't buy happiness
Ohh alcohol I'm practically begging you
I can't do this on my own
Nobody is calling on my phone
Unless of cause they need something from my hell
One weekend is all I ask and I will be off your back

The little time I will Spend with you
I will have a deep
Conversation on how you complete me threw the night

Honestly being unique is not worth it
I also wanna go out like other kids
The future is nothing to look forward to
This room is a slow poison killing me
Save me
Save me
Save me
I'm the villain in this movie
If I overdose take me with.

They Love You When You Gone

They Love You When You're Gone
They Don't Appreciate Your Worth
When You're Still Alive
They Don't Even Call To Check
If You're Still Managing To Survive
They Start Putting You
On Their Profile Pictures
When You Time Of Death Arrives
This Cuts Me Deeper Than Knives
Suicide Has Taken So Many Lives
And Yet We Still Don't Check Up On People
We Care About The Most
Until They Die And Their Memories
Haunt Us Like A Ghost

They Don't Check
On How You're Doing So Far
When You're Still Alive
They'll Be On Their Phones Not Realizing
How Depressed You're
Or How Deep Your Heart Is Torn
They Love You When You're Gone
And Be like I was with him/her the other day
He/sher Seemed Okay
They only miss your presence
When you pass Away
That's When They Start Having So much to say
And yet when you were still alive
Your worth couldn't make them pray
And Your value
couldnt make them stay

In Your Lifetime
Only A Few People Will Check On You
While Some Turn Their Back On You

It's Sad That A Lot Of People

Claim That They Care For You
But In Your Time Of Darkness
Most Of Them Ain't Here For You
They Say
They'll Always Be In Your Corner
But when its time to fight your demons
They ain't there to cheer for you
They love you when you're gone
That when they start
to shed a tear for you
Writing "I'll Always Love You And Rest In Peace" In Their Captions
But When You Were Still Alive
&"I Love You" Was More In Their Words
More Than Their Actions

They Love You When You're Born
After Years Pass
They Love You When You're Gone
We Hide In Pride
And Yet We Cry To Heal
While Some Turn Their Back On You

Claim That They Care For You
But In Your Time Of Darkness
Most Of Them Ain't Here For You
They Say
They'll Always Be In Your Corner
But when its time to fight your demons
They aint there to cheer for you
They love you when you'te gone
That when they start
to shed a tear for you
Writing I'll Always Love You And Rest In
Peace" In Their Captions
But When You Were Still Alive
&"I Love You" Was More In Their Words
More Than Their Actions
They'll wish you rest in peach
But never wished you'll live in peace

No Title

I write this with no feelings or such
No intentions and showing no expressions
With no one in particular not even myself articular

I'm looking for no impressions as I try to compel my perfect imperfections
Wrote so much but never reached the end like revelations

I'm broken you know that I'm lost you see that I'm shattered you'll never bare that I stare at my broken reflection in an ocean
But as soon as I tried to squeeze that face
It slipped right into my fingers
Palms wet
I wipe my face and wear the fake smile
Walk out crying but nobody sees it
I told you I'm like an open book with no words
I feel transparent
Nobody can see me,
See inside of me
But they see what's behind and upfront of me
But never me
I realise now
Just because I'm alive doesn't mean I exist.

21 years tryna live a better life
They said I'm the CEO of my life
But why do i feel like i need a promotion in life
I'm fooling myself right?
I mean you all over me bro

The truth is in the eyes right?
I never blink and you'll never see that Don't be fooled by that wink
Tears are never falling I'm scared to see myself cry
I don't want to feel pity for myself as I don't want anyone to feel pity for me

My bones are the only things I've never broke

But what's inside of me... huh
That's a story for another day

I appreciate life as it and adapt
But that doesn't mean suicidal thoughts never cross my mind
I look into my eyes and see nothing
I must be blind

I'm too good to be true
The reason I lost a girl I wanted to make my wife
I'm easy to remember and easier to forget
If I sometimes cross your mind
It means you also forgot about me

I always tell the naked truth
But my readers always find something to dress it with I've been crying for help since the day I started writing
You've been listening without reading between the lines
You'll never find anything in my eyes
Unless you can read the facial expressions I demise.

Love Pains

Lord made me feel love,
Feel loved.
Made me close to a girl
Just to make me see through the pain of her open wounds.
Tears with toxic acids
Painting a smile to her cheeks
It was nice for a moment
Like feeling the warmth of the breasts
Just to be fed sour milk
Pain in the eyes of the beholder denied being unnoticed even by the blink

I never spoke
Yet my words carried a lot of weight
I just couldn't spit them,
Set them free
The weight/wait was too much
Our ship sank
when she fled the scene
Wished it was a prank

My chest beats of absent sounds
Love was like salt in water
Dissolved and left a bitter taste
This was not a story to be written
As It exists in the previous page
This was just a cut and paste

There is no place that memory would not follow
Our long passed time captured in my brains
A slave i wish not to release.
